(a) The taxable valuation of the elementary district which has its trustees placed on the high school trustees shall be divided by the number of positions on the trustees of such elementary district to determine the taxable valuation per trustee position.

(b) The taxable valuation used for the calculation in subsection (2)(a) above shall be subtracted from the taxable valuation of the high school district to determine the taxable valuation of the territory of the high school district without representation on the high school district trustees.

(c) The taxable valuation determined in subsection (2)(b) above shall be divided by the taxable valuation per trustee position calculated in subsection (2)(a) above. The resulting quotient shall be rounded off to the nearest whole number.

(3) The number determined in subsection (2)(c) above shall be the number of additional trustee positions, except that the number of additional trustee positions shall not exceed four in a first- or second-class high school district or two in a third-class high school district except when two-thirds or more of the high school enrollment of the high school district and two-thirds or more of the taxable valuation of the high school district are located outside of the elementary district which has its trustees placed on the high school district trustees. When this situation exists, three additional trustees shall be elected from the elementary school districts where the high school is not located and one additional trustee shall be elected at large in the high school district.

History: En. 75-5903 by Sec. 32, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 328, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 75-5903.

(1) After the county superintendent has determined the number of additional trustee positions, he shall establish trustee nominating districts in that portion of the high school district without representation on the high school trustees. There shall be one trustee nominating district for each additional trustee position, except the additional trustee-at-large. Unless it is impossible, the trustee nominating district boundaries shall be coterminous with elementary district boundaries.

(2) The purpose of the trustee nominating district shall be to establish a representative district for the nomination and election of a resident of such district to be an additional member of the trustees of a high school district. The electors qualified to vote in the high school district under the provisions of 20-20-301 and who reside in the trustee nominating district shall be the only electors who may vote for the additional trustee representing such district. They also shall be permitted to vote for a trustee position at large, if there is one, but for no other high school trustee position.

(3) Any additional trustee position established under the provisions of this section shall be filled in a manner prescribed under the provisions of 20-3-309. Each additional trustee position filled by appointment under this section shall be subject to election at the next regular school election.

History: En. 75-5904 by Sec. 33, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-5904.

20-3-354. Redetermination of additional trustee positions and subsequent adjustments. Whenever there is a revision of the taxable valuation of the high school district or the elementary districts within it or there is a reclassification of the elementary district which has its trustees placed on the high school district board of trustees, the county superintendent shall redetermine the number of additional trustee positions for the high school district in accordance with 20-3-352. If there is a change in the allowable number of additional trustee positions, the county superintendent shall reestablish the trustee nominating districts in accordance with 20-3-353. If the number of additional trustee positions is less than the previous number of positions, the county superintendent shall designate which present additional positions are to terminate upon his order reestablishing the trustee nominating districts. If the number of additional trustee positions is more than the previous number of positions, such additional trustee positions shall be filled in the manner prescribed under the provisions of 20-3-309. Each additional trustee position filled by appointment under this section shall be subject to election at the next regular school election.

20-3-355. Determination of terms after establishment or reestablishment of additional trustee positions. (1) Whenever all of the additional trustee positions are subject to election at one regular school election under the circumstance described in 20-3-302(2)(c), the members who are elected shall draw by lot to determine their terms of office. Such terms of office by number of members elected shall be:

(a) two for 3 years, if four are elected;

(b) one for 3 years, if one, two, or three are elected;

(c) one for 2 years, if two, three, or four are elected; and

(d) one for 1 year, if three or four are elected.

(2) Whenever the reestablishment of the additional trustee positions for a high school district under the provisions of 20-3-354 results in an increased number of additional trustee positions, the members who are elected at the next regular school election shall draw by lot to determine their terms of office and such terms shall be determined in accordance with the additional trustee terms prescribed in this section.

History: En. 75-5909 by Sec. 38, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-5909.

(a) four trustee positions filled by members residing in the elementary district where the county high school building is located; and

(b) three trustee positions filled by members one of whom resides in each of the three trustee nominating districts in the territory of the high school district outside of the elementary district where the county high school building is located. The county superintendent shall establish the nominating districts, and, unless it is impossible, such districts shall have coterminous boundaries with elementary district boundaries.

When a joint board of trustees is formed, all of the members of both districts' trustees shall be members of the joint board of trustees and each member shall have the right to participate in the meetings, but voting on matters considered by the joint board shall be limited by the provisions of this section.

(2) At the first meeting of the joint board of trustees, there shall be a chairman of the joint board of trustees selected from among the membership. A secretary of the joint board shall be selected from the membership. The chairman, when selected as a voting member, shall not be disqualified from voting because of his position of chairman of the board. The secretary shall not be a voting member except that he shall cast the deciding vote when three successive ballots have resulted in a tie vote of the joint board of trustees.

(3) The voting membership of the joint board of trustees shall be equalized between the trustee membership of the two participating districts. After the selection of the chairman and the secretary, if necessary, the voting membership shall be:

(a) all of the membership of the elementary district trustees unless one of its members is selected as secretary, in which case such member shall not be a voting member; and

(b) the members of the high school district trustees who are selected by such trustees as voting members of the joint board in a number equal to the number of voting members of the elementary district trustees as established under subsection (3)(a) above. The names of the voting membership selected by the high school trustees shall be submitted in writing to the secretary of the board and shall be the only members of such district's trustees eligible to vote on joint board matters unless such list is revised in writing by the high school trustees.

20-4-121. Interstate agreement on qualification of educational personnel. The interstate agreement on qualification of educational personnel is enacted into law and entered into with all jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

Article I. Purpose — Findings — Policy

(1) The states party to this agreement, desiring by common action to improve their respective school systems by utilizing the teacher or other professional educational person wherever educated, declare that it is the policy of each of them, on the basis of cooperation with one another, to take advantage of the preparation and experience of such persons wherever gained, thereby serving the best interests of society, of education, and of the teaching profession. It is the purpose of this agreement to provide for the development and execution of such programs of cooperation as will facilitate the movement of teachers and other professional educational personnel among the states party to it and to authorize specific interstate educational personnel contracts to achieve that end.

(2) The party states find that included in the large movement of population among all sections of the nation are many qualified educational personnel who move for family and other personal reasons but who are hindered in using their professional skill and experience in their new locations. Variations from state to state in requirements for qualifying educational personnel discourage such personnel from taking the steps necessary to qualify in other states. As a consequence, a significant number of professionally prepared and experienced educators are lost to our school systems. Facilitating the employment of qualified educational personnel, without reference to their states of origin, can increase the available educational resources. Participation in this compact can increase the availability of educational manpower.

Article II. Definitions

As used in this agreement and contracts made pursuant to it, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Educational personnel" means persons who must meet requirements pursuant to state law as a condition of employment in educational programs.

Article III. Interstate Educational Personnel Contracts

(1) The designated state official of a party state may make one or more contracts on behalf of his state with one or more other party states providing for the acceptance of educational personnel. Any such contract for the period of its duration shall be applicable to and binding on the states whose designated state officials enter into it and the subdivisions of those states with the same force and effect as if incorporated in this agreement. A designated state official may enter into a contract pursuant to this article only with states in which he finds that there are programs of education, certification standards, or other acceptable qualifications that assure preparation or qualification of educational personnel on a basis sufficiently comparable even though not identical to that prevailing in his own state.

(2) Any such contract shall provide for:

(a) its duration;

(b) the criteria to be applied by an originating state in qualifying educational personnel for acceptance by a receiving state;

(c) such waivers, substitutions, and conditional acceptance as shall aid the practical effectuation of the contract without sacrifice of basic educational standards; and

(d) any other necessary matters.

(3) No contract made pursuant to this agreement shall be for a term longer than 5 years, but any such contract may be renewed for like or lesser periods.

(5) The certification or other acceptance of a person who has been accepted pursuant to the terms of a contract shall not be revoked or otherwise impaired because the contract has expired or been terminated. However, any certificate or other qualifying document may be revoked or suspended on any ground which would be sufficient for revocation or suspension of a certificate or other qualifying document initially granted or approved in the receiving state.

(6) A contract committee composed of the designated state officials of the contracting states or their representatives shall keep the contract under continuous review, study means of improving its administration, and report not less than once a year to the heads of the appropriate education agencies of the contracting states.

Article IV. Approved and Accepted Programs

(1) Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to repeal or otherwise modify any law or regulation of a party state relating to the approval of programs of educational preparation having effect solely on the qualification of educational personnel within that state.

(2) To the extent that contracts made pursuant to this agreement deal with the educational requirements for the proper qualification of educational personnel, acceptance of a program of educational preparation shall be in accordance with such procedures and requirements as may be provided in the applicable contract.

Article V. Interstate Cooperation

The party states agree that:

(1) they will, so far as practicable, prefer the making of multilateral contracts pursuant to Article III of this agreement; and

(2) they will facilitate and strengthen cooperation in interstate certification and other elements of educational personnel qualification and for this purpose shall cooperate with agencies, organizations, and associations interested in certification and other elements of educational personnel qualification.

Article VI. Agreement Evaluation

The designated state officials of any party states may meet from time to time as a group to evaluate progress under the agreement and to formulate recommendations for changes.

Article VII. Other Arrangements

Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to prevent or inhibit other arrangements or practices of any party state or states to facilitate the interchange of educational personnel.

Article VIII. Effect — Withdrawal

(1) This agreement shall become effective when enacted into law by two states. Thereafter it shall become effective as to any state upon its enactment of this agreement.

(2) Any party state may withdraw from this agreement by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until 1 year after the governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the governors of all other party states.

(3) No withdrawal shall relieve the withdrawing state of any obligation imposed upon it by a contract to which it is a party. The duration of contracts and the methods and conditions of withdrawal therefrom shall be those specified in their terms.

Article IX. Construction — Severability

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purpose thereof. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States or the application thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement is held to be contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

(1) The trustees of any district shall have the authority to employ any person as a teacher or specialist, but only a person who holds a valid Montana teacher or specialist certificate or for whom an emergency authorization of employment has been issued that qualifies such person to perform the duties prescribed by the trustees for the position of employment. Each teacher or specialist shall be employed under written contract, and each contract of employment shall be authorized by a proper resolution of the trustees and shall be executed in duplicate by the chairman of the trustees and the clerk of the district in the name of the district and by the teacher or specialist.

(2) No contract of employment with a teacher or specialist shall require such teacher or specialist to teach more than 5 days a week or on any holiday recognized by 20-1-305. No deduction shall be made from a teacher's or specialist's salary by reason of the fact that a holiday falls on a school day.

Any teacher's or specialist's contract made in conflict with the 5-days-per-week provision of this section shall not be enforceable against the teacher or specialist.

(3) Whenever the trustees of a county high school and the trustees of the elementary district where the county high school is located form a joint board of trustees under the provisions of 20-3-361, such joint board of trustees may execute a contract of employment with a teacher or specialist who shall serve both districts. When such a contract is executed, the two districts shall prorate the compensation provided by such contract on the basis of the total number of instructional hours expended by such teacher or specialist within each district.

If a teacher or specialist does not register his certificate with the county superintendent within 60 calendar days after he begins to perform his services, he shall not be eligible to receive any further compensation under his contract of employment until he has registered his certificate. After the schools of a district have been open for 60 calendar days in the current school fiscal year, the county superintendent shall notify each district of the county of each teacher or specialist who has registered his current valid certificate, and the district shall not pay any teacher who has not registered his certificate until the county superintendent does notify the district of such registration.

(2) A teacher or specialist employed by a joint district shall register his certificate with the county superintendent of the county in which he is working.

(1) the trustees resolve by majority vote of their membership to terminate the services of the teacher in accordance with the provisions of 20-4-204; or

(2) the teacher will attain the age of 65 years before the ensuing September 1 and the trustees have notified the teacher in writing by April 1 that his services will not be needed in the ensuing school fiscal year, except that

Such notification shall include a printed copy of this section for the teacher's information.

(3) Within 10 days after the tenure teacher receives the statement of reasons for termination, he may request in writing a hearing before the trustees to reconsider their termination action. When a hearing is requested, the trustees shall conduct such a hearing and reconsider their termination action within 10 days after the receipt of the request for a hearing. If the trustees affirm their decision to terminate the teacher's employment, the tenure teacher may appeal their decision to the county superintendent who may appoint a qualified attorney at law as legal adviser who shall assist the superintendent in preparing findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(2) Any tenure teacher who receives notification of his reelection for the ensuing school fiscal year shall provide the trustees with his written acceptance of the conditions of such reelection within 20 days after the receipt of the notice of reelection, and failure to so notify the trustees within 20 days shall constitute conclusive evidence of his nonacceptance of the tendered position.

(2) Any nontenure teacher who receives notification of his reelection for the ensuing school fiscal year shall provide the trustees with his written acceptance of the conditions of such reelection within 20 days after the receipt of the notice of reelection. Failure to so notify the trustees within 20 days may be considered nonacceptance of the tendered position.

(3) When the trustees notify a nontenure teacher of termination, the teacher may within 10 days after receipt of such notice make written request of the trustees for a statement in writing of the reasons for termination of employment. Within 10 days after receipt of the request, the trustees shall furnish such statement to the teacher.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to cases in which a nontenure teacher is terminated when the financial condition of the school district requires a reduction in the number of teachers employed and the reason for the termination is to reduce the number of teachers employed.

(3) In addition to the sanctions prescribed in this section, the trustees of a high school district may deny a high school pupil the honor of participating in the graduation exercise or exclude a high school pupil from participating in school activities. Attendance Outside School District

20-5-301. Elementary tuition with mandatory approval. (1) Any child may be enrolled in and attend an elementary school outside of the elementary district in which he resides when such elementary school is located in:

(a) any other district of the county of his residence;

(b) a county adjoining his county of residence; or

(c) a district of another state that is adjacent to the county of his residence.

(2) When a parent or guardian of a child wishes to have his child attend a school under the provisions of this section, he shall apply to the county superintendent of the county of his residence before July 1 of the school fiscal year for which he seeks approval except in those cases when substantial changes in circumstances occurred subsequently to justify later application. The application shall be made on a tuition agreement form supplied by the county superintendent and shall be approved, before permission to enroll in and attend school outside of the district under the provisions of this section may be granted, by:

(a) the trustees of the elementary district in which the child resides;

(b) the trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school; and

(c) the county superintendent of the child's residence.

(3) In considering the approval of a tuition application, the tuition approval agents prescribed in this section shall approve such application for a resident child when:

(a) the child resides less than 3 miles from the school which he wishes to attend and more than 3 miles from any school of his resident elementary district;

(b) the child resides more than 3 miles from any school of his resident elementary district and such district does not provide transportation under the provisions of this title;

(c) the child resides more than 3 miles from any school of his resident elementary district, the resident district does not provide transportation under the provisions of this title, and school bus transportation is furnished by the district operating the school which he wishes to attend;

(d) the child is a member of a family who must send another child outside of the elementary district to attend high school and the child of elementary age may more conveniently attend an elementary school where the high school is located, provided the child resides more than 3 miles from an elementary school of the resident district or the parent must move to the elementary district where the high school is located in order to enroll the other child in high school; or

(e) the child has been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be an abused, neglected, or dependent child, as defined in 41-3-102, or a delinquent youth, as defined in 41-5-103, and has been ordered to be placed in a licensed child care institution which is approved by the department of social and rehabilitation services and as a result of the order the child is required to attend elementary school outside of the district of his residence. For purposes of this subsection the prescribed geographic relationship of the receiving district to the district of residence does not apply.

(4) The trustees of the district where the school to be attended is located may disapprove a tuition agreement that satisfies any of the mandatory approval conditions specified in subsection (3) above when they find that, due to insufficient room and overcrowding, the accreditation of the school would be adversely affected by the acceptance of the child. In the event of disapproval, the trustees shall so notify the parent in writing within 15 days of the first receipt of the application.

20-5-302. Elementary tuition with discretionary approval. In considering the approval of a tuition application that is not required to be approved under the provisions of 20-5-301, the tuition approval agents prescribed in 20-5-301 may approve such application when such approval agents, individually, determine that the tuition agreement should be approved because of:

(1) the distance and road conditions between the child's residence and any school of his resident district;

(2) the trading center of the child's parents;

(3) an opportunity to live with his relatives;

(4) dormitory facilities in the district to be attended;

(5) the living conditions of the child's family;

(6) the availability of transportation; or

(7) the type of educational program available in the school to be attended.

History: En. 75-6314 by Sec. 127, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6314.

20-5-303. Individual tuition for elementary pupil. No provision of this title shall be construed to deny a parent the right to send his child, at his own expense, to any elementary school of a district other than his resident district when the parent has agreed to pay the tuition acceptable to the trustees of the district where the school is located. The trustees of the district where the school is located may allow the attendance of a child under the provisions of this section at their discretion. When the attendance is approved, the trustees shall charge tuition at the same rate prescribed by 20-5-305 reduced by any amount which is uniformly waived by the trustees for all tuition payments. However, under this section, tuition shall be waived when the parent of the child paid the rate of tuition determined under the provisions of 20-5-305 in district and county property taxes during the immediately preceding school fiscal year for the benefit and support of the district in which the child will attend school.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Substituted "the rate of tuition determined under the provisions of 20-5-305" for "$200 or more" after "child paid" in the last sentence.

20-5-304. Distances, notification, and appeal for elementary tuition purposes. (1) In considering any approval of an application submitted under the provisions of 20-5-301 or 20-5-302, the approval agents shall determine mileage distances on the basis of the shortest practical route between the child's residence and the school building, and they shall determine the child's residence on the basis of the provisions of 1-1-215.

(2) The county superintendent shall notify the parent or guardian and the trustees of the districts involved in the tuition application of the tuition agreement approval or disapproval. If a tuition agreement is disapproved by any approval agent, the parent may appeal such disapproval to the county superintendent and, subsequently, to the superintendent of public instruction under the provisions for the appeal of controversies in this title. The approval of any tuition agreement by the approval agents or upon appeal shall authorize the child named in such agreement to enroll in and attend the school named in such agreement for the ensuing school fiscal year.

(3) The rate of tuition and the budgeting and payment procedure prescribed in 20-5-305 shall be applicable to any tuition application approved under the provisions of this section.

20-5-305. Elementary tuition rates. Whenever a pupil of an elementary district has been granted approval to attend a school outside of the district in which he resides, under the provisions of 20-5-301 or 20-5-302, such district shall pay tuition to the elementary district where the pupil attends school on the basis of the rate of tuition determined by the attended district. The rate of tuition shall be determined by:

(1) totaling the actual expenditures from the district general fund, retirement fund, and debt service fund;

(2) dividing the amount determined in subsection (1) above by the ANB of the district for the current fiscal year, as determined under the provisions of 20-9-311; and

(3) subtracting the total of the per-ANB amount allowed by 20-9-316 through 20-9-321 that represents the foundation program as prescribed by 20-9-303 plus the per-ANB amount determined by dividing the state financing of the district permissive levy by the ANB of the district, from the amount determined in subsection (2) above.

History: En. 75-7201 by Sec. 340, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 251, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7201.

20-5-306. End-of-term tuition report and notification of resident elementary district. (1) At the close of the school term of each school fiscal year and before July 15, the trustees of each elementary district shall report to the county superintendent:

(a) the names of the pupils attending the schools of the district under an approved tuition agreement with the district of residence of each pupil;

(b) the number of days of school attended by each pupil;

(c) the amount, if any, of each pupil's tuition payment that the trustees, in their discretion, may waive (any waiver of tuition shall be applied equally to all pupils); and

(d) the rate of the current school fiscal year tuition, as determined under the provisions of 20-5-305.

(2) When the county superintendent receives a tuition report from a district, he shall immediately send the reported information to the county superintendent of each county in which the reported pupils reside. In turn, every county superintendent shall notify each elementary district of his county of the tuition amounts owed to other elementary districts of the county or outside of the county. Such amounts shall be established from the tuition rate and other information reported by the district in which the pupil attended school. No tuition shall be due when a pupil attends less than 40 days of school in such district.

History: En. 75-7202 by Sec. 341, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 251, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7202.

20-5-307. Budgeting, levy requirement, and paying elementary tuition. (1) The tuition amount that has been established in 20-5-305 shall be paid during the ensuing school fiscal year. The trustees of the elementary district shall include such amount in the tuition fund of the preliminary budget. If the trustees should fail to include such amount or any portion of it in the preliminary budget, they shall adjust the budgeted amount in adopting the final budget to provide for the total tuition amount that is due during the ensuing school fiscal year. Such adjustment shall not be subject to the budget adjustment provisions of 20-9-132.

(2) The county superintendent shall report the net tuition fund levy requirement for each elementary district to the county commissioners on the second Monday of August, and a levy on the district shall be made by the county commissioners in accordance with 20-9-142. Such levy requirement shall be calculated by subtracting from the total expenditure amount authorized in the final tuition fund budget the sum of the cash balance in the tuition fund at the end of the immediately preceding school fiscal year plus any other anticipated moneys that may be realized in the tuition fund.

(3) The trustees shall pay by warrants drawn on the tuition fund the tuition amounts owed to each district included in the county superintendent's notification provided under the provisions of 20-5-305. Such payments shall be made whenever there is a sufficient amount of cash available in the tuition fund but no later than the end of the school fiscal year for which the budget was adopted.

20-5-311. High school tuition. (1) Any child may be enrolled in and attend a high school outside of the high school district in which he resides when such high school is located in Montana or in a county of another state that is adjacent to the state of Montana. When a parent or guardian of a child wishes to have his child attend a school under the provisions of this section, he shall apply to the county superintendent of the county of his residence before July 1 of the school fiscal year for which he seeks approval except in those cases when substantial changes in circumstances occurred subsequently to justify later application. Such application shall be made on a tuition agreement form supplied by the county superintendent and shall be approved by the trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school and the trustees of the child's district of residence before permission to enroll in and attend a school outside of the district under the provisions of this section shall be granted.

(2) The trustees shall approve a tuition application when a child lives closer to a high school of another district than any high school located within his resident district or when, due to road or geographic conditions, it is impractical to attend the high school nearest his residence. In approving such a tuition application the trustees are not required to approve a tuition application for a student seeking to attend a high school outside the state of Montana if the resident district provides transportation. In approving a tuition agreement under this provision, the trustees may require the child to attend the high school closest to his residence. The trustees may approve any other tuition application that satisfies the geographic requirements of this section.

(3) The trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school shall approve or disapprove any tuition application submitted to them under the provisions of this section within 15 days after the receipt of the application.

(4) The county superintendent shall notify the parent or guardian and the trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school of the tuition agreement approval or disapproval. If a tuition agreement is disapproved by the trustees, the parent may appeal such disapproval to the trustees for their reconsideration and, subsequently, to the superintendent of public instruction under the provision for the appeal of controversies in this title. The approval of any tuition agreement by the approval agents or upon appeal shall authorize the child named in such agreement to enroll in and attend the school named in such agreement for the ensuing school fiscal year.

20-5-312. Reporting, budgeting, and payment for high school tuition. (1) At the close of the school term of each school fiscal year, the trustees of each high school district shall determine the rate of tuition for the current school fiscal year by:

(a) totaling the actual expenditures from the district general fund, retirement fund, and debt service fund;

(b) dividing the amount determined in subsection (1)(a) above by the ANB of the district for the current fiscal year, as determined under the provisions of 20-9-311; and

(c) subtracting the total of the per-ANB amount allowed by 20-9-316 through 20-9-321 that represents the foundation program as prescribed by 20-9-303 plus the per-ANB amount determined by dividing the state financing of the district permissive levy by the ANB of the district, from the amount determined in subsection (1)(b) above.

(2) Before July 15, the trustees shall report to the county superintendent of the county in which the district is located:

(a) the names, addresses, and resident districts of the pupils attending the schools of the district under an approved tuition agreement;

(b) the number of days of school attended by each pupil;

(c) the amount, if any, of each pupil's tuition payment that the trustees, in their discretion, shall have the authority to waive; and

(d) the rate of current school fiscal year tuition, as determined under the provisions of this section.

(3) When the county superintendent receives a tuition report from a district, he shall immediately send the reported information to the superintendent of each district in which the reported pupils reside.

(4) When the district superintendent receives a tuition report or reports for high school pupils residing in his district and attending an out-of-district high school under approved tuition agreements, he shall determine the total amount of tuition due such out-of-district high schools on the basis of the following per-pupil schedule: the rate of tuition, number of pupils attending under an approved tuition agreement, and other information provided by each high school district where resident district pupils have attended school.

(5) The total amount of the high school tuition, with consideration of any tuition waivers, for pupils attending a high school outside the county of residence shall be financed by the county basic special tax for high schools as provided in 20-9-334. In December, the county superintendent shall cause the payment by county warrant of the high school tuition obligations established under this section out of the first moneys realized from the county basic special tax for high schools. The payment shall be made to the county treasurer of the county where each high school entitled to tuition is located. The county treasurer shall credit such tuition receipts to the general fund of the applicable high school district, and the tuition receipts shall be used in accordance with the provisions of 20-9-141.

(6) For pupils attending a high school outside their district of residence but within the county of residence, the total amount of the tuition, with consideration of any tuition waivers, must be paid during the ensuing school fiscal year. The trustees of the sending high school district shall include the tuition amount in the tuition fund of the preliminary and final budgets. This budgeted tuition amount is not subject to the budget adjustment provisions of 20-9-132. The county superintendent shall report the net tuition fund levy requirement for each high school district to the county commissioners on the second Monday of August, and a levy on the district shall be made by the county commissioners in accordance with 20-9-142. This levy requirement shall be calculated by subtracting from the total expenditure amount authorized in the final tuition fund budget the sum of the cash balance in the tuition fund at the end of the immediately preceding school fiscal year plus any other anticipated money that may be realized in the tuition fund. The trustees shall pay by warrants drawn on the tuition fund the tuition amounts owed to each district included in the county superintendent's notification. Payments shall be made whenever there is a sufficient amount of cash available in the tuition fund but no later than the end of the school fiscal year for which the budget is adopted. However, if the trustees of either the sending or receiving high school feel the transfer privilege provided by this subsection is being abused they may appeal to the county superintendent of schools who shall hold a hearing and either approve or disapprove the transfer.

(2) No provision of this title shall be construed to deny a parent the right to send his child, at his own expense, to any high school outside of his district of residence when the parent agrees to pay the tuition acceptable to the trustees of the high school district operating such high school. When the attendance is approved, the parent shall pay tuition at the rate fixed by the trustees. However, under this section, tuition shall be waived if the parent of the child paid the rate of tuition determined under the provisions of 20-5-312 in district and county property taxes during the immediately preceding school fiscal year for the benefit and support of the district in which the child will attend school.

School Districts — General Provisions

20-6-101. Definition of elementary and high school districts. (1) As used in this title, except as defined in 20-9-402 for bonding purposes or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term "district" means the territory, regardless of county boundaries, organized under the provisions of this title to provide public educational services under the jurisdiction of the trustees prescribed by this title. High school districts may encompass all or parts of the territory of one or more elementary districts.

(2) An elementary district is a district organized for the purpose of providing public education for all grades up to and including grade 8 and for preschool programs and kindergartens. A high school district is a district organized for the purpose of providing those public educational services authorized by this title for all grades beyond grade 8, including postsecondary programs, except those programs administered by community college districts or the Montana university system.

(3) An elementary district shall be known as "District No. ...., ... County" and a high school district, except a high school district where a county high school is operated, shall be known as "High School District No. ...., ... County". Any district shall be a body corporate and, as such body corporate, may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, and acquire, hold, use, and dispose of real or personal property for school purposes, within the limitations prescribed by law. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the trustees of elementary districts and high school districts shall have the same types of powers, duties, and responsibilities authorized and imposed by the laws of Montana.

(4) Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, an elementary district operating a high school in a county that has not been divided into high school districts shall be considered a high school district under this title and the trustees of the elementary district shall be the trustees of the high school district. Such an elementary district operating a high school shall not have the bonding authority of a high school district. However, the elementary district may exercise its bonding authority, in the manner provided by law, for high school purposes.

(5) As used in this title, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, a county high school shall be considered a high school district subject to the limitations prescribed by law for a county high school as a result of its being a part of the county government. The boundaries of the high school district for a county high school shall be:

(a) the high school district boundaries established by the county high school boundary commission; or

(b) if no such boundaries have been established, the county boundaries, except for any territory located in a joint high school district.

(6) Any county high school recognized as a high school district under the provisions of subsection (5)(b) above shall not have a bonding authority. Instead, the county shall exercise its bonding authority in the manner provided in 20-9-451.

History: En. 75-6501 by Sec. 160, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6501.

20-6-102. Confirmation of existing district boundaries. All districts established under the laws of the state of Montana or the territory of Montana and defined by the boundaries described in the records of each county on January 26, 1971, shall be recognized as the districts of the state on such date.

History: En. 75-6502 by Sec. 161, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6502.

20-6-103. Permanent record of district boundaries. (1) The board of county commissioners shall maintain a permanent record which plainly and definitely describes the boundaries of each district within the county. The county superintendent shall keep a transcript of the record in his office and shall be responsible for keeping the record current.

(2) If the county superintendent determines that the boundaries of any elementary district or high school district are in conflict or are incorrectly described, he shall change, harmonize, and describe them accurately, and he shall make a report of such boundary adjustments to the board of county commissioners. When the board of county commissioners approves a district boundary report submitted by the county superintendent, such boundaries shall be the legal boundaries and description of the district within the county. Whenever district boundaries are clarified under this section, the county superintendent shall supply the trustees of the district with the legal descriptions of the boundaries of their district.

History: En. 75-6504 by Sec. 163, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6504.

Elementary School Districts

(a) first class, if it has a population of 6,500 or more;

(b) second class, if it has a population of 1,000 or more but less than 6,500; or

(c) third class, if it has a population of less than 1,000.

(2) The population of an elementary district shall be determined by the county superintendent on the basis of the best available population information for the district.

(3) The county superintendent shall establish the classification of each elementary district in the county on the basis of the population determined for the district and the district classification criteria prescribed in this section. Whenever the population of an elementary district increases or decreases requiring an adjustment of the district classification according to the criteria prescribed in this section, the county superintendent shall declare such district's classification to be changed in accordance with the determined population, except that the classification of an elementary district shall not be changed more than once every 5 years.

(4) Whenever the county superintendent changes an elementary district's classification with the result that a larger number of trustees is required on the elementary board of trustees, the increased number of trustee positions shall be filled in the manner provided for filling trustee vacancies. Such positions shall be subject to election on the next regular school election day. If the county superintendent changes an elementary district's classification with the result that a lesser number of trustees is required, the next elementary trustee positions that become vacant under any circumstances shall not be filled until the number of elementary trustee positions has been reduced to the number required by law.

20-6-202. Time limitation for boundary changes. No elementary district shall be created nor shall any elementary district boundaries be changed between the first day of January and the second Monday of August of any calendar year except when:

(1) the entire territory of a district is annexed or attached to another district;

(2) the entire territory of the portion of a joint district located in one county is annexed or attached to another district; or

(3) two or more districts are consolidated in their entirety.

20-6-203. District consolidation. Any two or more elementary districts in one county may consolidate to organize an elementary district. The consolidation shall be conducted under the following procedure:

(1) At the time the consolidation proposition is first considered, the districts involved shall jointly determine whether the consolidation shall be made with or without the mutual assumption of the bonded indebtedness of each district by all districts included in the consolidation proposition.

(2) A consolidation proposition may be introduced, individually, in each of the districts by either of the two following methods:

(a) the trustees may pass a resolution requesting the county superintendent to order an election to consider a consolidation proposition involving their district; or

(b) not less than 20% of the electors of an elementary district who are qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301 may petition the county superintendent requesting an election to consider a consolidation proposition involving their resident district.

(4) Each district, individually, shall call and conduct an election in the manner prescribed in this title for school elections. In addition:

(a) if the districts to be consolidated are to mutually assume the bonded indebtedness of each district involved in the consolidation, the consolidation election also shall follow the procedures prescribed in 20-6-206; or

(b) if the districts to be consolidated are not to mutually assume the bonded indebtedness of each district involved in the consolidation, the consolidation election also shall follow the procedures prescribed in 20-6-207.

(5) After the county superintendent has received the election certification under the provisions of 20-20-416 from the trustees of each district included in a consolidation proposition, he shall determine if the consolidation proposition has been approved in each district. If each district has approved the consolidation proposition, he shall, within 10 days after the receipt of the last election certificate, order the consolidation of such districts. If it be for consolidation with the mutual assumption of bonded indebtedness of each elementary district by all districts included in the consolidation order, such order shall specify that all the taxable real and personal property of the consolidated district shall assume the bonded indebtedness of each district. In addition, such order shall specify the number of the consolidated elementary district and shall contain the county superintendent's appointment of the trustees for the consolidated district who shall serve until a successor is elected at the next succeeding regular school election and qualified. The superintendent shall send a copy of such order to the board of county commissioners and to the trustees of each district incorporated in the consolidation order.

(6) If any district included in the consolidation proposition disapproves the consolidation proposition, the consolidation of all districts shall fail, and the county superintendent shall notify each district of the disapproval of the consolidation proposition.

(2) An annexation proposition may be introduced in the district to be annexed by either of the two following methods:

(a) the trustees may pass a resolution requesting the county superintendent to order an election to consider an annexation proposition for their district; or

(b) not less than 20% of the electors of the district who are qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301 may petition the county superintendent requesting an election to consider an annexation proposition for their district.

(3) Before ordering an election on the proposition, the county superintendent shall first receive from the trustees of the annexing district a resolution giving him the authority to annex such district.

(4) When the county superintendent has received authorization from the annexing district, he shall, within 10 days after the receipt of the resolution or a valid petition from the district to be annexed and as provided by 20-20-201, order the trustees of the district to be annexed to call an annexation election.

(5) The district shall call and conduct an election in the manner prescribed in this title for school elections. In addition:

(a) if the district to be annexed is to jointly assume with the annexing district the bonded indebtedness of the annexing district, the annexation election shall also follow the procedures prescribed in 20-6-206; or

(b) if the district to be annexed is not to jointly assume with the annexing district the bonded indebtedness of the annexing district, the annexation election shall also follow the procedures prescribed in 20-6-207.

(6) After the county superintendent has received the election certificate from the trustees of the district conducting the annexation election under the provisions of 20-20-416 and if the annexation proposition has been approved by such election, he shall order the annexation of the territory of the elementary district voting on such proposition to the elementary district that has authorized the annexation to its territory. Such order shall be issued within 10 days after the receipt of the election certificate and, if it be for annexation with the assumption of bonded indebtedness, shall specify that all the taxable real and personal property of the annexed territory shall jointly assume with the annexing district the existing bonded indebtedness of the annexing district. The county superintendent shall send a copy of the order to the board of county commissioners and to the trustees of the districts involved in the annexation order.

(7) If the annexation proposition is disapproved in the district to be annexed, it shall fail and the county superintendent shall notify each district of the disapproval of the annexation proposition.

20-6-206. Consolidation or annexation election with assumption of bonded indebtedness. A consolidation election involving the mutual assumption of bonded indebtedness by the elementary districts to be consolidated, as prescribed in 20-6-203, or an annexation election involving the joint assumption of bonded indebtedness by the elementary district to be annexed, as prescribed in 20-6-205, shall comply with the following procedures in addition to those prescribed by this title for other school elections:

(1) In a consolidation election the ballots shall read, after stating the consolidation proposition, "FOR consolidation with assumption of bonded indebtedness" and "AGAINST consolidation with assumption of bonded indebtedness".

(2) In an annexation election the ballots shall read, after stating the annexation proposition, "FOR annexation with assumption of bonded indebtedness" and "AGAINST annexation with assumption of bonded indebtedness".

(3) Any elector qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301 may vote.

(4) When the trustees in each elementary district conducting an election canvass the vote under the provisions of 20-20-415, they shall decide, according to the following procedure, if the proposition has been approved:

(a) determine if a sufficient number of the qualified electors of the district have voted to validate the election and have voted to approve the election proposition in the same manner required for bond elections by 20-9-428; and

(b) when the proposition is approved under subsection (4)(a), determine the number of votes "FOR" and "AGAINST" the proposition.

(5) The proposition shall be approved in the district if a majority of those voting approve the proposition. If the proposition is disapproved under either the provisions of subsection (4)(a) or (4)(b), the proposition shall be disapproved in the district.

20-6-207. Consolidation or annexation election without assumption of bonded indebtedness. (1) A consolidation election without the assumption of bonded indebtedness by the elementary districts to be consolidated, as prescribed in 20-6-203, or an annexation election without the joint assumption of bonded indebtedness by the elementary district to be annexed, as prescribed in 20-6-205, shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by this title for school elections. Any elector qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301 may vote at the election.

(2) In a consolidation election the ballots shall read, after stating the consolidation proposition, "FOR consolidation without assumption of bonded indebtedness" and "AGAINST consolidation without assumption of bonded indebtedness". The consolidation proposition shall be approved by a district if a majority of those voting in a district approve the proposition, otherwise it shall be disapproved.

(3) In an annexation election the ballots shall read, after stating the annexation proposition, "FOR annexation without assumption of bonded indebtedness" and "AGAINST annexation without assumption of bonded indebtedness". The annexation proposition shall be approved by a district if a majority of those voting approve the proposition, otherwise it shall be disapproved.

20-6-208. District consolidation of two or more counties to organize joint elementary district. Any two or more elementary districts located in more than one county and whose territory is contiguous may consolidate to organize a joint elementary district. When a joint district consolidation proposition is to be introduced and considered in two or more districts, the consolidation procedure for elementary district consolidation without the assumption of bonded indebtedness prescribed in 20-6-203 and 20-6-207 shall be used except that each district shall submit its resolution or petition and its election certificate to the county superintendent of its resident county, and the several county superintendents shall jointly perform the duties prescribed for the county superintendent in 20-6-203.

20-6-209. Elementary district abandonment. (1) The county superintendent shall declare an elementary district to be abandoned and order the attachment of the territory of such district to a contiguous district of the county when:

(a) a school has not been operated by a district for at least 180 days under the provisions of 20-1-301 for each of 3 consecutive school fiscal years or a lesser number of days as approved by the county superintendent or the superintendent of public instruction under the provisions of 20-9-804; or

(b) there is an insufficient number of residents who are qualified electors of the district that can and will serve as the trustees and clerk of the district so that a legal board of trustees can be organized.

(2) The county superintendent shall notify the elementary district that has not operated a school for 2 consecutive years before the first day of the third year that the failure to operate a school for 180 days or a lesser number of days than approved by the county superintendent or the superintendent of public instruction as provided under the provisions of 20-9-804 during the ensuing school fiscal year shall constitute grounds for abandonment of such district at the conclusion of the succeeding school fiscal year. Failure by the county superintendent to provide such notification shall not constitute a waiver of the abandonment requirement prescribed in subsection (1)(a) above.

(3) Any abandonment under subsection (1)(a) shall become effective on July 1. Any abandonment of an elementary district under subsection (1)(b) shall become effective immediately on the date of the abandonment order.

History: En. 75-6512 by Sec. 171, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6512; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 288, L. 1979.

20-6-210. Joint elementary district abandonment. (1) Any joint elementary district shall be abandoned for the reasons prescribed in 20-6-209 or when the taxable value of the taxable property of the portion of the joint district that is located within any one of the counties is of so little value that the continued inclusion of such portion in the joint district is not justified. The boards of trustees designated by 20-9-151 for school budgeting purposes shall be responsible for ordering the abandonment of the joint district and shall immediately send a copy of such order to the county superintendent of each county with territory in the joint district.

(2) After the issuance or receipt of the abandonment order, each county superintendent shall attach the territory within his county to a contiguous elementary district within his county; except when the district is abandoned because of the lack of taxable property in one county's territory of the district and a school is operated in another county's territory of the district which territory has a taxable value of $75,000 or more, the county superintendent of the county where such territory is located shall not attach it to another district. Such territory shall continue to operate as an elementary district within the county.

(3) Any abandonment of a joint elementary district shall become effective on the date of the abandonment order except that district abandonments under the provisions of 20-6-209(1)(a) shall become effective on July 1.

History: En. 75-6513 by Sec. 172, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 277, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6513.

20-6-211. Joint elementary district dissolution. (1) Any joint elementary district may be dissolved. A proposition to dissolve a joint elementary district shall be introduced by a petition signed by a majority of the electors, qualified under the provisions of 20-20-301, who reside in the territory of the joint district that is located within one county. Such petition shall be addressed and presented to the county superintendent of the county of residence of the petitioners.

(2) Whenever a county superintendent receives a valid petition for the dissolution of a joint elementary district, he shall immediately notify the county superintendents of all the other counties with territory located in the joint district. The county superintendents jointly shall, within 10 days after the receipt of the petition and as provided by 20-20-201, order the trustees of the joint district to call an election. The trustees shall call and conduct, at the same time, separate elections in each portion of the joint district that is located in a separate county. Such elections shall be called and conducted in the manner prescribed in this title for school elections and shall be considered as if each were an election in a separate district. An elector who may vote at a joint district dissolution election shall be qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301. The election judges for each separate election in the joint district shall send the election certificate to the county superintendent of the county in which they serve.

(3) After the receipt of the election certificates, the county superintendents shall jointly determine the result of such election on the following basis:

(a) if a majority of all the joint district electors voting at each election conducted in the joint district are in favor of the dissolution of the joint district, the dissolution of the joint elementary district shall be approved;

(b) if two-thirds of the electors voting at one of the elections conducted in a county's portion of the joint district vote in favor of the joint district dissolution, the dissolution of that portion of such joint district may be approved if all the county superintendents involved in such dissolution proposition agree that such dissolution will not place an undue hardship on any other county's portion of the joint district and there is no good and sufficient reason why such dissolution should not be made; or

(c) if the conditions of either subsection (a) or (b) cannot be satisfied, the dissolution of the joint district shall be disapproved.

(4) The county superintendents shall jointly order the joint elementary district dissolution if the proposition is approved and, whether it has been approved or disapproved, shall jointly notify the joint district of the result. The dissolution of a joint district shall become effective on the first day of the ensuing school fiscal year.

(5) When the dissolution of a joint elementary district has been approved and ordered under subsection (3)(a) above, the county superintendent of each county shall individually order the attachment of the territory of the dissolved joint elementary district within his county to a contiguous elementary district within his county except when a school is operated in such territory, in which case the territory shall operate as a separate elementary district of the county.

(6) When the dissolution of a joint elementary district has been approved and ordered under the provisions of subsection (3)(b) above, the county superintendent of the county where the dissolved portion of the joint elementary district is located shall attach such territory to a contiguous elementary district within his county.

(7) In the event a dissolution proposition is disapproved, no subsequent joint elementary district dissolution election shall be held within 3 years thereafter.

20-6-212. Boundary change of licensed child care institution elementary district. The boundaries of any elementary district created under the provisions of Chapter 105, Laws of 1965, shall be changed by the acquisition of any land contiguous to the district by the licensed child care institution for which such district was created. The boundaries shall be changed to include the additional acquired land in the district.

History: En. 75-6515 by Sec. 174, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6515.

20-6-213. Transfer of territory from one elementary district to another. (1) A majority of the electors of any elementary district who are qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301 and who reside in territory which is a part of an elementary district may petition the county superintendent to transfer such territory to another elementary district when:

(a) such territory is contiguous to the district to which it is to be attached;

(b) such territory is not located within 3 miles, over the shortest practical route, of an operating school of the district from which it is to be detached;

(c) the transfer of such territory will not reduce the taxable value of the district to less than $100,000 unless the remaining territory of the district will contain not less than 50,000 acres of nontaxable Indian land; and

(d) the board of trustees of the school district that would receive the territory has approved the transfer.

(2) The petition shall be addressed to the county superintendent and shall:

(a) describe the territory that is requested to be transferred and to what district it is to be transferred;

(b) state the reasons why such transfer is requested; and

(c) state the number of elementary school-age children residing in such territory.

(3) On receipt of a valid petition for a territory transfer, the county superintendent shall:

(a) file such petition;

(b) set a hearing place, date, and time for consideration of the petition that is not more than 40 days after receipt of the petition; and

(c) give notice of the place, date, and time of the hearing. The notices shall be posted in the districts affected by the request in the manner prescribed in this title for school elections, with at least one such notice posted in the territory to be transferred.

(4) The county superintendent shall conduct the hearing as scheduled, and any resident or taxpayer of the affected districts shall be heard. If the county superintendent considers it advisable and in the best interests of the residents of such territory, he shall grant the petitioned request and order the change of district boundaries to coincide with the boundary description in the petition. Otherwise, he shall, by order, deny the request. Either of the orders shall be final 30 days after its date unless it is appealed to the board of county commissioners by a resident or taxpayer of either district affected by the territory transfer. The decision of the board of county commissioners, after a hearing on such matter and consideration of the material presented at the county superintendent's hearing, shall be final 30 days after its date unless a petition to submit the question to a vote of the people in the district from which the land is to be transferred, which has been signed by a majority of the electors of the district who reside in the territory to be transferred and who are qualified to vote in elections for that district under 20-20-301, is presented prior to that time. When a petition is submitted under this subsection, the question of whether the land shall be transferred to another district shall be put before the voters at the next regular school election in the affected district.

(5) Whenever a petition to transfer territory from one elementary district to another elementary district would create a joint elementary district or affect the boundary of an existing joint elementary district, the petition shall be presented to the county superintendent of the county where the territory is located. Such county superintendent shall notify any other county superintendents of counties with districts affected by such petition, and the duties prescribed in this section for the county superintendent and the board of county commissioners shall be performed jointly by such county officials.

20-6-214. Boundary adjustments in elementary school districts. The trustees of an elementary school district may, by resolution, request a change in the boundaries between their district and an adjacent district. The resolution shall be addressed to the county superintendent of schools who, upon receiving such a resolution, shall proceed as set forth in 20-6-213.

20-6-215. Review of boundaries by county superintendent. A county superintendent of schools shall, at least once every 3 years, review the existing elementary school district boundaries in the county. This review and any recommended boundary changes shall be presented by the superintendent at a hearing conducted under 20-6-213. If the superintendent orders a boundary change after the hearing, he shall forward copies of his review and the testimony at the hearing to the board of county commissioners and the state superintendent of public instruction.

20-6-216. Limitations for creation of new elementary district. A new elementary district may be created out of the territory of an existing elementary district or districts when:

(1) the taxable value of the taxable property of the territory proposed to be included in such new district is $150,000 or more, except that when 50,000 acres or more of such new district are nontaxable Indian land, this limitation shall not be applicable;

(2) the taxable value of the taxable property of each existing district from which territory would be detached will be $300,000 or more after the territory is detached;

(3) the ANB in any of the existing districts is not reduced to less than 15; and

(4) the territory to be included in the new district shall consist only of parcels of land that are contiguous.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendments: Chapter 337 increased the amount in (1) from "$75,000" to "$150,000" and in (2) from "$100,000" to "$300,000". Chapter 430 added subsection (4).

20-6-217. Procedure for creation of new elementary district. (1) The petition requesting the creation of a new elementary district out of the territory of an elementary district or districts shall be addressed to the county superintendent and shall:

(a) describe the territory that is requested to be incorporated in the new district and the taxable value of such territory as shown by the last completed assessment roll;

(b) state the reasons why the creation of a new district is requested; and

(c) be signed by the parents or guardians of not less than 10 children between the ages of 6 and 16 years who reside in the territory that would be included in the new district and who reside more than 3 miles over the shortest practical route from an operating school.

(2) When a county superintendent receives a valid petition requesting the creation of a new district, he shall:

(a) file such petition;

(b) set a hearing place, date, and time for consideration of such petition that is not more than 40 days after the receipt of the petition; and

(c) give notice of the place, date, and time of the hearing. The notices shall be posted in the districts affected by the request in the manner prescribed in this title for school elections, with at least one such notice posted in the territory to be included in the new district.

(3) The county superintendent shall conduct the hearing as scheduled unless before or at the time of the hearing he receives a protest petition signed by a majority of the electors of the proposed new district who are qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301. A valid protest petition shall conclusively deny the creation of a new district. If a hearing is conducted, any resident or taxpayer of the affected districts shall be heard. If the county superintendent considers it advisable and in the best interests of the residents of the proposed new district and the residents of the remaining district, he shall grant the petitioned request and order the creation of a new elementary district with its boundaries coinciding with the boundaries defined in the petition. Otherwise, he shall, by order, deny the request. In the order creating the new district, the county superintendent shall establish the effective date for its creation and the procedures for effecting an orderly transition.

(4) Either of the county superintendent's orders may be appealed to the board of county commissioners within 30 days after the date of such order. Such appeal shall be in writing, signed by not less than three resident taxpayers, and shall state sufficient facts to show the appellants' right to appeal the order. The board of county commissioners shall call a hearing of such appeal for the first regular meeting of the commission that will allow notice of the hearing to be given in accordance with the requirements for notice of school elections. After considering the material presented at the county superintendent's hearing and such other material as is presented at its hearing, the board of county commissioners shall render a decision on the creation of such new elementary district. Such decision shall be final.

(5) When a new elementary district is created, the county superintendent shall appoint the trustees of the new district, giving preference in his selections to any trustees who were trustees of an old district and who reside in the new district. Any trustee position vacancies that may occur in the other districts shall be filled in the manner provided for filling trustee position vacancies for such district. Any trustee appointed under the provisions of this section shall serve until a successor is elected at the next regular school election and qualified.

(6) The order of the county superintendent or, if his order is appealed, the decision of the board of county commissioners creating a new district under this section shall be null and void, and the new district shall cease to exist, if such district does not open and operate a school within 2 years after the date of such order or decision. If the new district does not satisfy this requirement, the territory shall be reincorporated in the district or districts in which it was located before the creation of such new district and the trustees shall thereafter be without capacity to act.

(7) If a petition has been filed under the provisions of this section and denied by the county superintendent, no new petition may be filed until 1 year after the final decision on the original petition.

History: En. 75-6518 by Sec. 177, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6518; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 430, L. 1981.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Inserted "and the residents of the remaining district" after "new district" near the middle of subsection (3); added "In the order creating the new district, the county superintendent shall establish the effective date for its creation and the procedures for effecting an orderly transition." to the end of subsection (3); extended the time deadline for opening a new district to 2 years from 8 months in subsection (6); added subsection (7); and made minor changes in phraseology.

High School Districts

20-6-301. High school district classification. The classification of a high school district shall be the same as the classification of the elementary district (20-6-201) where the high school building is located. Whenever the classification of such elementary district is changed, the classification of a high school district shall be changed accordingly and the county superintendent shall adjust the number of additional high school district trustee positions in accordance with the method prescribed in 20-3-354 for the determination of the number of additional trustee positions required for a high school district. An increased number of trustee positions shall be filled by the appointment of the county superintendent, and such positions shall be subject to election at the next regular trustee election. When the number of positions is decreased, the next additional high school trustee positions that become vacant under any circumstances shall not be filled until the number of trustee positions has been reduced to the number required by law.

20-6-302. Methods of changing high school district boundaries. (1) The trustees of any high school district, except the trustees of a high school located in a county which has not been divided into high school districts or become a high school district by county high school unification, may request a change of the high school boundaries of their district or county as provided by this section.

(2) Whenever the trustees of a high school district shall pass a resolution requesting the change of their district's boundary or the redivision of the county into high school districts, they shall send such resolution to the county superintendent. When the trustees request a boundary change of their district or a redivision of the county into high school districts, they shall describe the requested boundary change or redivision and give the reasons therefor. A requested boundary change of a district shall conform to one of the following types:

(a) consolidation of high school districts shall be the merging of two or more high school districts to form a single high school district;

(b) annexation shall be the attachment of all the territory of a high school district to another high school district or districts;

(c) transfer of territory shall be the detachment of territory from a high school district and the attachment of such territory to another high school district or districts; or

(d) creation of a new high school district shall be the formation of a new high school district from the territory presently incorporated in the requesting high school district.

(3) Whenever the trustees of any high school district request a boundary change or a redivision that would create a joint high school district or in any way affect the boundary of an existing joint high school district, they shall send the boundary change resolution to the county superintendent of each county that would be affected by such boundary change.

History: En. 75-6519 by Sec. 178, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6519.

20-6-303. Establishment of high school districts in a county. The trustees of a high school district located in a county which has not been divided into high school districts or become a high school district by county high school unification may request the division of the county into a high school district or districts. The request shall be sent to the county superintendent.

History: En. 75-6520 by Sec. 179, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 44, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6520.

20-6-304. High school boundary commission — procedure for boundary change, division, or redivision. (1) Each county of the state of Montana shall have a high school boundary commission consisting of the board of county commissioners and the county superintendent. Whenever a county superintendent receives a resolution from the trustees of any high school district requesting a boundary change or a request to divide or redivide the county into high school districts, he shall immediately notify the high school boundary commission. Such commission shall set a time, date, and place for a public hearing on the request. The hearing shall be set for a date within 60 days after the receipt of the request, and any interested person may appear and be heard on such request. The county superintendent shall send a written notice of the public hearing on a requested boundary change, division, or redivision to the trustees of each elementary and high school district of the county which has territory that would be affected by the change. The county superintendent shall also give notice of such public hearing in accordance with the requirement for school election notices prescribed by school election provisions of this title. The certificate of the county superintendent filed with the high school boundary commission reciting that such notice requirements have been satisfied shall be conclusive.

(2) In considering a request to change high school district boundaries or to divide or redivide the county into high school districts, the high school boundary commission shall give primary consideration to the convenience of the high school pupils of the territory under consideration. Such commission also shall consider the grouping of elementary districts to be encompassed by a high school district or districts and shall group contiguous elementary districts within a high school district unless obstacles of travel, such as mountains, rivers, impractical routes of travel, or distance, make such grouping impractical. After the hearing, the high school boundary commission may grant or deny any request made under the provisions of 20-6-302 for a high school district boundary change but shall order the division of the county into high school districts whenever requested under the provisions of 20-6-303. In the latter case the commission's discretion shall extend only to the establishing of boundaries for the newly created high school district or districts.

20-6-305. Approval of high school district boundary when elementary district territory divided by commission. If the order of a high school boundary commission would divide the territory of any elementary district between two or more high school districts or would divide the territory of a joint elementary district which is located within the county between high school districts, the county superintendent shall, under the provisions of 20-20-201, order the trustees of such elementary district to call an election. The election shall be called and conducted in the manner prescribed in this title for school elections. An elector who may vote on the proposition shall be qualified under the provisions of 20-20-301. If the election is required because of the division of the territory of a joint elementary district located in the county, the electors shall be residents of such territory. If a majority of the electors voting at such election approve the division of the elementary district or the county's territory in a joint elementary district, the order of the high school boundary commission shall be approved. If a majority of the electors voting at such election do not approve such division, the high school boundary commission shall reconsider its action and shall establish different high school boundary lines, subject to the same limitations herein described.

History: En. 75-6522 by Sec. 181, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6522.

20-6-306. Counterproposed high school district boundaries by electors and election. (1) Whenever a high school boundary commission issues an order to change high school district boundary lines, 20% or more of the electors of any elementary district with territory affected by the high school boundary change who are qualified to vote under 20-20-301 may protest the boundaries established by the order of the commission within 30 days after the date of the order. The protest shall be in the form of a petition addressed to the county superintendent and shall provide a counterproposition to the new high school boundaries established by the order of the commission for the disposition of the territory of the elementary district for high school districting purposes. The provisions of this section shall not be used in elementary districts that have approved high school boundaries under 20-6-305.

20-6-307. High school district abandonment. Within 6 months after a high school district fails to operate an accredited high school within its boundaries for a period of 1 year, the county superintendent shall order the high school district abandoned. At least 20 days before issuing an abandonment order, the county superintendent shall notify the trustees of the high school district of the impending abandonment. When the order is issued, the county superintendent shall also order the attachment of the territory of each elementary district of the abandoned high school district to another high school district or districts of the county.

20-6-308. Limitations for organization of joint high school district. The boundaries of any high school district which encompass a county's portion of a joint elementary district where an elementary school is operated may be changed to establish a joint high school district. Such high school district boundary change shall be a transfer of all the territory located in another county's portion of the same joint elementary district. No such boundary change shall be made when:

(1) the territory transfer would reduce the taxable value of the taxable property of another high school district to less than $1 million; or

(2) a portion of the territory to be transferred is less than 3 miles from an operating accredited high school located in another high school district.

History: En. 75-6525 by Sec. 184, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 256, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6525.

20-6-309. Procedure for organization of joint high school district. The high school district boundary changes permitted under 20-6-308 shall be made according to the following procedure:

(1) A majority of the electors of a joint elementary district who are qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301 and who reside in a county where the elementary school is not located may petition the county superintendent of their resident county to transfer the territory of the joint elementary district where they reside to establish a joint high school district. Such petition also shall state the reasons for requesting such a boundary change and the number of high school pupils residing in the territory.

(2) When the county superintendent receives a valid petition requesting the establishment of a joint high school district, he shall set a time, date, and place for a public hearing on the request which is not more than 40 days after the receipt of the petition. He shall give notice of such hearing in accordance with the election requirements for school election notices prescribed by school election provisions of this title. The county superintendent shall also notify the county superintendent of the county where the high school is located and the trustees of the high school district.

(3) The county superintendent shall hear the request to change the high school district boundaries at the place, time, and date set for the hearing, and any interested person may appear and be heard on the request. If the county superintendent deems it advisable and in the best interests of the residents of the territory to be transferred, he shall grant the petitioned request and order the change of high school boundaries to establish a joint high school district. Otherwise, he shall, by order, deny the request.

(4) If the county superintendent orders the establishment of a joint high school district, he shall immediately send the order to the county superintendent of the county where the high school is located. If the county superintendent of such county approves the order, he shall send such order to the trustees of the high school district. If the trustees approve the order, the boundary change shall become effective. Without the approval of such county superintendent and trustees, the boundary change shall fail.

(5) At any time within 30 days after the date of the county superintendent's order to grant or deny the request to establish a joint high school district, an appeal may be made to the board of county commissioners of the county in which the petition originated. The board of county commissioners shall conduct a hearing for the appeal, and their decision shall be final, subject to the approvals required by subsection (4).

History: En. 75-6526 by Sec. 185, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6526.

20-6-310. Consolidation of high school districts by county commissioners. The board of county commissioners of any county shall have the authority to consolidate any two or more high school districts of the county whenever it appears to them that it would be for the best interest of the pupils and other residents of the districts and the county. The board of county commissioners shall have complete responsibility and authority to determine all questions involved in effecting the consolidation of the high school districts, except that before it shall become effective any such boundary change shall be approved by the superintendent of public instruction.

History: En. 75-6527 by Sec. 186, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6527.

20-6-311. High school district boundary approval by superintendent. Whenever a high school boundary commission orders changes in high school district boundaries or a division or redivision of the county under the provisions of this title, its order shall not be final until it has been approved by the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall not approve any high school boundary commission order that:

(1) is dated less than 1 year since the last high school boundary commission order was approved for such county;

(2) has not been confirmed by the high school boundary commission of each county affected by the boundary change when it involves a joint high school district; or

(3) does not provide for the high school district boundaries approved by the electors of an elementary district under the provisions of 20-6-305 or 20-6-306.

History: En. 75-6528 by Sec. 187, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6528.

20-6-312. County high school unification. (1) Any county high school may be unified with the elementary district where the county high school building is located to establish a unified school system under a unified board of trustees. If the county has not been divided into high school districts, a high school district with boundaries coterminous with the county boundaries shall be created, except that such high school district shall not include the territory of any existing joint high school district located in the county. The territory of an existing joint high school district shall remain a part of such joint high school district. The creation of high school districts under this provision shall be in lieu of the high school district division provisions of 20-6-303.

(2) A proposition to unify a county high school with the elementary district where the county high school building is located shall be introduced whenever:

(a) the trustees of the county high school and the trustees of the elementary district individually pass resolutions requesting the county superintendent to order an election to consider a unification proposition; or

(b) not less than 20% of the electors of the county or, if the county has been divided into high school districts, the electors of the high school district where the county high school is located, and who are qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301, petition the county superintendent to order an election to consider a unification proposition.

(3) When the county superintendent has received the trustees' resolutions or a valid petition, he shall, within 10 days after the receipt of the last resolution or petition and under the provisions of 20-20-201, order the county high school to call an election to consider a unification proposition. The trustees of the county high school shall call and conduct an election in the manner prescribed in this title for school elections. An elector who may vote on the unification proposition shall be qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301. The ballot for a county high school unification proposition shall be substantially in the following form:

ELECTION

Shall .... County High School be unified with District No. ...., ... County to establish a unified school system under a unified board of trustees?

☐ FOR the unification of the county high school.
☐ AGAINST the unification of the county high school."

(4) When the county superintendent receives the election certificate from the trustees of the county high school, he shall issue an order declaring the unification of the county high school with the elementary district identified on the ballot as of the next succeeding July 1, if a majority of those electors voting at such election have voted for the unification proposition.

(5) If a majority of those electors voting at the election have voted against the unification proposition, he shall order the disapproval of the unification proposition.

History: En. 75-6538 by Sec. 197, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6538.

20-6-313. Transactions after approved county high school unification. (1) Whenever a county high school is unified with the elementary district where the county high school building is located, the following transactions shall be completed on or before the July 1 when the unification becomes effective:

(a) The high school boundary commission, without the approval of the superintendent of public instruction, shall order the creation of a high school district if the county has not already been divided into high school districts.

(b) The county high school trustees, who shall not have the capacity to govern the high school district upon unification, shall surrender all minutes, documents, and other records of the county high school to the trustees of the high school district.

(c) The county superintendent shall order the establishment of additional high school trustee nominating areas in the manner prescribed in 20-3-352 and 20-3-353, if requested to do so by a majority of the outlying elementary districts located in the high school district. When the county superintendent establishes such areas, he shall appoint additional high school district trustees from each area who shall hold office until a successor is elected at the next regular school election and qualified.

(d) The county treasurer, after allowing for any outstanding or registered warrants, shall transfer all end-of-the-year fund cash balances of the county high school to similar funds established for the high school district. All previous years' taxes levied and collected for the county high school shall be credited to the appropriate fund of the high school district.

(e) The board of county commissioners shall execute, in the name of the county, all necessary and appropriate deeds, bills of sale, and other instruments for the conveyance of title to all real and personal property of the county high school, including all appurtenances and hereditaments, to the high school district.

(2) All county high school bonds outstanding at the time of unification shall remain the obligation of the county or that portion of the county against which the bonds were originally issued. The high school district shall be responsible for the maintenance of the debt service fund for such bonds. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners and the trustees of the high school district to perform the duties prescribed in the school budgeting and bond redemption provisions of this title for the redemption and interest payments of the county high school bonds in the same manner and by the same means as though the county high school had not been unified.

After the new district has operated a school for 1 month, the county superintendent shall order the county treasurer to transfer the cash to which the new district is entitled to the credit of the fund of the new district which corresponds with the fund from which it was transferred. The new district shall not assume any debts of the old district other than existing bonded indebtedness which remains an obligation against the taxable property of the territory included in the new district.

20-6-501. Definition of various schools. As used in this title, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term "school" means an institution for the teaching of children that is established and maintained under the laws of the state of Montana at public expense. The trustees of any district shall designate the grade assignments for the schools of the district, but for the purposes of this title each school shall be known as:

(1) an elementary school when it comprises the work of any combination of kindergarten, other preschool programs, or the first eight grades or their equivalents. A middle school is a school comprising the work of grades 4 through 8 or any combination thereof that has been accredited as a middle school under the provisions of 20-7-102. When an accredited junior high school or an accredited 6-year high school is operated by the district, grades 7 and 8 or their equivalents shall not be considered as elementary grades.

(2) a high school when it comprises the work of one or more grades of schoolwork or their equivalents intermediate between the elementary schools and the institutions of higher education of the state of Montana. Types of high schools shall be designated as follows:

(a) a junior high school is a school comprising the work of grades 7 through 9 or their equivalents that has been accredited as a junior high school under the provisions of 20-7-102;

(b) a senior high school is a school which comprises the work of grades 10 through 12 or their equivalents and which is operated in conjunction with a junior high school;

(c) a 6-year high school is a school comprising the work of grades 7 through 12 or their equivalents that has been accredited as a 6-year high school under the provisions of 20-7-102;

(d) a 4-year high school is a school comprising the work of grades 9 through 12 or their equivalents;

(e) a county high school is a 4-year high school operated as an agency of county government and established under the provisions of the acts of March 3, 1899, March 14, 1901, and any subsequent amendments thereto;

(f) a postsecondary vocational-technical center established under the provisions of 20-7-311.

History: En. 75-6601 by Sec. 199, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 352, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6601(1), (2).

20-6-502. Opening or reopening of elementary school. The trustees of any elementary district may open or reopen an elementary school of the district when such opening or reopening has been approved in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The parents of at least three pupils who would attend the opened or reopened school petition the trustees of the district to open or reopen a school during the ensuing school fiscal year. Such petition shall identify the school, state the reasons for requesting the opening or reopening, and give the names of the children who would attend such school.

(2) If the trustees approve the opening or reopening of a school, they shall send the petition with a copy of their approval resolution to the county superintendent. The county superintendent shall review the petition to determine if the average number belonging (ANB) of such school would be five or more.

(3) The county superintendent shall present the petition, trustees' approval, and his findings on the probable ANB to the board of county commissioners (budget board) for their consideration. The budget board shall deny the opening or reopening of any school if the county superintendent's enrollment estimate for such school is less than five ANB. In all other cases, the budget board may approve or disapprove the requested opening or reopening of the elementary school.

(4) If the budget board approves a school opening or reopening, the county superintendent shall send a copy of such approval, along with the petition, trustees' approval, and his estimate of the probable ANB, to the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall approve or disapprove the requested opening or reopening of the elementary school. If the opening or reopening is approved, the superintendent of public instruction shall approve or adjust the ANB estimate of the county superintendent for such school and such ANB amount shall be used for budgeting and foundation program purposes during the ensuing school fiscal year. No ANB amount shall be approved for the ensuing school fiscal year for an opening or reopening school when the request for such school has not been received by the superintendent of public instruction before the fourth Monday of June.

20-6-503. Opening or reopening of a high school. (1) The trustees of any high school district may open or reopen a high school of the district or a branch of a high school of the district when such opening or reopening has been approved by the superintendent of public instruction; except when a county high school is discontinued by a unification action, the trustees may establish, by resolution, a high school to be operated by the high school district without further action or approval. When the trustees of a high school district resolve to open or reopen a high school, they shall apply to the superintendent of public instruction for approval to open or reopen such school by June 1 before the school fiscal year in which they intend to open or reopen the high school. Such application shall state:

(a) their reasons why the high school should be opened or reopened;

(b) the probable enrollment of such high school;

(c) the distance and road conditions of the route to neighboring high schools;

(d) the taxable value of the district;

(e) the building and equipment facilities available for such high school;

(f) the planned course of instruction for such high school;

(g) the planned methods of complying with high school standards of accreditation; and

If the opening is approved, the high school district trustees may open such high school.

(3) Whenever the opening or reopening of a high school is approved for the ensuing school fiscal year, the county superintendent shall estimate the average number belonging (ANB) after investigating the probable enrollment for the high school. The ANB determined by the county superintendent shall be used for budgeting and foundation program purposes.

(4) Nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to preclude the trustees of a high school district from establishing more than one high school in the district.

History: En. 75-6603 by Sec. 201, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6603.

(1) The trustees of any elementary district and the trustees of the high school district in which such elementary district is located may open a junior high school when such opening has been approved by the superintendent of public instruction; except that when the high school district operates a county high school, the opening of a junior high school shall be approved under the provisions of 20-6-505.

(2) When the trustees of such districts resolve to open a junior high school, they shall jointly apply to the superintendent of public instruction for approval to open such school by June 1 before the school fiscal year in which they intend to open the junior high school. The application shall contain such information as is required under 20-6-503 for an application to open a high school.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall investigate the application for the opening of a junior high school and shall approve or disapprove the opening of the junior high school before the fourth Monday of June preceding the first year of intended operation. If the opening is approved, the trustees of the elementary district and the high school district may jointly open such school.

(4) Whenever the opening of a junior high school is approved for the ensuing school fiscal year, the county superintendent shall estimate the average number belonging (ANB) after investigating the probable enrollment for the junior high school. The ANB determined by the county superintendent shall be used for budgeting and foundation program purposes during the ensuing school fiscal year.

(2) When the joint board of trustees resolves to open a junior high school, they shall order an election under the provisions of 20-20-201 to submit a proposition to the electors of the district to approve or disapprove the trustees' resolution to open a junior high school. The joint board of trustees shall call and conduct the election in the manner prescribed in this title for school elections and equally share the cost of the election. Any elector qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301 may vote on the proposition. If a majority of the electors voting at the election approve the proposition, the trustees shall apply to the superintendent of public instruction for approval to open a junior high school. If a majority of the electors voting at the election disapprove the proposition, a junior high school shall not be opened by the joint board of trustees.

(3) The application to the superintendent of public instruction for the approval to open a junior high school shall be submitted by June 1 following the election approving the opening of the junior high school. The application shall contain such information as is required under 20-6-503 for an application to open a high school.

(1) Whenever the opening of a junior high school is approved for the ensuing school fiscal year under 20-6-505, the county superintendent shall estimate the average number belonging (ANB) after investigating the probable enrollment for the junior high school. The ANB determined by the county superintendent and the ANB actually realized in subsequent school fiscal years shall be applied under 20-9-320 to prorate the maximum-general-fund-budget-without-a-voted-levy between the elementary and high school districts. Each district shall adopt its general fund budget on the basis of the prorated amount and shall finance its proportionate share of the cost of operating the junior high school.

(2) The cost of operating the junior high school shall be prorated between the elementary district and the high school district on the basis of the ratio that the number of pupils of their district is to the total enrollment of the junior high school.

(2) The trustees of any district shall adopt a resolution stating their intention to sell or otherwise dispose of district real or personal property because it is or is about to become abandoned, obsolete, undesirable, or unsuitable for the school purposes of the district. When such a resolution is adopted, the trustees shall set the date of the trustees' meeting when they shall consider the adoption of a resolution to authorize the sale or other disposition of such real or personal property. The trustees shall cause notices to be posted in the manner required for school elections that state the text of the resolution of intention to sell or dispose of the real or personal property and the time, date, and place when the resolution authorizing the sale or other disposition will be considered for adoption. Any elector of the district shall have the right to be present and protest the passage of the resolution. If the trustees adopt the resolution and an elector has protested such adoption at the trustee meeting conducted for the hearing on the resolution, such resolution shall not become effective for 5 days after the date of its adoption.

(3) Any taxpayer may appeal the resolution of the trustees, at any time within 5 days after the date of the resolution, to the district court by filing a verified petition with the clerk of such court and serving a copy of such petition upon the district. The petition shall set out in detail the objections of the petitioner to the adoption of the resolution or to the disposal of the property. The service and filing of the petition shall stay the resolution until final determination of the matter by the court. The court shall immediately fix the time for a hearing at the earliest convenient time. At the hearing, the court shall hear the matter de novo and may take testimony as it deems necessary. Its proceedings shall be summary and informal, and its decision shall be final.

(4) The trustees of a district that has adopted a resolution to sell or otherwise dispose of district real or personal property and, if appealed, has been upheld by the court shall sell or dispose of such real or personal property in any reasonable manner that they determine to be in the best interests of the district. The moneys realized from the sale or disposal shall be credited to the debt service fund, building fund, general fund, or any combination of these three funds, at the discretion of the trustees.

However, the owner or claimant shall first notify the trustees in writing of his intent to repossess the land, and the trustees shall thereafter have 1 year to remove any buildings or improvements placed there by the district. The trustees' failure to remove the buildings or improvements within that time shall constitute a forfeiture of such buildings or improvements. Before the owner or claimant shall have the right to give notice of repossession, the district's intention to permanently cease using the land shall have been established by resolution of the trustees and vote of the district's electors.

Special Education for Exceptional Children

20-7-401. Definitions. In this title, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Appropriate public education" means the provision of regular or special education and related aids and services that are designed to meet individual educational needs of handicapped persons as adequately as the needs of nonhandicapped are met.

(2) "Deaf" means a hearing impairment which is so severe that the child's hearing is nonfunctional for the purpose of educational performance.

(3) "Emotionally disturbed" means a condition exhibiting one or more of the following characteristics to a marked degree and over a long period of time: an inability to learn which cannot be explained by intellectual, sensory, or health factors; an inability to build or maintain satisfactory interpersonal relationships with peers and teachers; inappropriate types of behavior or feelings under normal circumstances; a general pervasive mood of unhappiness or depression; or a tendency to develop physical symptoms, pains, or fears associated with personal or school problems. The term does not include children who are socially maladjusted. The emotionally disturbed category may include students who also may have been diagnosed by appropriate specialists as autistic, psychotic, sociopathic, or schizophrenic. An emotionally disturbed child's disorders are not primarily the result of problems with visual acuity, hearing impairment, physical handicaps, cultural or instructional factors, or mental retardation. "Emotionally disturbed" refers to a person who has been identified, based on a comprehensive evaluation, as having observable behavioral patterns which seriously inhibit the academic and social or emotional growth of the individual or the educational rights of others to the point that supportive services are required. These behavioral patterns may include:

(a) excessive physical or verbal aggression toward oneself or others and a lack of response to regular educational intervention;

(b) high frequency of persistent inattention to academic or social tasks associated with regular classroom performance; and

(c) persistent withdrawal from peer or adult interactions associated with the expected social development in a regular educational environment.

(4) "Handicapped child" means a child evaluated as being mentally retarded, hard-of-hearing, deaf, speech-impaired, visually handicapped, emotionally disturbed, orthopedically impaired, other health-impaired, or as having specific learning disabilities, who because of those impairments needs special education and related services.

(5) "Hard-of-hearing" means a hearing impairment, whether permanent or fluctuating, which adversely affects a child's educational performance but which is not included within the definition of deaf.

(6) "Mentally retarded" means significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior and manifested during the developmental period, which adversely affects a child's educational performance.

(7) "Orthopedically impaired" means a severe orthopedic impairment which adversely affects a child's educational performance. The term includes but is not limited to impairment caused by congenital anomaly (e.g., clubfoot or absence of some member), impairments caused by disease (e.g., poliomyelitis, bone tuberculosis), and impairments from other causes (e.g., fractures or burns which cause contractures, amputation, cerebral palsy).

(8) "Other health-impaired" means limited strength, vitality, or alertness due to chronic or acute health problems such as a heart condition, tuberculosis, rheumatic fever, nephritis, asthma, sickle-cell anemia, hemophilia, epilepsy, lead poisoning, leukemia, or diabetes.

(9) "Special education" means specially designed instruction, given at no cost to the parents or guardians, to meet the unique needs of a handicapped child, including but not limited to classroom instruction, instruction in physical education, home instruction, and instruction in hospitals and institutions. The term includes but is not limited to speech pathology, audiology, occupational therapy, and physical therapy.

(10) "Specific learning disability" means a disorder in one or more of the basic psychological processes involved in understanding or in using language, spoken or written, which may manifest itself in an imperfect ability to listen, think, speak, read, write, spell, or do mathematical calculations. The term includes but is not limited to such conditions as perceptual handicaps, brain injury, minimal brain dysfunction, dyslexia, and developmental aphasia. The term does not include children who have learning problems which are primarily the result of visual, hearing, or motor handicaps; mental retardation; or environmental, cultural, or economic disadvantages.

(11) "Speech/language impaired" means a communication disorder such as stuttering, impaired articulation, or a language or voice impairment which adversely affects a child's interpersonal relationships or educational performance.

(12) "Visually handicapped" means a visual impairment which, after correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance. The term includes both partially seeing and blind children.

20-9-161. Definition of emergency for budgeting purposes. As used in this title, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term "emergency" for the purpose of school budgeting shall be:

(1) an increase in the enrollment of an elementary or high school district over the immediately preceding school fiscal year which is beyond what could reasonably have been anticipated at the time of the adoption of the budget for the then-current school fiscal year whenever, because of such enrollment increase, the district's budget for any or all of the regularly budgeted funds does not provide sufficient financing to properly maintain and support the district for the entire current school fiscal year;

(2) the destruction or impairment of any school property necessary to the maintenance of the school, by fire, flood, storm, riot, insurrection, or any act of God, to such an extent as to render such school property unfit for its present school use;

(3) a judgment for damages against the district rendered by a court after the adoption of the budget for the current year;

(4) an enactment of legislation after the adoption of the budget for the current year that imposes an additional financial obligation on the district; or

(5) any other reason of similar consequences that has been approved by the superintendent of public instruction upon petition by the trustees of the district or by the board of regents upon petition by the trustees of a community college district.

History: En. 75-6723 by Sec. 229, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6723; amd. Sec. 19, Ch. 392, L. 1979.

20-9-162. Authorization for emergency budget adoption. Emergency budgets may be adopted at any time of the school fiscal year, except that emergency budgets required by an enrollment increase that could not have been anticipated at the time of the adoption of the regular budget as provided in 20-9-161(1) may not be adopted until after December 31.

20-9-163. Resolution for emergency budget — petition to superintendent of public instruction or to the board of regents. (1) Whenever the trustees of any district decide that an emergency exists, they may adopt a resolution proclaiming such emergency by a unanimous vote of all members present at any meeting for which each trustee has been given reasonable notice of the time and place of holding such meeting. The emergency resolution shall also state the facts constituting the emergency, the estimated amount of money required to meet the emergency, the funds affected by the emergency, and the time and place when the board will meet for the purpose of considering and adopting an emergency budget for such funds for the current school fiscal year.

(2) If the trustees decide that an emergency exists for any reason other than the conditions specified in subsections (1), (2), (3), or (4) of 20-9-161, they shall petition the superintendent of public instruction or, in the case of a community college district, the board of regents for permission to adopt a resolution of emergency. Such petition shall set forth in writing the reasons for the request, the district funds affected by the emergency, the estimated amount of money required to meet such emergency for each affected fund, the anticipated sources of financing for the emergency expenditures, and such other information as may be required by the superintendent of public instruction or the board of regents. The petition shall be signed by each trustee.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction or, in the case of a community college district, the board of regents shall promptly approve or disapprove the petition requesting approval to adopt a resolution of emergency. If the petition is approved, the trustees may then adopt a resolution of emergency and may subsequently take all other steps required for the adoption of an emergency budget. Approval of a petition by the superintendent of public instruction or the board of regents shall merely authorize the board of trustees to initiate emergency budget proceedings by resolution and shall not relieve the trustees of the necessity of complying with the requirements of the school emergency budgeting laws. Approval of the petition shall not be construed as approval of any subsequent application for increased state aid on account of such emergency.

20-9-164. Notice of emergency budget resolution. A copy of the emergency resolution shall be published one time in a newspaper that will give notice to the largest number of people of the district as determined by the trustees, and a copy of the resolution shall be posted at each schoolhouse of the district. A copy of the emergency resolution shall also be delivered to the county superintendent and to the county clerk as the clerk of the board of county commissioners of the county. The publication, posting, and delivery of the resolution shall be done not less than 1 week before the day specified in the resolution for the consideration and adoption of an emergency budget.

History: En. 75-6726 by Sec. 232, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6726.

20-9-165. Emergency budget limitation, preparation, and adoption procedures. (1) The meeting of the trustees to consider and adopt an emergency budget shall be open to the public, and any taxpayer in the district shall have the right to appear and be heard. If at such a meeting a majority of the trustees present shall find that an emergency exists, the trustees may make and adopt a preliminary emergency budget, on the regular budget form, setting forth fully the facts constituting the emergency. In adopting the preliminary emergency budget, the trustees may budget for any fund which was included on the final budget of the district for the current school fiscal year. The budget shall be itemized to show the amount appropriated for each item as required on the budget form.

(2) When the emergency is due to any increase of enrollment, the maximum amount of the emergency budget for all funds shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) Determine the total amount in the final budget for the current school fiscal year of all funds affected by the emergency, less any amounts appropriated as capital outlay and any amount appropriated for addition to the cash reserve.

(b) Divide the amount determined in subsection (2)(a) by the number of pupils originally enrolled in such district during the immediately preceding school fiscal year. The resulting cost per pupil shall constitute the maximum permissible per-pupil expenditure in the emergency budget.

(c) Determine the enrollment increase of the current school fiscal year by subtracting the number of pupils originally enrolled during the immediately preceding school fiscal year from the number of pupils enrolled for the current school year. The result shall be the enrollment increase for the current school fiscal year.

(d) Multiply the cost per pupil determined in subsection (2)(b) by the enrollment increase determined in subsection (2)(c). The result shall be the maximum limitation on an emergency budget for emergencies due to an increase of enrollment.

(e) In the case of a community college district, by budget amendment in accordance with 20-15-302.

(3) In the event of any other type of emergency, the budget shall be limited by those expenditures deemed by the trustees to be reasonable and necessary to finance the stated conditions of the emergency and the preliminary emergency budget shall be accompanied with the details of the proposed expenditures.

(4) Whenever the trustees adopt a preliminary emergency budget for the transportation fund, the trustees shall attach to such budget a copy of each transportation contract which is connected with the emergency and which has been prepared and executed in accordance with the school transportation contract laws.

(5) After the trustees have adopted the emergency budget by a majority vote of the trustees, it shall be signed by the chairman of the trustees and the clerk of the district and copies shall be sent to the county superintendent, the county treasurer, and the superintendent of public instruction. In the case of a community college district, copies of the emergency budget shall be sent to the county superintendent, the county treasurer, and the board of regents.

History: En. 75-6727 by Sec. 233, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 277, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6727; amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 392, L. 1979.

20-9-166. State financial aid for emergency budgets. Whenever a final emergency budget has been adopted for the general fund or the transportation fund to finance the cost of an emergency due to an increased enrollment or any other reason approved by the superintendent of public instruction under the provisions of 20-9-163, the trustees may apply to the superintendent of public instruction for an increased payment from the state public school equalization aid account for the foundation program or for state transportation reimbursement, or both. The superintendent of public instruction shall publish rules for such application. The superintendent of public instruction shall approve or disapprove each application for increased state aid made in accordance with this section. When the superintendent of public instruction approves an application, he shall determine the additional amount of state aid from the state public school equalization aid account or the state transportation reimbursement which will be made available to the applicant district because of the emergency caused by an increase in enrollment. The superintendent of public instruction shall notify the applicant district of his approval or disapproval and, in the event of approval, the amount of additional state aid that will be made available for the general fund or the transportation fund. The superintendent of public instruction shall disburse such emergency state aid to the eligible district at the time the next regular state aid payment is made.

History: En. 75-6729 by Sec. 235, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6729.

20-9-167. Determination of available financing — fixing and levying property taxation for an emergency budget. (1) After the last day of the school fiscal year for which an emergency budget has been adopted, the county treasurer shall determine the amount of the cash balance that is available to finance the emergency budget's outstanding warrants or registered warrants for each fund included on the emergency budget. The available amount of the cash balance of each fund shall be determined by deducting from the county treasurer's year-end cash balance for such fund the outstanding or registered warrants issued under the regularly adopted final budget for such fund and the cash reserve for such fund which the trustees have established, within the limitations of law, for the following school fiscal year.

(2) The county treasurer shall prepare and deliver a statement on the financial status of each fund included on an emergency budget for a district having such a budget during the preceding year to the board of county commissioners by the first Monday in August. Such statement for each district emergency budget shall include:

(a) the total amount of the issued emergency warrants that are outstanding or registered against each fund of the district;

(b) the amount of the cash balance in each fund included on the emergency budget which is available to finance such outstanding or registered warrants; and

(c) after consideration of the available money in subsection (2)(b), the additional amount of money which is required to finance the outstanding warrants or registered warrants and interest on such warrants and which must be raised by a tax levy.

(3) For each fund of the emergency budget of each district requiring a tax levy as established by subsection (2)(c) of the county treasurer's statement, the board of county commissioners shall, at the time all other district and county taxes are fixed and levied, levy a tax on the taxable property of each applicable district that will raise sufficient financing to pay the amount established by the county treasurer.

No person other than the trustees acting as a governing board shall have the authority to expend moneys of the district. In conducting the fiscal business of the district, the trustees shall:

(1) cause the keeping of an accurate, detailed accounting of all receipts and expenditures of school moneys for each fund maintained by the district in accordance with rules prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction. The record of such accounting shall be open to public inspection at any meeting of the trustees.

(3) have the authority to issue warrants on any budgeted fund in anticipation of budgeted revenues, except that such expenditures shall not exceed the amount budgeted for such fund;

All interest collected on such deposits or investments shall be credited to the fund from which the money was withdrawn, except that interest earned on account of the investment of money realized from the sale of bonds shall be credited to the debt service fund or the building fund, at the discretion of the board of trustees. The placement of the investment by the county treasurer shall not be subject to ratable distribution laws and shall be done in accordance with the directive from the board of trustees. 20-9-216 through 20-9-220 reserved.

20-9-221. Procedure for issuance of warrants. (1) The trustees of each district shall issue all warrants, and the warrants shall identify:

(a) the budgeted fund or nonbudgeted fund on which the warrant is drawn;

(b) the appropriation item of the budgeted fund or the type of expenditure for a nonbudgeted fund on which the warrant is drawn; and

(c) the warrant as an emergency warrant if it is drawn on an emergency budget.

(2) Any warrant issued by a district shall be countersigned by the chairman of the trustees and the clerk of the district before the warrant shall be negotiable. Facsimile signatures may be used in accordance with the provisions of 2-16-114. A facsimile signature device used under authority of this section must not be available to the other countersigner of the warrant, or the device must have a nonresettable metering control that can provide a positive reconciliation between the number of warrants issued and the number of signatures applied. Either split signature plates or a double signature plate may be used according to the requirements of the district. The signature plates and the device keys must be kept secure by the district clerk under the supervision of the board of trustees of the district.

(3) The trustees shall issue warrants in single copy or in triplicate copy. When the warrants are issued in single copy, the trustees shall immediately provide a listing of the issued warrants on a fund-by-fund basis to the county treasurer and retain a copy of the listing in the district accounting records. When the warrants are issued in triplicate, the original copy of the warrant shall be delivered to the payee, the duplicate shall be sent immediately to the county treasurer, and the triplicate shall be retained by the district for accounting record purposes. The duplicate and triplicate copies shall be identified on the face of the warrant as "Not Negotiable—Copy of Original".

(4) However, the trustees may elect to issue warrants in payment of wages and salaries on a direct deposit basis to the employee's account in a local bank, provided the consent of the employee has been obtained and the employee is given an itemized statement of payroll deductions for each pay period.

20-9-222. Recording and payment of warrants by county treasurer. (1) Immediately after receiving a duplicate warrant or a warrant listing from a district, the county treasurer shall enter the amount and number of such warrant on his accounting records under the fund identified on such warrant or listing. The recording of the warrants shall allow for the computation of the unexpended amount of a budgeted fund from the accounting records.

(2) Whenever it appears to the county treasurer that a budgeted fund is so nearly exhausted that the issuance of another warrant will cause the overexpenditure of such budget, the county treasurer shall immediately notify the appropriate district of the expended condition of the budget and the district shall not issue another warrant against such fund that would overexpend the budget.

(3) After receiving a duplicate warrant or warrant listing that contains a warrant which will exceed the unexpended balance of a budgeted fund, the county treasurer shall immediately notify the district of such overdraft. If the district has not corrected the overdraft before the presentation of the warrant for payment, the county treasurer shall refuse to pay or register such warrant and shall endorse across the face of such warrant "Payment and Registration Refused, Insufficient Budget" and return the warrant to the person presenting it for payment.

(4) Whenever a warrant will overexpend the cash balance of a nonbudgeted fund, the county treasurer shall refuse to pay or register such warrant and shall endorse across the face of such warrant "Payment and Registration Refused, Insufficient Funds" and return the warrant to the person presenting it for payment. The county treasurer shall immediately notify the district of such refusal to pay or register the warrant drawn on a nonbudgeted fund.

20-9-223. Cancellation of outstanding warrants — duplication. The trustees of any school district shall be authorized to cancel any warrant that has been issued for at least 1 year. However, the contractual obligation of the district that has been satisfied by the issuance of the warrant shall not be terminated until the time specified by 27-2-202(1) has elapsed. When a warrant has been cancelled and the obligation has not terminated under 27-2-202(1), the district may issue a duplicate warrant without the completion of an indemnity bond by the payee.

20-9-224. Credit of refund — refund of revenue not charged against spending authority. (2) A refund of revenue previously received by a school district shall not be charged against a school district's spending authority.

Equalization Aid

20-9-301. Purpose and definition of foundation program and general fund. (1) A uniform system of free public schools sufficient for the education of and open to all school age children of the state shall be established and maintained throughout the state of Montana. The state shall aid in the support of its several school districts on the basis of their financial need as measured by the foundation program and in the manner established in this title.

(2) The principal budgetary vehicle for achieving the minimum financing as established by the foundation program shall be the general fund of the district. The purpose of the general fund shall be to finance those general maintenance and operational costs of a district not financed by other funds established for special purposes in this title.

(3) The amount of the general fund budget for each school fiscal year shall not exceed the financing limitations established by this title but shall be no less than the amount established by law as the foundation program. The general fund budget shall be financed by the foundation program revenues and may be supplemented by the permissive levy and additional voted levies in the manner provided by law.

History: En. 75-6901 by Sec. 251, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6901.

20-9-302. School isolation. (1) The trustees of any district operating an elementary school of less than 10 ANB or a high school of less than 25 ANB for 2 consecutive years shall apply to have the school classified as an isolated school. The application shall be submitted by the trustees to the county superintendent by May 1 of the second consecutive year that enrollment falls below the amount specified in this subsection. Such application shall include:

(a) the name of each pupil who will attend the school during the ensuing school fiscal year with the distance the pupil resides from the nearest county road or highway;

(b) a description of conditions affecting transportation such as poor roads, mountains, rivers, or other obstacles to travel, the distance the school is from the nearest open school having room and facilities for the pupils of such school, or any other condition that would result in an unusual hardship to the pupils of the school if they were transported to another school; and

(c) any other information prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction.

(2) The county superintendent shall submit the applications to the board of county commissioners (budget board) for their consideration on or before May 15. The budget board shall approve or disapprove the application on the basis of the criteria established by the superintendent of public instruction. The budget board also may approve an application because of the existence of other conditions which would result in an unusual hardship to the pupils of such school if they were transported to another school.

(3) When an application is approved, the county superintendent shall submit such application to the superintendent of public instruction before June 1. The superintendent of public instruction shall approve or disapprove such application for isolated classification by the fourth Monday of June on the basis of the information supplied by the application or objective information the superintendent of public instruction may collect on his own initiative. No elementary or high school shall be considered an isolated school until the approval of the superintendent of public instruction has been received.

1981 Amendment: In (1), increased the time when enrollment must fall below the specified amount before a school is classified as an isolated school from 1 year to 2 consecutive years; changed the time for submitting an application from "May 1 each year" to "May 1 of the second consecutive year that enrollment falls below the amount specified in this subsection" in the second sentence of (1).

20-9-303. Definition of foundation program and its proportion of the maximum-general-fund-without-a-voted-levy schedule amount — nonisolated school foundation program financing — special education funds. (1) As used in this title, the term "foundation program" shall mean the minimum operating expenditures, as established herein, that are sufficient to provide for the educational program of a school. The foundation program relates only to those expenditures authorized by a district's general fund budget and shall not include expenditures from any other fund. It shall be financed by:

(a) county equalization moneys; and

(b) state equalization aid.

(2) The dollar amount of the foundation program shall be 80% of the maximum-general-fund-budget-without-a-voted-levy limitation as set forth in the schedules in 20-9-316 through 20-9-321. The foundation program of an elementary school having an ANB of nine or fewer pupils for 2 consecutive years which is not approved as an isolated school under the provisions of 20-9-302 shall be 80% of the schedule amount, but the county and state shall participate in financing one-half of the foundation program, and the district shall finance the remaining one-half by a tax levied on the property of the district. When a school of nine or fewer pupils is approved as isolated under the provisions of 20-9-302, the county and state shall participate in the financing of the total amount of the foundation program.

(3) Funds provided to support the special education accounting budget may be expended only for special education purposes as approved by the superintendent of public instruction in accordance with the special education budgeting provisions of this title. Expenditures for special education shall be accounted for separately from the balance of the school district general fund. Transfers between items within the special education budget for accounting purposes may be made at the discretion of the board of trustees in accordance with the financial administration part of this title. The unexpended balance of the special education accounting budget shall carry over to the next year to reduce the amount of funding required to finance the district's ensuing year's maximum-budget-without-a-vote for special education.

20-9-304. Eligibility for and payment of state impact aid. Any district which shall have children of employees of a public institution may be eligible for state impact aid under the following provisions:

(1) An "employee" means an employee of a public institution under the administration of the department of institutions, as defined in 53-1-202, who resides on the property of such a public institution.

(2) A school district shall receive annually from moneys available for state equalization aid $150 for each elementary pupil and $250 for each high school pupil whose parents are employees of an institution located in the school district where the pupil attends school or in a school district which has a tuition agreement with the district where the pupil attends school.

(3) A district which is eligible for state impact aid shall apply for such aid to the superintendent of public instruction in the manner prescribed by the rules prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction.

(4) The distribution of state impact aid shall be deposited in the general fund of the district and shall not be considered as a part of the state equalization aid but shall be used to reduce the property tax in support of the general fund of the district.

History: En. 75-6925 by Sec. 275, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-6925.

20-9-305. Proration and calculation of foundation program for a joint district. (1) In joint districts, the foundation program shall be prorated among the counties in which any part of the joint district is located for the purpose of determining the amount of each source of revenue for the foundation program for which each county is obligated. The proration of the joint district foundation program shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Divide the joint district foundation program by the ANB of the joint district to determine the per-ANB amount of the foundation program.

(b) Determine the ANB for each county's portion of the joint district on the basis of each pupil's resident county. When taken together, the sum of the ANB assigned to all the counties shall equal the total ANB for the joint district.

(c) Multiply the per-ANB amount of the foundation program determined in subsection (1)(a) by the ANB for each county's portion as determined in subsection (1)(b) to determine the portion of the foundation program for each county.

(2) The portion of a joint district foundation program for each county, as determined in subsection (1)(c) of this section, shall be considered as a separate foundation program in such county for the purposes of calculating the various revenues for the foundation program. After the calculation of the foundation program revenues, the remainder of the general fund revenues shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions for general fund financing.

20-9-306 through 20-9-310 reserved.

20-9-311. Calculation of average number belonging (ANB). (1) Average number belonging shall be computed by determining the total of the aggregate days of attendance by regularly enrolled, full-time pupils during the current school fiscal year plus the aggregate days of absence by regularly enrolled, full-time pupils during the current school fiscal year and by dividing such total by 180. However, when a school district has approval to operate less than 180 school days under 20-9-804, such total shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of 20-9-805. Attendance for a part of a morning session or a part of an afternoon session by a pupil shall be counted as attendance for one-half day. In calculating the ANB for pupils enrolled in a program established under 20-7-117 prior to January 1, 1974, or pursuant to 20-7-117(1), attendance at or absence from a regular session of the program for at least 2 hours of either a morning or an afternoon session will be counted as one-half of a day attended or absent as the case may be. If a variance has been granted as provided in 20-1-302, ANB will be computed in a manner prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction, but in no case shall the ANB exceed one-half for each kindergarten pupil. When any pupil has been absent, with or without excuse, for more than 10 consecutive school days, including pupil-instruction-related days, his absence after the 10th day of absence shall not be included in the aggregate days of absence and his enrollment in the school shall not be considered in the calculation of the average number belonging until he resumes attendance at school.

(2) If a student spends less than half his time in the regular program and the balance of his time in school in the special education program, he shall be considered a full-time special pupil but shall not be considered regularly enrolled for ANB purposes. If a student spends half or more of his time in school in the regular program and the balance of his time in the special education program, he shall be considered regularly enrolled for ANB purposes.

(3) The average number belonging of the regularly enrolled, full-time pupils for the public schools of a district shall be calculated individually for each school, except that when:

(a) more than one school of a district, other than a junior high school in an elementary district which has been approved and accredited as a junior high school, is located within the incorporated limits of a city or town, the average number belonging of such schools shall be based on the aggregate of all the regularly enrolled, full-time pupils attending such schools located within the incorporated limits of a city or town;

(b) a junior high school which has been approved and accredited as a junior high school is located within the incorporated limits of a city or town in which a high school is located, all of the regularly enrolled, full-time pupils of the junior high school shall be considered as high school district pupils for the purposes of calculating the average number belonging of the high schools located within the incorporated limits of such city or town;

(c) a middle school has been approved and accredited, in which case pupils below the 7th grade shall be considered elementary school pupils for ANB purposes and the 7th and 8th grade pupils shall be considered high school pupils for ANB purposes; or

(d) a school has not been accredited by the board of public education, the regularly enrolled, full-time pupils attending the nonaccredited school shall not be eligible for average number belonging calculation purposes, nor will an average number belonging for the nonaccredited school be used in determining the foundation program for such district.

(4) When 11th or 12th grade students are regularly enrolled on a part-time basis, high schools may calculate the ANB to include an "equivalent ANB" for those students. The method for calculating an equivalent ANB shall be determined in a manner prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction.

20-9-312. Maximum general fund budget for grades seven and eight. The ANB calculated for grades 7 and 8 shall be funded at the high school rate provided that the school meets the standards for accreditation of a middle school. When such pupils are actually enrolled in an elementary school, the amount of the general fund budget per ANB is determined from the high school schedule using the total ANB of the elementary school. To determine the total ANB of such an elementary school, the 7th and 8th grade pupils shall be included in such total.

20-9-313. Circumstances under which the regular average number belonging may be increased. The average number belonging of a school for a given school fiscal year, calculated in accordance with the ANB formula prescribed in 20-9-311, may be increased when:

(1) the opening of a new elementary school or the reopening of an elementary school has been approved in accordance with 20-6-502. The average number belonging for such school shall be established by the county superintendent and approved, disapproved, or adjusted by the superintendent of public instruction.

(2) the opening or reopening of a high school or a branch of the county high school has been approved in accordance with 20-6-503, 20-6-504, or 20-6-505. The average number belonging for such high school shall be established by the county superintendent's estimate, after an investigation of the probable number of pupils that will attend such high school.

(3) a district anticipates an increase in the average number belonging due to the closing of any private or public school in the district or a neighboring district. The estimated increase in average number belonging shall be established by the trustees and the county superintendent and approved, disapproved, or adjusted by the superintendent of public instruction no later than the fourth Monday in June.

(4) a district anticipates an unusual enrollment increase in the ensuing school fiscal year. The increase in average number belonging shall be based on estimates of increased enrollment approved by the superintendent of public instruction and shall be computed in the manner prescribed by 20-9-314.

(5) for the initial year of operation of a program established under 20-7-117(1), the ANB to be used for budget purposes is the same as one-half the number of 5-year-old children residing in the district as of September 10 of the preceding school year, either as shown on the official school census or as determined by some other procedure approved by the superintendent of public instruction;

(6) a special full-time pupil, as defined in 20-9-311, in a given school year will no longer be considered a special full-time pupil in the ensuing school year (the superintendent of public instruction may grant one ANB for such pupil for the ensuing school year); or

(7) a high school district provides early graduation for any student who completes graduation requirements in less than eight semesters or the equivalent amount of secondary school enrollment or when a high school district provides early graduation for a class of students who have completed the requirements for graduation after 175 pupil-instruction days in the 12th grade. The increase shall be established by the trustees as though the student had attended to the end of the school year and shall be approved, disapproved, or adjusted by the superintendent of public instruction.

20-9-314. Procedures for determining eligibility and amount of increased average number belonging due to unusual enrollment increase. A district which anticipates an unusual increase in enrollment in the ensuing school fiscal year, as provided for in 20-9-313(4), may increase its foundation program for the ensuing school fiscal year in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) The district shall estimate the current year's average number belonging by totaling the aggregate days of attendance and aggregate days of absence realized in the district through April 30 and dividing such total by 180. The resulting average number belonging shall be increased by the ratio that the total number of planned school days in the current school fiscal year bears to the number of school days completed through April 30.

(2) Prior to May 10, the district shall estimate the probable average number belonging to be realized during the ensuing school fiscal year, based on as much factual information as may be available to the district.

(3) No later than May 10, the district shall submit its application for an unusual enrollment increase to the superintendent of public instruction. Such application shall include:

(a) the previous year's average number belonging;

(b) the estimate of the current school fiscal year's average number belonging, as provided in subsection (1) above;

(c) the estimated average number belonging for the ensuing school fiscal year, including the factual information on which the estimate is based, as provided in subsection (2) above; and

(d) any other information or data that may be requested by the superintendent of public instruction.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall immediately review all the factors of the application and shall approve or disapprove the application or adjust the estimated average number belonging for the ensuing school fiscal year. After approving an estimate, with or without adjustment, the superintendent of public instruction shall:

(a) determine the percentage increase which the estimated average number belonging for the ensuing fiscal year is over the current year's average number belonging; and

(b) approve an increase of the average number belonging used to establish the ensuing year's foundation program in accordance with subsection (6) if the increase in subsection (4)(a) is at least 6%.

(5) The superintendent of public instruction shall notify the district of his decision by the fourth Monday in June.

Cash balances to the credit of any district at the end of a school fiscal year shall not be considered in the apportionment procedure prescribed in this section.

(4) When the total amount of the available county moneys for apportionment under this section is greater than the amount of money to be apportioned under the apportionment procedure prescribed by this section, the excess amount of county moneys shall be retained by the county to be considered as financing during the ensuing school fiscal year under the requirements of 20-9-331(2)(e) or 20-9-333(2)(a).

(5) The county equalization moneys apportioned under these procedures shall constitute the first source of revenue in calculating the financing of the public elementary and secondary district foundation program. The county superintendent shall use the apportionment procedure prescribed in this section in computing the estimated revenues for the financing of the ensuing year's foundation program for budgeting purposes.

20-9-342. Deposit of interest and income moneys by state board of land commissioners. 20-9-343. Definition of and revenue for state equalization aid. (1) As used in this title, the term "state equalization aid" means those moneys deposited in the earmarked revenue fund as required in this section plus any legislative appropriation of moneys from other sources for distribution to the public schools for the purpose of equalization of the foundation program.

(2) The legislative appropriation for state equalization aid shall be made in a single sum for the biennium. The superintendent of public instruction has authority to spend such appropriation, together with the earmarked revenues provided in subsection (3), as required for foundation program purposes throughout the biennium.

(3) The following shall be paid into the earmarked revenue fund for state equalization aid to public schools of the state:

(a) 25% of all moneys received from the collection of income taxes under chapter 30 of Title 15;

(e) interest and income moneys described in 20-9-341 and 20-9-342;

(f) income from the local impact and education trust fund account; and

(g) in addition to these revenues, the surplus revenues collected by the counties for foundation program support according to 20-9-331 and 20-9-333 shall be paid into the same earmarked revenue fund.

(4) Any surplus revenue in the state equalization aid account in the second year of a biennium may be used to reduce the appropriation required for the next succeeding biennium [or may be transferred to the state permissive account if revenues in that fund are insufficient to meet the state's permissive amount obligation].

1981 Amendment: Chapter 317 added subsections (2) and (4).

Inconsistent Language: Chapter 540, L. 1981, entitled "An Act to simplify utilization of funds available for financing the foundation program and permissive portions of public school budgets; amending sections 20-9-345, 20-9-351, and 20-9-352, MCA" purported to abolish the permissive levy account by deleting all references to that account in the three sections amended. For this reason and because sec. 1 of Ch. 540 deleted from 20-9-345 language requiring that unencumbered funds remaining in the public school equalization earmarked revenue account at the end of the year be transferred to the state permissive school levies earmarked revenue account, the Code Commissioner has placed brackets around similar language in subsection (4), which was added by Ch. 317, L. 1981, to indicate that this language is apparently inconsistent with the elimination of the state permissive account.

Appropriations: Section 1, HB 611 (1981) provided: "All revenues received under the provisions of 20-9-343 for state equalization aid are appropriated to the superintendent of public instruction for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, for public school support other than for special education." Section 2, HB 611, provided a contingency appropriation.

20-9-344. Purpose of state equalization aid and duties of the board of public education for distribution. (1) The money available for state equalization aid shall be distributed and apportioned to provide an annual minimum operating revenue for the elementary and high schools in each county, exclusive of revenues required for debt service and for the payment of any and all costs and expense incurred in connection with any adult education program, recreation program, school food services program, new buildings, new grounds, and transportation.

(2) The board of public education shall administer and distribute the state equalization aid in the manner and with the powers and duties provided by law. To this end, the board of public education shall:

(a) adopt policies for regulating the distribution of state equalization aid in accordance with the provisions of law;

(b) have the power to require such reports from the county superintendents, budget boards, county treasurers, and trustees as it may deem necessary; and

(c) order the superintendent of public instruction to distribute the state equalization aid on the basis of each district's annual entitlement to such aid as established by the superintendent of public instruction. In ordering the distribution of state equalization aid, the board of public education shall not increase or decrease the state equalization aid distribution to any district on account of any difference which may occur during the school fiscal year between budgeted and actual receipts from any other source of school revenue.

(3) Should a district receive more state equalization aid than it is entitled to, the county treasurer must return the overpayment to the state upon the request of the superintendent of public instruction in the manner prescribed by the department of administration.

Transfer of Function: Section 7, Ch. 274, L. 1981, provided in part: "(1) The functions of the department of community affairs of auditing the accounts and financial transactions of political subdivisions and generally assisting political subdivisions in . . . 20-9-344 . . . are transferred to the department of administration."

20-9-346. Duties of the superintendent of public instruction for state equalization aid distribution. The superintendent of public instruction shall administer the distribution of the state equalization aid by:

(1) establishing each district's annual entitlement to state equalization aid, based on the data reported in the budget for each district that has been duly adopted for the current school fiscal year and verified by the superintendent of public instruction and by applying such verified data under the provisions of the state equalization aid allocation procedure prescribed in 20-9-347;

(2) recommending to the board of public education the annual entitlement of all districts to state equalization aid to enable the board of public education to order the distribution of state equalization aid;

(3) distributing by state warrant the state equalization aid, for each district entitled to such aid, to the county treasurer of the county where the district is located, in accordance with the distribution ordered by the board of public education;

(4) keeping a record in his office of the full and complete data concerning moneys available for state equalization aid and the entitlements for state equalization aid of the several districts of the state;

(5) reporting to the board of public education the estimated amount which will be available for state equalization aid; and

(6) reporting to both branches of the state legislature in any year when a session is convened:

(a) the figures and data available in his office concerning distributions of state equalization aid during the preceding 2 school fiscal years;

(b) the amount of state equalization aid then available;

(c) the apportionment made of such available moneys but not yet distributed; and

(d) the latest estimate of accruals of moneys available for state equalization aid.

20-9-347. Formula for state equalization aid apportionment. (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall apportion the state equalization aid, individually for the elementary districts of a county or the high school districts of a county, in accordance with 20-9-346 and on the basis of the following procedure:

(a) Determine the percentage that the total funds available to all counties in the state in support of the foundation program (including the state moneys available for state equalization aid) is of the total amount of the foundation programs of all counties.

(b) Determine the percentage that the total funds available in each county in support of the foundation programs in such county (excluding state moneys available for state equalization aid) is of the total amount of the foundation programs of all districts of such county.

(c) Counties in which the percentage determined in subsection (1)(b) exceeds the percentage determined in subsection (1)(a) shall not be entitled to an apportionment of the state equalization aid.

(d) After elimination of the counties referred to in subsection (1)(c), determine the percentage that the total moneys available to all remaining counties in support of the foundation program (including the state moneys available for state equalization aid) is of the total amount of the foundation programs of all such remaining counties.

(e) Each district of each remaining county shall be entitled to an apportionment of the state equalization aid which shall be the difference between the percentage determined in subsection (1)(d) and the percentage determined for such county in subsection (1)(b) multiplied by the foundation program amount for such district.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall supply the county treasurer and the county superintendent with a report of the apportionments of state equalization aid to the several districts of the county, and the state equalization aid shall be apportioned to such districts in accordance with such report.

20-9-348. Estimation of state equalization level and state equalization aid for budget purposes. (1) The apportionment of state equalization aid shall be the third source of revenue in calculating the financing of the elementary district foundation program, and it shall be the second source of revenue in calculating the financing of the high school district foundation program. In order to allow for the estimation of the amount of money to be realized from this source of revenue when the county superintendent is estimating the general fund budget revenues, the superintendent of public instruction shall annually estimate a uniform percentage of each district's foundation program which state foundation program revenues and county equalization moneys, together, will be capable of financing. Such estimate shall be called the "state equalization level" and shall be based on the best available data and calculated according to the allocation procedure provided in 20-9-347.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall notify each county superintendent of the state equalization level estimate by July 1. The county superintendent shall use such estimated state equalization level in establishing the budget estimate of the financing available for each district's foundation program for the ensuing school fiscal year.

20-9-349 and 20-9-350 reserved.

20-9-351. Funding of deficiency in state equalization aid. If the estimated state equalization level made under the provisions of 20-9-348 is less than 100% or if the permissive funding level made under the provisions of 20-9-352 is less than 100%, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of public instruction to request the budget director to submit a request for a supplemental appropriation in the second year of the biennium that would be sufficient to complete the funding of the foundation programs prescribed under 20-9-348 and of the permissive programs prescribed under 20-9-352 of the elementary or secondary schools, or both, for the current biennium.

1981 Amendments: Chapter 317 substituted the duty of the Superintendent of Public Instruction to seek a supplemental appropriation for the former duty of the Director of the Department of Revenue to levy additional taxes separately for elementary and high school districts; deleted former subsections (2) through (5) relating to apportionment of proceeds of mill levies. For former text see sec. 4, Ch. 355, L. 1973.

Chapter 540 inserted "or if the permissive level made under the provisions of 20-9-352 is less than 100%"; deleted provision that required the Department of Revenue to levy additional taxes "separately for the elementary districts and the high school districts" in the middle of the section; and inserted "prescribed under 20-9-348 and of permissive programs as prescribed under 20-9-352" after "foundation programs" near the end of the section.

Composite Section — 1981 Amendment Not Codified: Chapter 540 added "and shall deposit such proceeds in the earmarked revenue account established under 20-9-343" at the end of the first sentence of (2); substituted "the excess may be retained in the state equalization aid account" for "the excess may be transferred to the state equalization aid account" at the end of (3); substituted "in calculating the financing of the foundation and permissive programs for elementary and high school districts" for "in calculating the financing of the elementary district foundation program and the high school district foundation program" at the end of (4); and substituted "the elementary district and the high school district programs" for "the elementary district foundation programs and the high school district foundation programs" near the end of (5). These amendments to those former subsections deleted by Ch. 317, L. 1981, have not been codified by the Code Commissioner as the deletion of subsections (2) through (5) is in the nature of a repeal and cannot be amended. See 1-2-204.

20-9-352. Permissive amount and permissive levy. (1) Whenever the trustees of any district shall deem it necessary to adopt a general fund budget in excess of the foundation program amount but not in excess of the maximum general fund budget amount for such district as established by the schedules in 20-9-316 through 20-9-321, the trustees shall adopt a resolution stating the reasons and purposes for exceeding the foundation program amount. Such excess above the foundation program amount shall be known as the "permissive amount", and it shall be financed by a levy on the taxable value of all taxable property within the district as prescribed in 20-9-141, supplemented with any biennial appropriation by the legislature for this purpose.

(2) The district levies to be set for the purpose of funding the permissive amount are determined as follows:

(a) For each elementary school district, the county commissioners shall annually set a levy not exceeding 9 mills on all the taxable property in the district for the purpose of funding the permissive amount of the district. The permissive levy in mills shall be obtained by multiplying the ratio of the permissive amount to the maximum permissive amount by 9 or by using the number of mills which would fund the permissive amount, whichever is less. If the amount of revenue raised by this levy is not sufficient to fund the permissive amount in full, the amount of the deficiency shall be paid to the district from the earmarked revenue fund according to the provisions of 20-9-351 and subsection (3) of this section.

(b) For each high school district, the county commissioners shall annually set a levy not exceeding 6 mills on all taxable property in the district for the purpose of funding the permissive amount of the district. The permissive levy in mills shall be obtained by multiplying the ratio of the permissive levy to the maximum permissive amount by 6 or by using the number of mills which would fund the permissive amount, whichever is less. If the amount of revenue raised by this levy is not sufficient to fund the permissive amount in full, the amount of the deficiency shall be paid to the district from the earmarked revenue fund according to the provisions of 20-9-351 and subsection (3) of this section. The superintendent of public instruction shall, if the appropriation by the legislature for the permissive account [program] for the biennium is insufficient, request the budget director to submit a request for a supplemental appropriation in the second year of the biennium.

(3) Such distribution shall be made in two payments. The first payment shall be made at the same time as the first distribution of state equalization aid is made after January 1 of the fiscal year. The second payment shall be made at the same time as the last payment of state equalization aid is made for the fiscal year. If the appropriation is not sufficient to finance the deficiencies of the districts as determined according to subsection (2), each district will receive the same percentage of its deficiency. Surplus revenue in the second year of the biennium may be used to reduce the appropriation required for the next succeeding biennium or may be transferred to the state equalization aid earmarked revenue fund if revenues in that fund are insufficient to meet foundation program requirements.

1981 Amendments: Chapter 317 substituted "any biennial appropriation by the legislature for this purpose" for "revenue from a levy on all the taxable property in the state" at the end of (1); deleted "levy" after "permissive" near the end of (2)(b); substituted the last sentence of (2) for "The director of the department of revenue shall annually set a levy on all the property of the state" at the end of (2); substituted "appropriation" for "revenue collected" in (3); substituted "in the second year of the biennium may" for "shall", "appropriation" for "state levy", and "biennium or may be transferred to the state equalization aid earmarked revenue fund if revenues in that fund are insufficient to meet foundation program requirements" for "fiscal year" in the last sentence of (3); deleted the last sentence of (3) relating to interest on investment of permissive levy funds.

Chapter 540 substituted "paid ... from the earmarked revenue fund according to the provisions of 20-9-351 and subsection (3) of this section" for "paid ... from the earmarked revenue fund, permissive levy account, according to the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) of this section" at the end of (2)(a); substituted "paid ... from the earmarked revenue fund according to the provisions of 20-9-351 and subsection (3) of this section" for "paid ... from the earmarked revenue fund, permissive levy account, according to the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) of this section" at the end of (2)(b); deleted former subsection (3), which directed the department of revenue to set a statewide levy to fund the permissive levy deficiency and to distribute the money collected by this statewide levy to school districts according to their entitlement as determined by the superintendent of public instruction; substituted "surplus revenue generated by the additional state levy for state deficiency shall remain in the earmarked revenue account to be used for elementary and high school education in ensuing years" for "Surplus revenue in the permissive levy account shall be used to reduce the state levy required for the next succeeding fiscal year" in the second to the last sentence of (3); and substituted "shall be deposited to the earmarked revenue fund as established in 20-9-343" for "shall be deposited to the earmarked revenue fund, permissive levy account" near the end of (3).

Composite Section: Chapter 540, L. 1981, entitled "An Act to simplify utilization of funds available for financing the foundation program and permissive portions of public school budgets; amending sections 20-9-345, 20-9-351, and 20-9-352, MCA", purported to abolish the permissive levy account by deleting all references to that account in the sections amended. For this reason the Code Commissioner has inserted the word "program" in brackets to indicate that the reference to the permissive account is apparently inconsistent with the elimination of the state permissive account by Ch. 540, L. 1981.

Because Ch. 540 eliminated all of old subsection (3), relating to the duty of the Director of the Department of Revenue to levy a sufficient amount to fund the deficiencies in high school and elementary districts, the Code Commissioner has not codified the words "Such appropriation shall provide", enacted by Ch. 317 at the end of current subsection (2), as being apparently inconsistent with the deletion of the remainder of the language to which the not codified words were intended to apply.

Language added by Ch. 540 at the end of subsection (3), which language related to surplus revenue generated by the additional state levy for state deficiency, has not been codified by the Code Commissioner as it is apparently inconsistent with the elimination of the state deficiency levy by Ch. 317.

20-9-353. Additional levy for general fund — election for authorization to impose. (1) The trustees of any district may propose to adopt a general fund budget in excess of the general fund budget amount for such district as established by the schedules in 20-9-316 through 20-9-321 for any of the following purposes:

(a) building, altering, repairing, or enlarging any schoolhouse of the district;

(b) furnishing additional school facilities for the district;

(c) acquisition of land for the district;

(d) proper maintenance and operation of the school programs of the district.

(2) When the trustees of any district determine that an additional amount of financing is required for the general fund budget that is in excess of the statutory schedule amount, the trustees shall submit the proposition of an additional levy to raise such excess amount of general fund financing to the electors who are qualified under 20-20-301 to vote upon such proposition except that no election shall be required to permit the school trustees to use federal funds received under Title I of Public Law 81-874 to increase the school district's general fund budget as established in 20-9-316 through 20-9-321 by the amount of these funds. Such special election shall be called and conducted in the manner prescribed by this title for school elections. The ballot for such election shall state the amount of money to be raised by additional property taxation, the approximate number of mills required to raise such money, and the purpose for which such money will be expended, and it shall be in the following format:

PROPOSITION

Shall a levy be made in addition to the levies authorized by law in such number of mills as may be necessary to raise the sum of (state the amount to be raised by additional tax levy), and being approximately (give number) mills, for the purpose of (insert the purpose for which the additional tax levy is made)?

☐ FOR the additional levy.

☐ AGAINST the additional levy.

(3) If the election on any additional levy for the general fund is approved by a majority vote of those electors voting at such election, the proposition shall carry and the trustees may use any portion or all of the authorized amount in adopting the preliminary general fund budget. The trustees shall certify the additional levy amount authorized by such a special election on the budget form that is submitted to the county superintendent, and the county commissioners shall levy such number of mills on the taxable value of all taxable property within the district, as prescribed in 20-9-141, as are required to raise the amount of such additional levy.

(4) Authorization to levy an additional tax under the provisions of this section shall be effective for only 1 school fiscal year and shall be authorized by a special election conducted before August 1 of the school fiscal year for which it is effective.

20-9-404. Contracts and bonds for joint construction. The trustees of a school district may enter into a contract with the trustees of any school district within the county or with any school district in an adjoining county to provide for the joint construction of vocational-technical secondary schools upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon between such districts. The trustees of any district executing a contract in accordance with this section may levy taxes and issue bonds for the purpose of constructing the facilities authorized by this section.

20-9-405. Proportional joint ownership — disposition of moneys. The vocational-technical secondary school constructed under 20-9-404 shall be jointly owned by the school districts contributing to its construction in proportion to the contribution of each district. The sale or other disposition of a district's interest in the school shall be made in accordance with 20-6-604. Moneys received from the sale or disposition of a district's interest in a vocational-technical secondary school shall be credited to the debt service fund, building fund, general fund, or any combination of these three funds, at the discretion of the trustees.

20-9-406. Limitations on amount of bond issue. (1) The maximum amount for which each school district may become indebted by the issuance of bonds, including all indebtedness represented by outstanding bonds of previous issues and registered warrants, is 45% of the taxable value of the property subject to taxation as ascertained by the last completed assessment for state, county, and school taxes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. The 45% maximum, however, may not pertain to indebtedness imposed by special improvement district obligations or assessments against the school district. All bonds issued in excess of such amount shall be null and void, except as provided in this section.

(2) When the total indebtedness of a school district has reached the 45% limitation prescribed in this section, the school district may pay all reasonable and necessary expenses of the school district on a cash basis in accordance with the financial administration provisions of this chapter.

(3) Whenever bonds are issued for the purpose of refunding bonds, any moneys to the credit of the debt service fund for the payment of the bonds to be refunded are applied towards the payment of such bonds and the refunding bond issue is decreased accordingly.

1981 Amendment: Increased 29% to 45% wherever it appears.

Validation: Section 64, Ch. 614, L. 1981, provided: "Notwithstanding any provisions of this act, any outstanding indebtedness or bond issue on January 1, 1982, of any governmental subdivision is not invalidated because of any changes in the taxable valuation of the subdivision due to removal of automobiles and trucks having a rated capacity of three-quarters of a ton or less from the tax base."

Effective Date: Section 66, Ch. 614, L. 1981, provided: (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), this act is effective January 1, 1982.

(2) Section 5 is effective on passage and approval.

Effect of 1981 Amendment: The primary purpose of Ch. 614, L. 1981 was to replace the system of taxation of automobiles and light trucks with a fee system. With the adoption of the fee system, automobile and light trucks are no longer taxable property. The resulting loss of taxable valuation has a direct effect on the amount of indebtedness a political subdivision can incur. Thus it was necessary in Ch. 614 to increase the percentage of taxable valuation used as a limitation on indebtedness to offset the loss of taxable valuation attributable to automobile and light trucks.

20-9-407. Industrial facility agreement for bond issue in excess of maximum. (1) In a school district within which a new major industrial facility which seeks to qualify for taxation as class five property under 15-6-135 is being constructed or is about to be constructed, the school district may require, as a precondition of the new major industrial facility qualifying as class five property, that the owners of the proposed industrial facility enter into an agreement with the school district concerning the issuing of bonds in excess of the 29% limitation prescribed in 20-9-406. Under such an agreement, the school district may, with the approval of the voters, issue bonds which exceed the limitation prescribed in this section by a maximum of 29% of the estimated taxable value of the property of the new major industrial facility subject to taxation when completed. The estimated taxable value of the property of the new major industrial facility subject to taxation shall be computed by the department of revenue when requested to do so by a resolution of the board of trustees of the school district. A copy of the department's statement of estimated taxable value shall be printed on each ballot used to vote on a bond issue proposed under this section.

(2) Pursuant to the agreement between the new major industrial facility and the school district and as a precondition to qualifying as class five property, the new major industrial facility and its owners shall pay, in addition to the taxes imposed by the school district on property owners generally, so much of the principal and interest on the bonds provided for under this section as represents payment on an indebtedness in excess of the limitation prescribed in this section. After the completion of the new major industrial facility and when the indebtedness of the school district no longer exceeds the limitation prescribed in this section, the new major industrial facility shall be entitled, after all the current indebtedness of the school district has been paid, to a tax credit over a period of no more than 20 years. The credit shall as a total amount be equal to the amount which the facility paid the principal and interest of the school district's bonds in excess of its general liability as a taxpayer within the district.

(3) A major industrial facility is a facility subject to the taxing power of the school district, whose construction or operation will increase the population of the district, imposing a significant burden upon the resources of the district and requiring construction of new school facilities. A significant burden is an increase in ANB of at least 20% in a single year.

Commissioner correction. In subsection (1), "this section" was changed to "20-9-406" by the Code Commissioner, 1979. Sections 20-9-406 and 20-9-407 were enacted as part of one section and were split during recodification. The internal reference to "this section" was overlooked and has now been corrected.

20-9-408. Definition of forms of bonds. As used in this title, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "amortization bonds" means the form of bonds on which a part of the principal must be paid each time interest becomes payable. The part payment of principal increases at each installment in the same amount that the interest decreases. The combined interest and principal due on each due date remains the same until the bonds are paid. The final payment may vary from prior payments in the amount resulting from disregarding fractional cents in prior payments.

(2) "serial bonds" means the form of bonds which are payable in annual installments and on which the amount to be redeemed each year is determined by dividing the total amount of the bonds by the term of the bond issue. However, the first or the first and second installments may vary from the others to the extent resulting from fixing the amounts of each bond of the other installments at $100, at $500, or at some multiple thereof.

History: En. 75-7105 by Sec. 306, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7105.

20-9-409. Form of bond to be issued. All bonds issued by a school district shall be amortization bonds unless serial bonds, in the judgment of the trustees, will be more advantageous to the school district and can be sold at a comparatively reasonable rate of interest.

History: En. 75-7106 by Sec. 307, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7106.

20-9-410. (Temporary) Limitation of term and interest — timing for redemption. School district bonds shall not be issued for a term longer than 20 years, except that bonds issued to refund or redeem outstanding bonds shall not be issued for a term longer than 10 years unless the unexpired term of the bonds to be refunded or redeemed is in excess of 10 years, in which case the refunding or redeeming bonds may be issued for such unexpired term. All bonds issued for a longer term than 5 years shall be redeemable at the option of the school district on any interest payment date after one-half of the term for which they were issued has expired, and it shall be so stated on the face of the bonds. The interest shall not exceed the limitation of 17-5-102 and shall be payable semiannually.

20-9-410. (Revived July 1, 1983) Limitation of term and interest — timing for redemption. School district bonds shall not be issued for a term longer than 20 years, except that bonds issued to refund or redeem outstanding bonds shall not be issued for a term longer than 10 years unless the unexpired term of the bonds to be refunded or redeemed is in excess of 10 years, in which case the refunding or redeeming bonds may be issued for such unexpired term. All bonds issued for a longer term than 5 years shall be redeemable at the option of the school district on any interest payment date after one-half of the term for which they were issued has expired, and it shall be so stated on the face of the bonds. The interest shall not exceed 7% per annum and shall be payable semiannually.

20-9-411. Dates of issue and payments. In order that the dates of payment of installments on school district bond issues may coincide as nearly as possible with the largest monthly tax collections, all school district bonds shall preferably bear a date of some day in June or December. For this reason, the bonds may be dated back not more than 5 months from the time of the actual sale, but no interest shall be charged on these bonds before they have been delivered to the purchaser and payment has been made by the purchaser. Interest accrued on such bonds according to their terms at the time of delivery shall either be refunded by the purchaser or deducted from the first interest payments. The failure to date such bonds in June or December shall not affect their validity.

20-9-412. Issuance of refunding bonds without an election. (1) Bonds of a school district issued for the purpose of providing the money needed to redeem outstanding bonds may be issued without submitting the proposition to the electorate at an election. In order to issue bonds for such purpose, the trustees, at a regular meeting or a duly called special meeting, shall adopt a resolution setting forth:

(a) the facts regarding the outstanding bonds that are to be redeemed;

(b) the reasons for issuing new bonds; and

(c) the term and details of the new bond issue.

(2) After the adoption of such resolution, the trustees shall give notice of the sale of such new bonds in the same manner that notice is required to be given for the sale of bonds authorized at a school election. Such new bonds shall be sold in open competitive bidding, by written bids or by sealed bids. Bonds shall not be refunded by the issuance of new bonds unless the rate of interest offered on the new bonds is at least ½ of 1% per annum less than the rate of interest in the bonds to be refunded or redeemed.

20-9-413 through 20-9-420 reserved.

20-9-421. Election to authorize the issuance of school district bonds and the methods of introduction. A school district shall not issue bonds for any purpose other than that provided in 20-9-412 unless the issuance of bonds has been authorized by the qualified electors of the school district at an election called for the purpose of considering a proposition to issue such bonds. A school district bond election shall be called by a resolution as prescribed under the provisions of 20-20-201 when:

(1) the trustees, of their own volition, adopt a resolution to that effect; or

(2) the trustees have received a petition which asks that an election be held to consider a bond proposition and which has been validated under the provisions of 20-9-425.

History: En. 75-7110 by Sec. 311, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7110.

20-9-422. Additional requirements for trustees' resolution calling bond election. In addition to the requirements for calling an election that are prescribed in 20-20-201 and 20-20-203, the trustees' resolution calling a school district bond election shall:

(1) fix the exact amount of the bonds proposed to be issued, which may be more or less than the amounts estimated in a petition;

(2) fix the maximum number of years in which the proposed bonds would be paid; and

(3) in the case of initiation by a petition, state the essential facts about the petition and its presentation.

History: En. 75-7111 by Sec. 312, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7111.

20-9-423. Form, contents, and circularization of petition proposing school district bond election. Any petition for the calling of an election on the proposition of issuing school district bonds shall:

(1) plainly state each purpose of the proposed bond issue and the estimated amount of the bonds that would be issued for each purpose;

(2) be signed by not less than 20% of the school district electors qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301 in order to constitute a valid petition;

(3) be a single petition or it may be composed of more than one petition, all being identical in form, and after being circulated and signed, they shall be fastened together to form a single petition when submitted to the county registrar;

(4) be circulated by any one or more qualified electors of the school district; and

(5) contain an affidavit of each registered elector circulating a petition attached to the portion of the petition he circulated. Such affidavit shall attest to the authenticity of the signatures and that the signers knew the contents of the petition at the time of signing it.

20-9-424. Validation of petition — election administrator's certificate. (1) The petitioners for a school district bond election shall submit their petition to the county election administrator of the county where the school district is located for validation of the signatures on the petition. The county election administrator shall examine the petition and attach or endorse thereon a certificate which shall state:

(a) the total number of electors of the school district who are, at the time, qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301;

(b) which and how many of the individuals whose names are subscribed to the petition possess the qualifications to vote on a bond proposition; and

(c) whether the number of qualified signers established in subsection (1)(b) is more or less than 20% of the total number of registered electors established in subsection (1)(a).

(2) After completing the examination, the county election administrator shall immediately send the petition and his certificate to the school district. The county election administrator shall not receive compensation for the examination of school district bond petitions.

The trustees shall be the judges of the adequacy of the petition, and their findings shall be conclusive against the school district in favor of the innocent holder of bonds issued pursuant to the election called and held by reason of the presentation of such petition. (2) If the bond issue to be sold is $10,000 or more, the trustees may cause a brief notice to be published in some newspaper in the city of New York.

20-9-432. Sale of school district bonds. (1) The trustees shall meet at the time and place fixed in the notice to consider bids on the bond issue. The bonds shall be sold at not less than par and accrued interest, and each bidder shall specify the form of bonds to be issued, whether amortization or serial, and the rate of interest at which he will purchase the bonds. A bid for amortization bonds shall have the preference over a bid for serial bonds, all other things being equal; and in considering bids on these classes of bonds, the trustees shall take into consideration not only the rate of interest demanded on each kind but also every other known element affecting the total cost of the bonds to the district when paid in full. The trustees shall accept the bid which they shall judge most advantageous to the school district. No attorney fees, brokerage or other fees, or commissions of any kind shall be paid to any person or corporation for assisting in the proceedings or in the preparation of the bonds or in negotiating the sale. The trustees are authorized to reject any or all bids and to sell the bonds at private sale if they deem it for the best interests of the school district, except that such bonds shall not be sold at less than par and accrued interest.

(2) The trustees may cooperate and combine with other school districts within the same county for the purpose of preparing and negotiating for sale of bond issues if, in the opinion of the trustees, such cooperation or combination will facilitate the sale of school district bonds under more advantageous terms or with lower interest rates. Provided, however, that bond issues prepared or negotiated for sale under this section shall not be combined for any other purpose but shall be entered separately on the books of the county treasurer and shall be otherwise treated as separate bond issues.

20-9-433. Form and printing of school district bonds. The bond registration shall show:

(a) the number and amount of each bond;
(b) the date of issue;
(c) the redeemable date of each bond;
(d) the name of the purchaser; and
(e) the amount and due date of all payments required on the bonds.

20-9-435. Delivery of school district bonds and disposition of sale moneys. (1) After the school district bonds have been registered, the county treasurer shall:

(a) when the board of investments has purchased such bonds, forward the bonds to such state board which, in turn, shall cause the bonds to be sent to the state treasurer and shall cause the bonds to be paid for in the manner provided by law; or

(b) when the purchaser is anybody other than the board of investments, deliver the bonds to such purchaser when full payment of the bonds has been made by the purchaser.

(2) If any of the trustees fails or refuses to pay into the proper county treasury the money arising from the sale of any bonds, he is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than 1 year or more than 10 years, by a fine of not more than $50,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) All money realized from the sale of school district bonds shall be paid to the county treasurer, and he shall credit such money to the building fund of the school district issuing the bonds, except money realized for the purposes defined in 20-9-403(1)(c) and (1)(d) shall be deposited in the debt service fund for the purchase of such bonds. The money realized from the sale of school district bonds shall be immediately available to such school district, and the trustees may expend such money without budgeted authorization only for the purposes for which the bonds were authorized by the school district bond election. Under the provisions of 7-6-2802, the trustees may invest the money for which there is no immediate demand and the interest earned by such investment shall be used in the manner provided therein. After the full accomplishment of the purpose or purposes of a bond issue, the excess money realized from such bond issue shall be transferred to the debt service fund of the school district to be used for the redemption or purchase of bonds of such issue.

20-9-437. School district liable on bonds. The full faith, credit, and taxable resources of every school district issuing bonds under the provisions of this title are hereby solemnly pledged for the repayment of such bonds with interest according to their terms. The trustees of each school district having outstanding bonds shall include in the debt service fund of the preliminary budget adopted in accordance with 20-9-113 an amount of money that is necessary to pay the interest and the principal amount becoming due during the ensuing school fiscal year for each series or installment of bonds, according to the terms and conditions of such bonds and the redemption plans of the trustees. The trustees shall also include in the debt service fund of the preliminary budget the amount of money necessary to pay the special improvement district assessments levied against the school district which become due during the ensuing school fiscal year. The county superintendent shall compare the preliminary budgeted amount for the debt service fund with the bond retirement and interest requirement and the special improvement district assessments for the school fiscal year just beginning as reported by the county treasurer in his statement supplied under the provisions of 20-9-121. If the county superintendent finds that the requirement stated by the county treasurer is more than the preliminary budget amount, the county superintendent shall increase the budgeted amount for interest or principal in the debt service fund of the preliminary budget. The amount confirmed or revised by the county superintendent shall be the final budget expenditure amount for the debt service fund of such school district.

20-9-439. Computation of net levy requirement — procedure when levy inadequate. (1) The county superintendent shall compute the levy requirement for each school district's debt service fund on the basis of the following procedure:

(a) determine the total moneys available in the debt service fund for the reduction of the property tax on the district by totaling:

(i) the end-of-the-year cash balance, less any outstanding warrants in the debt service fund;

(ii) anticipated interest to be earned by the investment of debt service cash in accordance with the provisions of 20-9-213(4) or by the investment of bond proceeds under the provisions of 20-9-435; and

(iii) any other moneys anticipated by the trustees to be available in the debt service fund during the ensuing school fiscal year from such sources as legally authorized money transfers into the debt service fund or from rental income;

(b) the total amount available to reduce the property tax, determined in subsection (1)(a), shall be subtracted from the final budget expenditure amount for the debt service fund as established in 20-9-438;

(c) the net debt service fund levy requirement determined in subsection (1)(b) shall be reported to the county commissioners on the second Monday of August by the county superintendent as the net debt service fund levy requirement for the district, and a levy shall be made by the county commissioners in accordance with 20-9-142.

(2) If the board of county commissioners shall fail in any school fiscal year to make a levy for any issue or series of bonds of any school district sufficient to raise the moneys necessary for payment of interest and principal becoming due during the next ensuing school fiscal year, in such amounts as are established under the provisions of this section, the holder of any bond of such issue or series or any taxpayer of the district may apply to the district court of the county in which such school district is located for a writ of mandate to compel the board of county commissioners of such county to make a sufficient levy for such purposes. If, upon the hearing of such application, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the board of county commissioners of such county has failed to make a levy or has made a levy that is insufficient to raise the amount required to be raised as established in the manner provided in this section, the court shall determine the amount of such deficiency and shall issue a writ of mandate directed to and requiring the board of county commissioners, at the next meeting for the purpose of fixing tax levies for county purposes, to fix and make a levy against all taxable property in such school district that is sufficient to raise the amount of such deficiency. Such levy shall be in addition to any levy required to be made at that time for the then-ensuing school fiscal year. Any costs which may be allowed or awarded the petitioner in any such proceeding shall be paid by the members of the board of county commissioners and shall not be a charge against the school district or the county.

20-9-440. Payment of debt service obligations — termination of interest. (1) The county treasurer shall maintain a separate debt service fund for each school district and shall credit all tax moneys collected for debt service to such fund and use the moneys credited to such fund for the payment of debt service obligations in accordance with the school financial administration provisions of this title.

(2) The county treasurer shall pay from the debt service fund all amounts of interest and principal on school district bonds as such interest or principal becomes due when the coupons or bonds are presented and surrendered for payment and shall pay all special improvement district assessments as the same become due. If the bonds are held by the state of Montana, then all payments shall be remitted to the state treasurer who shall cancel the coupons or bonds and return such coupons or bonds to the county treasurer with his receipt. If the bonds are not held by the state of Montana and the interest or principal is made payable at some designated bank or financial institution, the county treasurer shall remit the amount due for interest or principal to such bank or financial institution for payment against the surrender of the canceled coupons or bonds.

(3) Whenever any school district bond or installment on school district bonds shall become due and payable, interest shall cease on such date unless sufficient funds are available to pay such bond when it is presented for payment or when payment of an installment is demanded. In either case, interest on such bond or installment shall continue until payment is made.

(4) Any installment on interest and principal on bonds held by the state that is not promptly paid when due shall draw interest at an annual rate of 6% from the date due until actual payment, irrespective of the rate of interest on the bonds.

History: En. 75-7129 by Sec. 330, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 432, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7129.

20-9-441. Redemption of bonds — investment of debt service fund moneys. (1) Whenever there is a sufficient amount of money in any school district debt service fund available to pay and redeem one or more bonds of such school district held by the state of Montana, the county treasurer shall apply such money in payment of as many of such bonds as can be paid and redeemed. The county treasurer shall give notice not less than 30 days before the next interest due date to the board of investments that on such interest due date such bonds will be paid. Before such interest due date, the county treasurer shall remit to the state treasurer the amount of money that is necessary to pay the bonds that are being redeemed and the interest due on such bonds. When the state treasurer receives such payment, he shall cancel such bonds and any unpaid coupons of such bonds and return the canceled bonds and coupons to the county treasurer.

(2) Whenever there is a sufficient amount of money in any school district debt service fund available to pay and redeem one or more optional bonds of such school district not held by the state of Montana, not yet due but then redeemable or becoming redeemable on the next interest due date, the county treasurer shall apply such available money in payment of as many of such bonds as can be paid and redeemed. The county treasurer shall give notice to the holder of the bonds, if known to him, or to any bank or financial institution at which the bonds are payable, at least 30 days before the next interest due date, that the bonds will be paid and redeemed on such date. If the bonds are payable at some bank or financial institution, the county treasurer shall remit to the bank or financial institution, before such interest due date, an amount sufficient to pay and redeem the bonds. If the bonds are not presented for payment and redemption on such interest due date, the accrual of interest shall cease on such interest due date.

(3) Whenever there is money available in any school district debt service fund sufficient to pay and redeem one or more outstanding bonds not yet due or redeemable and not held by the state of Montana, the trustees of such school district may direct the county treasurer to purchase such bonds of the district if this can be done at not more than par and accrued interest or at such reasonable premium as the trustees may feel justified in paying, but in no case exceeding 6%.

(4) Whenever the trustees cannot purchase outstanding bonds of the school district at a reasonable price, the available debt service fund money shall be invested by the trustees under the provisions of 20-9-213(4). Such investments shall be sold in ample time before the debt service fund money is required for the payment of the bonds of the school district.

Special Purpose Funds

20-9-501. Retirement fund. (1) The trustees of any district employing personnel who are members of the teachers' retirement system or the public employees' retirement system or who are covered by unemployment insurance or who are covered by any federal social security system requiring employer contributions shall establish a retirement fund for the purposes of budgeting and paying the employer's contributions to such systems. The district's contribution for each employee who is a member of the teachers' retirement system shall be calculated in accordance with Title 19, chapter 4, part 6. The district's contribution for each employee who is a member of the public employees' retirement system shall be calculated in accordance with 19-3-801. The district may levy a special tax to pay its contribution to the public employees' retirement system under the conditions prescribed in 19-3-204. The district's contributions for each employee covered by any federal social security system shall be paid in accordance with federal law and regulation. The district's contribution for each employee who is covered by unemployment insurance shall be paid in accordance with Title 39, chapter 51, part 11.

(2) The trustees of any district required to make a contribution to any such system shall include in the retirement fund of the preliminary budget the estimated amount of the employer's contribution and such additional moneys, within legal limitations, as they may wish to provide for the retirement fund cash reserve. After the final retirement fund budget has been adopted, the trustees shall pay the employer contributions to such systems in accordance with the financial administration provisions of this title.

(3) When the final retirement fund budget has been adopted, the county superintendent shall establish the levy requirement by:

(a) determining the sum of the moneys available to reduce the retirement fund levy requirement by adding:

(i) any anticipated moneys that may be realized in the retirement fund during the ensuing school fiscal year; and

(ii) any cash available for reappropriation as determined by subtracting the amount of the end-of-the-year cash balance earmarked as the retirement fund cash reserve for the ensuing school fiscal year by the trustees from the end-of-the-year cash balance in the retirement fund. The retirement fund cash reserve shall not be more than 35% of the final retirement fund budget for the ensuing school fiscal year and shall be used for the purpose of paying retirement fund warrants issued by the district under the final retirement fund budget.

(b) subtracting the total of the moneys available for reduction of the levy requirement as determined in subsection (3)(a) from the budgeted amount for expenditures in the final retirement fund budget.

(4) The county superintendent shall total the net retirement fund levy requirements separately for all elementary school districts, all high school districts, and all community college districts of the county, including any prorated joint district or special educational cooperative agreement levy requirements, and shall report each such levy requirement to the county commissioners on the second Monday of August as the respective county levy requirements for elementary district, high school district, and community college district retirement funds. The county commissioners shall fix and set such county levy in accordance with 20-9-142.

(5) The net retirement fund levy requirement for a joint elementary district or a joint high school district shall be prorated to each county in which a part of such district is located in the same proportion as the district ANB of the joint district is distributed by pupil residence in each such county.

The county superintendents of the counties affected shall jointly determine the net retirement fund levy requirement for each county as provided in 20-9-151.

(6) The net retirement fund levy requirement for districts that are members of special educational cooperative agreements shall be prorated to each county in which such district is located in the same proportion as the budget for the special education cooperative agreement of the district bears to the total budget of the cooperative. The county superintendents of the counties affected shall jointly determine the net retirement fund levy requirement for each county in the same manner as provided in 20-9-151 and fix and levy the net retirement fund levy for each county in the same manner as provided in 20-9-152.

20-9-502. Purpose and authorization of a building reserve fund by an election. (1) The trustees of any district, with the approval of the qualified electors of the district, may establish a building reserve for the purpose of raising money for the future construction, equipping, or enlarging of school buildings or for the purpose of purchasing land needed for school purposes in the district. In order to submit to the qualified electors of the district a building reserve proposition for the establishment of or addition to a building reserve, the trustees shall pass a resolution that specifies:

(a) the purpose or purposes for which the new or addition to the building reserve will be used;

(b) the duration of time over which the new or addition to the building reserve will be raised in annual, equal installments;

(c) the total amount of money that will be raised during the duration of time specified in subsection (1)(b); and

(d) any other requirements under 20-20-201 for the calling of an election.

(2) The total amount of building reserve when added to the outstanding indebtedness of the district shall not be more than 45% of the taxable value of the taxable property of the district. Such limitation shall be determined in the manner provided in 20-9-406. A building reserve tax authorization shall not be for more than 20 years.

(3) The election shall be conducted in accordance with the school election laws of this title, and the electors qualified to vote in the election shall be qualified under the provisions of 20-20-301. The ballot for a building reserve proposition shall be substantially in the following form:

OFFICIAL BALLOT
SCHOOL DISTRICT BUILDING RESERVE ELECTION

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS: Make an X or similar mark in the vacant square before the words "BUILDING RESERVE—YES" if you wish to vote for the establishment of a building reserve (addition to the building reserve); if you are opposed to the establishment of a building reserve (addition to the building reserve) make an X or similar mark in the square before the words "BUILDING RESERVE—NO".

Shall the trustees be authorized to impose an additional levy each year for .... years to establish a building reserve (add to the building reserve) of this school district to raise a total amount of .... dollars ($....), for the purpose(s) .... (here state the purpose or purposes for which the building reserve will be used)?

☐ BUILDING RESERVE—YES.

☐ BUILDING RESERVE—NO.

(4) The building reserve proposition shall be approved if a majority of those electors voting at the election approve the establishment of or addition to such building reserve. The annual budgeting and taxation authority of the trustees for a building reserve shall be computed by dividing the total authorized amount by the specified number of years. The authority of the trustees to budget and impose the taxation for the annual amount to be raised for the building reserve shall lapse when, at a later time, a bond issue is approved by the qualified electors of the district for the same purpose or purposes for which the building reserve fund of the district was established. Whenever a subsequent bond issue is made for the same purpose or purposes of a building reserve, the money in the building reserve shall be used for such purpose or purposes before any money realized by the bond issue is used.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Substituted "shall not be more than 45% of the taxable value" for "shall not be more than 5% of the value" in (2).

Effective Date: Section 66, Ch. 614, L. 1981, provided: "(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), this act is effective January 1, 1982.

(2) Section 5 is effective on passage and approval."

Effect of 1981 Amendment: The primary purpose of Ch. 614, L. 1981 was to replace the system of taxation of automobiles and light trucks with a fee system. With the adoption of the fee system, automobile and light trucks are no longer taxable property. The resulting loss of taxable valuation has a direct effect on the amount of indebtedness a political subdivision can incur. Thus it was necessary in Ch. 614 to increase the percentage of taxable valuation used as a limitation on indebtedness to offset the loss of taxable valuation attributable to automobile and light trucks.

20-9-503. Budgeting, tax levy, and use of the building reserve fund. (1) Whenever an annual building reserve authorization to budget is available to a district, the trustees shall include such authorized amount in the building reserve fund of the preliminary budget. The county superintendent shall report such amount as the building reserve fund levy requirement to the county commissioners on the second Monday of August, and a levy on the district shall be made by the county commissioners in accordance with 20-9-142.

(2) The trustees of any district maintaining a building reserve fund shall have the authority to expend moneys from such fund for the purpose or purposes for which it was authorized without such specific expenditures being included in the final budget when, in their discretion, there is a sufficient amount of money to commence the authorized projects. Such expenditures shall not invalidate the district's authority to continue the annual imposition of the building reserve taxation authorized by the electors of the district.

(3) Whenever there is money credited to the building reserve fund for which there is no immediate need, the trustees may invest such money in accordance with 20-9-213(4). The interest earned from the investment shall be credited to the building reserve fund or the debt service fund, at the discretion of the trustees, and expended for any purpose authorized by law for such fund.

20-9-504. Extracurricular fund for pupil functions. (1) The government of the pupils of the school within a district or the administration of a school on behalf of the pupils may establish an extracurricular fund for the purposes of the receipts and expenditures of money collected for pupil extracurricular functions with the approval of the trustees of the district. All extracurricular moneys of any pupil organization of the school shall be deposited and expended by check from a bank account maintained for the extracurricular fund.

(2) An accounting system for the extracurricular fund recommended by the department of administration shall be implemented by the trustees. Such accounting system shall provide for:

(a) the internal control of the cash receipts and expenditures of the money; and

(b) a general account that can be reconciled with the bank account for the extracurricular fund and reconciled with the detailed accounts within the extracurricular fund maintained for each student function.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Substituted "department of administration" for "department of community affairs" in (2).

Transfer of Function: Section 7, Ch. 274, L. 1981, provided in part: "(1) The functions of the department of community affairs of auditing the accounts and financial transactions of political subdivisions and generally assisting political subdivisions in . . . 20-9-504 . . . are transferred to the department of administration."

20-9-505. Purpose and establishment of nonoperating fund. (1) The trustees of any district that will not operate any school during the ensuing school fiscal year shall establish a nonoperating fund on the first day of such school fiscal year. In establishing the nonoperating fund, the trustees shall cause the transfer of the end-of-the-year cash balance of each fund maintained by the district during the immediately preceding school fiscal year to the nonoperating fund. However, cash balances of the debt service fund and the miscellaneous federal programs fund, if any, shall be maintained in their individual funds.

(2) The trustees of a district establishing a nonoperating fund for the first year of nonoperation may earmark a portion of the nonoperating fund cash balance as a nonoperating fund cash reserve when they anticipate the reopening of a school in the following school fiscal year. Such cash reserve shall not be more than the general fund cash reserve designated for the immediately preceding school fiscal year. If a school is not operated in the following school fiscal year, the authority of the trustees to earmark a nonoperating fund cash reserve shall terminate and the moneys earmarked as a cash reserve shall be used to reduce the levy requirement of the nonoperating fund. If the trustees acquire approval to reopen a school in the following school fiscal year under the provisions of 20-6-502 or 20-6-503 and operate such school, the nonoperating fund cash reserve shall be restored as the general fund cash reserve.

(3) The purpose of the nonoperating fund shall be to centralize the financing and budgeting for the limited functions of a district not operating a school. Such functions shall include:

(a) elementary tuition obligations to other districts;

(b) transportation of the resident pupils;

(c) maintenance of district-owned property; and

(d) any other nonoperating school function of the district deemed necessary by the trustees or required by law.

(4) Any expenditure of nonoperating fund moneys shall be made in accordance with the financial administration provisions of this title for a budgeted fund.

History: En. 75-7209 by Sec. 348, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7209.

20-9-506. Budgeting and net levy requirement for nonoperating fund. (1) The trustees of any district which does not operate a school or will not operate a school during the ensuing school fiscal year shall adopt a nonoperating school district budget in accordance with the school budgeting provisions of this title. Such nonoperating budget shall contain the nonoperating fund and, when appropriate, a debt service fund. The nonoperating budget form shall be promulgated and distributed by the superintendent of public instruction under the provisions of 20-9-103.

(2) After the adoption of a final budget for the nonoperating fund, the county superintendent shall compute the net levy requirement for such fund by subtracting from the amount authorized by such budget the sum of:

(a) the end-of-the-year cash balance of the nonoperating fund or, if it is the first year of nonoperation, the cash balance determined under the transfer provisions of 20-9-505;

(b) the estimated state and county transportation reimbursements; and

(c) any other moneys that may become available during the ensuing school fiscal year.

(3) The county superintendent shall report the net nonoperating fund levy requirement and any net debt service fund levy requirement determined under the provisions of 20-9-439 to the county commissioners on the second Monday of August, and such levies shall be made on the district by the county commissioners in accordance with 20-9-142.

History: En. 75-7210 by Sec. 349, Ch. 5, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7210.

(1) The trustees of any district receiving grants of state or federal moneys other than moneys under the provisions of Title I of Public Law 81-874 or federal moneys designated for deposit in a specific fund of the district shall establish a miscellaneous programs fund for the deposit of such moneys. Such moneys may be a reimbursement of expenditures already realized by the district or may be a grant of moneys for the financing of expenditures to be realized by the district for a special, approved program to be operated by the district. When the moneys are a reimbursement, the moneys shall be expended at the discretion of the trustees for school purposes. When the moneys are a grant, the moneys shall be expended according to the conditions of the program approval by the superintendent of public instruction or any other approval agent. Within the miscellaneous programs fund, the trustees shall cause a separate accounting to be maintained for each federal grant program and for the aggregate of all reimbursement moneys.

(2) The financial administration of the miscellaneous programs fund shall be in accordance with the financial administration provisions of this title for a nonbudgeted fund which shall be applied by individual grant programs or for the aggregate amount of the reimbursement moneys rather than on the basis of the total fund.

Any other moneys to the credit of this fund shall be expended for building, enlargement, remodeling, or repairing of buildings of the district at the discretion of the trustees.

(3) Moneys credited to the building fund under the provisions of subsection (1)(a) of this section shall be expended for the express purpose or purposes authorized by the bond proposition approved at the election authorizing the issuance of such bonds. Any money realized by the sale of bonds and remaining to the credit of the building fund after the full accomplishment of the purpose for which the bonds were sold shall be transferred to the debt service fund to be used for the redemption of bonds of such issue.

(4) Moneys credited to the building fund under the provisions of subsection (1)(b) of this section shall be expended for the express purpose or purposes authorized by the federal government in granting such moneys.

(2) Any expenditure of moneys from a housing and dormitory fund shall be made for the maintenance and operation of the district-owned buildings to which the lease or rental agreements apply or for the acquisition of additional housing or dormitory facilities. (5) As the custodian of the endowment fund, the county treasurer is liable on his official bond for the endowment fund of any district of the county. 20-9-703. District as prime agency. (1) When the prime agency is a district, it is authorized and required to establish a nonbudgeted interlocal cooperative fund for the purpose of the financial administration of the interlocal cooperative agreement. All revenues received, including federal, state, or other types of grant payments in direct support of the agreement and the financial support provided by cooperating agencies, shall be deposited in such fund. All financial support of the agreement contributed by a district designated as the prime agency may be transferred to the interlocal cooperative fund from any fund maintained by such district by resolution of the trustees. Any such transfer to the interlocal cooperative fund shall be used to finance those expenditures under the agreement which are comparable to those that are permitted by law to be made out of the fund from which the transfer was made and which are within the final budget for the fund from which the transfer was made. No transfer shall be made from the miscellaneous federal programs fund without the express approval of the superintendent of public instruction.

(2) All expenditures in support of the interlocal cooperative agreement shall be made from the interlocal cooperative fund established by the district which is the prime agency, except that expenditures in support of such agreement may be made from the miscellaneous federal programs fund when the express approval of the superintendent of public instruction is given.

Any such fund utilized for the financial support of an interlocal cooperative agreement shall finance only those expenditures of such agreement that are comparable to those permitted under the statutory provisions creating such fund, and such financial support must be within the currently adopted budget for such fund. No financial support shall be financed from the miscellaneous federal programs fund without the express approval of the superintendent of public instruction.

(1) The trustees of any district adjacent to another state may enter into a contract with a school district in such adjoining state to provide for the joint erection, operation, and maintenance of school facilities for both districts upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed to by such districts and as are in accord with this section. Any such contract proposed for adoption by the trustees shall be in the form and contain only terms that may be prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction, and any such contract shall be approved by the superintendent of public instruction before it is considered by the electors of the district.

(2) Before any contract negotiated under the provisions of this section shall be executed, the trustees shall call an election under the provisions of 20-20-201 and submit to the qualified electors of the district the proposition that such contract be approved and that the trustees execute such contract. No agreement shall be valid until it has been approved at an election. The electors at the election shall be qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301, and the election shall be conducted under the school election provisions of this title. The ballot for the election shall be substantially in the following form:

Emergency School Closure

20-9-801. Purpose. This part governs a school district's entitlement to state equalization apportionment funds for any school year during which the school district is unable to conduct the minimum number of school days required by law by reason of one or more unforeseen emergencies. The provisions of this part must be narrowly interpreted.

20-9-803. Unforeseen emergency minimum. In no case may a district be considered to have made a reasonable effort unless at least 3 school days that have been lost by reason of one or more unforeseen emergencies have in fact been made up.
History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 288, L. 1979.

20-9-804. Determination of eligibility. If the county superintendent or, in a county with no county superintendent, the superintendent of public instruction determines that a reasonable effort has been made to make up all school days lost by reason of one or more unforeseen emergencies but fewer than the minimum number of school days required by law have been conducted, the school district will nevertheless be credited with full annual equalization apportionment according to the rate established in 20-9-805.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 288, L. 1979.

20-9-805. Rate of reduction in annual apportionment entitlement. (1) For each school day short of the minimum number of school days required by law that a school district fails to conduct by reason of one or more unforeseen emergencies or by reason of any other cause and for which the school district is not entitled to apportionment credit, the superintendent of public instruction shall reduce the equalization apportionment and entitlement of the district for that school year by 1/180th.

(2) Kindergarten and grade 1 through 12 programs shall be considered separately for the purpose of computing compliance with minimum school day requirements and any loss of apportionment.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 288, L. 1979.

20-9-806. School closure by declaration of emergency. If a school is closed by reason of a declaration of emergency by the governor, the pupil-instruction days lost during the closure need not be rescheduled to meet the minimum requirement for pupil-instruction days that a school district must conduct during the school year in order to be entitled to full annual equalization apportionment.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 85, L. 1981.

(1) "Transportation" shall mean:

(a) a district's conveyance of a pupil by a school bus between his legal residence and the school designated by the trustees for his attendance;

(b) a district's conveyance of a pupil by a school bus between his regular school of attendance and the vocational-technical secondary schools designated by the trustees for his attendance if the secondary school is located in some other school district; or

(c) "individual transportation" whereby a district is relieved of actually conveying a pupil. Such individual transportation may include paying the parent or guardian for conveying the pupil, reimbursing the parent or guardian for the pupil's board and room, or providing supervised correspondence study or supervised home study.

(2) An "eligible transportee" shall mean a public school pupil who:

(a) is not less than 5 years of age nor has attained his 21st birthday;

(b) is a resident of the state of Montana;

(c) regardless of district and county boundaries, resides at least 3 miles, over the shortest practical route, from the nearest operating public elementary school or public high school, whichever the case may be; and

(d) is deemed by law to reside with his parent or guardian who maintains legal residence within the boundaries of the district furnishing the transportation regardless of where the eligible transportee actually lives when attending school.

(3) A "school bus" shall mean any motor vehicle which is owned by a district or other public agency or by a carrier under contract with such a district or public agency and which complies with the bus standards established by the board of public education as determined by the Montana division of motor vehicles' semiannual inspection of school buses and the superintendent of public instruction.

History: (1), (2)En. Sec. 278, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 61, L. 1974; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 371, L. 1975; Sec. 75-7001, R.C.M. 1947; (3)En. Sec. 279, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 141, L. 1973; Sec. 75-7002, R.C.M. 1947; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7001, 75-7002(part).

20-10-102. School bus requirements. (1) A school bus may be operated by the district or other public agency for the conveyance of pupils or may be privately operated by a carrier to provide such conveyance of pupils under contract with a district or other public agency.

(2) Every school bus shall bear on the front and rear of the bus a plainly visible sign containing the words "school bus" in letters at least 8 inches in height.

(3) When a school bus is operated on a highway for purposes other than transporting pupils to and from school or for school functions, all markings identifying it as a school bus shall be concealed.

History: En. 75-7002 by Sec. 279, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 141, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7002(part).

(4) he has filed with the district a satisfactory medical examination report, on a blank provided by the superintendent of public instruction, signed by any physician licensed in the United States or, if acceptable to an insurance carrier, any licensed physician;

(5) he has completed a standard first aid course and holds a valid standard first aid certificate from an authorized instructor. The issuance of such certificate shall be governed by rules established by the superintendent of public instruction, provided that such rules may suspend this requirement for a reasonable period of time where there has been an inadequate opportunity for securing the first aid course and certificate.

(6) he has complied with any other qualifications established by the board of public education; and

(7) he has filed with the county superintendent a certificate from the trustees of the district for which the school bus is to be driven certifying compliance with the several driver qualifications enumerated in this section.

(1) Every district, its trustees and employees, and every person under a transportation contract with a district shall be subject to the policies prescribed by the board of public education and the rules prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction. When a district knowingly violates a transportation law or board of public education transportation policy, such district shall forfeit any reimbursement otherwise payable under 20-10-145 and 20-10-146 for bus miles actually traveled during that fiscal year in violation of such law or policies. The county superintendent shall suspend all such reimbursements payable to the district until the district corrects the violation. When the district corrects the violation, the county superintendent shall resume paying reimbursements to the district, but the amount forfeited may not be paid to the district.

(2) When a person operating a bus under contract with a district knowingly fails to comply with the transportation law or the board of public education transportation policies, the district may not pay him for any bus miles traveled during the contract year in violation of such law or policies. Upon discovering such a violation, the trustees of the district shall give written notice to the person that unless the violation is corrected within 10 days of the giving of notice, the contract will be canceled. The trustees of a district shall order the operation of a bus operated under contract suspended when the bus is being operated in violation of transportation law or policies and the trustees find that such violation jeopardizes the safety of pupils.

20-10-105. Determination of residence. When the residence of an eligible transportee is a matter of controversy and is an issue before a board of trustees, a county transportation committee, or the superintendent of public instruction, the residence shall be established on the basis of the general state residence law as provided in 1-1-215. Whenever any district or county is determined to be responsible for paying tuition for any pupil in accordance with 20-5-301, 20-5-302, or 20-5-311, the residence of the pupil for tuition purposes is the residence of the pupil for transportation purposes.

(2) A representative of the applicable district and a parent or guardian of the child to be transported shall be present when the distance is measured.

(3) The measurement shall begin 6 yards from the family home and end 6 yards from the entrance of the school grounds closest to the route.

(4) The route traversed for the measurement shall be the route designated by the trustees, except that the route shall be reasonably passable during the entire school fiscal year by the vehicle that provides the child's transportation. In determining reasonable passage, a route may not be disqualified because it is impassable during temporary, extreme weather conditions such as rains, snow, or floods.

History: En. 75-7017 by Sec. 294, Ch. 5, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 266, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 75-7017.

(1) purchase or rent a school bus;

(3) provide for the operation, maintenance, and insurance of a school bus or a two-way radio owned or rented by the district; or

(4) contract with a private party for the transportation of eligible transportees, and such contract shall not exceed the term of 5 years.

20-10-108. Two-way radio operation. When the trustees authorize a two-way radio as standard equipment on a school bus, the two-way radio may be operated on the same frequency as that used by the Montana highway patrol and the sheriff of the county when their permission and the permission of the federal communications commission is secured. If permission is not secured from these agencies, the frequency assigned by the federal communications commission shall be used for the operation of the two-way radio.

20-10-111. Duties of board of public education. (1) The board of public education, by and with the advice of the Montana division of motor vehicles and the superintendent of public instruction, shall adopt and enforce policies, not inconsistent with the motor vehicle laws, to provide uniform standards and regulations for the design, construction, and operation of school buses in the state of Montana. The trustees may, in contracting with private parties, require added safeguards by supplementing the board of public education policies in the contract with additional requirements for bus specifications, age of drivers, liability insurance, operating speed, or any other contractual condition deemed necessary by the trustees.

(2) Any school bus transportation by a private party or individual transportation that is furnished by a district shall be under contract, and no district, county, or state money shall be paid for such transportation services to any person or firm who does not hold a legal contract with the district. (c) such contracted services for individual transportation have been actually furnished as confirmed by the actual attendance of school by the eligible transportees and recorded on the school attendance records or, in the case of a supervised correspondence course or supervised home study, as confirmed by the trustees; except that the contracted services furnished one way on any school day shall be reimbursed at one-half the daily contract amount.

20-10-132. Duties of the county transportation committee. (1) It shall be the duty of the county transportation committee to:

(a) establish the transportation service areas within the county, without regard to district boundary lines, which will define the geographic area of responsibility for school bus transportation for each district that operates a school bus transportation program;

(b) approve, disapprove, or adjust the school bus routing submitted by the trustees of each district in conformity with the transportation service areas established in subsection (1)(a);

(c) approve, disapprove, or adjust applications, approved by the trustees, for increased reimbursements for individual transportation due to isolated conditions of the eligible transportee's residence; and

(d) conduct hearings to establish the facts of transportation controversies which have been appealed from the decision of the trustees and act on such appeals on the basis of the facts established at such hearing.

(2) After a fact-finding hearing and decision on a transportation controversy, the trustees or a patron of the district may appeal such decision to the superintendent of public instruction who shall render a decision on the basis of the facts established at the county transportation committee hearing.

(3) The trustees of any district which objects to a particular school bus route or transportation service area to which it has been assigned may request a transfer to another school bus route or transportation service area. The county transportation committee may transfer the territory of such district to an adjacent district's transportation service area or approved school bus route with the consent of such adjacent district. When the qualified electors of the district object to the decision of the county transportation committee and the adjacent district is willing to provide school bus service, 20% of the qualified electors, as prescribed in 20-20-301, may petition the trustees to conduct an election on the proposition that the territory of such district be transferred for school bus transportation purposes to such consenting, adjacent district. When a satisfactory petition is presented to the trustees, the trustees shall call an election in accordance with 20-20-201 for the next ensuing regular school election day. Such election shall be conducted in accordance with the school election laws. If a majority of those voting at such election approve the transfer, it shall become effective on July 1 of the ensuing school fiscal year.

(4) Unless a transfer of a district from one transportation service area or approved school bus route to another such area or route is approved by the county transportation committee and the superintendent of public instruction, the state transportation reimbursement shall be limited to the reimbursement amount for school bus transportation to the nearest operating public elementary school or public high school, whichever is appropriate for the affected pupils.

20-10-141. Schedule of maximum reimbursement by bus mileage rates. (1) The following bus mileage rates for school bus transportation constitute the maximum reimbursement to districts for school bus transportation from state and county sources of transportation revenue under the provisions of 20-10-145 and 20-10-146. These rates shall not limit the amount which a district may budget in its transportation fund budget in order to provide for the estimated and necessary cost of school bus transportation during the ensuing school fiscal year. Any vehicle, the operation of which is reimbursed under the rate provisions of this schedule, shall be a school bus, as defined by this title, driven by a qualified driver on a bus route approved by the county transportation committee and the superintendent of public instruction.

(2) The rate per bus mile traveled shall be determined in accordance with the following schedule when the bus is used for transportation of eligible transportees:

(a) 60 cents in fiscal 1982 and 65 cents in fiscal 1983 and each year thereafter per bus mile for a school bus with a rated capacity of not less than 12 but not more than 50 children; and

(b) when the rated capacity is more than 50 children, an additional 2 ½ cents per bus mile for each additional child in the rated capacity in excess of 50 shall be added to a base rate of 60 cents in fiscal 1982 and 65 cents in fiscal 1983 and each year thereafter per bus mile.

(3) The rated capacity shall be the number of riding positions of a school bus as determined under the policy adopted by the board of public education.

1981 Amendment: In (2)(a) substituted "60 cents in fiscal 1982 and 65 cents in fiscal 1983" for "50 cents in fiscal 1980 and 55 cents in fiscal 1981"; and in (2)(b), substituted "2 ½ cents" for "2 cents", and "60 cents in fiscal 1982 and 65 cents in fiscal 1983" for "50 cents in fiscal 1980 and 55 cents in fiscal 1981".

20-10-142. Schedule of maximum reimbursement for individual transportation. The following rates for individual transportation constitute the maximum reimbursement to districts for individual transportation from state and county sources of transportation revenue under the provisions of 20-10-145 and 20-10-146. These rates also shall constitute the limitation of the budgeted amounts for individual transportation for the ensuing school fiscal year. The schedules provided in this section shall not be altered by any authority other than the legislature of the state of Montana. When the trustees contract with the parent or guardian of any eligible transportee to provide individual transportation for each day of school attendance, they shall reimburse the parent or guardian on the basis of the following schedule:

(1) When a parent or guardian transports an eligible transportee or transportees from the residence of the parent or guardian to a school or to schools located within 3 miles of one another, the total reimbursement per day of attendance shall be determined by multiplying the distance in miles between the residence and the school, or the most distant school if more than one, by 2, subtracting 6 miles from the product so obtained, and multiplying the difference by 20 cents provided that:

(a) if two or more eligible transportees are transported by a parent or guardian to two or more schools located within 3 miles of one another and if such schools are operated by different school districts, the total amount of the reimbursement shall be divided equally between the districts;

(b) if two or more eligible transportees are transported by a parent or guardian to two or more schools located more than 3 miles from one another, the parent or guardian shall be separately reimbursed for transporting the eligible transportee or transportees to each school;

(c) if a parent transports two or more eligible transportees to a school and a bus stop which school and bus stop are located within 3 miles of one another, the total reimbursement shall be determined under the provisions of this subsection and shall be divided equally between the district operating the school and the district operating the bus;

(d) if a parent transporting two or more eligible transportees to a school or bus stop must, because of varying arrival and departure times, make more than one round-trip journey to the bus stop or school, the total reimbursement allowed by this section shall be limited to one round trip per day for each scheduled arrival or departure time;

(e) notwithstanding subsection (1)(a), (1)(b), (1)(c), or (1)(d), no reimbursement may be less than 25 cents a day.

(2) When the parent or guardian transports an eligible transportee or transportees from the residence to a bus stop of a bus route approved by the trustees for the transportation of the transportee or transportees, the total reimbursement per day of attendance shall be determined by multiplying the distance in miles between the residence and the bus stop by 2, subtracting 3 miles from the product so obtained, and multiplying the difference by 20 cents provided that:

(a) if the eligible transportees transported attend schools in different districts but ride on one bus, the districts shall divide the total reimbursement equally; and

(b) if the parent or guardian is required to transport the eligible transportees to more than one bus, the parent or guardian shall be separately reimbursed for transportation to each bus.

(3) Where, due to excessive distances, impassable roads, or other special circumstances of isolation the rates prescribed in subsection (1) or (2) would be an inadequate reimbursement for the transportation costs or would result in a physical hardship for the eligible transportee, his parent or guardian may request an increase in the reimbursement rate. Such a request for increased rates due to isolation shall be made by the parent or guardian on the contract for individual transportation for the ensuing school fiscal year by indicating the special facts and circumstances which exist to justify the increase. Before any increase rate due to isolation can be paid to the requesting parent or guardian, such rate must be approved by the county transportation committee and the superintendent of public instruction after the trustees have indicated their approval or disapproval. Regardless of the action of the trustees and when approval is given by the county transportation committee and the superintendent of public instruction, the trustees shall pay such increased rate due to isolation. The increased rate shall be 1 ½ times the rate prescribed in subsection (1) above.

(4) When the isolated conditions of the household where an eligible transportee resides require such eligible transportee to live away from the household in order to attend school, he shall be eligible for the room and board reimbursement. Approval to receive the room and board reimbursement shall be obtained in the same manner prescribed in subsection (3) above. The per diem rate for room and board shall be $5 for one eligible transportee and $3 for each additional eligible transportee of the same household.

(5) When the individual transportation provision is to be satisfied by supervised home study or supervised correspondence study, the reimbursement rate shall be the cost of such study, provided that the course of instruction is approved by the trustees and supervised by the district.

20-10-143. Budgeting for transportation and transmittal of transportation contracts. (1) The trustees of any district furnishing transportation to pupils who are residents of such district shall have the authority and it shall be their duty to provide a transportation fund budget that is adequate to finance such district's transportation contractual obligations and any other transportation expenditures necessary for the conduct of its transportation program. The transportation fund budget shall include:

(a) an adequate amount to finance the maintenance and operation of district owned and operated school buses;

(b) the annual contracted amount for the maintenance and operation of school buses by a private party;

(c) the annual contracted amount for individual transportation, including any increased amount due to isolation, which shall not exceed the schedule amounts prescribed in 20-10-142;

(d) any amount necessary for the purchase, rental, or insurance of school buses; and

(e) any other amount necessary to finance the administration, operation, or maintenance of the transportation program of the district, as determined by the trustees.

(2) The trustees may include a contingency amount in the transportation fund budget for the purpose of enabling the district to fulfill any obligation to provide transportation in accordance with the transportation law for any pupils not residing in the district at the time of the adoption of the preliminary budget and who subsequently became residents of such district during the school fiscal year or pupils who have become eligible transportees since the adoption of the preliminary budget because their legal residence has been changed. The budgeted contingency amount shall not exceed 10% of the transportation schedule amount as calculated under the provisions of 20-10-141 and 20-10-142 for all transportation services authorized by such schedule and provided by the district unless 10% of such transportation schedule amount shall be less than $100, in which case $100 shall be the maximum limitation for such budgeted contingency amount.

(3) As provided in 20-9-162, an emergency transportation fund budget may be adopted subject to the provisions of the emergency budgeting law.

(4) The transportation fund budgeted expenditures appropriated by the trustees shall be reported on the regular budget form prescribed by the superintendent of public instruction in accordance with 20-9-103, and the adoption of the transportation fund budget shall be completed in accordance with the school budgeting laws. When the adopted preliminary budget is sent to the county superintendent, the trustees shall also send copies of all completed transportation contracts for school bus transportation and individual transportation to the county superintendent. Such contracts shall substantiate all contracted transportation services incorporated in the preliminary budget, and after the county superintendent has utilized the contracts for such purpose but before the fourth Monday of July, he shall send all the transportation contracts received by him to the superintendent of public instruction. When the county superintendent determines a deviation between the preliminary transportation fund budget amount for contracted transportation services and the contracted amount for such services, he shall immediately call the deviation to the attention of the appropriate trustees and shall allow the trustees to change the preliminary budgeted amount to compensate for such deviation.

20-10-144. Computation of revenues and net tax levy requirements for the transportation fund budget. Before the fourth Monday of July and in accordance with 20-9-123, the county superintendent shall compute the revenue available to finance the transportation fund budget of each district. The county superintendent shall compute the revenue for each district on the following basis:

(1) The "schedule amount" of the preliminary budget expenditures that is derived from the rate schedules in 20-10-141 and 20-10-142 shall be determined by adding the following amounts:

(a) the sum of the maximum reimbursable expenditures for all approved school bus routes maintained by the district (to determine the maximum reimbursable expenditure, multiply the applicable rate per bus mile by the total number of miles to be traveled during the ensuing school fiscal year on each bus route approved by the county transportation committee and maintained by such district); plus

(b) the total of all individual transportation per diem reimbursement rates for such district as determined from the contracts submitted by the district multiplied by the number of pupil-instruction days scheduled for the ensuing school attendance year; plus

(c) any estimated costs for supervised home study or supervised correspondence study for the ensuing school fiscal year; plus

(d) the amount budgeted on the preliminary budget for the contingency amount permitted in 20-10-143, except if such amount exceeds 10% of the total of subsections (1)(a), (1)(b), and (1)(c) or $100, whichever is larger, the contingency amount on the preliminary budget shall be reduced to such limitation amount and used in this determination of the schedule amount.

(2) The schedule amount determined in subsection (1) or the total preliminary transportation fund budget, whichever is smaller, shall be divided by 3 and the resulting one-third amount shall be used to determine the available state and county revenue to be budgeted on the following basis:

(a) the resulting one-third amount shall be the budgeted state transportation reimbursement, except that the state transportation reimbursement for the transportation of special education pupils under the provisions of 20-7-442 shall be two-thirds of the schedule amount attributed to the transportation of special education pupils;

(b) the resulting one-third amount, except as provided for joint elementary districts in subsection (2)(e), shall be the budgeted county transportation reimbursement for elementary districts and shall be financed by the basic county tax under the provisions of 20-9-334;

(c) the resulting one-third amount multiplied by 2 shall be the budgeted county transportation reimbursement amount for high school districts financed under the provisions of subsection (5) of this section, except as provided for joint high school districts in subsection (2)(e), and except that the county transportation reimbursement for the transportation of special education pupils under the provisions of 20-7-442 shall be one-third of the schedule amount attributed to the transportation of special education pupils;

(d) when the district has a sufficient amount of cash for reappropriation and other sources of district revenue, as determined in subsection (3), to reduce the total district obligation for financing to zero, any remaining amount of such district revenue and cash reappropriated shall be used to reduce the county financing obligation in subsections (2)(b) or (2)(c) and, if such county financing obligations are reduced to zero, to reduce the state financial obligation in subsection (2)(a); and

(e) the county revenue requirement for a joint district, after the application of any district moneys under subsection (2)(d) above, shall be prorated to each county incorporated by the joint district in the same proportion as the ANB of the joint district is distributed by pupil residence in each such county.

(3) The total of the moneys available for the reduction of property tax on the district for the transportation fund shall be determined by totaling:

(a) anticipated federal moneys received under the provisions of Title I of Public Law 81-874 or other anticipated federal moneys received in lieu of such federal act; plus

(b) anticipated payments from other districts for providing school bus transportation services for such district; plus

(c) anticipated payments from a parent or guardian for providing school bus transportation services for his child; plus

(d) anticipated interest to be earned by the investment of transportation fund cash in accordance with the provisions of 20-9-213(4); plus

(e) any other revenue anticipated by the trustees to be earned during the ensuing school fiscal year which may be used to finance the transportation fund; plus

(f) any cash available for reappropriation as determined by subtracting the amount of the end-of-the-year cash balance earmarked as the transportation fund cash reserve for the ensuing school fiscal year by the trustees from the end-of-the-year cash balance in the transportation fund. Such cash reserve shall not be more than 20% of the final transportation fund budget for the ensuing school fiscal year and shall be for the purpose of paying transportation fund warrants issued by the district under the final transportation fund budget.

(4) The district levy requirement for each district's transportation fund shall be computed by:

(a) subtracting the schedule amount calculated in subsection (1) from the total preliminary transportation budget amount and, for an elementary district, adding such difference to the district obligation to finance one-third of the schedule amount as determined in subsection (2); and

(b) subtracting the amount of moneys available to reduce the property tax on the district, as determined in subsection (3), from the amount determined in subsection (4)(a) above.

(5) The county levy requirement for the financing of the county transportation reimbursement to high school districts shall be computed by adding all such requirements for all the high school districts of the county, including the county's obligation for reimbursements in joint high school districts.

(6) The transportation fund levy requirements determined in subsection (4) for each district and in subsection (5) for the county shall be reported to the county commissioners on the second Monday of August by the county superintendent as the transportation fund levy requirements for the district and for the county, and such levies shall be made by the county commissioners in accordance with 20-9-142.

(1) Any district providing school bus transportation or individual transportation in accordance with the transportation law, board of public education transportation policy, and superintendent of public instruction transportation rules shall receive a state reimbursement of its transportation expenditures under the transportation reimbursement rate provisions of 20-10-141 and 20-10-142. The state transportation reimbursement shall not exceed one-third of the reimbursement amounts established in such sections or one-third of the district's transportation fund budget, whichever is smaller, and shall be computed on the basis of the number of days the transportation services were actually rendered. In determining the amount of the state transportation reimbursement, no amount claimed by a district shall be considered for reimbursement unless such amount has been paid in the regular manner provided for the payment of other financial obligations of the district.

(2) Requests for the state transportation reimbursement shall be made by each district semiannually during the school fiscal year on the claim forms and procedure promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction. The claims for state transportation reimbursements shall be routed by the district to the county superintendent, who after reviewing such claims shall send them to the superintendent of public instruction. (4) Whenever the trustees of a district maintaining a bus depreciation reserve fund consider it to be in the best interest of the district to transfer any portion or all of the bus depreciation reserve cash balance to any other fund maintained by the district, it shall submit such proposition to the electors of the district. The electors qualified to vote at the election shall qualify under 20-20-301, and the election shall be called and conducted in the manner prescribed by this title for school elections. Part 5

University Students — Qualifications and Rights

20-25-501. Definitions. (1) Terms used in this part are defined as follows:

(a) "Domicile" means a person's true, fixed, and permanent home and place of habitation.

(b) "Emancipated minor" means a person under the age of 18 years who supports himself from his own earnings or is married. A person who received more than 25% of the cost of supporting himself from any person other than an agency of the government shall not be considered an emancipated minor.

(c) "Minor" means a male or female person who has not obtained the age of 18 years.

(d) "Qualified person" means a person legally qualified to determine his own domicile.

(e) "Resident student" means:

(i) a student who has been domiciled in Montana for 1 year immediately preceding registration at any unit for any term or session for which resident classification is claimed. Attendance as a full-time student at any college, university, or other institution of higher education shall not alone be sufficient to qualify for residence in Montana.

(ii) any graduate of a Montana high school whose parents, parent, or guardian have resided in Montana at least 1 full year of the 2 years immediately preceding his graduation from high school. Such classification shall continue for not more than 4 academic years if the student remains in continuous attendance at a unit; or

(iii) a member of the armed forces of the United States assigned to and residing in Montana, his spouse, or his dependent children.

(2) In the event the definition of residency or any portion thereof is declared unconstitutional as it is applied to payment of nonresident fees and tuition, the regents of the Montana university system shall have authority to make rules on what constitutes adequate evidence of residency status not inconsistent with such court decisions.

20-25-502. Qualification of students. The university system is open to all people, subject to such uniform regulations as the regents deem proper.

20-25-503. Presumptions and rules as to domicile. (1) Unless the contrary appears to the unit registering authority, it is presumed the domicile of a minor is that:

(a) of the parents or, if one of them is deceased or they do not share the same domicile, of the parent having legal custody or, if neither parent has legal custody, the parent with whom the minor customarily resides; or

(b) of his guardian when the court appointing the guardian certifies that the primary purpose of the appointment is not to qualify the minor as a resident of this state.

(2) A resident student who marries a nonresident does not by that fact alone lose resident status for tuition and fee purposes for a period of 4 years after marriage.

(3) Residence is not lost because of relocation as a member of the armed forces of the United States.

(4) A new domicile is established by a qualified person if he is physically present in Montana with no intention to acquire a domicile outside of Montana.

(5) Domicile is not lost by absence from Montana with no intention to establish a new domicile.

(6) Montana high school graduates are resident students of the system for 4 consecutive years of attendance if:

(a) they apply for admittance to the system within 1 year after graduation; or

(b) their parents or the parent having legal custody or, if neither parent has legal custody, the parent with whom they customarily reside has resided in Montana in one of the 2 years immediately preceding the graduation.

(7) Upon moving to Montana, an adult employed on a full-time basis within the state of Montana may apply for in-state tuition classification for his spouse or any dependent minor child, or both. If such person meets the requirement of full-time employment within the state of Montana and files for the payment of Montana state income taxes or files estimates of those taxes or is subject to withholding of those taxes and renounces his residency in any other state and is not himself in the state primarily as a student, his spouse or any dependent minor child, or both, may at the next registration after qualifying be classified at the in-state rate so long as he continues his Montana domicile. In the administration of this subsection, neither the full-time employee or spouse shall be eligible for in-state tuition classification if the primary purpose for coming to Montana was the education of the employee or spouse.

20-25-504. Evidence as to domiciliary intent — changes in status. (1) To determine the domicile of a person, the units of the system shall apply the following rules:

(a) Nonpayment of Montana income tax by a person whose income is sufficient to be taxed is highly persuasive evidence of non-Montana domicile.

(b) A person must intend to establish a domicile in Montana.

(2) After registration, a student's classification for tuition and fee purposes remains unchanged in the absence of evidence to the contrary. A written statement of the evidence shall be filed with the registering authority of the unit. Changes in classification shall be in writing signed by the registering authority and shall take effect at the student's next registration.

(3) A minor shall qualify for a change in status only if his parents or the parent having legal custody or, if neither parent has legal custody, the parent with whom he customarily resides or legal guardian or person having legal custody completes the requirements for establishing domicile heretofore set forth.

(4) It is presumed a minor or adult registered as a full-time student at any unit is not qualified for a change in his or his dependent's classification for tuition and fee purposes unless he completes 12 continuous months of residence while not attending a unit of the system or other institution of higher learning or while serving in the armed forces.

(5) Any student whose request for classification as a resident student is denied has the right of appeal to the executive secretary of the Montana university system. Immediately upon rejection and at the request of the student, the registering authority shall forward a copy of his decision and a complete file on the student to the executive secretary. The executive secretary may accept other evidence of residence from either the student, the registering authority, or other interested persons. Within 30 days of the receipt of the decision of the registering authority, the executive secretary shall determine the resident status of the student and shall notify the student and the registering authority of his decision. The executive secretary's decision may be appealed to the regents if the regents agree to entertain such an appeal.

(1) Persons of one-fourth Indian blood or more who are bona fide residents of the state of Montana for at least 1 year prior to enrollment in the Montana university system, have completed a 4-year course in an accredited high school or federal Indian school, and show financial need and evidence of studious and industrious habits may enroll in the university system without the payment of fees.

(2) Each unit shall make rules governing the selection of these students.

20-25-511. Student's right of privacy — legislative intent. This obligation must be observed by establishing procedures to safeguard the institution's activities which are necessary to protect the health, safety, and privacy of a person's residence and the privacy of his records. Intrusions by peace officers and other officials exercising responsibility for law enforcement must be governed by standards and procedures no less stringent than those applicable to intrusions on private quarters outside the institutions. In conducting such studies, the commission may confer with any national or regional planning body which may be established. The commission shall draft and recommend to the governors of the various compacting states and territories uniform legislation dealing with problems of higher education in the region.

Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state or territory from its obligations hereunder accruing prior to the effective date of withdrawal. The withdrawing state or territory may rescind its action of withdrawal at any time within the 2-year period. Thereafter, the withdrawing state or territory may be reinstated by application to and the approval by a majority vote of the commission.

(3) Any such defaulting state may be reinstated by:

(a) performing all acts and obligations upon which it has heretofore defaulted; and

For that purpose, the commission may negotiate and enter into arrangements and contracts with this state or any appropriate agency thereof, with public and private educational institutions and agencies, and with states and other governmental entities. It is found that certain institutions have either by unscrupulous, unfair, and deceptive practices or through substandard instruction deprived the citizens of this state of educational opportunity and subjected them to financial loss. The actions of such institutions also reflect unfavorably upon the reputable postsecondary institutions which are in the great majority. Thus it is the purpose of this chapter to provide for the protection, education, and welfare of the citizens of this state.

(c) "Application" means either an application for the initial issuance of a license or permit or for the renewal of a license or permit.

(d) "Department" means the department of commerce.

(e) "Education or educational services" means a class, course, or program of training, instruction, or study.

(f) "Educational credential" means a degree, diploma, certificate, transcript, report, document, letters of designation, marks, appellations, series of letters, numbers, or words which signify, purport, or are generally taken to mean enrollment, attendance, progress, or satisfactory completion of the requirements or prerequisites for education through a postsecondary educational institution.

(g) "Grant" means sell, award, confer, bestow, or give.

(h) "Institution" means an academic, vocational, technical, home study, business, professional, or other school, college, or university or any person, association, or corporation offering educational credentials or educational services but does not include any institution established and maintained under the laws of this state.

(i) "License" means written approval issued by the department to operate or to contract to operate a postsecondary institution in this state.

(j) "Offer" means, in addition to its usual meaning, to advertise, publicize, solicit, or encourage any person, directly or indirectly, in any form, to perform the act described.

(k) "Operate" means to establish and maintain any facility in this state for the purpose described and includes a contract with any person, association, or corporation to establish and maintain such facility.

(l) "Permit" means written approval issued by the department to any person to act as an agent for a postsecondary educational institution.

(m) "Postsecondary education" means the education or educational services offered to persons who have completed or terminated their secondary education or who are beyond the age of compulsory school attendance, for the attainment of academic, professional, or vocational objectives.

History: En. Secs. 1, 2, Ch. 296, L. 1974; Secs. 75-9201, 75-9202, R.C.M. 1947; (2)(a)En. by Code Commissioner, 1979; R.C.M. 1947, 75-9201, 75-9202; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 94, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 274, L. 1981.

20-30-102. Exemptions. The following are exempt from the provisions of this chapter:

The release does not discharge or otherwise affect any claim filed by a student or enrollee or his parent or guardian for loss or damage resulting from any act or practice which is a violation of this act alleged to have occurred while the bond was in effect or from an institution's ceasing operations during the term for which tuition has been paid while the bond was in force.

(4) A license for an institution to operate or a permit to an agent shall be suspended by operation of law when the institution or agent is no longer covered by a surety bond as required by this section; but the department shall cause the institution or an agent, or both, to receive at least 30 days' written notice prior to the release of the surety to the effect that the license or permit shall be suspended by operation of law until another surety bond is filed in the same manner and like amount as the bond being terminated.

To that end the state should be divided into regions within which libraries desiring to participate in the distribution of such state funding to libraries as may be available from time to time shall organize into library federations to pool resources and information and avoid duplication of effort.

(b) Two or more cities, towns, counties, or a city and one or more counties may agree by contract to form such a federation by action of their respective governing bodies or duly created boards of library trustees, provided that one of the parties is or maintains a library which has been designated by the state library commission as a headquarters library for that federation area. The participating entities may retain such autonomy over their respective libraries as may be specified in the contract.

(c) The expense of providing library services for the library federation shall be based on funds received from the state or participating libraries as shall be agreed upon in the contract. The funds of the federation shall be maintained as a separate account as shall be provided in the contract. Participating libraries shall transfer semiannually to the account all money collected for the federation in their respective jurisdiction.

(d) A participating entity may withdraw from a federation according to the terms for withdrawal provided in the contract by the action of its governing body or by a majority of its qualified voters voting at a general or special election.

(2) A library network is an agreement between individual libraries or library systems, which may be intercity, intrastate, or interstate, for the exchange of information or to provide specific library services not provided in existing library federations.

1981 Amendment: Substituted "among such types of grant programs and shall allocate funds among federations according to such formulas for distribution as it shall establish from time to time by rules adopted pursuant to 22-1-103" for "to three types of grant programs according to 22-1-415 and shall make grants to duly constituted library federations according to program applications submitted to and approved by the commission" after "such appropriation" in the second sentence; substituted "state funds from the commission" for "grant moneys" after "receiving" near the beginning of the third sentence; deleted "grants have been" and inserted "was" after "state funding" in the third sentence; changed "report" to "reports" after "received, which" in the third sentence; substituted "state" for "grant" after "for all" near the end of the section.

Statement of Intent: The statement of intent attached to SB 88 (Ch. 373, L. 1981) provided: "A statement of intent is required for this bill because it provides for rulemaking in section 2 [22-1-413]. When the provisions being amended by this bill were adopted, it was intended that the formula for allocating appropriations to library federations would be used. The formula proved to be unworkable and has not been in use. Therefore, there is a need for rules to provide guidance for the allocation of funding, to establish funding formulas, and to determine what type of grant programs should be implemented. The rules authorized by this bill should address the preceding concerns and should incorporate flexibility because the needs change and the funding should accommodate the varying needs."

Interstate Library Compact

22-1-601. Library compact. The Interstate Library Compact is hereby approved, enacted into law, and entered into by the state of Montana, which compact is in full as follows:

INTERSTATE LIBRARY COMPACT

Article I. Policy and Purpose

Because the desire for the services provided by libraries transcends governmental boundaries and can most effectively be satisfied by giving such services to communities and people regardless of jurisdictional lines, it is the policy of the states party to this compact to cooperate and share their responsibilities; to authorize cooperation and sharing with respect to those types of library facilities and services which can be more economically or efficiently developed and maintained on a cooperative basis; and to authorize cooperation and sharing among localities, states, and others in providing joint or cooperative library services in areas where the distribution of population or of existing and potential library resources make the provision of library service on an interstate basis the most effective way of providing adequate and efficient service.

Article II. Definitions

As used in this compact:

(1) "public library agency" means any unit or agency of local or state government operating or having power to operate a library;

(2) "private library agency" means any nongovernmental entity which operates or assumes a legal obligation to operate a library;

(3) "library agreement" means a contract establishing an interstate library district pursuant to this compact or providing for the joint or cooperative furnishing of library services.

Article III. Interstate Library Districts

(1) Any one or more public library agencies in a party state in cooperation with any public library agency or agencies in one or more other party states may establish and maintain an interstate library district. Subject to the provisions of this compact and any other laws of the party states which pursuant hereto remain applicable, such district may establish, maintain, and operate some or all of the library facilities and services for the area concerned in accordance with the terms of a library agreement therefor. Any private library agency or agencies within an interstate library district may cooperate therewith, assume duties, responsibilities, and obligations thereto, and receive benefits therefrom as provided in any library agreement to which such agency or agencies become party.

(2) Within an interstate library district, and as provided by a library agreement, the performance of library functions may be undertaken on a joint or cooperative basis or may be undertaken by means of one or more arrangements between or among public or private library agencies for the extension of library privileges to the use of facilities or services operated or rendered by one or more of the individual library agencies.

(3) If a library agreement provides for joint establishment, maintenance, or operation of library facilities or services by an interstate library district, such district shall have power to do any one or more of the following in accordance with such library agreement:

(a) undertake, administer, and participate in programs or arrangements for:

(i) securing, lending, or servicing books and other publications, any other materials suitable to be kept or made available by libraries, or library equipment; or

(ii) for the dissemination of information about libraries, the value and significance of particular items therein, and the use thereof;

(b) accept for any of its purposes under this compact any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials, and services (conditional or otherwise) from any state or the United States or any subdivision or agency thereof or interstate agency or from any institution, person, firm, or corporation and receive, utilize, and dispose of the same;

(c) operate mobile library units or equipment for the purpose of rendering bookmobile service within the district;

(d) employ professional, technical, clerical, and other personnel and fix terms of employment, compensation, and other appropriate benefits; and where desirable, provide for the in-service training of such personnel;

(e) sue and be sued in any court of competent jurisdiction;

(f) acquire, hold, and dispose of any real or personal property or any interest or interests therein as may be appropriate to the rendering of library service;

(g) construct, maintain, and operate a library, including any appropriate branches thereof;

(h) do such other things as may be incidental to or appropriate for the carrying out of any of the foregoing powers.

Article IV. Interstate Library Districts, Governing Board

(1) An interstate library district which establishes, maintains, or operates any facilities or services in its own right shall have a governing board which shall direct the affairs of the district and act for it in all matters relating to its business. Each participating public library agency in the district shall be represented on the governing board which shall be organized and conduct its business in accordance with provision therefor in the library agreement. But in no event shall a governing board meet less often than twice a year.

(2) Any private library agency or agencies party to a library agreement establishing an interstate library district may be represented on or advise with the governing board of the district in such manner as the library agreement may provide.

Article V. State Library Agency Cooperation

Any two or more state library agencies of two or more of the party states may undertake and conduct joint or cooperative library programs, render joint or cooperative library services, and enter into and perform arrangements for the cooperative or joint acquisition, use, housing, and disposition of items or collections of materials which, by reason of expense, rarity, specialized nature, or infrequency of demand therefor would be appropriate for central collection and shared use. Any such programs, services, or arrangements may include provision for the exercise on a cooperative or joint basis of any power exercisable by an interstate library district, and an agreement embodying any such program, service, or arrangement shall contain provisions covering the subjects detailed in Article VI of this compact for interstate library agreements.

Article VI. Library Agreements

(1) In order to provide for any joint or cooperative undertaking pursuant to this compact, public and private library agencies may enter into library agreements. Any agreement executed pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall, as among the parties to the agreement:

(a) detail the specific nature of the services, programs, facilities, arrangements, or properties to which it is applicable;

(b) provide for the allocation of costs and other financial responsibilities;

(c) specify the respective rights, duties, obligations, and liabilities of the parties;

(d) set forth the terms and conditions for duration, renewal, termination, abrogation, disposal of joint or common property, if any, and all other matters which may be appropriate to the proper effectuation and performance of the agreement.

(2) No public or private library agency shall undertake to exercise, itself or jointly with any other library agency, by means of a library agreement, any power prohibited to such agency by the constitution or statutes of its state.

(3) No library agreement shall become effective until filed with the compact administrator of each state involved and approved in accordance with Article VII of this compact.

Article VII. Approval of Library Agreements

(1) Every library agreement made pursuant to this compact shall, prior to and as a condition precedent to its entry into force, be submitted to the attorney general of each state in which a public library agency party thereto is situated, who shall determine whether the agreement is in proper form and compatible with the laws of his state. The attorneys general shall approve any agreement submitted to them unless they shall find that it does not meet the conditions set forth herein and shall detail in writing addressed to the governing bodies of the public library agencies concerned the specific respects in which the proposed agreement fails to meet the requirements of law. Failure to disapprove an agreement submitted hereunder within 90 days of its submission shall constitute approval thereof.

(2) In the event that a library agreement made pursuant to this compact shall deal in whole or in part with the provision of services or facilities with regard to which an officer or agency of the state government has constitutional or statutory powers of control, the agreement shall, as a condition precedent to its entry into force, be submitted to the state officer or agency having such power of control and shall be approved or disapproved by him or it as to all matters within his or its jurisdiction in the same manner and subject to the same requirements governing the action of the attorneys general pursuant to paragraph (1) of this article. This requirement of submission and approval shall be in addition to and not in substitution for the requirement of submission to and approval by the attorneys general.

Article VIII. Other Laws Applicable

Nothing in this compact or in any library agreement shall be construed to supersede, alter, or otherwise impair any obligation imposed on any library by otherwise applicable law nor to authorize the transfer or disposition of any property held in trust by a library agency in a manner contrary to the terms of such trust.

Article IX. Appropriations and Aid

(1) Any public library agency party to a library agreement may appropriate funds to the interstate library district established thereby in the same manner and to the same extent as to a library wholly maintained by it and, subject to the laws of the state in which such public library agency is situated, may pledge its credit in support of an interstate library district established by the agreement.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the library agreement pursuant to which it functions and the laws of the states in which such district is situated, an interstate library district may claim and receive any state and federal aid which may be available to library agencies.

Article X. Compact Administrator

Each state shall designate a compact administrator with whom copies of all library agreements to which his state or any public library agency thereof is party shall be filed. The administrator shall have such other powers as may be conferred upon him by the laws of his state and may consult and cooperate with the compact administrators of other party states and take such steps as may effectuate the purposes of this compact. If the laws of a party state so provide, such state may designate one or more deputy compact administrators in addition to its compact administrator.

Article XI. Entry into Force and Withdrawal

(1) This compact shall enter into force and effect immediately upon its enactment into law by any two states. Thereafter, it shall enter into force and effect as to any other state upon the enactment thereof by such state.

(2) This compact shall continue in force with respect to a party state and remain binding upon such state until 6 months after such state has given notice to each other party state of the repeal thereof. Such withdrawal shall not be construed to relieve any party to a library agreement entered into pursuant to this compact from any obligation of that agreement prior to the end of its duration as provided therein.

Article XII. Construction and Severability

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

The historic preservation officer shall determine the appropriate time period allowable between all work undertaken and submission of the summary report.

However, where the grant of an interest in state land requires the preparation of an environmental impact statement under the Montana Environmental Policy Act, the environmental impact statement shall be limited to an evaluation of the heritage properties and paleontological remains located in, on, under, and within only the affected state land.

(2) When heritage properties and paleontological remains are located and identified as described in subsection (1), the responsible state agency, in consultation with the historic preservation officer and the preservation review board, shall include as part of its environmental impact statement a plan for the avoidance or mitigation of damage to heritage properties and paleontological remains to the greatest extent practicable. (1) The owner of a boat livery shall cause to be kept a record of the name and address of the person or persons hiring any vessel which is permitted by him to be operated, the identification number of such vessel, the departure date and time, and the expected time of return. The record shall be preserved for at least 6 months.

(2) Neither the owner of a boat livery nor his agent or employee shall permit any motorboat or any vessel permitted by him to be operated as a motorboat or vessel to depart from his premises unless it shall have been provided, either by owner or renter, with the equipment required pursuant to 23-2-521 and any rules made pursuant thereto.

23-2-511. Operation of unnumbered motorboats prohibited — display of decals. (1) Every motorboat on the waters of this state, propelled by a motor or an engine of any description, must be properly numbered and display valid license decals. No person may operate or give permission for the operation of any motorboat on such waters unless the motorboat is numbered and displays valid license decals in accordance with this part, with applicable federal law, or with a federally approved numbering system of another state and unless:

(a) the certificate of number assigned to the motorboat is in full force and effect; and

(b) the identifying number set forth in the certificate of number and the valid license decals are displayed on such motorboat.

(2) Any person who operates a motorboat on the waters of this state without displaying the appropriate numbers and license decals as required by this section is punishable by a fine not to exceed $10. However, the arresting officer may issue a courtesy citation in lieu of the penalty provided for in this subsection.

23-2-512. Identification number. (1) The owner of each motorboat requiring numbering by this state shall file an application for number in the office of the county treasurer where the motorboat is owned or taxable on forms prepared and furnished by the division of motor vehicles. The application must be signed by the owner of the motorboat and be accompanied by a fee of $1. Any alteration, change, or false statement contained in the application will render the certificate of number void. Upon receipt of the application in approved form, the county treasurer shall issue to the applicant a certificate of number prepared and furnished by the division of motor vehicles, stating the number assigned to the motorboat and the name and address of the owner.

(2) Before filing the application with the county treasurer, the applicant shall submit it to the county assessor, who shall enter on the application, in a space to be provided for that purpose, the market value and taxable value of the motorboat for the year for which the application for registration is made.

(3) The applicant, upon the filing of the application, shall pay to the county treasurer the registration fee and the personal property taxes assessed against the motorboat or vessel for the current year of registration before the application for registration or reregistration may be accepted by the county treasurer.

(4) Should the ownership of a motorboat change, a new application form with fee must be filed within a reasonable time with the county treasurer and a new certificate of number assigned in the same manner as provided for in an original assignment of number.

(5) If an agency of the United States government has in force a comprehensive system of identification numbering for motorboats in the United States, the numbering system employed pursuant to this part by the division of motor vehicles must be in conformity.

(6) Every certificate of number and the license decals assigned under this part continues in effect for a period not to exceed 1 year unless terminated or discontinued in accordance with the provisions of this part. Certificates of number and license decals must show the date of expiration and may be renewed by the owner in the same manner provided for in the initial securing of the certificate.

(7) Certificates of number expire on April 30 of each year and may not be in effect unless renewed under this part.

(8) In event of transfer of ownership, the purchaser shall furnish the county treasurer notice within a reasonable time of the acquisition of all or any part of his interest, other than the creation of a security interest, in a motorboat numbered in this state or of the loss, theft, destruction, or abandonment of the motorboat. The transfer, loss, theft, destruction, or abandonment terminates the certificate of number for the motorboat. Recovery from theft or transfer of a part interest that does not affect the owner's right to operate the motorboat does not terminate the certificate of number.

(9) A holder of a certificate of number shall notify the county treasurer within reasonable time if his address no longer conforms to the address appearing on the certificate and furnish the county treasurer with his new address. The division of motor vehicles may provide by rule for the surrender of the certificate bearing the former address and its replacement with a certificate bearing the new address or the alteration of an outstanding certificate to show the new address of the holder.

(10) (a) The number assigned must be painted on or attached to each outboard side of the forward half of the motorboat or, if there are no such sides, at a corresponding location on both outboard sides of the foredeck of the motorboat. The number assigned must read from left to right in Arabic numerals and block characters of good proportion at least 3 inches tall excluding border or trim of a color that contrasts with the color of the background and be so maintained as to be clearly visible and legible. The number may not be placed on the obscured underside of the flared bow where it cannot be easily seen from another vessel or ashore. No numerals, letters, or devices other than those used in connection with the identifying number issued may be placed in the proximity of the identifying number. No numerals, letters, or devices that might interfere with the ready identification of the motorboat by its identifying number may be carried as to interfere with the motorboat's identification. No number other than the number and license decal assigned to a motorboat or granted reciprocity under this part may be painted, attached, or otherwise displayed on either side of the forward half of the motorboat.

(b) The certificate of number shall be pocket size and available to federal, state, or local law enforcement officers at all reasonable times for inspection on the motorboat whenever the motorboat is on waters of this state.

(c) Boat liveries are not required to have the certificate of number on board each motorboat, but a rental agreement must be carried on board livery motorboats in place of the certificate of number.

(11) Fees collected under this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer who shall deposit the fees in the motorboat certificate identification account of an earmarked revenue fund. These fees shall be used only for the administration and enforcement of this part, as amended.

(12) An owner of a motorboat must within a reasonable time notify the division of motor vehicles, giving the motorboat's identifying number and the owner's name when that motorboat becomes documented as a vessel of the United States or is transferred, lost, destroyed, abandoned, or frauded or within 60 days after change of state of principal use.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 285, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 219, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 336, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 348, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 45, Ch. 391, L. 1973; amd. 23-2-513. Dealer's identification number. (1) A dealer or manufacturer may apply directly to the division of motor vehicles for one identifying number and one or more certificates of number. A dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number shall be displayed on his boat while the boat is operating for a purpose related to the buying, selling, or exchanging of the boat by the dealer or manufacturer.

(2) The application for a dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number must include his name and business address. Each dealer or manufacturer will have one identifying number assigned to his business.

(3) An application for dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number and certificate of number must be accompanied by the following fees:

(a) for the identifying number, first certificate of number, and set of license decals, $5;

(b) for each additional certificate of number and set of license decals applied for in any application, $2.

(4) The division of motor vehicles shall issue certificates of number for the identifying numbers assigned to a dealer or manufacturer in the same manner as provided in 23-2-512(1) and (10), as amended, except that no boat may be described in the certificate and each certificate must state that the identifying number has been assigned to a dealer or manufacturer. A dealer's or manufacturer's certificate of number expires on April 30 of the year for which it is issued.

(5) A dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number shall be displayed in the same manner as provided in 23-2-512(10), as amended, except that the number may be temporarily attached. The last three letters shall be "DLR" for dealer and "MFR" for manufacturer. These letters shall be included, respectively, in dealer or manufacturer identification numbers only.

(6) No person other than a dealer or manufacturer or an employee of a dealer or manufacturer may display or use a dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number. A dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number may be displayed only on motorboats owned by the dealer or manufacturer.

(7) No dealer or manufacturer or employee of a dealer or manufacturer may use a dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number for any purpose other than the purpose described in subsection (1) of this section.

23-2-514. Exemption from numbering provisions. A motorboat is not required to be numbered under this part if it is:

(1) covered by a number in full force and effect that has been assigned to it pursuant to federal law or a federally approved numbering system of another state, provided that such vessel shall not have been within this state for a period in excess of 90 consecutive days. After 90 consecutive days within this state, this state becomes the motorboat's state of principal use and the owner must apply for a Montana number, certificate of number, and license decal.

(2) a motorboat from a country other than the United States temporarily using the waters of this state;

(3) a motorboat whose owner is the United States, a state, or subdivision thereof;

23-2-515. License decals to be displayed. (1) Every Montana boat numbered in accordance with the provisions of 23-2-512 and 23-2-513 shall be required to display license decals. For this purpose the county treasurer, upon receipt of a certificate of tax of personal property showing payment of tax on the motorboat for the current year, shall issue a pair of decals prepared and furnished by the division of motor vehicles with all new certificates of number and renewals thereof.

(2) The decals shall be of a style and design prescribed by the division of motor vehicles and shall be a color differing from the preceding year. The license decal will be serially numbered and have the expiration date of April 30 of the appropriate year printed thereon.

(c) hand portable fire extinguishers approved by the United States coast guard, the number of which is to be determined by the department, or a United States coast guard approved fixed fire extinguishing system, except that motorboats less than 26 feet in length of entirely open construction, propelled by outboard motors, and not carrying passengers for hire need not carry such portable fire extinguishers or fire extinguishing systems.

(2) Every motorboat or vessel shall have the carburetor or carburetors of every engine therein (except outboard motors) using gasoline as fuel equipped with an efficient flame arrester, backfire trap, or other similar device.

(3) When in operation or at anchor or moored away from a docking facility between sunset and sunrise, all vessels shall display lights as prescribed by the department.

(6) Skiers being pulled by motorboats must have on their person a life preserver, buoyant vest, or ski belt.

(8) If an officer whose duty it is to enforce the sections of this law observes a vessel being used without sufficient lifesaving or firefighting devices or in an overloaded or other unsafe condition and in his judgment

23-2-711. Registration of tramways required. No passenger tramway shall be operated in this state unless it has been and continues to be registered with the department, provided that the initial application for the registration of a passenger tramway shall permit the operator to operate such passenger tramway until final action on the application shall have been taken by the department. If an operator files an application with the department for the registration of a passenger tramway, which at that time is registered, then the operator may continue the operation of such passenger tramway under the existing registration until the department takes final action on the pending application and shall have:

(1) issued a certificate to the operator; or

(2) given written notice to the operator that the passenger tramway has not qualified for certification.

Each year on or before October 1, every operator of a passenger tramway shall apply to the department, on forms prepared by it, for registration of the passenger tramways owned, operated, or managed by him. 23-2-713. Issuance of certificates. (1) The department shall issue to the applying operator registration certificates for each passenger tramway owned, managed, or operated by such operator when it is satisfied:

(a) that the facts stated in the application are sufficient to enable the department to fulfill its duties under this part; and

(b) that each such passenger tramway sought to be registered complies with the rules of the department promulgated pursuant to 23-2-721.

(2) In order to satisfy itself that the conditions described in subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) of this section have been fulfilled, the department may cause to be made such inspections described in 23-2-722 as it may reasonably deem necessary.

(3) When an operator installs a passenger tramway subsequent to October 1 of any year, such operator shall file a supplemental application for registration of such passenger tramway. Upon the receipt of such supplemental application, the department shall proceed immediately to initiate proceedings leading to the registration or rejection of registration of such passenger tramway pursuant to the provisions of this part.

(4) Each registration shall expire on September 30 of the year next following the year of issuance.

(5) Each operator shall cause the registration certificate for each passenger tramway registered to be displayed conspicuously at the place where passengers load.

(2) All fees collected by the department shall be deposited in the general fund. It is the legislature's intent that such fees and assessments generate sufficient revenue for a general fund appropriation for contracted inspection services.

(1) adopt reasonable rules relating to public safety in the design, construction, and operation of passenger tramways but which may not relate or pertain to an area served by a passenger tramway. In adopting such rules the department shall:

(a) use as a guideline the standards contained in "The American National Standards Institute—Safety Requirements for Aerial Passenger Tramways", ANSI B 77.1—1970, as amended from time to time or equivalent and as amended or supplemented from time to time by the department;

(b) hold hearings and take in all evidence relating to the adoption of these rules;

(2) supply to each operator a copy of its rules and each amendment thereto or revision thereof;

(3) avoid discrimination in application of the rules to operators of passenger tramways;

(4) hold hearings and take evidence in all matters relating to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties vested in the department, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and compel the testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, and records relevant to any inquiry;

23-2-722. Inspection of tramways. The department may cause to be made such inspection of the design, construction, operation, and maintenance of passenger tramways as the department may reasonably require. The department may employ qualified engineers to make such inspections for reasonable fees plus expenses. If, as the result of an inspection, it is found that a violation of the department's rules exists or a condition in passenger tramway construction, operation, or maintenance exists endangering the safety of the public, an immediate report shall be made to the operator whose passenger tramway has received such inspection and to the department for appropriate investigation and order.

23-2-723. Order for corrective action and compliance. If, after investigation, the department finds that a violation of this part or any of its rules exists or that there is a condition in passenger tramway construction, operation, or maintenance endangering the safety of the public, it shall forthwith issue its written order setting forth its findings, the corrective action to be taken, and fixing a reasonable time for compliance therewith. Such order shall be served upon the operator involved in such violation personally or by registered or certified mail at the department's election, and return shall be made as provided in the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

23-2-724. Remedies to enforce compliance. If any operator fails to comply with a legal order or rule of the department, the department, at its election, may:

(1) suspend the registration of the affected passenger tramway until the operator complies therewith; or

(2) bring injunctive proceedings in the district court of the judicial district in which the affected passenger tramway is located to compel compliance therewith. In such proceedings the department shall not be required to post bond.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 436, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 63, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 69-6613.

23-2-725. Judicial review. Any order of the department adverse to an operator may be appealed by the operator to the district court of the district wherein is located his passenger tramway which is the subject of such order, and said district court shall conduct a proceeding, de novo, and the decision of the district court shall be subject to appeal to the supreme court of Montana, as in civil cases.

23-2-731. Purpose. It is recognized that there are inherent risks in the sport of skiing that are essentially impossible to eliminate by the ski area operator but that should be known by the skier. It is the purpose of 23-2-731 through 23-2-737 to define those areas of responsibility and affirmative acts for which the ski area operator is liable for loss, damage, or injury and those risks for which the skier expressly assumes or shall be considered to have voluntarily assumed the risk of loss or damage and for which there can be no recovery.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 509, L. 1979.

23-2-732. Definitions. As used in 23-2-731 through 23-2-737, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Skier" means any person admitted to a ski area under the control of a ski area operator for the purpose of engaging in the sport of skiing by using the ski slopes, trails, and areas and does not include a person using an aerial passenger tramway.

(2) "Ski slopes, trails, and areas" means those areas designated by the ski area operator to be used by skiers for the purpose of participating in the sport of skiing.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 509, L. 1979.

23-2-733. Duties of operator regarding ski areas. A ski area operator shall:

(1) mark all trail maintenance vehicles and furnish the vehicles with flashing or rotating lights that must be in operation whenever the vehicles are working or are in movement in the ski area;

(2) mark with a visible sign or other warning implement the location of any hydrant or similar equipment used in snowmaking operations and located on ski slopes, trails, and areas;

(3) maintain one or more trail boards at prominent locations at each ski area displaying that area's network of ski trails and slopes;

(4) post a notice of the requirement for the use of ski-retention devices;

(5) designate by trail board or otherwise which trails or slopes are open or closed.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 509, L. 1979.

23-2-734. Duties of operator with respect to passenger tramways. A ski area operator shall construct, operate, maintain, and repair any passenger tramway in accordance with the rules of the department of administration. However, nothing in this section relieves an operator from the duty of taking whatever other actions are necessary to properly construct, operate, maintain, and repair a passenger tramway.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 509, L. 1979.

23-2-735. Duties of passenger. No passenger may:

(1) board or disembark from a passenger tramway except at an area designated for such purposes;

(2) throw or expel any object from a passenger tramway;

(3) commit an act that interferes with the running or operation of a passenger tramway;

(4) use a passenger tramway unless the passenger has the ability to use it safely without any instruction on its use by the operator or requests and receives instruction before boarding;

(5) embark on a passenger tramway without the authority of the operator.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 509, L. 1979.

23-2-736. Skier's assumption of responsibility — duties. (1) A skier assumes the risk and all legal responsibility for injury to himself or loss of property that results from participating in the sport of skiing by virtue of his participation. The assumption of risk and responsibility includes but is not limited to injury or loss caused by the following: variations in terrain, surface or subsurface snow or ice conditions, bare spots, rocks, trees, other forms of forest growth or debris, lift towers and components thereof, pole lines, and plainly marked or visible snowmaking equipment.

(2) A skier is responsible for knowing the range of his own ability to ski any slope, trail, or area and for skiing within the limits of his ability, skiing only on designated slopes and trails, maintaining control of speed and course at all times while skiing, heeding all posted warnings, and refraining from acting in a manner that may cause or contribute to the injury of anyone. The responsibility for collisions with a person or object while skiing is the responsibility of the person or persons and not the responsibility of the ski area operator.

(3) A person who is skiing may not place an object in the ski area or on the uphill track of a passenger tramway that may cause a passenger or skier to fall, cross the track of a passenger tramway except at a designated and approved area, or if involved in a skiing accident, depart from the scene of the accident without leaving personal identification before notifying the proper authorities or obtaining assistance when the skier knows that a person involved in the accident is in need of medical or other assistance.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 509, L. 1979.

23-2-737. Effect of comparative negligence. Notwithstanding any comparative negligence law in this state, a person is barred from recovery from a ski area operator for loss or damage resulting from any risk inherent in the sport of skiing as described in 23-2-736.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 509, L. 1979.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendments — Composite Section: Chapter 493 deleted "or oath and jurat" from (1)(e); increased marriage license fee from $15 to $30; inserted exception at the beginning of (2); and added subsection (3).

Chapter 575 amended this section in the same manner as Ch. 493 except that the fee was increased to $25 and, in (3), $9 was to be deposited to general fund. Because Ch. 575 was a Code Commissioner bill intended to make nonsubstantive clarifications and because the dollar figures of Ch. 575 are included in the higher figures of Ch. 493, the dollar figures of Ch. 493 were chosen by the Code Commissioner in preparing the composite section.

Coordination With Other Bill: Section 81, Ch. 575, L. 1981, provided: "If Senate Bill No. 121 which bill would generally amend the fees of the clerk of district court, including those fees specified in section 80, is passed and approved, the amendments in subsections (1) through (3) of section 80 are void and of no effect." Senate Bill 121 was not passed and approved.

25-1-202. Fee for court reporter. In every issue of fact in civil actions tried before the court or jury, before the trial commences, there must be paid into the hands of the clerk of the court by each party to the suit the sum of $3, which sum must be paid by said clerk into the treasury of the county where the cause is tried to be applied upon the payment of the salary of the reporter. The prevailing party may have the amount so paid by him taxed in his bill of costs as proper disbursements.

Time

25-1-301. Extension of time. Subject to Rule 6(b), M.R.Civ.P., whenever this code requires or allows an act to be done at or within a specified time, which act relates to the pleadings in the action, the undertakings to be filed, the justification of sureties, the preparation of statements or of amendments thereto, or the service of notices other than of appeal, the time allowed by this code may be extended, upon good cause shown, by the court in which the action is pending or a judge thereof; but such extension shall not exceed 90 days without the consent of the adverse party.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Substituted "Subject to . . . which act" for "When an act to be done, as provided in this code"; deleted "or bills of exceptions" after "statements".

Part 4

Undertakings for Security

25-1-401. Deposit of money in lieu of undertaking. In all cases where an undertaking or bond with sureties is required by the provisions of this code, the plaintiff or defendant may deposit with the clerk of the court or justice of the peace or city judge, as the case may be, a sum of money equal to the amount required by the undertaking or bond, which shall be taken as security in the place thereof. At any time such deposit may be withdrawn by the party making it upon giving the undertaking with sufficient sureties as required by law, approved by the clerk or justice or judge, upon notice to the adverse party or his attorney, who may object to the sufficiency of the sureties in the same manner as though the undertaking were filed in the first instance.

The board of trustees of any school district is entitled to the benefit of this section.

Alternative Methods of Service

25-3-501. Service of telephonic or telegraphic copy. (1) Any summons, writ, or order in any civil action or proceeding and all other papers requiring service may be transmitted by telegraph or telephone for such service in any place; and the telegraphic or telephonic copy of such writ, order, or paper so transmitted may be served or executed by the officer or person to whom it is sent for that purpose and returned by him, if any return be requisite, in the same manner and with the same force and effect in all respects as the original thereof might be delivered to him; and the officer or person serving or executing the same has the same authority and is subject to the same liabilities as if the copy were the original.

(2) The original, when a writ or order, must also be filed in the court from which it was issued, and a certified copy thereof must be preserved in the telegraph or telephone office from which it is sent. In sending it, either the original or certified copy may be used by the operator for that purpose. Whenever any document to be sent by telegraph or telephone bears a seal, either private or official, it is not necessary for the operator, in sending the same, to telegraph or telephone a description of the seal or any words or device thereon, but the same may be expressed in the telegraphic or telephonic copy by the letters "L.S." or by the word "seal".

(2) (a) When persons are made parties defendant by the designation of unknown owners, it shall not be necessary to add to such designation in the title of the action a description of the property involved, whether real, personal, or mixed, of which such persons are claimed or supposed to be unknown owners or claimants or parties in interest, but a description of the property involved shall be included in the body of the summons for publication in the action.

(b) When persons are made defendant by the style and description of unknown heirs or devisees, there shall be added to such designation of them the name of the deceased person of whom they shall be claimed or supposed to be the heirs or devisees.

Counterclaim and Cross-Claim

25-4-401. Counterclaim by person sued in representative capacity. In an action against an executor or administrator or other person sued in a representative capacity, the defendant may set forth as a counterclaim a demand belonging to the decedent or other person whom he represents where the person so represented would have been entitled to set forth the same in an action against him.

History: En. Sec. 695, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6545, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9142, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9142, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-3406.

25-4-402. Counterclaim against person suing in representative capacity. In an action brought by an executor or administrator in his representative capacity, a demand against the decedent belonging at the time of his death to the defendant may be set forth by the defendant as a counterclaim as if the action had been brought by the decedent in his lifetime, and if a balance is found to be due the defendant, judgment must be rendered therefor against the plaintiff in his representative capacity. Execution can be issued upon such a judgment only in a case where it could be issued upon a judgment in an action against the executor or administrator.

History: En. Sec. 696, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6546, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9143, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9143, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-3407.

25-4-403. Counterclaim in action on contract. A counterclaim on a contract is subject to the following rules:

(1) Except as otherwise provided by the Uniform Commercial Code, if the action is founded upon a contract which has been assigned by the party thereto, a demand existing against the party thereto or an assignee of the contract at the time of the assignment thereof and belonging to the defendant, in good faith, before notice of the assignment must be allowed as a counterclaim to the amount of the plaintiff's demand if it might have been so allowed against the party or the assignee while the contract belonged to him.

(2) If the plaintiff is a trustee for another or if the action is in the name of the plaintiff who has no actual interest in the contract upon which it is founded, a demand against the plaintiff shall not be allowed as a counterclaim, but so much of a demand existing against the person whom he represents or for whose benefit the action is brought as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand must be allowed as a counterclaim if it might have been so allowed in an action brought by the person beneficially interested.

25-4-404. Cross-claim to be asserted in answer. Where the judgment may determine the ultimate rights of two or more defendants as between themselves, a defendant who requires such a determination must demand it in his answer. The controversy between the defendants must not delay a judgment to which the plaintiff is entitled unless the court otherwise directs.

Procedure After Claims Partially Admitted

25-4-601. Procedure when answer admits part of plaintiff's claim. Where the answer of the defendant, expressly or by not denying, admits a part of the plaintiff's claim to be just, the court, upon the plaintiff's motion, may, in its discretion, order that the action be severed, that a judgment be entered for the plaintiff for the part so admitted, and if the plaintiff so elects, that the action be continued with like effect as to the subsequent proceedings as if it had been originally brought for the remainder of the claim. The order must prescribe the time and manner of the plaintiff's election. If the plaintiff elects to continue the action, his right to costs upon the judgment is the same as if it were taken in an action brought for only that part of the claim. If the plaintiff does not elect to continue the action, costs must be awarded as upon final judgment in any other case.

History: En. Sec. 702, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6552, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9149, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9149, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-3413.

25-4-602. Judgment for excess when plaintiff admits counterclaim. In an action upon contract where the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, if the defendant by his answer does not deny the plaintiff's claim but sets up a counterclaim amounting to less than the plaintiff's claim, the plaintiff, upon filing with the clerk an admission of the counterclaim, may take judgment for the excess, as upon a default for want of an answer.

History: En. Sec. 703, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6553, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9150, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9150, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-3414; amd. Sec. 91, Ch. 575, L. 1981.

25-7-202. Judge to draw capsules containing ballots. When an issue of fact to be tried by a jury is brought to trial, the district judge in the presence of the clerk of the court must openly draw out of the trial juror box as many of the capsules containing ballots with the names of jurors thereon, one after another, as are sufficient to form a jury.

History: En. Sec. 1050, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6731, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 35, L. 1919; re-en. Sec. 9334, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 600; re-en. Sec. 9334, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 151, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 3, L. 1939; R.C.M. 1947, 93-5001.

History: En. Sec. 1056, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6737, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 35, L. 1919; re-en. Sec. 9340, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9340, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-5007.

25-7-204. Mode of drawing capsules. Before the first capsule containing a ballot shall have been drawn, the box must be closed and well shaken so as to thoroughly mix the capsules therein. The district judge must draw a capsule containing a ballot with the juror's name thereon through an aperture made in the lid large enough only to admit his hand conveniently and without said judge gazing into said box before or while drawing said capsule.

25-7-205. Persons drawn and approved to form jury. The first 12 persons, or such other number as will constitute the jury, who appear, as their names are drawn and called, and are approved as indifferent between the parties and not discharged or excused must be sworn and constitute the jury to try the issue.

1981 Amendment: Inserted "or such other number as will constitute the jury".

25-7-206. Procedure when insufficient number attend. (1) If a sufficient number of jurors duly drawn and notified do not attend to form a jury, the district judge shall, pursuant to an order to be entered in the minutes, in the presence of the clerk of the court draw a sufficient number of ballots from the box to complete the jury. The sheriff shall notify the persons thus drawn to attend immediately or at a time fixed by court. If for any reason a sufficient number of jurors to try the issue is not obtained from the persons notified under an order made as prescribed in this section, the court may make another order or successive orders until a sufficient number is obtained.

(2) Each person so notified must attend at the time required by the notice and, unless excused by the court or set aside, must serve as a juror upon the trial. For a neglect or refusal to do so, he may be fined in the same manner as any other trial juror regularly drawn and notified. He is subject to the same exceptions and challenges as any other trial juror.

25-7-208. Capsules containing ballots of jurors who have been sworn. The capsules containing the ballots with the names of the jurors so sworn must be then deposited in another box and there kept apart from the other capsules containing ballots with the names of jurors until that jury is discharged. After the jury is discharged, the capsules containing the ballots with the names of the jurors thereon must be returned to the box from which they were first taken.

(4) having served as a juror or been a witness on a previous trial between the same parties for the same cause of action;

(5) interest on the part of the juror in the event of the action or in the main question involved in the action, except his interest as a member or citizen of a municipal corporation;

Part 3

Order and Conduct of Trial by Jury

25-7-301. Order of trial. When the jury has been sworn, the trial shall proceed in the following order unless the court, for good cause and special reason, otherwise directs:

(1) The party who has the burden of proof may briefly state his case and the evidence by which he expects to sustain it.

(2) The adverse party may then, or at the opening of his case, briefly state his defense and the evidence he expects to offer in support of it.

(3) The party who has the burden of proof shall first produce his evidence; the adverse party will then produce his evidence.

(4) The parties will then be confined to rebutting evidence unless the court, for good reasons in furtherance of justice, permits them to offer evidence in their original case.

(5) When the instructions have been passed upon and settled by the court and before the arguments of counsel to the jury have begun, the court shall charge the jury in writing, giving in such charge only such instructions as are passed upon and settled at such settlement. In charging the jury, the court shall give to it all matters of law which the court thinks necessary for the jury's information in rendering a verdict.

(6) When the jury has been charged, unless the case is submitted to the jury on either side or on both sides without argument, the party upon whom rests the burden of proof must commence and may conclude the argument. If several defendants having several defenses appear by different counsel, the court must determine their relative order in the evidence and argument. Counsel, in arguing the case to the jury, may argue and comment upon the law of the case as given in the instructions of the court, as well as upon the evidence in the case.

25-7-401. View by jury of the premises. When, in the opinion of the court, it is proper for the jury to have a view of the property which is the subject of litigation or of the place at which any material fact occurred, it may order the jurors to be conducted in a body, under the charge of an officer and one person representing each party, to the place, which shall be shown to them by the persons appointed by the court for that purpose. While the jury is thus absent, no person other than the persons so appointed shall speak to it on any subject connected with the trial, and such persons shall not speak to the jury upon any matters connected with the subject of the action but may point out to the jury the property in litigation or the place at which any material fact occurred.

If the jurors retire, they must be kept together in some convenient place, under charge of an officer, until at least two-thirds of them agree upon a verdict or are discharged by the court. Unless by order of the court, the officer having them under his charge must not suffer any communication to be made to them or make any himself, except to ask them if they or two-thirds of them are agreed upon a verdict; and he must not, before their verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed upon.

Jury's Verdict

25-7-501. Return of verdict — polling the jury. (1) When the jurors or two-thirds of them have agreed upon a verdict, they must be conducted into court, their names called by the clerk, and the verdict rendered by their foreman. The verdict must be in writing and signed by the foreman and must be read by the clerk to the jury, and the inquiry made whether it is their verdict.

(2) Either party may require the jury to be polled, which is done by the court or clerk asking each juror if it is his verdict. If upon such inquiry or polling more than one-third of the jurors disagree thereto, the jury must be sent out again, but if no such disagreement be expressed, the verdict is complete and the jury discharged from the case.

When a verdict is found for the plaintiff in an action for the recovery of money or for the defendant when a counterclaim for the recovery of money is established exceeding the amount of the plaintiff's claim as established, the jury must also find the amount of the recovery.

History: En. Sec. 149, p. 73, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Sec. 176, p. 167, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 216, p. 70, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 266, p. 105, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 266, 1st Div. Rev. 25-7-503. Content of verdict — action for recovery of personal property. In an action for the recovery of specific personal property, if the property has not been delivered to the plaintiff or the defendant, by his answer, claim a return thereof, the jury, if its verdict be in favor of the plaintiff or if, being in favor of the defendant, it also finds that he is entitled to a return thereof, shall find the value of the property (but failure to find all the facts mentioned in this section shall not invalidate the verdict) and may at the same time assess the damages, if they are claimed in the complaint or answer, which the prevailing party has sustained by reason of the taking or detention of such property.

25-7-602. Trial upon agreed statement of facts. When any cause is tried and submitted upon a written statement of facts agreed to by the parties or their attorneys, such statement shall have the effect of a special verdict or finding of facts and judgment shall be pronounced thereon as upon a special verdict or finding of facts. In such case, no finding of facts shall be made unless such statement shall fail to embrace all the facts proved and in issue, in which case any additional fact may be found upon evidence which is not repugnant to the agreed statement.

Where it requires the delivery of real or personal property, it must be issued to the sheriff of the county where the property or some part thereof is situated. Executions may be issued at the same time to different counties.

The sheriff must execute the writ against the property of the judgment debtor by levying on a sufficient amount of property, if there be sufficient, collecting or selling the things in action, and selling the other property and paying to the plaintiff or his attorney so much of the proceeds as will satisfy the judgment. Any excess in the proceeds over the judgment and accruing costs must be returned to the judgment debtor unless otherwise directed by the judgment or order of the court. When there is more property of the judgment debtor than is sufficient to satisfy the judgment and accruing costs within the view of the sheriff, he must levy only on such part of the property as the judgment debtor may indicate if the property indicated be amply sufficient to satisfy the judgment and costs.

Neither the officer holding the execution nor his deputy can become a purchaser or be interested in any purchase at such sale.

(2) When the sale is of personal property capable of manual delivery, it must be within view of those who attend the sale and be sold in such parcels as are likely to bring the highest price; and when the sale is of real property consisting of several known lots or parcels, they must be sold separately, or when a portion of such real property is claimed by a third person and he requires it to be sold separately, such portion must be thus sold. The judgment debtor, if present at the sale, may also direct the order in which property, real or personal, shall be sold when such property consists of several known lots or parcels or of articles which can be sold to advantage separately, and the sheriff must follow such directions.

When the purchaser of any personal property capable of manual delivery pays the purchase money, the officer making the sale must deliver to the purchaser the property and, if desired, execute and deliver to him a certificate of the sale. (a) to the repayment of the sum paid to the secured party, with interest from the date of such payment; and

(b) the balance, if any, in like manner as the proceeds of sales under execution are applied in other cases.

(2) In the event the property is sold under execution, such creditor shall be required to deliver to the debtor the security agreement and any note or other evidence of indebtedness secured thereby obtained from the secured party when the property is sold for the amount of the indebtedness under the security agreement or an amount in excess thereof.

(1) If the purchaser of real property sold on execution or his successor in interest be evicted therefrom in consequence of irregularities in the proceedings concerning the sale or of the reversal or discharge of the judgment, he may recover the price paid, with interest, from the judgment creditor.

(2) If the purchaser of property at sheriff's sale or his successor in interest fail to recover possession in consequence of irregularity in the proceedings concerning the sale or because the property sold was not subject to execution and sale, the court having jurisdiction thereof shall, on petition of such party in interest or his attorney, revive the original judgment for the amount paid by such purchaser at the sale, with interest thereon from the time of payment at the same rate that the original judgment bore. When so revived, the said judgment shall have the same effect as an original judgment of the said court of that date, bearing interest as aforesaid; and any other or after-acquired property, rents, issues, or profits of the said debtor shall be liable to levy and sale under execution in satisfaction of such debt, but no property of such debtor sold bona fide before the filing of such petition shall be subject to the lien of said judgment. The notice of the filing of such petition shall be made by filing a notice thereof in the office of the county clerk where such property may be situated, and said judgment shall be revived in the name of the original plaintiff or plaintiffs for the use of said petitioner, the party in interest.

When an execution against property of the judgment debtor or of any one of several debtors in the same judgment, issued to the sheriff of the county where he resides or, if he does not reside in this state, to the sheriff of the county where the judgment is docketed, is returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, the judgment creditor, at any time after such return is made, is entitled to an order from a judge of the court requiring such judgment debtor to appear and answer concerning his property before such judge or a referee appointed by him at a time and place specified in the order; but no judgment debtor who is a resident may be required to attend before a judge or referee out of the county in which he resides.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Substituted "judgment is docketed" for "judgment roll is filed"; substituted "who is a resident may" for "must".

25-14-102. Procedure when debtor withholding property from execution, arrest. (1) After the issuing of an execution against property and upon proof, by affidavit of a party or otherwise, to the satisfaction of a judge of the court that any judgment debtor has property which he unjustly refuses to apply toward the satisfaction of the judgment, such judge may, by an order, require the judgment debtor to appear at a specified time and place before such judge or a referee appointed by him to answer concerning the same; and such proceedings may thereupon be had for the application of the property of the judgment debtor toward the satisfaction of the judgment as are provided upon the return of an execution.

(2) Instead of the order requiring the attendance of the judgment debtor, the judge may, upon affidavit of the judgment creditor or his agent or attorney, if it appear to him that there is danger of the debtor absconding, order the sheriff to arrest the debtor and bring him before such judge. Upon being brought before the judge, he may be ordered to enter into an undertaking with sufficient surety that he will attend from time to time before the judge or referee, as may be directed during the pendency of proceedings and until the final determination thereof, and will not in the meantime dispose of any portion of his property not exempt from execution. In default of entering into such undertaking, he may be committed to prison.

25-14-103. Debtors of judgment debtor and those holding his property to answer. After the issuing or return of an execution against property of the judgment debtor or of any one of several debtors in the same judgment, or upon proof, by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the judge that any person or corporation has property of such judgment debtor or is indebted to him in an amount exceeding $50, the judge may, by an order, require such person or corporation or any officer or member thereof to appear at a specified time and place before him or a referee appointed by him and answer concerning the same.

25-14-104. Procedure when debt to or ownership of judgment debtor denied. If it appear that a person or corporation alleged to have property of the judgment debtor or to be indebted to him claims an interest in the property adverse to him or denies the debt, the court or judge may authorize, by an order made to that effect, the judgment creditor to institute an action against such person or corporation for the recovery of such interest or debt; and the court or judge may, by order, forbid a transfer or other disposition of such interest or debt until an action can be commenced and prosecuted to judgment. Such order may be modified or vacated by the judge granting the same or the court in which the action is brought, at any time, upon such terms as may be just.

25-14-106. Immunity of witnesses to criminal proceedings. A party or witness examined in proceedings authorized by parts 1 and 2 of this chapter is not excused from answering a question on the ground that his examination will tend to convict him of the commission of a fraud or to prove that he has been a party or privy to or knowing of a conveyance, assignment, transfer, or other disposition of property for any purpose or that he or any other person claims to be entitled, as against the judgment creditor or a receiver appointed or to be appointed in the proceedings, to hold property derived from or through the judgment debtor or to be discharged from the payment of a debt which was due to the judgment debtor or to a person in his behalf. But an answer cannot be used as evidence against the person so answering in a criminal action or criminal proceeding.

25-14-107. Order to apply property to satisfaction of judgment. The judge or referee may order any property of a judgment debtor, not exempt from execution, in the hands of such debtor or any other person or due to the judgment debtor, to be applied toward the satisfaction of the judgment.

25-14-108. Contempt to disobey referee's orders. If any person, party, or witness disobey an order of the referee, properly made in the proceedings before him under parts 1 and 2 of this chapter, he may be punished by the court or judge ordering the reference for a contempt.

Appointment of a Receiver

25-14-201. Appointment of a receiver — notice. At any time after making an order requiring the judgment debtor or any other person to attend and be examined, as prescribed in parts 1 and 2 of this chapter, the judge may make an order appointing a receiver of the property of the judgment debtor. At least 2 days' notice of the application for the order appointing a receiver must be given personally to the judgment debtor unless the judge is satisfied that he cannot, with reasonable diligence, be found within the state, in which case the order must recite that fact and may dispense with notice or direct notice to be given in any manner which the judge thinks proper. But where the order to attend and be examined has been served upon the judgment debtor, a receiver may be appointed upon the return day thereof or at the close of the examination without further notice to him.

History: En. Sec. 1269, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6857, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9463, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9463, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-5910.

25-14-202. Order appointing receiver to be filed. An order appointing a receiver must be filed in the office of the clerk of the court where the judgment is docketed or a transcript of the original docket is filed.

History: En. Sec. 1270, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6858, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9464, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9464, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-5911(part); amd. Sec. 109, Ch. 575, L. 1981.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Substituted "judgment is docketed or a transcript of the original docket is filed" for "judgment roll is filed, or a transcript of the judgment."

25-14-203. Oath and undertaking. The receiver must take and subscribe the official oath and give an undertaking, if required by the judge.

History: En. Sec. 1270, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6858, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9464, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9464, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-5911(part).

25-14-204. When property vests in receiver. The property of the judgment debtor is vested in a receiver who has duly qualified from the time of filing the order appointing him, subject to the following exceptions:

(1) Real property is vested in the receiver only from the time when the order is filed with the clerk of the court or a certified copy thereof, as the case may be, is filed with the clerk of the county where it is situated.

(2) Where the judgment debtor, at the time when the order is filed, resides in another county of the state, his personal property is vested in the receiver only from the time when a copy of the order, certified by the clerk in whose office it is filed, is filed with the clerk of the district court of the county where he resides.

History: En. Sec. 1271, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6859, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9465, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9465, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-5912.

25-14-205. Relation back of receiver's title. (1) Where the receiver's title to personal property has become vested, as prescribed in 25-14-204, it also extends back by relation for the benefit of the judgment creditor in whose behalf the proceedings were instituted, as follows:

(a) Where an order requiring the judgment debtor to attend and be examined has been served before the appointment of a receiver or the judgment debtor has been brought before the judge on arrest, the receiver's title extends back so as to include the personal property of the judgment debtor at the time of the service of the order or his arrest.

(b) Where an order has not been served or no arrest, as specified in subsection (1)(a), but an order has been made requiring a person to attend and be examined concerning property belonging or a debt due to the judgment debtor, the receiver's title extends to the personal property belonging to the judgment debtor which was in the hands or under the control of the person or corporation thus required to attend at the time of the service of the order and to a debt then due him from that person or corporation.

(c) In every other case, where notice of the application for the appointment of the receiver was given to the judgment debtor, the receiver's title extends to the personal property of the judgment debtor at the time when the notice was served, either personally or by complying with the requirements of an order prescribing a substitute for personal service.

(2) Where the case is within two or more of subsections (1)(a) through (1)(c) of this section, the rule most favorable to the judgment creditor must be adopted.

(3) But this section does not affect the title of a purchaser in good faith, without notice, and for a valuable consideration or the payment of a debt in good faith and without notice.

25-15-104. Answer — time for filing, contents. 25-15-105. What constitute the pleadings. If the defendant in his answer deny the judgment or set up any defense which may have arisen subsequently, the summons, with the affidavit annexed, and the answer constitute the written allegations in the case; if he deny his liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was recovered, a copy of the original complaint and judgment, the summons, with the affidavit annexed, and the answer constitute such written allegations.

History: En. Sec. 295, p. 105, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Sec. 350, p. 205, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 424, p. 119, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 450, p. 161, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 450, 1st Div. Rev. 25-15-106. Trial of issues — limit on verdict. The issues formed may be tried as in other cases; but when the defendant denies in his answer any liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was rendered, if a verdict be found against him, it must be for not exceeding the amount remaining unsatisfied on such original judgment, with interest thereon.

Discharge of Joint Debtor

25-15-201. Discharge of one joint debtor. Any joint debtor, including a partner, may compromise with a creditor, and a discharge to him by such creditor is as effectual as if made to all debtors, but such discharge does not relieve the other joint debtors. Any creditor can release a judgment in his favor against any one or more joint debtors, and such release does not discharge the others.

History: En. Sec. 1786, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7135, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9768, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9768, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-8107.

25-15-202. Effect of discharge — right of contribution. The discharge of such joint debtor operates as a payment to the creditor equal to the proportionate interest of the debtor discharged, but the discharge of such debtor does not prevent his codebtors from enforcing the right of contribution in case they are compelled to pay the whole of the debt.

History: En. Sec. 1787, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7136, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9769, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9769, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-8108.

Rule 4C. Process. (1) Summons — issuance. Upon the filing of the complaint, the clerk shall forthwith issue a summons, and shall deliver the summons either to the sheriff of the county in which the action is filed, or to the person who is to serve it, or upon request, to the attorney for said party who shall thereafter be responsible to see that the summons is served in the manner prescribed by these rules. Upon request, separate or additional summons shall issue against any parties designated in the original action, or against any additional parties who may be brought into the action.

(2) Summons — form. The summons shall be signed by the clerk, be under the seal of the court, contain the name of the court and the names of the parties, be directed to the defendant, state the name and address of the plaintiff's attorney, if any, otherwise the plaintiff's address, and the time within which these rules require the defendant to appear and defend, and shall notify him that in case of his failure to do so judgment by default will be rendered against him for the relief demanded in the complaint. In an action brought to quiet title to real estate, there shall be added to the foregoing, the following: "This action is brought for the purpose of quieting title to land situated in ... County, Montana, and described as follows: (Here insert descriptions of land.)." For exceptions to this form of summons see 4D(4) "Other service," set forth hereinafter.

Rule 4D. Service. (1) By whom served. Service of all process shall be made by a sheriff of the county where the party to be served is found, by his deputy, by a constable authorized by law, or by any other person over the age of 18 not a party to the action, except that a subpoena may be served as provided in Rule 45.

(2) Personal service within the state. The summons and complaint shall be served together, unless two or more defendants are residents of the same county, in which case a copy of the complaint need only be served upon one of such defendants. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service with such copies as are necessary. Service shall be made as follows:

(a) Upon an individual other than an infant or an incompetent person, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to him personally or by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process, provided that if the agent is one designated by statute to receive service, such further notice as the statute requires shall be given.

(b) Upon a minor over the age of 14 years, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to him personally, and by leaving a copy thereof at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some adult of suitable discretion then residing therein, or by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process.

(c) Upon a minor under the age of 14 years, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to his guardian, if he has one within the state, and if not, then to his father or mother or other person or agency having his care or control, or with whom he resides, or if service cannot be made upon any of them, then as provided by order of the court.

(d) Upon a person who has been adjudged of unsound mind by a court of this state, or for whom a guardian has been appointed in this state by reason of incompetency, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to his guardian, if there be a guardian residing in this state appointed and acting under the laws of this state. If there be no such guardian, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the incompetent person, with or without personal service on the incompetent, as the court may direct. When a party is alleged to be of unsound mind, but has not been so adjudged by a court of this state, such party may be brought into court by service of process personally upon him. The court may also stay any action pending against a person on learning that such person is of unsound mind.

(e) Upon a domestic corporation, partnership or other unincorporated association, or upon a foreign corporation, partnership or other unincorporated association, established by the laws of any other state or country, and having a place of business within this state or doing business herein either permanently or temporarily, or which was doing business herein either permanently, or temporarily at the time the claim for relief accrued: (i) by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to an officer, director, superintendent or managing or general agent, or partner, or associate for such corporation, partnership, or association; or by leaving such copies at the office or place of business of the corporation, partnership, or association within the state with the person in charge of such office; or (ii) by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to the registered agent of said corporation named on the records of the secretary of state, or to any other agent or attorney in fact authorized by appointment or by statute to receive or accept service on behalf of the corporation, partnership, or association, provided that if the agent or attorney in fact is one designated by statute to receive service, such further notice as the statute requires shall also be given; or (iii) if the sheriff shall make return that no person upon whom service may be made can be found in the county, then service may be made by leaving a copy of the summons and complaint at any office of the corporation, partnership, or unincorporated association within this state with the person in charge of such office; or (iv) if the suit is against a corporation whose charter or right to do business in the state has expired or been forfeited, by delivering a copy thereof to any one of the persons who have become trustees for the corporation and its stockholders or members.

(f) When a claim for relief is pending in any court of this state against a corporation organized under the laws of this state, or against a corporation organized under the laws of any other state or country, that has filed a copy of its charter in the office of the secretary of state of Montana and qualified to do business in Montana; or against a corporation organized under the laws of any other state or country which is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state under the provisions of Rule 4B above, even though such corporation has never qualified to do business in Montana; or against a national banking corporation which, through insolvency or lapse of charter, has ceased to do business in Montana; and none of the persons designated in D(2)(e) immediately above can with the exercise of reasonable diligence be found within Montana, the party causing summons to be issued shall exercise reasonable diligence to ascertain the last known address of any such person. Upon the filing with the clerk of court in which the claim for relief is pending of an affidavit reciting that none of the persons designated in D(2)(e) can after due diligence be found within Montana upon whom service of process can be made, and reciting the last known address of any such person, or reciting that after the exercise of reasonable diligence no such address for any such person could be found, and there has also been deposited with the said clerk the sum of $5 to be paid to the secretary of state as a fee for each of said defendants for whom the secretary of state is to receive said service, then the clerk of court shall issue an order directing process to be served upon the secretary of state of the state of Montana or, in his absence from his office, upon the deputy secretary of state of the state of Montana. Such affidavit shall be sufficient evidence of the diligence of inquiry made by affiant, if the affidavit recites that diligent inquiry was made, and the affidavit need not detail the facts constituting such inquiry. Whenever service is also to be made through publication as provided in 4D(5), or upon other persons as provided in 4D(6), the affidavit herein required may be combined in the same instrument with the affidavit required under 4D(5)(c) and 4D(6). The said clerk of court shall then mail to the secretary of state the original summons, one copy of the summons and one copy of the affidavit for the files of the secretary of state, one copy of the summons attached to a copy of the complaint for each of the defendants to be served by service upon the secretary of state, and the fee for service, to the office of the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall mail copy of the summons and complaint by certified or registered mail with a return receipt requested to the last known address of any of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above, if known, or, if none such is known and it is a corporation not organized in Montana, to the secretary of state of the state in which such corporation was originally incorporated, if known; and the secretary of state shall make his return as hereinafter provided under Rule 4D(6). When service is so made, it shall be deemed personal service on such corporation, and the said secretary of state, or his deputy when the secretary is absent from his office, is hereby appointed agent of such corporation for service of process in cases hereinbefore mentioned. In any action where due diligence has been exercised to locate and serve any of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above, service shall be deemed complete upon said corporation regardless of the receipt of any return receipt or advice of refusal of the addressee to receive the process mailed, as is hereinafter required by 4D(6); provided, however, that except in those actions where any of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above have been located and served personally as herinabove provided, then service by publication shall also be made as provided hereafter in 4D(5)(d) and 4D(5)(h); the first publication must be made within 60 days from the date the original summons is mailed to the secretary of state as herein provided, and if said first publication is not so made, the action shall be deemed dismissed as to any such party intended to be served by such publication; and service shall be complete upon the date of the last publication of summons.

When service of process is made as herein provided, and there is no appearance thereafter made by any attorney for such corporation, service of all other notices required by law to be served in such action may be served upon the secretary of state.

(g) Upon a city, village, town, school district, county, or public agency or board of any such public bodies, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to any commissioner, trustee, board member, mayor or head of the legislative department thereof.

(h) Upon the state, or any state board or state agency, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to the governor, or to any member of such state board or state agency, and also by delivering an additional copy of the summons and complaint to the attorney general.

(i) Upon an estate by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to the personal representative thereof; upon a trust by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to any trustee thereof.

(3) Personal service outside the state. Where service upon any person cannot, with due diligence, be made personally within this state, service of summons and complaint may be made by service outside this state in the manner provided for service within this state, with the same force and effect as though service had been made within this state. Where service by publication is permitted as hereinafter provided, personal service of a summons and complaint upon the defendant out of the state shall be equivalent to and shall dispense with the procedures and the publication and mailing provided for hereafter in 4(5)(c), 4(5)(d) and 4(5)(e) of this rule.

(4) Other service. All process in any form of action shall be served in the manner specified in this rule with the exception that whenever a statute of this state or an order of the court or a citation by the court made pursuant thereto provides for the service of a notice or of an order or of a citation in lieu of summons upon any person, service shall be made under the circumstances and in the manner prescribed by the statute or order or citation; and with the further exception that all persons are required to comply with the provisions hereafter prescribed in D(5)(h), and with the provisions of 33-1-603, 33-1-613, 33-1-614, 33-2-314, 33-2-315, 70-28-207, 70-28-208, 70-28-209, and 70-28-212, Montana Code Annotated, when the action pertains to the provisions of such sections.

(5) Service by publication — when permitted — effect — manner — proof.

(a) When permitted. A defendant, whether known or unknown, who has not been served under the foregoing subsections of this rule can be served by publication in the following situations only:

(i) When the subject of the action is real or personal property in this state and the defendant has or claims a lien or interest, actual or contingent, therein, or the relief demanded consists wholly or partially in excluding the defendant from any interest therein. This subsection shall apply whether any such defendant is known or unknown.

(ii) When the action is to foreclose, redeem from or satisfy a mortgage, claim or lien upon real or personal property within this state.

(iii) When the action is for divorce or for annulment of marriage of a resident of this state or for modification of a decree of divorce granted by a court of this state.

(iv) When the defendant has property within this state which has been attached or has a debtor within this state, who has been garnished. Jurisdiction under this subsection may be independent of or supplementary to jurisdiction acquired under subsections (5)(a)(i), (5)(a)(ii), and (5)(a)(iii) herein.

(b) Effect of service by publication. When a defendant, whether known or unknown, has been served by publication as provided in this rule, any court of this state having jurisdiction may render a decree which will adjudicate any interest of such defendant in the status, property, or thing acted upon, but it may not bind the defendant personally to the personal jurisdiction of the court unless some ground for the exercise of personal jurisdiction exists.

(c) Filing of pleading and affidavit for service by publication; and order for publication. Before service of the summons by publication is authorized in any case, there shall be filed with the clerk in the district court of the county in which the action is commenced (i) a pleading setting forth a claim in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in one of the situations defined in (5)(a) above; and (ii) in situations defined in (5)(a)(i), (5)(a)(ii), (5)(a)(iii), upon return of the summons showing the failure to find any defendant designated in the complaint, an affidavit stating that such defendant resides out of the state, or has departed from the state, or cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state, or conceals himself to avoid the service of summons; or, if the defendant is a domestic or foreign corporation, that none of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above can, after due diligence, be found within the state; or, if the defendant is an unknown claimant, by showing that he has made diligent search and inquiry for all persons who claim, or might claim any right, title, estate, or interest in, or lien, or encumbrance upon, such property, or any thereof, adverse to plaintiff's ownership, or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto, whether such claim or possible claim be present or contingent, including any right of dower, inchoate or accrued, and that he has specifically named as defendants in such action all such persons whose names can be ascertained; such affidavit shall be sufficient evidence of the diligence of any inquiry made by the affiant, if the affidavit recite the fact that diligent inquiry was made, and it need not detail the facts constituting such inquiry, and if desired, it may be combined in one instrument with the affidavit required under 4D(2)(f), or 4D(6); and (iii) in the situation defined in (5)(a)(iv) above, there must be first presented to the court proof that a valid attachment or garnishment has been effected. Upon complying herewith, the plaintiff may obtain an order for the service of summons to be made upon the defendants by publication, which order may be issued by either the judge or the clerk of the court.

(d) Number of publications. Service of the summons by publication may be made by publishing the same three times, once each week for 3 successive weeks, in a newspaper published in the county in which the action is pending, if a newspaper is published in such county, and if no newspaper is published in such county then in a newspaper published in an adjoining county and having a general circulation therein.

(e) Mailing summons and complaint. A copy of the summons for publication and complaint, at any time after the filing of the affidavit for publication and not later than 10 days after the first publication of the summons, shall be deposited in some post office in this state, postage prepaid, and directed to the defendant at his place of residence unless the affidavit for publication states that the residence of the defendant is unknown. If the defendant is a corporation, and personal service cannot with due diligence be effected within Montana on any of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above, then service may be completed on said corporation by service upon the secretary of state in the manner, and following the procedure outlined in D(2)(f) above.

(f) Time when first publication or service outside state must be made. The first publication of summons, or personal service of the summons and complaint upon the defendant out of the state, must be made within 60 days after the filing of the affidavit for publication. If not so made, the action shall be deemed dismissed as to any party intended to be served by such publication.

(g) When service by publication or outside state complete. Service by publication is complete on the date of the last publication of the summons, or in case of personal service of the summons and complaint upon the defendant out of the state, on the date of such service.

(h) Additional information to be published. In addition to the form of summons prescribed above in "C. Process, (2) Summons—form," the published summons shall state in general terms the nature of the action, and in all cases where publication of summons is made in an action in which the title to, or any interest in or lien upon real property is involved, or affected, or brought into question, the publication shall also contain a description of the real property involved, affected or brought into question thereby, and a statement of the object of the action.

(6) (a) Service on secretary of state. Whenever service is to be made upon certain corporations as provided hereinabove in D(2)(f) and D(5)(e), the requirements of said D(2)(f) must be complied with. In all other cases, unless otherwise provided by statute, whenever the secretary of state of the state of Montana has been appointed, or is deemed by law to have been appointed, as the agent to receive service of process for any person who cannot with due diligence be found or served personally within Montana, the party, or his attorney, shall make an affidavit stating the facts showing that the secretary of state is such agent, and stating the residence and last known post-office address of the person to be served, and shall file such affidavit with the clerk of court in which such claim for relief is pending, accompanied by sufficient copies of the affidavit, summons and complaint for service upon the secretary of state, and there has also been deposited with the clerk of the court in which such claim for relief is pending the sum of $5 to be paid to the secretary of state as a fee for each of said defendants for whom the secretary of state is to receive such service; then the clerk shall forward the original summons, one copy of the summons and one copy of the affidavit for the files of the secretary of state, and one copy of the summons attached to copy of the complaint for each of the defendants to be served by service upon the secretary of state, and the fee, to the office of the secretary of state.

Such service on the secretary of state shall be sufficient personal service upon the person to be served, provided that notice of such service and a copy of the summons and complaint are forthwith sent by registered or certified mail by the secretary of state or his deputy to the party to be served at his last known address, marked "Deliver to Addressee Only" and "Return Receipt Requested," and provided further that such return receipt shall be received by the secretary of state purporting to have been signed by said addressee, or the secretary of state shall be advised by the postal authority that delivery of said registered or certified mail was refused by said addressee, except in those cases where compliance is excused under the provisions of D(2)(f) above. The date upon which the secretary of state receives said return receipt, or receives advice by the postal authority that delivery of said registered or certified mail was refused by the addressee, shall be deemed the date of service.

As an alternative to sending the summons and complaint by registered or certified mail, as herein provided, the secretary of state, or his deputy, may cause copy of the summons and complaint to be served by any qualified law enforcement officer, in accord with the procedure set out in D(1), (2) or (3) of this rule.

The secretary of state, or his deputy, shall make an original and two copies of an affidavit reciting: (1) the fact of service upon him by the clerk of court, including the day, and hour of such service; (2) the fact of his mailing a copy of the summons and complaint and notice to the defendant, including the day and hour thereof, except in those cases where he is relieved from doing so under the provisions of D(2)(f) in which cases his affidavit shall so recite; and (3) the fact of his receipt of a return from the postal department including the date, and hour thereof, and attaching to his affidavit a copy of such return. The secretary of state, or his deputy, shall then transmit the original summons, and his original affidavit along with copy of his notice to the defendant where such notice was required, to the clerk of court in which the claim for relief is pending, and it shall be filed in the claim for relief by said clerk of court; and the secretary of state shall also transmit to the attorney for the plaintiff copy of the affidavit of the secretary of state along with copy of the notice to the defendant where such notice was required. The secretary of state shall keep on file in his office a copy of the summons, a copy of the affidavit served on him by the clerk of court, and a copy of the affidavit executed and issued by the secretary of state.

(b) Continuance to allow defense. In any of the cases provided for in Rule 4D(2)(f) above, or provided for hereinabove in 4D(6)(a), the court in which the claim for relief is pending may order such continuance as may be necessary to afford reasonable opportunity to defend the action.

(7) Amendment. At any time, in its discretion, and upon such notice and terms as it deems just, the court may allow any process or proof of service thereof to be amended unless it clearly appears that material prejudice would result to the substantial rights of the party against whom the process issued.

(8) Proof of service. Proof of the service of the summons and of the complaint or notice, if any, accompanying the same must be as follows:

(a) If served by the sheriff or other officer, his certificate thereof;

(b) If by any other person, his affidavit thereof;

(c) In case of publication an affidavit of the publisher and an affidavit of the deposit of a copy of the summons and complaint in the post office as required by law, if the same shall have been deposited; or

(d) The written admission of the defendant showing the date and place of service.

The certificate or affidavit of service mentioned in this subdivision must state the time, date, place, and manner of service.

(9) Contents of affidavit of service. Whenever a process, pleading, order of court, or other paper is served personally by a person other than the sheriff or person designated by law, the affidavit of service when made, shall state that the person so serving is of legal age, and the date and place of making the service. It also shall state that the person making such service knew the person served to be the person named in the papers served and the person intended to be served.

(10) Procedure where only part of defendants are served. If the summons is served on one or more, but not all, of the defendants, the plaintiff may proceed to trial and judgment against the defendant or defendants on whom the process is served, and may at any time thereafter have a summons against the defendant not served with the first process to cause him to appear in said court to show cause why he should not be made a party to such judgment. Upon such defendant being duly served with such process, the court shall hear and determine the matter in the same manner as if such defendant had been originally brought into court, and such defendant shall also be allowed the benefit of any payment or satisfaction which may have been made on the judgment before recovered.

Rule 5. Service and filing of pleadings and other papers

Rule 5(a). Service — when required. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every paper relating to discovery required to be served upon a party unless the court otherwise orders, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in Rule 4.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 5(b). Service — how made. Whenever under these rules service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the court. Delivery of a copy within this rule means: handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 5(c). Service — numerous defendants. In any action in which there are unusually large numbers of defendants, the court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross-claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the court directs.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 5(d). Filing. All papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the court either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter.

Rule 5(e). Filing with the court defined. History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 5(f). Proof of service. Proof of service shall be made by an affidavit of the party or his attorney making service, or by the certificate of his resident attorney making service or by an acknowledgment in writing from the party or attorney served, and such affidavit, certificate or acknowledgment shall be filed within 10 days after service. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 6. Time

Rule 6(a). Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor a holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A half holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 6(b). Enlargement. When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Rules 50(b), 52(b), 59(b), (d), (e) and (f), and 60(b), except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Rule 6(c). Unaffected by expiration of term. The period of time provided for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding is not affected or limited by the continued existence or expiration of a term of court. The continued existence or expiration of a term of court in no way affects the power of a court to do any act or take any proceeding in any civil action which has been pending before it.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 6(d). For motions — affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than 5 days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in Rule 59(c), opposing affidavits may be served not later than 1 day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 6(e). Additional time after service by mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

III. Pleadings and Motions

Rule 7. Pleadings allowed — form of motions

Rule 7(a). Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and an answer; and there shall be a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; and an answer to a cross-claim; a third-party complaint, if a person who was not an original party is summoned under Rule 14; and there shall be a third-party answer, if a third-party complaint is served. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the court may order a reply to an answer or a third-party answer.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 7(b). Motions and other papers. (1) An application to the court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

(2) The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 7(c). Demurrers, pleas, etc., abolished. Demurrers, pleas, and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 8. General rules of pleading

Rule 8(a). Claims for relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party claim, shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 8(b). Defenses — form of denials. A party shall state in short and plain terms his defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, he shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, he may make his denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs, or he may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as he expressly admits; but, when he does so intend to controvert all its averments, including averments of the grounds upon which the court's jurisdiction depends, he may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 11.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. June 1, 1964, eff. July 1, 1964.

Rule 8(c). Affirmative defenses. In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. June 1, 1964, eff. July 1, 1964.

Rule 8(d). Effect of failure to deny. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 8(e). Pleading to be concise and direct — consistency. (1) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleading or motion are required.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternately or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or on equitable grounds or on both. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 11.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 8(f). Construction of pleadings. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 9. Pleading special matters

Rule 9(a). Capacity. It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, he shall do so by specific negative averment, which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 9(b). Fraud, mistake, condition of the mind. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 9(c). Conditions precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 9(d). Official document, act, ordinance or statute. In pleading an official document or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law. In pleading any ordinance or regulation of any county, city, village, or other political subdivision of this state, or any special, local or private statute, or any right derived therefrom, or the laws of another jurisdiction, it is sufficient to refer to the ordinance, regulation, statute or law by its title and the date of its passage, or by the appropriate designation in the official or recognized compilation thereof.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 9(e). Judgment. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 9(f). Time and place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 9(g). Special damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 10. Form of pleadings

Rule 10(a). Caption — names of parties. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name, district and county of the court, the title of the action, the number of the action, and a designation as in Rule 7(a). In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 10(b). Paragraphs — separate statements. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 10(c). Adoption by reference — exhibits. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 11. Signing of pleadings. Every pleading of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign his pleading and state his address. Except when otherwise specifically provided by rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of an attorney constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a willful violation of this rule an attorney may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 12. Defenses and objections — when and how presented — by pleading or motion — motion for judgment on pleadings

Rule 12(a). When presented. Except as otherwise provided by statute applicable to particular defendants or proceedings, the responsive pleadings shall be served as follows: A defendant shall serve his answer within 20 days after the service of the summons and complaint upon him, or within 20 days after the completion of service of process as provided in Rule 4, unless the court directs otherwise when service of process is made pursuant to Rule 4D(4). A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within 20 days after the service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counterclaim in the answer within 20 days after service of the answer, or, if a reply is ordered by the court, within 20 days after service of the order or such time as the order otherwise directs. Unless a different time is fixed by the court, when a motion permitted by these rules is served, the responsive pleading shall be served within 20 days after notice of the court's action if the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until trial on the merits, and shall be served within 20 days after the service of the more definite statement if the court grants a motion for a more definite statement.

Rule 12(b). How presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (4) insufficiency of process, (5) insufficiency of service of process, (6) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, (7) failure to join a party under Rule 19. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to the claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (6) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such motion by Rule 56.

(i) The cases in which place of trial may be changed are specified in section 25-2-201, Montana Code Annotated.

(ii) If the county designated in the complaint is not the proper county for trial of the action, the defendant must at the time of his first appearance request by motion that the trial be had in the proper county. Every defense in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading which defendant desires to present by way of motion as hereinabove provided must be joined with, or inserted in, the motion requesting a change in the place of trial. If the court in which the action is commenced grants the request for change of venue, that court shall not consider nor pass upon other defenses in law, or fact, presented by the motion, but such shall be considered and decided by the court sitting in the proper county after the transfer has been completed. No request for change of venue is waived by being joined in a motion with other defenses or objections in law or fact.

(iii) Any request for change in place of trial for grounds 2 and 3 of section 25-2-201, Montana Code Annotated, must be presented by motion within 20 days after the answer to the complaint, or to the cross-claim where a cross-claim is filed, or the reply to any answer, in those cases in which a reply is authorized, has been filed; except that whenever at some time more than 20 days after the last pleading has been filed an event occurs which thereafter affords good cause to believe that an impartial trial cannot be had under ground 2 of said section 25-2-201, and competent proof is submitted to the court that such cause of impartiality did not exist within the 20-day period after the last pleading was filed, then the court may entertain a motion to change the place of trial under ground 2 of section 25-2-201 within 20 days after that later event occurs.

(iv) With respect to [ground 4 of section 93-2906, R.C.M. 1947], the party who disqualifies a district judge, and who desires a change of venue, must include such request in a motion filed along with the affidavit of disqualification. If the party who does not disqualify the district judge desires a change of venue, he shall make such request by motion within 5 days after being served with a copy of the affidavit of disqualification. Unless the parties have agreed in writing upon another district judge, or upon a member of the bar as judge pro tempore, the disqualified district judge must either call in another district judge within 15 days after filing of the affidavit of disqualification, or 10 days after filing of the motion for change of venue, or, if no other judge is called in, grant the motion for change of venue. If any other qualified district judge shall be called in, as herein provided, and shall, within 30 days after the motion for change of venue has been filed, appear and assume jurisdiction of the cause and of all matters and proceedings therein, no change of the place of trial shall be made. If the other qualified district judge called in, as herein provided, fails to appear and assume jurisdiction within 30 days after the motion for change of venue has been filed, then the disqualified judge must immediately grant the motion and order a change in the place of trial to some other county.

Rule 12(c). Motion for judgment on the pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 56.

Rule 12(d). Preliminary hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (1) [to] (7) in subdivision (b) of this rule whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in subdivision (c) of this rule shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until trial.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 89, L. 1963; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 12(e). Motion for more definite statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, he may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after notice of the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

Rule 12(f). Motion to strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within 20 days after the service of the pleading upon him or upon the court's own initiative at any time, the court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.

Rule 12(g). Consolidation of defenses in motion. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it any other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in subdivision (h)(2) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.

Rule 12(h). Waiver or preservation of certain defenses. (1) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process is waived (A) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in subdivision (g), or (B) if it is neither made by motion under this rule nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by Rule 15(a) to be made as a matter of course.

(2) A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under Rule 19, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under Rule 7(a), or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.

(3) Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 89, L. 1963; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 13. Counterclaim and cross-claim

Rule 13(a). Compulsory counterclaims. A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction, except that such claim need not be so stated if at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 13(b). Permissive counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 13(c). Counterclaim exceeding opposing claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 13(d). Counterclaim against the state. These rules shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert counterclaims or to claim credits against the state of Montana or any of its governmental subdivisions, agencies or officers.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 13(e). Counterclaim maturing or acquired after pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 13(f). Omitted counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 13(g). Cross-claim against coparty. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a coparty arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 13(h). Joinder of additional parties. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with the provisions of Rules 19 and 20.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 13(i). Separate trials — separate judgment. If the court orders separate trials as provided in Rule 42(b), judgment on a counterclaim or cross-claim may be rendered in accordance with the terms of Rule 54(b), even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 14. Third-party practice

Rule 14(a). When defendant may bring in third party. At any time after commencement of the action a defendant as a third-party plaintiff may cause to be served a summons and complaint upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to such third-party plaintiff for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him. The person so served, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claim as provided in Rule 12 and his counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in Rule 13. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in Rule 12 and his counterclaims and cross-claims as provided in Rule 13. Any party may move for severance, separate trial, or dismissal of the third-party claim; the court may direct a final judgment upon either the original claim or the third-party claim alone in accordance with the provisions of Rule 54(b). A third-party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 14(b). When plaintiff may bring in third party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 15. Amended and supplemental pleadings

Rule 15(a). Amendments. A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, he may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 15(b). Amendments to conform to the evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure to so amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 15(c). Relation back of amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against him, the party to be brought in by amendment (1) has received such notice of the institution of the action that he will not be prejudiced in maintaining his defense on the merits, and (2) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against him.

The requirements of clauses (1) and (2) hereof are satisfied with respect to any city, village, town, school district, county, or public agency, board or officer of such public bodies, and with respect to the state or any state board, agency or officer thereof, to be brought into the action as defendant, if process is served as provided by Rule 4D(2)(g) and (h) for service upon such defendant.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 15(d). Supplemental pleadings. Upon motion of a party the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented, whether or not the original pleading is defective in its statement of a claim for relief or defense. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead thereto, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 16. Pretrial procedure — formulating issues. In any action, the court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:

(1) The simplification of the issues;

(2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;

(3) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;

(4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;

(5) The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a master for findings to be used as evidence when the trial is to be by jury;

(6) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

The court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. The court in its discretion may establish by rule a pretrial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided and may either confine the calendar to jury actions or to nonjury actions or extend it to all actions.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

IV. Parties

Rule 17. Parties plaintiff and defendant — capacity

Rule 17(a). Real party in interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought; and when a statute of the state of Montana so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the state of Montana. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 17(b). Capacity to sue or be sued. The capacity of persons to sue or be sued shall be determined by appropriate statutory provisions.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 17(c). Infants or incompetent persons. Whenever an infant or incompetent person has a representative, such as a general guardian, or other like fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the infant or incompetent person. If an infant or incompetent person does not have a duly appointed representative he may sue by his next friend or by a guardian ad litem. The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for an infant or incompetent person not otherwise represented in an action or shall make such other order as it deems proper for the protection of the infant or incompetent person, or in any case where the court deems it expedient a guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent an infant or incompetent person, even though the infant or incompetent person may have a general guardian and may have appeared by him.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 18. Joinder of claims and remedies

Rule 18(a). Joinder of claims. A party asserting a claim to relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims either legal or equitable or both as he has against an opposing party or coparty.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 18(b). Joinder of remedies — fraudulent conveyances. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a claim for money and a claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to him, without first having obtained a judgment establishing the claim for money. This rule shall not be applied in tort cases so as to permit the joinder of a liability or indemnity insurance carrier, unless such carrier is by law or contract directly liable to the person injured or damaged.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 19. Joinder of persons needed for just adjudication

Rule 19(a). Persons to be joined if feasible. A person who is subject to service of process shall be joined as a party in the action if (1) in his absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties, or (2) he claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in his absence may (i) as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest or (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of his claimed interest. If he has not been so joined, the court shall order that he be made a party. If he should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant, or, in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff. If the joined party objects to venue and his joinder would render the venue of the action improper, he shall be dismissed from the action.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 19(b). Determination by court of whenever joinder not feasible. If a person as described in subdivision (a)(1)-(2) hereof cannot be made a party, the court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the court include: first, to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to him or those already parties; second, the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided; third, whether a judgment rendered in the peron's absence will be adequate; fourth, whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for nonjoinder.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 19(c). Pleading reasons for nonjoinder. A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons as described in subdivision (a)(1)-(2) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 19(d). Exception of class actions. This rule is subject to the provisions of Rule 23.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 20. Permissive joinder of parties

Rule 20(a). Permissive joinder. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all these persons will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 20(b). Separate trials. The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 21. Misjoinder and nonjoinder of parties. Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 22. Interpleader

Rule 22(a). By joinder, cross-claim or counterclaim. Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted in Rule 20.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 22(b). By substitution. A defendant against whom an action is pending upon a contract, or for specific real or personal property, at any time before answer, upon affidavit that a person not a party to the action and without collusion with him makes against him a demand for the same debt or property, upon due notice to such person and the adverse party, may apply to the court for an order to substitute such person in his place and to discharge him from liability to either party on his depositing in court the amount of the debt, or delivering the property or its value to such person as the court may direct, and the court, in its discretion, may make the order.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 23. Class actions

Rule 23(a). Prerequisites to a class action. One or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class, (3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class, and (4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 23(b). Class actions maintainable. An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of subdivision (a) are satisfied, and in addition: (1) the prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of

(A) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class, or

(B) adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; or

(2) the party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or

(3) the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include: (A) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class; (C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; (D) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

Rule 23(c). Determination by order whether class action to be maintained — notice — judgment — actions conducted partially as class actions. (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this subdivision may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.

(2) In any class action maintained under subdivision (b)(3), the court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that (A) the court will exclude him from the class if he so requests by a specified date; (B) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and (C) any member who does not request exclusion may, if he desires, enter an appearance through his counsel.

(3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (b)(1) or (b)(2), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (b)(3), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subdivision (c)(2) was directed, and who have not requested exclusion, and whom the court finds to be members of the class.

(4) When appropriate (A) an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or (B) a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this rule shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 23(d). Order in conduct of actions. In the conduct of actions to which this rule applies, the court may make appropriate orders: (1) determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument; (2) requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action; (3) imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors; (4) requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly; (5) dealing with similar procedural matters. The orders may be combined with an order under Rule 16, and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 23(e). Dismissal or compromise. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 23(f). Security for costs. Security for costs and charges, which may be awarded against a representative party, may be required by an opposing party. When required, all proceedings in the action must be stayed until an undertaking, executed by two or more persons, is filed with the clerk, to the effect that they will pay such costs and charges as may be awarded against the representative party by judgment, or in the progress of the action, not exceeding the sum of $1,000. A new or an additional undertaking may be ordered by the court or judge, upon proof that the original undertaking is insufficient security, and proceedings in the action stayed until such new or additional undertaking is executed and filed.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 23.1. Derivative actions by shareholders. In a derivative action brought by one or more shareholders or members to enforce a right of a corporation or of an unincorporated association, the corporation or association having failed to enforce a right which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall allege with particularity the efforts, if any, made by the plaintiff to obtain the action he desires from the directors or comparable authority and, if necessary, from the shareholders or members, and the reasons for his failure to obtain the action or for not making the effort. The derivative action may not be maintained if it appears that the plaintiff does not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders or members similarly situated in enforcing the right of the corporation or association. The action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to shareholders or members in such manner as the court directs.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 23.2. Actions relating to unincorporated associations. An action brought by or against the members of an unincorporated association as a class by naming certain members as representative parties may be maintained only if it appears that the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the association and its members. In the conduct of the action the court may make appropriate orders corresponding with those described in Rule 23(d), and the procedure for dismissal or compromise of the action shall correspond with that provided in Rule 23(e).

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 24. Intervention

Rule 24(a). Intervention of right. Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (2) when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and he is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 24(b). Permissive intervention. Upon timely application anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers a conditional right to intervene; or (2) when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirement, or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion the court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 24(c). Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon the parties as provided in Rule 5. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought. The same procedure shall be followed when a statute gives a right to intervene. When the constitutionality of an act of the legislative assembly affecting the public interest is drawn in question in any action to which neither the state nor any agency or officer thereof is a party, the court shall notify the attorney general of the state and the attorney general may within 20 days thereafter intervene in the same manner on behalf of the state.

Rule 25. Substitution of parties

Rule 25(a). Death. (1) If a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished, the court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by the successors or representatives of the deceased party or by any party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided in Rule 5 and upon persons not parties in the manner provided in Rule 4 for the service of a summons, and may be served in any judicial district. If substitution is not made within a reasonable time, the action may be dismissed as to the deceased party.

(2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

(3) After a verdict is rendered or an order for judgment is made in any action, such action shall not abate by the death of any party, but the case shall proceed thereafter in the same manner as in cases where the cause of action survives by law, and substitution of parties shall be allowed as in other cases.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 25(b). Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the court upon motion served as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule may allow the action to be continued by or against his guardian or may appoint a guardian ad litem for that purpose.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 25(c). Transfer of interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 25(d). Substitution of successor to public officer. When an officer of the state, county, city, or other governmental agency, is a party to an action and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action may be continued and maintained by or against his successor, if it is satisfactorily shown to the court that there is a substantial need for so continuing and maintaining it. Substitution pursuant to this rule may be made when it is shown by supplemental pleading that the successor of an officer adopts or continues or threatens to adopt or continue the action of his predecessor in enforcing a law averred to be in violation of the constitution of the state. Before a substitution is made, the party or officer to be affected, unless expressly assenting thereto, shall be given reasonable notice of the application therefor and accorded an opportunity to object. If substitution is not made within a reasonable time, the action may be dismissed as to such public officer. When an officer of the class described herein may sue or be sued in his official capacity, he may be described as a party by his official title and not by name, subject to the power of the court, upon motion or on its own initiative, to require his name to be added. Unless his name is so added, no formal order of substitution is necessary.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

V. Depositions and Discovery

Rule 26. General provisions governing discovery

Rule 26(a). Discovery methods. Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property, for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission. Unless the court orders otherwise under subdivision (c) of this rule, the frequency of use of these methods is not limited.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 26(b). Scope of discovery. Unless otherwise limited by order of the court in accordance with these rules, the scope of discovery is as follows:

(1) In general. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(2) Insurance agreements. A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this paragraph, an application for insurance shall not be treated as part of an insurance agreement.

(3) Trial preparation: Materials. Subject to the provisions of subdivision (b)(4) of this rule, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subdivision (b)(1) of this rule and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative (including his attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of his case and that he is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the court shall protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation.

A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a court order. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this paragraph, a statement previously made is (A) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or (B) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

(4) Trial preparation: Experts. Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of subdivision (b)(1) of this rule and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:

(A)(i) A party may through interrogatories require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion. (ii) Upon motion, the court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to subdivision (b)(4)(C) of this rule, concerning fees and expenses as the court may deem appropriate.

(B) A party may discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial and who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial, only as provided in Rule 35(b) or upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.

(C) Unless manifest injustice would result, (i) the court shall require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under subdivisions (b)(4)(A)(ii) and (b)(4)(B) of this rule; and (ii) with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision (b)(4)(A)(ii) of this rule the court may require, and with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision (b)(4)(B) of this rule the court shall require the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.

Rule 26(c). Protective orders. Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending or alternatively, on matters relating to a deposition, the court in the district where the deposition is to be taken may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following: (1) that the discovery not be had; (2) that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place; (3) that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery; (4) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters; (5) that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the court; (6) that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the court; (7) that a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way; (8) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 26(d). Sequence and timing of discovery. Unless the court upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party's discovery.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 26(e). Supplementation of responses. A party who has responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement his response to include information thereafter acquired, except as follows:

(1) A party is under a duty seasonably to supplement his response with respect to any question directly addressed to (A) the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, and (B) the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on which he is expected to testify, and the substance of his testimony.

(2) A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response if he obtains information upon the basis of which (A) he knows that the response was incorrect when made, or (B) he knows that the response though correct when made is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is in substance a knowing concealment.

(3) A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial through new requests for supplementation of prior responses.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 27. Depositions before action or pending appeal

Rule 27(a). Before action. (1) Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter that may be cognizable in any district court of the state of Montana may file a verified petition in the district court in the county of the residence of any expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show: 1, that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action cognizable in a district court of the state of Montana but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought, 2, the subject matter of the expected action and his interest therein, 3, the facts which he desires to establish by the proposed testimony and his reasons for desiring to perpetuate it, 4, the names or a description of the persons he expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known, and 5, the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the depositions of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.

(2) Notice and service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court, at a time and place named therein, for an order described in the petition. At least 20 days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served in the manner provided in Rule 4, and for persons not personally served in the manner provided in Rule 4D, who do not appear, an attorney shall be appointed who shall represent them and cross-examine the deponent. If an expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent the provisions of Rule 17(c) apply.

(3) Order and examination. If the court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The depositions may then be taken in accordance with these rules; and the court may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 34 and 35. For the purpose of applying these rules to depositions for perpetuating testimony, each reference therein to the court in which action is pending shall be deemed to refer to the court in which the petition for such deposition was filed.

(4) Use of deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under these rules it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in a district court of the state of Montana in accordance with the provisions of Rule 26(d).

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 27(b). Pending appeal. If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of a district court or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the district court in which the judgment was rendered may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the district court. In such case the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the district court for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the district court. The motion shall show (1) the names and addresses of persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each; (2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 34 and 35, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these rules for depositions taken in actions pending in the district court.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 27(c). Perpetuation by petition. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain a proceeding to perpetuate testimony.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 28. Persons before whom depositions may be taken

Rule 28(a). Within the United States. Within the state of Montana, depositions shall be taken before a person authorized by the laws of this state to administer oaths; without the state, but within the United States, or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, depositions shall be taken before a person authorized to administer oaths by the laws of this state, the United States, or of the place where the examination is held; within or without the state of Montana, depositions may also be taken before a person appointed by the court in which the action is pending, which persons so appointed shall have the power to administer oaths and take testimony.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 28(b). In foreign countries. In a foreign country, depositions may be taken (1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States, or (2) before a person commissioned by the court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of his commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony, or (3) pursuant to letter rogatory. A commission or a letter rogatory shall be issued on application and notice, and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter rogatory may be issued in proper cases. A notice or commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in [here name the country]." Evidence obtained in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the United States under these rules.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 28(c). Disqualification for interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 28(d). Depositions to be used in other states. Whenever the deposition of any person is to be taken in this state pursuant to the laws of another state or the United States or of another country for use in proceedings there, the district court of the county where the witness is to be served, upon proof that notice has been duly served, may issue, pursuant to Rule 45(d), the necessary subpoenas.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 28(e). Deposition to be taken in sister states and foreign countries for use in this state. Whenever the deposition of any person is to be taken in a sister state or a foreign country, or any other jurisdiction, foreign or domestic, for use in this state, pursuant either to notice or stipulation, the clerk or equivalent officer of any court having jurisdiction at the place where the witness is to be served or the deposition taken, upon proof that notice has been duly served for taking of the deposition or that the parties have stipulated to such taking, may issue the necessary subpoenas or equivalent court instruments to require such witness to attend for the taking of the deposition at the time and place in the sister state or foreign country, or any other jurisdiction, foreign or domestic, designated in the notice or stipulation.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-8, Sept. 10, 1968, eff. Jan. 1, 1969.

Rule 29. Stipulations regarding discovery procedure. Unless the court orders otherwise, the parties may by written stipulation (1) provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions, and (2) modify the procedures provided by these rules for other methods of discovery.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 30. Depositions upon oral examination

Rule 30(a). When depositions may be taken. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition prior to the expiration of 30 days after service of the summons and complaint upon any defendant or service made under Rule 4c, except that leave is not required (1) if a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition or otherwise sought discovery, or (2) if special notice is given as provided in subdivision (b)(2) of this rule. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena as provided in Rule 45. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 30(b). Notice of examination; general requirements — special notice — nonstenographic recording — production of documents and things — deposition of organization. (1) A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to or included in the notice.

(2) Leave of court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff if the notice (A) states that the person to be examined is about to go out of the district where the action is pending and more than 100 miles from the place of trial, or is about to go out of the United States, or is bound on a voyage to sea, and will be unavailable for examination unless his deposition is taken before expiration of the 30-day period, and (B) sets forth facts to support the statement. The plaintiff's attorney shall sign the notice, and his signature constitutes a certification by him that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief the statement and supporting facts are true. The sanctions provided by Rule 11 are applicable to the certification.

If a party shows that when he was served with notice under this subdivision (b)(2) he was unable through the exercise of diligence to obtain counsel to represent him at the taking of the deposition, the deposition may not be used against him.

(3) The court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time for taking the deposition.

(4) The court may upon motion order that the testimony at a deposition be recorded by other than stenographic means, in which event the order shall designate the manner of recording, preserving, and filing the deposition, and may include other provisions to assure that the recorded testimony will be accurate and trustworthy. If the order is made, a party may nevertheless arrange to have a stenographic transcription made at his own expense.

(5) The notice to a party deponent may be accompanied by a request made in compliance with Rule 34 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedure of Rule 34 shall apply to the request.

(6) A party may in his notice and in a subpoena name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters on which he will testify. A subpoena shall advise a nonparty organization of its duty to make such a designation. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This subdivision (b)(6) does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these rules.

Rule 30(c). Examination and cross-examination — record of examination — oath — objections. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of Rule 43(b). The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered in accordance with subdivision (b)(4) of this rule. If requested by one of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed.

All objections made at time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and he shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

Rule 30(d). Motion to terminate or limit examination. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the court in which the action is pending or the court in the district where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in Rule 26(c). If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the court in which the action is pending. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 30(e). Submission to witness — changes — signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within 30 days of its submission to him, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed unless on a motion to suppress under Rule 32(d)(4) the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

Rule 30(f). Certification and filing by officer — exhibits — copies — notice of filing. (1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly file it with the court in which the action is pending or send it by registered or certified mail to the clerk thereof for filing.

Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to and returned with the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party, except that (A) the person producing the materials may substitute copies to be marked for identification, if he affords to all parties fair opportunity to verify the copies by comparison with the originals, and (B) if the person producing the materials requests their return, the officer shall mark them, give each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, and return them to the person producing them, and the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to and returned with the deposition. Any party may move for an order that the original be annexed to and returned with the deposition to the court, pending final disposition of the case.

(2) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent.

(3) The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 30(g). Failure to attend or to serve subpoena — expenses. (1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon him and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because he expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

Rule 31. Depositions upon written questions

Rule 31(a). Serving questions — notice. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon written questions. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in Rule 45. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

A party desiring to take a deposition upon written questions shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating (1) the name and address of the person who is to answer them, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs, and (2) the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. A deposition upon written questions may be taken of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency in accordance with the provisions of Rule 30(b)(6).

Within 30 days after the notice and written questions are served, a party may serve cross questions upon all other parties. Within 10 days after being served with cross questions, a party may serve redirect questions upon all other parties. Within 10 days after being served with redirect questions, a party may serve recross questions upon all other parties. The court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

Rule 31(b). Officer to take responses and prepare record. A copy of the notice and copies of all questions served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly, in the manner provided by Rule 30(c), (e), and (f), to take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the questions received by him.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 31(c). Notice of filing. When the deposition is filed the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 32. Use of depositions in court proceedings

Rule 32(a). Use of depositions. At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice thereof, in accordance with any of the following provisions:

(1) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.

(2) The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, or managing agent, or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.

(3) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the court finds: (A) that the witness is dead; or (B) that the witness is at a greater distance than 100 miles from the place of trial or hearing, or is out of the United States, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (C) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (D) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court, to allow the deposition to be used.

(4) If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.

Substitution of parties pursuant to Rule 25 does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and, when an action in any court of the United States or of any state has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefor.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 32(b). Objections to admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Rule 28(b) and subdivision (d)(3) of this rule, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 32(c). Effect of taking or using depositions. A party does not make a person his own witness for any purpose by taking his deposition. The introduction in evidence of the deposition or any part thereof for any purpose other than that of contradicting or impeaching the deponent makes the deponent the witness of the party introducing the deposition, but this shall not apply to the use by an adverse party of a deposition under subdivision (a)(2) of this rule. At the trial or hearing any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or by any other party.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 32(d). Effect of errors and irregularities in depositions. (1) As to notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

(2) As to disqualification of officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

(3) As to taking of deposition. (A) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(B) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

(C) Objections to the form of written questions submitted under Rule 31 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other questions and within 5 days after service of the last questions authorized.

(4) As to completion and return of deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Rules 30 and 31 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

Rule 33. Interrogatories to parties

Rule 33(a). Availability — procedures for use. Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the parties served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. A party serving interrogatories upon an adverse party shall file the same in the court in which the action is pending.

Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath unless it is objected to in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. The party answering the interrogatories shall set forth a verbatim recopy of each of the interrogatories, followed by the answer thereto, and shall file the answers in the court in which the action is pending. The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them. The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers, and objections if any, within 30 days after the service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under Rule 37(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to answer an interrogatory.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Apr. 1, 1965, eff. July 1, 1965; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Nov. 28, 1966, eff. Jan. 1, 1967; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 33(b). Scope — use at trial. Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 26(b), and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the rules of evidence.

An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pretrial conference or other later time.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Apr. 1, 1965, eff. July 1, 1965; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Nov. 28, 1966, eff. Jan. 1, 1967; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 33(c). Option to produce business records. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, or from a compilation, abstract or summary based thereon, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Apr. 1, 1965, eff. July 1, 1965; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Nov. 28, 1966, eff. Jan. 1, 1967; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 34. Production of documents and things and entry upon land for inspection and other purposes

Rule 34(a). Scope. Any party may serve on any other party a request (1) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on his behalf, to inspect and copy, any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phono-records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonably usable form), or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Rule 26(b) and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or (2) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Rule 26(b).

Rule 34(b). Procedure. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts.

The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within 30 days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. The party submitting the request may move for an order under Rule 37(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested.

Rule 34(c). Persons not parties. This rule does not preclude an independent action against a person not a party for production of documents and things and permission to enter upon land.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 35. Physical and mental examination of persons

Rule 35(a). Order for examination. When the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician or to produce for examination the person in his custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 35(b). Report of examining physician. (1) If requested by the party against whom an order is made under Rule 35(a) or the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his findings, including results of all tests made, diagnosis and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After delivery the party causing the examination shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party against whom the order is made a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same condition, unless, in the case of a report of examination of a person not a party, the party shows that he is unable to obtain it. The court on motion may make an order against a party requiring delivery of a report on such terms as are just, and if a physician fails or refuses to make a report the court may exclude his testimony if offered at the trial, or may hold him in contempt of court, or both.

(2) Waiver of privilege. Either by (1) requesting and obtaining a report of the examination ordered as provided herein, or by taking the deposition of the examiner, or by (2) commencing an action or asserting a defense which places in issue the mental or physical condition of a party to the action, the party examined or a party to the action waives any privilege he may have in that action or any other action involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every person who has treated, prescribed, consulted, or examined or may thereafter treat, consult, prescribe or examine, such party in respect to the same mental or physical condition; but such waiver shall not apply to any treatment, consultation, prescription or examination for any mental or physical condition not related to the pending action. Upon motion seasonably made, and upon notice and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending, may make an order prohibiting the introduction in evidence of any such portion of the medical record of any person as may not be relevant to the issues in the pending action.

(3) This subdivision also applies to examinations made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise. This subdivision does not preclude discovery of a report of an examining physician or the taking of a deposition of the physician or the taking of a deposition of the physician in accordance with the provisions of any other rule.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-6, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 36. Requests for admissions

Rule 36(a). Request for admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action, only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of Rule 26(b) set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party.

Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within 30 days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the court may allow, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by his attorney, but, unless the court shortens the time, a defendant shall not be required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon him. If objection is made, the reasons therefor shall be stated. The answers shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify his answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, he shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless he states that he has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by him is insufficient to enable him to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter of which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; he may, subject to the provisions of Rule 37(c), deny the matter or set forth reasons why he cannot admit or deny it.

The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this rule, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pretrial conference or at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

Rule 36(b). Effect of admission. Any matter admitted under this rule is conclusively established unless the court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provisions of Rule 16 governing amendment of a pretrial order, the court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense on the merits. Any admission made by a party under this rule is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission by him for any other purpose nor may it be used against him in any other proceeding.

Rule 37. Failure to make discovery: sanctions

Rule 37(a). Motion for order compelling discovery. A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:

(1) Appropriate court. An application for an order to a party may be made to the court in which the action is pending, or, on matters relating to a deposition, to the court in the district where the deposition is being taken. An application for an order to a deponent who is not a party shall be made to the court in the district where the deposition is being taken.

(2) Motion. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Rules 30 or 31, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a), or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Rule 33, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before he applies for an order.

If the court denies the motion in whole or in part, it may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion made pursuant to Rule 26(c).

(3) Evasive or incomplete answer. For purposes of this subdivision an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.

(4) Award of expenses of motion. If the motion is granted, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is denied, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.

Rule 37(b). Failure to comply with order. (1) Sanctions by court in district where deposition is taken. If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the court in the district in which the deposition is being taken, the failure may be considered a contempt of that court.

(2) Sanctions by court in which action is pending. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under subdivision (a) of this rule or Rule 35, the court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just and among others the following:

(A) An order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;

(B) An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting him from introducing designated matters in evidence;

(C) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

(D) In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination;

(E) Where a party has failed to comply with an order under Rule 35(a) requiring him to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in paragraphs (A), (B), and (C) of this subdivision, unless the party failing to comply shows that he is unable to produce such person for examination.

In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 37(c). Expenses on failure to admit. If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under Rule 36, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, he may apply to the court for an order requiring the other party to pay him the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The court shall make the order unless it finds that (1) the request was held objectionable pursuant to Rule 36(a), or (2) the admission sought was of no substantial importance, or (3) the party failing to admit had reasonable ground to believe that he might prevail on the matter, or (4) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 37(d). Failure of party to attend at own deposition or serve answers to interrogatories or respond to request for inspection. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails (1) to appear before the officer who is to take his deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or (2) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under Rule 33, after proper service of the interrogatories, or (3) to serve a written response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, after proper service of the request, the court in which the action is pending on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may take any action authorized under paragraphs (A), (B), and (C) of subdivision (b)(2) of this rule. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

The failure to act described in this subdivision may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by Rule 26(c).

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

VI. Trials

Rule 38. Jury trial of right

Rule 38(a). Right reserved. The right of trial by jury as declared by The Constitution of the State of Montana or as given by a statute of the state of Montana shall be preserved to the parties inviolate.
History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 38(b). Demand. Any party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury by serving upon the other parties a demand therefor in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than 10 days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue. Such demand may be endorsed upon a pleading of the party.
History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 38(c). [Demand] — specification of issues. In his demand a party may specify the issues which he wishes so tried; otherwise he shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If he has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within 10 days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.
History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 38(d). Waiver. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this rule and to file it as required by Rule 5(d) constitutes a waiver by him of trial by jury. A waiver of trial by jury is not revoked by an amendment of a pleading asserting only a claim or defense arising out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties.
History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 39. Trial by jury or by the court

Rule 39(a). By jury. When trial by jury has been demanded as provided in Rule 38, the action shall be designated upon the register of actions as a jury action. The trial of all issues so demanded shall be by jury, unless (1) the parties or their attorneys of record, by written stipulation filed with the court or by an oral stipulation made in open court and entered in the record, consent to trial by the court sitting without a jury or (2) the court upon motion or of its own initiative finds that a right of trial by jury of some or all of those issues does not exist.
History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 39(b). By the court. Issues not demanded for trial by jury as provided in Rule 38 shall be tried by the court; but, notwithstanding the failure of a party to demand a jury in an action in which such a demand might have been made of right, the court upon motion or of its own initiative may on 10 days' notice to the parties order a trial by a jury of any or all issues.
History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 39(c). Advisory jury and trial by consent. In all actions not triable of right by a jury the court upon motion or of its own initiative may try any issue with an advisory jury or, the court, with the consent of both parties, may order a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right.

History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 40. Assignment of cases for trial. The district courts shall provide by rule for the placing of actions upon the trial calendar (1) without request of the parties or (2) upon request of a party and notice to the other parties or (3) in such other manner as the court deem expedient. Precedence shall be given to actions entitled thereto by any statute of the state of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 41. Dismissal of actions

Rule 41(a). Voluntary dismissal — effect thereof. (1) By plaintiff — by stipulation. Subject to the provisions of Rule 23(c), of Rule 66, and of any statute of the state of Montana, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of court (i) by filing a notice of dismissal at any time before service by the adverse party of an answer or of a motion for summary judgment, which ever first occurs, or (ii) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice.

(2) By order of court. Except as provided in paragraph (1) of this subdivision of this rule, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the court and upon such terms and conditions as the court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon him of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.

Rule 41(b). Involuntary dismissal — effect thereof. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against him. After the plaintiff, in an action tried by the court without a jury, has completed the presentation of his evidence, the defendant, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the court shall make findings as provided in Rule 52(a). Unless the court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subdivision and any dismissal not provided for in this rule, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction or failure to join a party under Rule 19, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

Rule 41(c). Dismissal of counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of this rule shall be made before a responsive pleading is served, or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing.

Rule 41(d). Costs of previously-dismissed action. If a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action in any court commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same defendant, the court may make such order for the payment of costs of the action previously dismissed as it may deem proper and may stay the proceedings in the action until the plaintiff has complied with the order.

History: En. Sec. 41, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 111, L. 1963.

Rule 41(e). Failure to serve summons. No action heretofore or hereafter commenced shall be further prosecuted as to any defendant who has not appeared in the action or been served in the action as herein provided within 3 years after the action has been commenced, and no further proceedings shall be had therein, and all actions heretofore or hereafter commenced shall be dismissed by the court in which the same shall have been commenced, on its own motion, or on the motion of any party interested therein, whether named in the complaint as a party or not, unless summons shall have been issued within 1 year, or unless summons issued within one year shall have been served and return made and filed with the clerk of the court within 3 years after the commencement of said action, or unless appearance has been made by the defendant or defendants therein within said 3 years. When more than one defendant has been named in an action, the action may within the discretion of the trial court be further prosecuted against any defendant who has appeared within 3 years, or upon whom summons which has been issued within 1 year has been served and return made and filed with the clerk within 3 years as herein required.

Rule 42. Consolidation — separate trials

Rule 42(a). Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

History: En. Sec. 42, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 42(b). Separate trials. The court in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third-party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third-party claims, or issues.

History: En. Sec. 42, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 43. Evidence

Rule 43(b). Scope of examination and cross-examination. A party may interrogate any unwilling or hostile witness by leading questions. Either party, if he shall call as a witness in his behalf, the opposite party, an employee or agent of the opposite party, or an officer, director, employee or agent of a public or private corporation, or of a partnership or association which is an opposite party, or any person who at the time of the happening of the transaction out of which the suit or proceeding grew, was an employee or agent of the opposite party, or an officer, director, employee or agent of a public or private corporation, or of a partnership or association which is an opposite party, shall have the right to examine and cross-examine such witness the same as if he were called by the opposite party; and the answers of such witness shall not interfere with the right of such party to introduce evidence upon any issue involved in such suit or proceeding, and the party so calling and examining such witness shall not be bound to accept such answers as true. The witness thus called may be contradicted and impeached by or on behalf of the opposite party, as well as by or on behalf of the party calling the witness, and may be examined by the opposite party upon the subject matter of his examination in chief, but any such examination by the opposite party shall be under the rules of direct examination unless the witness is unwilling or hostile with reference to the opposite party, in which case, the court may, in its discretion, allow the witness to be cross-examined.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 43(c). Record of excluded evidence. In an action tried by a jury, if an objection to a question propounded to a witness is sustained by the court, the examining attorney may make a specific offer of what he expects to prove by the answer of the witness. The court may require the offer to be made out of the hearing of the jury. The court may add such other or further statement as clearly shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. In actions tried without a jury the same procedure may be followed, except that the court upon request shall take and report the evidence in full, unless it clearly appears that the evidence is not admissible on any ground or that the witness is privileged.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 43(d). Affirmation in lieu of oath. Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 43(e). Evidence on motions. Except as otherwise provided in Rule 56, when a motion is based on facts not appearing of record the court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 43(f). Interpreters. The court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix his reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the court may direct, and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the court.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 44. Proof of official record

Rule 44(a). Authentication. (1) Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, or any state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or within the Panama Canal Zone, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or the Ryukyu Islands, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office.

(2) Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the court may, for good cause shown, (i) admit an attested copy without final certification or (ii) permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 44(b). Lack of record. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in subdivision (a)(1) of this rule in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of subdivision (a)(2) of this rule for a summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 44(c). Other proof. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 44.1. Determination of foreign law. A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign country shall give notice in his pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under Rule 43. The court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 45. Subpoena

Rule 45(a). For attendance of witnesses — form — issuance. Every subpoena shall be issued by the clerk under the seal of the court, shall state the name of the court and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified. The clerk shall issue a subpoena, or a subpoena for the production of documentary evidence, signed and sealed but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 45(b). For production of documentary evidence. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein; but the court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents or tangible things.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 45(c). Service. A subpoena may be served by any person who is not a party and is not less than 18 years of age. Service is made by exhibiting the original and delivering a true copy to the witness personally, giving or offering to him at the same time, if demanded by him, the fees to which he is entitled for travel to and from the place designated, and 1 day's attendance there. The service must be made so as to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation and travel to the place of attendance.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 45(d). Subpoena for taking depositions — place of examinations. (1) Proof of service of a notice to take a deposition as provided in

Rules 30(b) and 31(a) constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance by the clerk of court where the action is pending, or for the district in which the deposition is to be taken of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of the examination permitted by Rule 26(b), but in that event the subpoena will be subject to the provisions of Rule 26(c) and subdivision (b) of this rule.

The person to whom the subpoena is directed may, within 10 days after the service thereof or on or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance if such time is less than 10 days after service, serve upon the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials except pursuant to an order of the court from which the subpoena was issued. The party serving the subpoena may, if objection has been made, move upon notice to the deponent for an order at any time before or during the taking of the deposition.

(2) A resident of the state may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein he resides or is employed or transacts his business in person, or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of court. A nonresident of the state may be required to attend in any county of the state wherein he is served with a subpoena or at any other convenient place as is fixed by order of court.

Rule 45(e). Subpoena for a hearing or trial. At the request of any party subpoenas for attendance at a hearing or trial shall be issued as provided by Rule 45(a), and such subpoenas for a hearing or trial in a district court may be served at any place within the state.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 45(f). Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon him may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 46. Exceptions unnecessary. Formal exceptions to rulings, orders, or findings of the court are unnecessary; but for all purposes it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take, or his objection to the action of the court and his grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Rule 47. Jurors

Rule 47(a). Examination of jurors. The court shall permit the parties or their attorneys to conduct the examination of prospective jurors under its supervision. The court may supplement the examination by such further inquiry as it deems proper. Challenges for cause must be tried by the court. The juror challenged and any other person may be examined as a witness on the trial of the challenge.

History: En. Sec. 47, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 47(b). Manner of selection and order of examination of jurors. From the entire jury panel, an initial panel of 20 jurors shall be called in the first instance, and before any voir dire examination of the jury shall be had. Examination of all jurors in the initial panel shall be completed by the plaintiff before examination by the defendant. If challenges for cause are allowed, an additional juror shall be called from the entire panel immediately upon the allowance of challenge, and the juror called to replace the juror excused for cause shall take the number of the juror who has been excused, to provide a full initial panel of 20 jurors, whose examination shall be completed before any peremptory challenges are made. When the voir dire examination has been completed, each side shall have four peremptory challenges, and they shall be exercised by the plaintiff first striking one, the defendant than striking one, and so on, until each side has exhausted or waived its right. In event one or more alternate jurors are called, the next jurors remaining in the initial panel, if any, shall be called by the clerk to be the alternate jurors. In event all jurors remaining of original initial panel of 20 jurors, including those substituted for those jurors excused for cause, have been subjected to peremptory challenge, then the clerk shall call additional jurors from the remainder of the jury panel to provide alternate jurors who will be subject to challenge as provided by law. In event there is more than one party defendant, and should it appear that each defendant is entitled to peremptory challenges, then the original panel shall be increased to provide four additional jurors for each defendant who is entitled to exercise peremptory challenges. The clerk shall keep a record of the order in which jurors are called, and in event the entire initial panel has not been exhausted by challenges, the court shall excuse sufficient of the last called jurors until a jury of 12 persons and the determined number of alternates shall remain to make up the trial jury.

History: En. Sec. 47, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Rule 47(c). Alternate jurors. The court may direct that one or two jurors in addition to the regular panel be called and impaneled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors in the order in which they are called shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury arrives at its verdict, become unable or disqualified to perform their duties. An alternate juror shall not join the jury in its deliberation unless called upon by the court to replace a member of the jury. His conduct during the period in which the jury is considering its verdict shall be regulated by instructions of the trial court. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the principal jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a principal juror shall be discharged after the jury arrives at its verdict. If one or two alternate jurors are called each party is entitled to one peremptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by subdivision (b) of this rule. The additional peremptory challenge may be used only against an alternate juror, and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against the alternates.

History: En. Sec. 47, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 48. Juries — verdict. At least two-thirds in number of any jury may render a verdict or finding, and such verdict or finding so rendered shall have the same force and effect as if all such jury concurred therein. The parties may stipulate that the jury shall consist of less number than 12.

History: En. Sec. 48, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 49. Special verdicts and interrogatories

Rule 49(a). Special verdicts. The court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event the court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use such other method of submitting the issues and requiring the written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The court shall give to the jury such explanation and instruction concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waives his right to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires he demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand the court may make a finding; or if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict.

History: En. Sec. 49, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 49(b). General verdict accompanied by answer to interrogatories. The court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict, and the court shall direct the jury both to make written answers and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are harmonious, the court shall direct the entry of the appropriate judgment upon the verdict and answers. When the answers are consistent with each other but one or more is inconsistent with the general verdict, the court may direct the entry of judgment in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict or may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, the court shall not direct the entry of judgment but may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial.

History: En. Sec. 49, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 50. Motion for a directed verdict and for judgment notwithstanding the verdict

Rule 50(a). Motion for directed verdict — when made, effect. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for a directed verdict shall state the specific grounds therefor. The order of the court granting a motion for a directed verdict is effective without any assent of the jury.

History: En. Sec. 50, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 50(b). Motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. Whenever a motion for a directed verdict made at the close of all the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Not later than 10 days after service of notice of entry of judgment, a party who has moved for a directed verdict may move to have the verdict and any judgment entered thereon set aside and to have judgment entered in accordance with his motion for a directed verdict; or if a verdict was not returned such party, within 10 days after the jury has been discharged, may move for judgment in accordance with his motion for a directed verdict. A motion for a new trial may be joined with this motion, or a new trial may be prayed for in the alternative. If a verdict was returned the court may allow the judgment to stand or may reopen the judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed. If no verdict was returned the court may direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed or may order a new trial.

Motions provided by this subdivision shall be heard and determined within the times provided by Rule 59 for the hearing and determination of motions for new trial.

History: En. Sec. 50, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Sept. 7, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Rule 50(c). Motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict — conditional rulings on grant of motion. (1) If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, provided for in subdivision (b) of this rule, is granted, the court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial. If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted, the order thereon does not affect the finality of the judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless the supreme court has otherwise ordered. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally denied, the respondent on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the supreme court.

(2) The party whose verdict has been set aside on motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may serve a motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 59 not later than 10 days after service of notice of entry of the judgment notwithstanding the verdict.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 50(d). Motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict — denial of motion. If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is denied, the party who prevailed on that motion may, as respondent, assert grounds entitling him to a new trial in the event the supreme court concludes that the trial court erred in denying the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. If the supreme court reverses the judgment, nothing in this rule precludes it from determining that the respondent is entitled to a new trial, or from directing the trial court to determine whether a new trial shall be granted.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 51. Instructions to jury — objection. The court may, during the trial or at the close of the evidence, request each of the parties to submit proposed written instructions on the law of the case. No party may assign as error the failure to instruct on any point of law unless he offers an instruction thereon. The court shall rule upon the proposed instructions and may prepare other written instructions to be given of its own motion and shall submit to the parties the instructions that will be given and provide opportunity to make objections. Objections made shall specify and state the particular grounds on which the instruction is objected to and it shall not be sufficient in stating the ground of such objection to state generally the instruction does not state the law or is against the law, but such ground of objection shall specify particularly wherein the instruction is insufficient or does not state the law, or what particular clause therein is objected to. All objections and rulings thereon shall be made out of the presence of the jury. No exceptions are necessary to the rulings of the court on the giving or the refusal of instructions. The court shall read to the jury the instructions given before the arguments of counsel are commenced.

History: En. Sec. 51, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 52. Findings by the court

Rule 52(a). Effect. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and judgment shall be entered pursuant to Rule 58; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions the court shall similarly set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Requests for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial court to judge of the credibility of the witnesses. The findings of a master, to the extent that the court adopts them, shall be considered as the findings of the court. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if the findings of fact and conclusions of law appear therein. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary on decisions of motions under Rules 12 or 56 or any other motion except as provided in Rule 41(b).

History: En. Sec. 52, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Rule 52(b). Amendment. Upon motion of a party made not later than 10 days after notice of entry of judgment the court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 59. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made in the district court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment.

History: En. Sec. 52, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Aug. 1, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Sept. 7, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Rule 53. Masters

Rule 53(a). Appointment and compensation. Each district court with the concurrence of a majority of all the judges thereof may appoint one or more standing masters for its district, and the court in which any action is pending may appoint a special master therein. As used in these rules the word "master" includes a referee, an auditor, and an examiner. The compensation to be allowed to a master shall be fixed by the court, and shall be charged upon such of the parties or paid out of any fund or subject matter of the action, which is in the custody and control of the court as the court may direct. The master shall not retain his report as security for his compensation; but when the party ordered to pay the compensation allowed by the court does not pay it after notice and within the time prescribed by the court, the master is entitled to a writ of execution against the delinquent party.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 53(b). Reference. A reference to a master shall be the exception and not the rule. In actions to be tried by a jury, a reference shall be made only when the issues are complicated; in actions to be tried without a jury, save in matters of account, a reference shall be made only upon a showing that some exceptional condition requires it.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 53(c). Powers. The order of reference to the master may specify or limit his powers and may direct him to report only upon particular issues or to do or perform particular acts or to receive and report evidence only and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing the hearings and for the filing of the master's report. Subject to the specifications and limitations stated in the order, the master has and shall exercise the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary or proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production before him of evidence upon all matters embraced in the reference, including the production of all books, papers, vouchers, documents, and writings applicable thereto. He may rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the order of reference and has the authority to put witnesses on oath and may himself examine them and may call the parties to the action and examine them upon oath. When a party so requests, the master shall make a record of the evidence offered and excluded in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in Rule 43(c) for a court sitting without a jury.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 53(d). Proceedings. (1) Meetings. When a reference is made, the clerk shall forthwith furnish the master with a copy of the order of reference. Upon receipt thereof unless the order of reference otherwise provides, the master shall forthwith set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys to be held within 20 days after the date of the order of reference and shall notify the parties or their attorneys. It is the duty of the master to proceed with all reasonable diligence. Either party, on notice to the parties and master, may apply to the court for an order requiring the master to speed the proceedings and to make his report. If a party fails to appear at the time and place appointed, the master may proceed ex parte, or, in his discretion, adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of the adjournment.

(2) Witnesses. The parties may procure the attendance of witnesses before the master by the issuance and service of subpoenas as provided in Rule 45. If without adequate excuse a witness fails to appear or give evidence, he may be punished as for a contempt and be subjected to the consequences, penalties, and remedies provided in Rules 37 and 45.

(3) Statement of accounts. When matters of accounting are in issue before the master, he may prescribe the form in which the accounts shall be submitted and in any proper case may require or receive in evidence a statement by a certified public accountant who is called as a witness. Upon objection of a party to any of the items thus submitted or upon a showing that the form of statement is insufficient, the master may require a different form of statement to be furnished, or the accounts or specific items thereof to be proved by oral examination of the accounting parties or upon written interrogatories or in such other manner as he directs.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 53(e). Report. (1) Contents and filing. The master shall prepare a report upon the matters submitted to him by the order of reference and, if required to make findings of fact and conclusions of law, he shall set them forth in the report. He shall file the report with the clerk of the court and in an action to be tried without a jury, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference, shall file with it a transcript of the proceedings and of the evidence and the original exhibits. The clerk shall forthwith mail to all parties notice of the filing.

(2) In nonjury actions. In an action to be tried without a jury the court shall accept the master's findings of fact unless clearly erroneous. Within 10 days after being served with notice of the filing of the report any party may serve written objections thereto upon the other parties. Application to the court for action upon the report and upon objections thereto shall be by motion and upon notice as prescribed in Rule 6(d). The court after hearing may adopt the report or may modify it or may reject it in whole or in part or may receive further evidence or may recommit it with instructions.

(3) In jury actions. In an action to be tried by a jury the master shall not be directed to report the evidence. His findings upon the issues submitted to him are admissible as evidence of the matters found and may be read to the jury, subject to the ruling of the court upon any objections in point of law which may be made to the report.

(4) Stipulations as to findings. The effect of a master's report is the same whether or not the parties have consented to the reference; but, when the parties stipulate that a master's findings of fact shall be final, only questions of law arising upon the report shall thereafter be considered.

(5) Draft report. Before filing his report a master may submit a draft thereof to counsel for all parties for the purpose of receiving their suggestions.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

VII. Judgment

Rule 54. Judgments — costs

Rule 54(a). Definition — form. A judgment is the final determination of the rights of the parties in an action or proceeding and as used in these rules includes a decree and any order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings, the report of a master, or the record of prior proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 54, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 54(b). Judgment upon multiple claims or involving multiple parties. When multiple claims for relief or multiple parties are involved in an action, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates less than all the claims or the rights and liabilities of less than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.

History: En. Sec. 54, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 54(c). Demand for judgment. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in his pleadings.

History: En. Sec. 54, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 54(d). Costs. Except when express provision therefor is made either in a statute of the state of Montana or in these rules, costs shall be allowed as of course to the prevailing party unless the court otherwise directs; but costs against the state of Montana, its officers, agencies, and political subdivisions shall be imposed only to the extent permitted by law.

History: En. Sec. 54, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 55. Default

Rule 55(a). Entry. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by these rules and that fact is made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk shall enter his default.

History: En. Sec. 55, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 55(b). Judgment. Judgment by default may be entered as follows:

(1) By the clerk. When the plaintiff's claim against a defendant is for a sum certain or for a sum which can by computation be made certain, the clerk upon request of the plaintiff and upon affidavit of the amount due shall enter judgment for that amount and costs against the defendant, if he has been defaulted for failure to appear and if he is not an infant or incompetent person, and has been personally served, otherwise than by publication or personal service outside of this state.

(2) By the court. In all other cases the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the court therefor; but no judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other such representative, or guardian ad litem, who has appeared therein. If the party against whom judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, he (or, if appearing by representative, his representative) shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least 3 days prior to the hearing on such application. If, in order to enable the court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper and shall accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when and as required by any statute of the state of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 55, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. June 1, 1964, eff. July 1, 1964.

Rule 55(c). Default — setting aside — extension of time by court or stipulation of parties. For good cause shown the court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with Rule 60(b). No default of any party shall be entered, and no default judgment shall be entered against any party, except upon application of the opposing party. Before entering the default of any person who has been served outside the boundaries of the state of Montana, the court may, in its discretion, appoint a representative for any such person even though such person has not appeared. Any stipulation for extension of time between the parties or their counsel, whether in writing or made verbally before the court, shall be effective to extend the time for serving and/or filing any appearance, motion, pleading or proceeding, according to the terms of such stipulation. In any case if a party in default shall serve and file his appearance, motion, pleading or proceeding prior to application to the clerk for default, then such defaulting party shall not thereafter be considered in default as to that particular appearance, motion, pleading, or proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 55, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 55(d). Plaintiffs, counterclaimants, cross-claimants. The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Rule 54(c).

History: En. Sec. 55, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 56. Summary judgment

Rule 56(a). For claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of 20 days from the commencement of the action or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor upon all or any part thereof.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 56(b). For defending party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 56(c). Motion and proceedings thereon. The motion shall be served at least 10 days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Apr. 1, 1965, eff. July 1, 1965; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 56(d). Case not fully adjudicated on motion. If on motion under this rule judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 56(e). Form of affidavits — further testimony — defense required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this rule, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of his pleading, but his response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this rule, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If he does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against him.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 56(f). When affidavits are unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that he cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify his opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 56(g). Affidavits made in bad faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 57. Declaratory judgments. The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment pursuant to Title 27, chapter 8, Montana Code Annotated, shall be in accordance with these rules, and the right to trial by jury may be demanded under the circumstances and in the manner provided in Rules 38 and 39, subject to the provisions of section 27-8-302, Montana Code Annotated. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

History: En. Sec. 57, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 58. Entry of judgment. Unless the court otherwise directs and subject to the provisions of Rule 54(b), judgment upon the verdict of a jury shall be entered forthwith by the clerk; but the court shall direct the appropriate judgment to be entered upon a special verdict or upon a general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories returned by a jury pursuant to Rule 49. When the court directs that a party recover only money or costs or that all relief be denied, the clerk shall enter judgment forthwith upon receipt by him of the direction; but when the court directs entry of judgment for other relief, the judge shall promptly settle or approve the form of the judgment and direct that it be entered by the clerk. The entry of the judgment shall not be delayed for the taxing of costs.

History: En. Sec. 58, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 59. New trials — amendment of judgment

Rule 59(a). Grounds. A new trial may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the reasons provided by the statutes of the state of Montana.

A motion for new trial shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, it not being sufficient merely to set forth the statutory grounds, but the motion may be amended, upon reasonable notice, up to and including the time of hearing the motion.

On motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the court may take additional testimony, amend the findings of fact and conclusions of law or make new findings and conclusions, set aside, vacate, modify or confirm any judgment that may have been entered or direct the entry of a new judgment.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 59(b). Time for motion. A motion for a new trial shall be served not later than 10 days after service of notice of the entry of the judgment.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Rule 59(c). Time for serving affidavits. When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has 10 days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which periods may be extended for an additional period not exceeding 20 days either by the court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The court may permit reply affidavits.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Rule 59(d). Time for hearing on motion. Hearing on the motion shall be had within 10 days after it has been served, or within 10 days after the party opposing the motion for new trial has served his affidavits as set forth in subparagraph (c) hereinabove except that at any time after the notice of hearing on the motion has been served the court may issue an order continuing the hearing for not to exceed 30 days. In case the hearing is continued by the court, it shall be the duty of the court to hear the same at the earliest practicable date thereafter, and the court shall rule upon and decide the motion within 15 days after the same is submitted. If the court shall fail to rule upon the motion within said time, the motion shall, at the expiration of said period, be deemed denied.

The decision on the motion may be entered in the minutes of the court, or may be made in writing in chambers or in any county in the state where the judge may be, and be filed with the clerk of court in the county where the action is pending. Upon the hearing, reference may be had in all cases to the pleadings and the orders of the court on file, and reference may also be had to any depositions and documentary evidence offered on the trial, and to the proceedings on the trial and, when necessary, reference may be had to the notes of the court reporter.

If the motion is not noticed up for hearing and no hearing is held thereon, it shall be deemed denied as of the expiration of the period of time within which hearing is required to be held under this Rule 59.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Rule 59(e). On initiative of court. Not later than 10 days after entry of judgment the court of its own initiative may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 59(f). Order granting new trial. Any order of the court granting a new trial, shall specify the grounds therefor with sufficient particularity as to apprise the parties and the appellate court of the rationale underlying the ruling, and this may be done in the body of the order, or in an attached opinion.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 59(g). Motion to alter or amend a judgment. A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be served not later than 10 days after the service of the notice of the entry of the judgment, and may be combined with the motion for a new trial herein provided for. This motion shall be heard and determined within the time provided hereinabove with respect to a motion for a new trial.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Sept. 7 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969; amd. and redes. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Rule 60. Relief from judgment or order

Rule 60(a). Clerical mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record, and in pleadings, and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

History: En. Sec. 60, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 60(b). Mistakes — inadvertence — excusable neglect — newly discovered evidence — fraud, etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or (6) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) when a defendant has been personally served, whether in lieu of publication or not, not more than 60 days after the judgment, order or proceeding was entered or taken, or, in a case where notice of entry of judgment is required by Rule 77(d), not more than 60 days after service of notice of entry of judgment. When from any cause the summons in an action has not been personally served on the defendant, the court may allow, on such terms as may be just, such defendant or his legal representative, at any time within 180 days after the rendition of any judgment in such action, to answer to the merits of the original action. A motion under this subdivision (b) does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant not actually personally notified as may be required by law, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court.

History: En. Sec. 60, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Aug. 1, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 60(c). Time for hearing and determining motions. Motions provided by subdivisions (a) and (b) of this rule shall be heard and determined within the times provided by Rule 59 in the case of motions for new trials and amendment of judgment.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Sept. 7, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Rule 61. Harmless error. No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial or for setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the court inconsistent with substantial justice. The court at every stage of the proceeding must disregard any error or defect in the proceeding which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

History: En. Sec. 61, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 62. Stay of proceedings to enforce a judgment

Rule 62(a). Superseded — M.R.App.Civ.P., Rule 7.

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 62(b). Stay on motion for new trial or for judgment. In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the district court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment made pursuant to Rule 59, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant to Rule 60, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to Rule 50, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Rule 52(b).

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 62(c). Injunction pending appeal. When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the district court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 62(d). Superseded — M.R.App.Civ.P., Rule 7.

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 62(e). Stay in favor of the state of Montana or agency thereof. When an appeal is taken by the state of Montana or an officer or agency or governmental subdivision thereof, and the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no security shall be required from the appellant. In all cases, the parties may by written stipulation waive the filing of security.

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 62(g). Power of appellate court not limited. The provisions in this rule do not limit any power of the supreme court of the state of Montana or of a justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 62(h). Stay of judgment upon multiple claims. When a court has ordered a final judgment on some but not all of the claims presented in the action under the conditions stated in Rule 54(b), the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

History: En. Sec. 62, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

VIII. Provisional and Final Remedies and Special Proceedings

Rule 64. Seizure of person or property. At the commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by law.

History: En. Sec. 63, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 65. Injunctions. The procedure for granting restraining orders and temporary and permanent injunctions shall be as provided by statute.

History: En. Sec. 64, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 66. Receivers. An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the court. The practice in the appointment of and administration of estates by receivers or other similar officers shall be in accordance with the Montana statutes and with the practice heretofore followed in the courts of this state. In all other respects, the action in which the appointment of the receiver is sought or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by these rules.

History: En. Sec. 65, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 67. Deposit in court. In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of court, may deposit with the court all or any part of such sum or thing. Money paid into court under this rule shall be deposited and withdrawn in accordance with the provisions of chapter 8, Title 25, Montana Code Annotated.

History: En. Sec. 66, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 68. Offer of judgment. At any time more than 10 days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. If within 10 days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon judgment shall be entered. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. When the liability of one party to another has been determined by verdict or order or judgment, but the amount or extent of the liability remains to be determined by further proceedings, the party adjudged liable may make an offer of judgment, which shall have the same effect as an offer made before trial if it is served within a reasonable time not less than 10 days prior to the commencement of hearings to determine the amount or extent of liability.

History: En. Sec. 67, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 69. Execution. The procedure on execution, in proceedings supplementary to and in aid of a judgment, and in proceedings on and in aid of and supplementary to execution shall be in accordance with the statutes of the state of Montana. In aid of the judgment or execution, the judgment creditor or his successor in interest when that interest appears of record, may examine any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in these rules for taking depositions.

History: En. Sec. 68, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 70. Judgment for specific acts — vesting title. If a judgment directs a party to execute a conveyance of land or to deliver deeds or other documents or to perform any other specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the court and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the court may order the clerk to issue a writ of attachment or sequestration against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. The court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt. If real or personal property is within the state, the court in lieu of directing a conveyance thereof may enter a judgment divesting the title of any party and vesting it in others and such judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law. When any order or judgment is for the delivery of possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution or assistance upon application to the clerk.

History: En. Sec. 69, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 71. Process in behalf of and against persons not parties. When an order is made in favor of a person who is not a party to the action, he may enforce obedience to the order by the same process as if he were a party; and, when obedience to an order may be lawfully enforced against a person who is not a party, he is liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to the order as if he were a party.

History: En. Sec. 70, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

IX. Appeals

When an appeal is permitted by law from a district court to the supreme court of Montana, or in any case where original proceedings are commenced in the supreme court, such appeal or original proceeding shall be taken, perfected, and prosecuted pursuant to the provisions of the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure and controlling statutes to the extent that they are not superseded by the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure.

Such mailing is sufficient notice for all purposes for which notice of the entry of an order or judgment is required by these rules; but any party may in addition serve a notice of such entry in the manner provided in Rule 5 for the service of papers.

History: En. Sec. 72, Ch. 13, L. 1961; repealed and replaced by Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Dec. 31, 1975, eff. March 1, 1976.

Compiler's Comments

Table A. The Code Commissioner has not reprinted Table A in the MCA because it was never intended to be a complete listing, has not been updated since 1963, contains a high percentage of repealed sections, and is generally obsolete and not very useful. Interested persons may find it in the 1964 main volume of R.C.M. 1947, Vol. 7.

Rule 81(b). Appeals to district courts. These rules do not supersede the provisions of statutes relating to appeals to or review by the district courts, but shall govern procedure and practice relating thereto insofar as these rules are not inconsistent with such statutes.

History: En. Sec. 74, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

Rule 81(c). Rules incorporated into statutes. Where any statute heretofore or hereafter enacted, whether or not applicable to a special statutory proceeding or listed in any table appended hereto, provides that any act in a civil proceeding in a district court shall be done in the manner provided by law or as in a civil action or as provided by any statute superseded by these rules, such act shall be done in accordance with these rules and the procedure thereon shall conform to these rules, insofar as practicable.

History: En. Sec. 74, Ch. 13, L. 1961.

(2) That each of the defendants be restrained from instituting any action against plaintiff for the recovery of the amount of said policy or any part thereof.

Appendix of Forms

Form
1. Notice of appeal to the supreme court of the state of Montana from a judgment or order of a district court.
2. Affidavit to accompany motion for leave to appeal in forma pauperis.

I. Applicability of Rules

Rule 1. Scope of rules — from what judgment or order an appeal may be taken.

These rules govern procedure in appeals in civil cases to the supreme court of Montana from Montana district courts and original proceedings in the supreme court of Montana. The party applying for original relief is known as the petitioner and the adverse party as the defendant. The party appealing is known as the appellant, and the adverse party as the respondent.

A party aggrieved may appeal from a judgment or order, except when expressly made final by law, in the following cases:

(a) From a final judgment entered in an action or special proceeding commenced in a district court, or brought into a district court from another court or administrative body.

(b) From an order granting a new trial; or refusing to permit an action to be maintained as a class action; or granting or dissolving an injunction; or refusing to grant or dissolve an injunction; or dissolving or refusing to dissolve an attachment; from an order changing or refusing to change the place of trial when the county designated in the complaint is not the proper county; from an order appointing or refusing to appoint a receiver, or giving directions with respect to a receivership, or refusing to vacate an order appointing or affecting a receiver; from an order directing the delivery, transfer, or surrender of property; from any special order made after final judgment; and from such interlocutory judgments or orders, in actions for partition as determine the rights and interests of the respective parties and direct partition to be made. In any of the cases mentioned in this subdivision the supreme court, or a justice thereof, may stay all proceedings under the order appealed from, on such conditions as may seem proper.

(c) From a judgment or order granting or refusing to grant, revoking or refusing to revoke, letters testamentary, or of administration, or of guardianship; or admitting or refusing to admit a will to probate, or against or in favor of the validity of a will, or revoking or refusing to revoke the probate thereof; or against or in favor of setting apart property, or making an allowance for a widow or child; or against or in favor of directing the partition, sale, or conveyance of real property, or settling an account of an executor, or administrator, or guardian; or refusing, allowing, directing the distribution or partition of any estate, or any part thereof, or the payment of a debt, claim, legacy, or distributive share; or confirming or refusing to confirm a report of an appraiser setting apart a homestead.

All questions raised on an order overruling a motion for a new trial or on an order changing or refusing to change the place of trial under [R.C.M. 1947, section 93-2906, subdivision 4 thereof or] subsection (2) or (3) of section 25-2-201, Montana Code Annotated, may be raised and reviewed on an appeal from the judgment.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 2. What the court may review on an appeal from a judgment.

Upon appeal from a judgment, the court may review the verdict or decision, and any intermediate order or decision excepted or objected to within the meaning of Rule 46 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, which involves the merits, or necessarily affects the judgment, except a decision or order from which an appeal might have been taken.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 3. Suspension of the rules.

In the interest of expediting decision upon any matter before it, or for other good cause shown, the supreme court may, except as otherwise provided in Rule 21(b), suspend the requirements or provisions of these rules on application of a party or on its own motion and may order proceedings in accordance with its direction.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

II. Appeals from Judgments and Orders of District Courts

Rule 4. How taken.

(a) Filing the notice of appeal. An appeal shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal in the district court. Failure of an appellant to take any step other than the timely filing of a notice of appeal does not affect the validity of the appeal, but is ground only for such action as the supreme court deems appropriate, which may include dismissal of the appeal.

(b) Joint appeals. If two or more persons are entitled to appeal from a judgment or order of the district court and their interests are such as to make joinder practicable, they may file a joint notice of appeal, or may join in appeal after filing separate notices of appeal as a single appellant.

(c) Content of the notice of appeal. The notice of appeal shall specify the party or parties taking the appeal; and shall designate the judgment or order appealed from. Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms is a suggested form of notice of appeal.

(d) Service of notice of appeal. The clerk of the district court shall serve notice of the filing of a notice of appeal by mailing a copy thereof to counsel of record of each party other than the appellant, or, if a party is not represented by counsel, to the party at his last known address, and shall mail a copy of the notice of appeal to the clerk of the supreme court. The clerk of the district court shall note on each copy served the date on which the notice of appeal was filed. If an appellant is represented by counsel, his counsel shall provide the clerk with sufficient copies of the notice of appeal to permit the clerk to comply with the requirements of this rule. Failure of the clerk to serve notice shall not affect the validity of the appeal. The notice shall be sufficient notwithstanding the death of a party or his counsel. The clerk shall note in the docket the names of the parties to whom he mails copies, with the date of mailing.

Rule 5. Time for filing notice of appeal.

The time within which an appeal from a judgment or an order must be taken shall be 30 days from the entry thereof, except that in cases where service of notice of entry of judgment is required by Rule 77(d) of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure the time shall be 30 days from the service of notice of entry of judgment, but if the state of Montana, or any political subdivision thereof, or an officer or agency thereof is a party the notice of appeal shall be filed within 60 days from the entry of the judgment or order or 60 days from the service of notice of the entry of judgment. If a timely notice of appeal is filed by a party, any other party may file a notice of appeal within 7 days of the date on which the first notice of appeal was filed, or within the time otherwise provided by this rule, whichever period last expires.

The running of the time for filing a notice of appeal is suspended as to all parties by a timely motion filed in the district court by any party pursuant to the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure hereafter enumerated in this sentence, and the full time for appeal fixed by this rule commences to run and is to be computed from mailing by the clerk of notice of the entry of any of the following orders made upon a timely motion under such rules: (1) granting or denying a motion for judgment under Rule 50(b); (2) granting or denying a motion under Rule 52(b) to amend or make additional findings of fact, whether or not an alteration of the judgment would be required if the motion is granted; (3) granting or denying a motion under Rule 59 to alter or amend the judgment; (4) denying a motion for a new trial under Rule 59.

Upon showing of excusable neglect, the district court may extend the time for filing the notice of appeal by any party for a period not to exceed 30 days from the expiration of the original time prescribed by this rule.

Rule 6. Undertaking for costs on appeal.

(a) [Form of undertaking—time for filing]. Within 10 days after service of notice of appeal an undertaking for costs on appeal shall be filed in the district court, or a deposit of the money in the amount thereof be made with the clerk of the district court to abide the event of the appeal, or the undertaking be waived by the adverse party in writing. The undertaking must be executed on the part of the appellant by at least 2 sureties, or by a corporate surety as may be authorized by law, to the effect that the appellant will pay all damages and costs which may be awarded against him on the appeal, or on the dismissal thereof, not exceeding $500. If the undertaking on appeal is not filed within the time specified, or if the undertaking filed is found insufficient, and if the action is not yet docketed with the supreme court, an undertaking may be filed at such time before the action is so docketed as may be fixed by the district court. After the action is so docketed, application for leave to file an undertaking may be made only in the supreme court. The undertaking for costs herein provided may be combined in a single document with a supersedeas bond under Rule 7.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 7. Stay of judgment or order pending appeal.

(a) [Stay upon entry of judgment—undertaking]. Upon entry of a judgment or order a party may apply to the district court on notice or ex parte for a stay of the execution of the judgment or order. The court in its discretion may grant said stay for such period of time and under such conditions as the court deems proper, including restraining the party from disposing of, encumbering, or concealing his property. Upon service of notice of appeal, if the court has made no such order or the appellant desires a stay for a longer period than ordered, he may present to the district court and secure its approval of a supersedeas bond which shall have such surety or sureties as are required for an undertaking for costs on appeal prescribed by Rule 6(a). The bond shall be conditioned for the satisfaction of the judgment or order in full together with costs, interest, and damages for delay, if for any reason the appeal is dismissed or if the judgment or order is affirmed, and to satisfy in full such modification of the judgment or order and such costs, interest, and damages as the supreme court may adjudge and award. When the judgment or order is for the recovery of money not otherwise secured, the amount of the bond shall be fixed at such sum as will cover the whole amount of the judgment or order remaining unsatisfied, costs on the appeal, interest, and damages for delay, unless the district court after notice and hearing and for good cause shown fixes a different amount or orders security other than the bond. When the judgment or order determines the disposition of property in controversy as in real actions, replevin, and actions to foreclose mortgages, or when such property is in the custody of the sheriff or when the proceeds of such property or a bond for its value is in the custody or control of the court, the amount of the supersedeas bond shall be fixed at such sum only as will secure the amount recovered for the use and detention of the property, the costs of the action, costs on appeal, interest, and damages for delay. On application, the supreme court in the interest of justice may suspend, modify, restore, or grant any order made under this subdivision.

(b) [Sale of perishable property]. If the judgment or order appealed from directs the sale of perishable property, the district court may order the property to be sold and the proceeds thereof to be deposited, to abide the judgment of the supreme court.

(c) [Cases in which stay of proceedings not allowed]. No stay of proceedings shall be allowed upon a judgment or order which adjudges the defendant guilty of usurping, or intruding into, or unlawfully holding public office, civil or military, within this state; or which grants a writ of mandamus, or of prohibition, against a tribunal, corporation, public officer, or board, commanding certain acts to be done which ought to be done by such tribunal, corporation, public officer, or board, and not involving the payment or allowance of money or its equivalent.

Rule 8. Sureties and their justification.

(a) [Liability of surety—enforcement]. In cases where an undertaking on appeal or supersedeas bond with sureties is required, the provisions of sections 25-1-402, 25-13-105, 33-26-101, 33-26-102, and 72-31-101, Montana Code Annotated, apply. By entering into an undertaking on appeal or supersedeas bond given pursuant to Rules 6 and 7, the surety submits himself to the jurisdiction of the district court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the district court as his agent upon whom papers affecting his liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. His liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of any independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the district court prescribed may be served on the clerk of that court, who shall forthwith mail copies to each surety whose address is known.

(b) [Justification of sureties]. A party may except to the sufficiency of the sureties to any bond or undertaking mentioned in this rule at any time within 30 days after the filing of such bond or undertaking; and unless they or other sureties, within 20 days after service of notice of such exception, justify before a judge of the district court, or the clerk thereof, upon 5 days' notice to the other parties of the time and place of justification, execution of the judgment or order appealed from is no longer stayed.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 9. The record on appeal.

(a) Composition of the record on appeal. The original papers and exhibits filed in the district court, the transcript of proceedings, if any, and a certified copy of the docket entries prepared by the clerk of the district court shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases.

(b) The transcript of proceedings — duty of appellant to order — notice to respondent if partial transcript is ordered — costs of producing. Within 10 days after filing the notice of appeal the appellant shall order from the reporter a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already on file as he deems necessary for inclusion in the record. In all cases where the appellant intends to urge insufficiency of the evidence to support the verdict, order or judgment in the district court, it shall be the duty of the appellant to order the entire transcript of the evidence. Wherever the sufficiency of the evidence to support a special verdict or answer by a jury to an interrogatory, or to support a specific finding of fact by the trial court, is to be raised on the appeal by the appellant, he shall be under a duty to include in the transcript all evidence relevant to such verdict, answer or finding. Unless the entire transcript is to be included, the appellant shall, within the time above provided, file and serve on the respondent a description of the parts of the transcript which he intends to include in the record and a statement of the issues which he intends to present on the appeal. If the respondent deems a transcript of other parts of the proceedings to be necessary he shall within 10 days after such filing and service order such parts from the reporter or procure an order from the district court requiring the appellant to so do.

The cost of producing the transcript shall be paid by the appellant, or he shall make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter for the payment of such cost; but, if the appellant considers that any part of the record designated by the respondent for inclusion is unnecessary for the determination of the issues presented, he shall advise the respondent, and the district court may impose upon the respondent the cost of producing any part which it deems unnecessary for the determination of the issues.

The reporter shall certify the correctness of the transcript.

(c) Statement of the evidence or proceedings when no report was made or when the transcript is unavailable. If no report of the evidence or proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may, within 10 days from the hearing or trial or such time extended as the district court may for good cause shown permit, prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including his recollection. The statement shall be served on the respondent, who may serve objections or propose amendments thereto within 10 days after service. Thereupon, the statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall be submitted for settlement and approval to the district judge who handled the proceedings, and as settled and approved shall be included by the clerk of the district court in the record on appeal. A judge may settle and approve such record after he ceases to be a judge. If such judge before the statement is settled and approved dies, is removed from office, becomes disqualified, is absent from the state, or refuses to settle and approve the statement, it shall be settled and approved in such manner as the supreme court may direct.

(d) Agreed statement as the record on appeal. In lieu of the record on appeal as defined in subdivision (a) of this rule, the parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the district court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the issues presented. If the statement conforms to the truth, it, together with such additions as the court may consider necessary fully to present the issues raised by the appeal, shall be approved by the district court and shall then be certified to the supreme court as the record on appeal and transmitted thereto by the clerk of the district court within the time provided by Rule 10. Copies of the agreed statement may be filed as the appendix required by Rule 25.

(e) Correction or modification of the record. If any difference arises as to whether the record truly discloses what occurred in the district court, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by that court and the record made to conform to the truth. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the district court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the supreme court, on proper suggestion or of its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement be corrected, and if necessary that a supplemental record be certified and transmitted. All other questions as to the form and content of the record shall be presented to the supreme court.

(f) Findings of fact and conclusions of law. In all nonjury cases where judgment is rendered on the basis of findings of fact and conclusions of law such findings and conclusions by the district court should be incorporated in the appendix to appellant's brief, along with the district court's opinion, if any.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Rule 10. Transmission of the record.

(a) Time for transmission — number of copies of transcript — duty of appellant. The record on appeal, including the transcript necessary for the determination of the appeal, shall be transmitted to the supreme court within 40 days after the filing of the notice of appeal unless the time is shortened or extended by an order entered under subdivision (c) of this rule. Three copies of each transcript must be lodged with the clerk of this court for filing. Promptly after filing the notice of appeal the appellant shall comply with the provisions of Rule 9(b) and shall take any other action necessary to enable the clerk to assemble and transmit the record. If more than one appeal is filed, each appellant shall comply with the provisions of Rule 9(b) and this subdivision, and a single record shall be transmitted within 40 days after the filing of the final notice of appeal.

(b) Duty of clerk to transmit the record. When the record is complete for purposes of the appeal, the clerk of the district court shall transmit it to the clerk of the supreme court. The clerk shall number the documents comprising the record and shall transmit with the record a numbered list of the documents, identifying each with reasonable definiteness. Documents in bulky containers and physical exhibits other than documents shall not be transmitted by the clerk unless he is directed to do so by a party or by the clerk of the supreme court. A party must make advance arrangements with the clerk of the district court for the transportation of bulky or weighty exhibits and with the clerk of the supreme court for their receipt. Transmission of the record is effected when the clerk of the district court mails or otherwise forwards the record to the supreme court. The clerk of the district court shall indicate, by endorsement on the face of the record or otherwise, the date upon which it is transmitted to the supreme court.

(c) Extension of time for transmission of the record — reduction of time. The district court may extend the time for transmitting the record. The request for extension must be made within the time originally prescribed or within an extension previously granted, and the district court shall not extend the time to a day more than 90 days from the date of filing of the first notice of appeal. If the district court is without authority to grant the relief sought or has denied a request therefor, the supreme court may on motion extend the time for transmitting the record or may permit the record to be transmitted and filed after the expiration of the time allowed or fixed. A motion for an extension of time for transmitting the record made in either court shall show that the inability of the appellant to cause timely transmission of the record is due to causes beyond his control or to circumstances which may be deemed excusable neglect. If a request for an extension of time for transmitting the record has been previously denied, the motion shall set forth the denial and shall state the reasons therefor, if any were given.

The district court or the supreme court may require the record to be transmitted and the appeal to be docketed at any time within the time otherwise fixed or allowed therefor.

(d) Retention of the record in the district court by order of court. The supreme court may provide by rule or order that a certified copy of the docket entries shall be transmitted in lieu of the entire record, subject to the right of any party to request at any time during the pendency of the appeal that designated parts of the record be transmitted.

If the record is required in the district court for use there pending the appeal, the district court may make an order to that effect, and the clerk of the district court shall retain the record and shall transmit a copy of the order and of the docket entries together with such parts of the original record as the district court shall allow and copies of such parts as the parties may designate.

If the record is retained in the district court by order of either court, the clerk of the district court shall retain it subject to the order of the supreme court, and transmission of the copy of the docket entries shall constitute transmission of the record.

(e) Stipulation of parties that parts of the record be retained in the district court. The parties may agree by written stipulation filed in the district court that designated parts of the record shall be retained in the district court unless thereafter the supreme court shall order or any party shall request their transmittal. The parts thus designated shall nevertheless be a part of the record on appeal for all purposes.

(f) Record for preliminary hearing in the supreme court. If prior to the time the record is transmitted a party desires to make in the supreme court a motion for dismissal, for a stay pending appeal, for additional security on the undertaking on appeal or on a supersedeas bond, or for any intermediate order, the clerk of the district court at the request of any party shall transmit to the supreme court such parts of the original record as the party shall designate.

1981 Amendment — Reasons — Effective Date: Supreme Court Order 10750, June 30, 1981, provided in part:

"1. The Court received from the Advisory Committee to the Supreme Court of the State of Montana on Rules of Civil Procedure its Report and Proposal that Rule 10(a) of the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure be amended to provide that three copies of each transcript, instead of six copies, be filed with the clerk of this Court on appeals.

2. On December 9, 1980, in an order entered in our cause no. 10750 (1980), we directed that notice of said proposal be given as required by section 3-2-703, MCA, and further directed that within six months of the filing of the petition by the Advisory Committee members of the bar or bench might file suggestions regarding the proposal, or request hearing thereon within said six month period.

3. No request for hearing has been filed within the said time by any member of the bench or bar.

4. The association of Montana judges has adopted a resolution requesting (1) delay of one year in adopting the proposal for the purpose of a study; (2) requesting hearings outside the six month period provided by section 3-2-703, MCA, on the proposal, and (3) requesting the aid of this Court in procuring increased allowances for transcripts from the legislature.

5. The legislature, in Chapter 295, Laws of Montana (1981), increased the permissible folio charge allowed to court reporters from 7 ½ cents per folio to 10 cents per folio, effective October 1, 1981.

6. The reason given by the Advisory Committee in submitting the proposal are these:

"COMMENT: The amendment is made for the purpose of economizing as to the expense of appeals to the Montana Supreme Court, and also assisting the court in solving a filing space problem which confronts the court. The amendment recognizes that no one, including the court, the parties and the clerk of court, has any real need for more than three copies of the transcript on an appeal, nor will any such need exist when the court is expanded to seven Justices, commencing January 1, 1981."

7. The Court finds that the reasons given by the Advisory Committee for the proposal outweighs any need for delay in adopting the proposal, and that the matter of increased allowances for court reporters is a legislative matter outside the province of this Court unless such allowance became so unreasonable as to affect the business of this Court. . . .

9. Said amendment shall be effective as to all transcripts required to be filed in this Court, based on notices of appeal filed and served on or after July 1, 1981 or proceedings had or taken to this Court commencing on and continuing from July 1, 1981."

Rule 11. Docketing the appeal — filing of the record.

(a) Docketing the appeal. Within the time allowed or fixed for transmission of the record, the appellant shall pay to the clerk of the supreme court the fee for filing the record on appeal fixed by sections 3-2-403 and 3-2-404 of the Montana Code Annotated, and the clerk shall thereupon enter the appeal upon the docket. If an appellant is authorized to prosecute the appeal without prepayment of fees, the clerk shall enter the appeal upon the docket at or before the time of filing the record. An appeal shall be docketed under the title given to the action in the district court with such addition as is necessary to indicate the identity of the appellant.

(b) Filing of the record. Upon receipt of the record by the clerk of the supreme court following its timely transmittal, and after the appeal has been timely docketed, the clerk shall file the record. The clerk shall immediately give notice to all parties of the date on which the record was filed.

(c) Dismissal for failure of appellant to cause timely transmission or to docket appeal. If the appellant shall fail to cause timely transmission of the record or to pay the filing fee if a filing fee is required, any respondent may file a motion in the supreme court to dismiss the appeal. The motion shall be supported by a certificate of the clerk of the district court showing the date and substance of the judgment or order from which the appeal was taken, the date on which the notice of appeal was filed, and the expiration date of any order extending the time for transmitting the record; and by proof that 7 days' notice in writing has been served on the appellant that application will be made for dismissal of the appeal. The clerk shall docket the appeal for the purpose of permitting the court to entertain the motion, without requiring payment of the filing fee, but the appellant shall not be permitted to appear without payment of the fees unless he is otherwise exempt therefrom. Instead of filing a motion to dismiss the appeal, the respondent may cause the record to be transmitted and may docket the appeal, in which event the appeal shall proceed as if the appellant had caused it to be docketed.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 12. Effect of dismissal.

The dismissal of an appeal is in effect an affirmance of the judgment or order appealed from, unless the dismissal is expressly made without prejudice to another appeal.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 13. Acts of executors, administrators or guardians valid when appointment vacated.

When the judgment or order appointing an executor, or administrator, or guardian is reversed on appeal, for error, and not for want of jurisdiction of the court, all lawful acts in administration upon the estate performed by such executor, or administrator, or guardian, if he have qualified, are as valid as if such judgment or order had been affirmed.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 14. Ruling against respondent may be reviewed.

Whenever the record on appeal shall contain any order, ruling, or proceeding of the trial court against the respondent, affecting his substantial rights on the appeal of said cause, together with any required objection or exception of such respondent, the supreme court on such appeal shall consider such orders, rulings, or proceedings, and the objections and exceptions thereto, and shall reverse or affirm the cause on said appeal according to the substantial rights of the respective parties, as shown upon the record. And no cause shall be reversed upon appeal by reason of any error committed by the trial court against the appellant, where the record shows that the same result would have been attained had such trial court not committed an error or errors against the respondent.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 15. Remedial powers of the supreme court.

When the judgment or order is reversed or modified, the supreme court may make complete restitution of all property and rights lost by the erroneous judgment or order, so far as such restitution is consistent with protection of a purchaser of property at a sale ordered by the judgment, or had under process issued upon the judgment, on an appeal from which the proceedings were not stayed; and for relief in such cases the appellant may have his action against the respondent, enforcing the judgment for the proceeds of the sale of the property, after deducting therefrom the expenses of the sale.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 16. Remittitur must be certified to the clerk of the district court.

When judgment is rendered upon the appeal, it must be certified by the clerk of the supreme court to the clerk of the district court from which the appeal is taken. The clerk of the district court must enter at length in the records of the court the certificate received. Also, in cases of appeal from a judgment, the clerk must enter a minute of the judgment of the supreme court on the docket against the original entry; and in cases of appeal from an order, he must enter a minute against the entry of the order appealed from, containing a reference to the certificate, with a brief statement that such order has been affirmed, reversed, or modified by the supreme court on appeal.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

III. Original Proceedings — Extraordinary Writs

Rule 17. Acceptance and manner of conducting.

(a) When accepted. The supreme court is an appellate court but it is empowered by the constitution of Montana to hear and determine such original and remedial writs as may be necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its jurisdiction. The institution of such original proceedings in the supreme court is sometimes justified by circumstances of an emergency nature, as when a cause of action or a right has arisen under conditions making due consideration in the trial courts and due appeal to this court an inadequate remedy, or when supervision of a trial court other than by appeal is deemed necessary or proper.

(b) How commenced and conducted. Proceedings commenced in the supreme court originally to obtain writs of habeas corpus, injunction, review, mandate, quo warranto, supervisory control, and other remedial writs or orders, shall be commenced and conducted in the manner prescribed by the applicable sections of the Montana Code Annotated for the conduct of such or analogous proceedings and by these additional rules. All papers filed shall conform to the requirements of Rule 27, except that typewritten applications, briefs, copies of exhibits and the like may be used without securing permission of the chief justice as required by Rule 27(a). The provisions of Rule 27(b) shall be observed.

(c) Applications — where and when filed: An original application may be made to the supreme court at any time. The moving party's application and all supporting documents shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court.

(d) Applications — what to contain. The application for the issuance of the above writs or orders must set forth, in addition to the other requisite matters, the particular questions and issues anticipated or expected to be raised in the proceeding and also the fact which renders it necessary and proper that the writ should issue originally from the supreme court; the said matters will be taken into consideration by the court in determining the necessity and propriety of accepting jurisdiction and granting the alternative writ or order to show cause. Each application shall also set forth as exhibits, without repetition of title of court and cause, a copy of each judgment, order, notice, pleading, document proceeding or court minute referred to in the application, or which is necessary to make out a prima facie case or to substantiate the pleading or conclusion or legal effect. A memorandum of authorities must be filed with the application. Counsel shall file with the clerk of this court the original court file unless for some reason the same is not available.

(e) Procedure: The supreme court shall consider an application for an extraordinary writ at the court's next court conference following the filing of the application. On the basis of the application filed, the court shall as promptly as possible, dismiss the petition, accept jurisdiction, or order a response reserving the question of jurisdiction. Only in extraordinary cases will the court grant oral argument to determine the necessity and propriety of accepting jurisdiction.

Unless oral argument is ordered by this court in order to establish jurisdiction, the court will enter an appropriate order forthwith. Such order may dismiss the petition, grant the relief requested, order a hearing on the application, or issue any other writ or order deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

(f) Oral argument: When ordered by this court, an adversary hearing on the application shall be held at the time fixed by the order. The oral argument shall be conducted in the same manner as in the argument of appeals, with the same time limits for presentation, and with the applicant opening and closing the argument.

(g) Briefs: In those cases in which oral argument is ordered, each party shall serve and file briefs in full conformance with Rules 20, 23, and 27, and containing a statement of the facts and of the points of law applicable, with the authorities relied upon.

All briefs shall be served and filed according to the time schedule set forth in the order, and in no event later than 24 hours prior to the time fixed for oral argument.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord., eff. Jan. 1, 1981.

IV. Appeals in Forma Pauperis

Rule 18. Applications and manner of proceeding.

(a) Application to district court. A party who desires to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis shall file in the district court a motion for leave so to proceed together with an affidavit showing, in the detail prescribed by Form 2 of the Appendix of Forms, his inability to pay the fees and costs of the appeal or to give security therefor, his belief that he is entitled to redress, and a statement of the issues he intends to present on appeal. If the motion is granted, the party may proceed on appeal without further application to the supreme court and without payment of fees or costs or the giving of security therefor. If the motion is denied, the district court shall state the reasons for the denial.

(b) Application to the supreme court. If the motion for leave to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis is denied by the district court, a motion for leave so to proceed may be filed in the supreme court within 30 days after entry of the order of denial. The motion shall be accompanied by a copy of the affidavit filed in the district court and of the statement of reasons for denial given by the district court.

(c) Form of briefs, appendices and other papers. Parties allowed to proceed in forma pauperis may file briefs, appendices and other papers in typewritten form.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

V. General Provisions

Rule 19. Record of commissions and oaths.

(a) Commissions and oaths. The commissions and oaths of the justices and the clerk of this court, and the attorney general shall be recorded in the records of this court.

(b) Minutes of court. The minutes of this court shall be approved by the chief justice (or in his absence by the associate justice having the shortest term to serve), and attested by the clerk.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 20. Filing and service.

(a) Filing. Papers required or permitted to be filed must be placed in the custody of the clerk within the time fixed for filing. Filing may be accomplished by mail addressed to the clerk, but filing shall not be timely unless the papers are actually received within the time fixed for filing. If a motion requests relief which may be granted by a single judge, the judge may permit the motion to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the dates of filing and shall thereafter transmit it to the clerk.

(b) Service of all papers required. Copies of all papers, including any transcript, filed by any party and not required by these rules to be served by the clerk shall, at or before the time of filing, be served by the party or person acting for him on all other parties to the appeal or review. Service on a party represented by counsel shall be made on counsel.

(c) Manner of service. Service may be personal or by mail. Personal service includes delivery of the copy to a clerk or other responsible person at the office of counsel. Service by mail is complete on mailing.

(d) Proof of service. Papers presented for filing shall contain acknowledgment of service by the person served or proof of service in the form of a statement of the date and manner of service and of the names of the persons served, certified by the person who made service. Proof of service may appear on or be affixed to the papers filed. The clerk may permit papers to be filed without acknowledgment of proof of service but shall require such to be filed promptly thereafter.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 21. Computation and extension of time.

(a) Computation of time. In computing any period of time prescribed by these rules, by an order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) Extension of time. The court for good cause shown may upon motion extend the time prescribed by these rules or by its order for doing any act, and may thereby permit an act to be done after the expiration of such time if the failure to act was excusable under the circumstances; but the court may not extend the time for filing a notice of appeal, except as provided in Rule 5.

(c) Additional time after service by mail. Whenever a party is required or permitted to do any act within a prescribed period after service of a paper upon him and the paper is served by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

Rule 22. Motions.

Unless another form is prescribed by these rules, an application for an order or other relief shall be made by filing a motion in writing for such order or relief. The motion shall state with particularity the grounds therefor and shall set forth the order or relief sought. If a motion is supported by briefs, affidavits or other papers, they shall be served and filed with the motion. Motions for procedural orders may be determined ex parte. The supreme court may authorize disposition of motions for procedural orders by a single judge. If a motion seeks dismissal of the appeal or other substantial relief, any party may file an answer in opposition within 7 days after service of the motion, or within such time as the court may direct. Motions, supporting papers and any response thereto may be typewritten.

At the time of filing a motion counsel shall present a proposed order, together with sufficient copies for service upon all counsel of record.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 23. Briefs.

(a) Brief of the appellant. The brief of the appellant shall contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

(1) A table of contents, with page references, and a table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes and other authorities cited, with references to the pages of the brief where they are cited.

(2) A statement of the issues presented for review.

(3) A statement of the case. The statement shall first indicate briefly the nature of the case and its disposition in the court below, e.g.: "The plaintiff brought this action in the district court to recover damages for the wrongful death of her husband. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff. On motion of the defendant the trial judge entered judgment for the defendant n. o. v. on the ground that there was no evidence to support a finding of negligence on the part of the defendant. From this judgment the plaintiff appeals."

There shall follow a statement of the facts relevant to the issues presented for review, with references to the pages of the parts of the record at which material facts appear (see subdivision (e)).

(4) An argument. The argument may be preceded by a summary. The argument shall contain the contentions of the appellant with respect to the issues presented, and the reasons therefor, with citations to the authorities, statutes and pages of the record relied on.

(5) A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(b) Brief of the respondent. The brief of the respondent shall conform to the requirements of subdivision (a) (1) to (4), except that a statement of the issues or of the case need not be made unless the respondent is dissatisfied with the statement of the appellant.

(c) Reply brief. The appellant may file a brief in reply to the brief of the respondent. The reply brief must be confined to new matter raised in the brief of the respondent. No further briefs may be filed except with leave of court.

(d) References in briefs to parties. Counsel will be expected in their briefs and oral arguments to keep to a minimum references to parties by such formal designations as "appellant" and "respondent." It promotes clarity to use names or descriptive terms such as "the employee," "the injured person," "the taxpayer," etc.

(e) References in briefs to the record. Whenever a reference is made in the briefs to the record, the reference must be to particular parts of the record, suitably designated, and to specific pages of each part, e. g., Answer, p. 7; Motion for Summary Judgment, p. 3; Transcript, p. 231. Intelligible abbreviations may be used. If reference is made to an exhibit, reference shall be made to the pages of the transcript on which the exhibit was identified, offered, and received or rejected.

(f) Reproduction of statutes, rules, regulations, etc. If determination of the issues presented requires the study of statutes, rules, regulations, etc., or relevant parts thereof, they may be reproduced in the brief or in an addendum at the end, or they may be supplied to the court in pamphlet form. No such reproduction is required, unless ordered by the supreme court. When the error alleged is to the charge of the court, the brief of the parties shall set out with appropriate transcript references the part referred to totidem verbis, whether it be directed to instructions given or instructions refused.

(g) Length of briefs and costs. Except by permission of the court briefs shall not exceed 50 pages of standard typographic printing or 70 pages of printing by any other process of duplicating or copying, exclusive of pages containing the table of contents, tables of citations and any addendum containing statutes, rules, regulations, etc. For purposes of assessing costs under Montana Code Annotated, section 25-10-104, reasonable costs shall be limited as follows: For appellant's brief 50 pages; for respondent's brief 40 pages; for reply brief 15 pages. In addition, reasonable costs for briefs shall be limited to $250 for appellant's brief and $200 for respondent's brief.

(h) Briefs in cases involving cross appeals. If a cross appeal is filed, the plaintiff in the court below shall be deemed the appellant for the purposes of this rule and Rules 25 and 26, unless the parties otherwise agree or the court otherwise orders. The brief of the respondent shall contain the issues and argument involved in his appeal as well as the answer to the brief of the appellant.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Rule 24. Brief of an amicus curiae.

A brief of an amicus curiae may be filed only if accompanied by written consent of all parties, or by leave of court granted on motion. A motion for leave shall identify the interest of the applicant and shall state the reasons why a brief of an amicus curiae is desirable. A motion of an amicus curiae for leave to participate in the oral argument will be granted only for extraordinary reasons.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 25. The appendix to the briefs.

(a) Use of an appendix. At the time before final decision, the supreme court may order an appendix to any brief. Also, either the appellant or respondent may, if he deems it desirable, prepare, file and serve with his brief an appendix.

(b) Contents of the appendix. Unless otherwise ordered by the supreme court, an appendix shall contain: (1) the relevant docket entries in the proceeding below; (2) any relevant pleading and relevant portions of the charge, finding and opinion; (3) the judgment, order or decision in question; and (4) such other parts of the record as any party deems it essential for the judges of the court to read in order to decide the issues presented. In designating parts of the record for inclusion in the appendix, the parties shall have regard for the fact that the entire record is always available to the court for reference or examination and shall not engage in unnecessary designation.

The relevant docket entries in the proceeding below shall follow the list of contents. Thereafter, the parts of the record shall be set out in chronological order. The original paging of each part of the record set out in the appendix shall be indicated by placing in brackets the number of the original page at the place where that page begins. Omissions in the text of papers or of testimony must be indicated by asterisks. A question and its answer may be contained in a single paragraph.

(d) Reproduction of exhibits. Exhibits may be contained in a separate volume, suitably indexed.

Rule 26. Filing and service of briefs.

(a) Time for filing briefs. The appellant shall serve and file his brief within 30 days after the date on which the record is filed. The respondent shall serve and file his brief within 30 days after service of the brief of the appellant. The appellant may serve and file a reply brief within 14 days after service of the brief of the respondent, but, except for good cause shown, a reply brief must be served and filed at least 3 days before argument.

(b) Number of copies to be filed and served. Ten copies of each brief shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court unless otherwise ordered by the court, and one copy of each brief shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented. The clerk will not accept a brief for filing unless it is accompanied by acknowledgment or proof of service as required by Rule 20.

(c) Consequences of failure to file briefs. If an appellant fails to file his brief within the time provided by this rule, or within the time extended, a respondent may move for dismissal of the appeal. If a respondent fails to file his brief, he will not be heard at oral argument except by permission of the court.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 27. Form of briefs, the appendix, motions and other papers.

(a) Form of briefs, appendices and separate volumes of exhibits. Briefs, appendices and separate volumes of exhibits may be produced by standard typographic printing or by any duplicating or copying process capable of producing a clear black image on white paper. Typewritten copies of briefs, appendices and separate volumes of exhibits may not be submitted without permission of the chief justice of the supreme court, except in behalf of parties allowed to proceed in forma pauperis. Pica solid is the smallest letter and the most compact form of composition allowed for all printed matter. Briefs, appendices and separate volumes of exhibits shall be on white uncalendered book paper in book or booklet form. If produced by the standard typographic printing process, the pages shall be 10 inches long and 7 inches wide, with a margin on the outer edge not less than 1 inch wide and on the inner edge not less than 2 inches wide. If produced by a duplicating or copying process, the pages shall be 11 inches long and 8 ½ inches wide, with a margin on the outer edge not less than 1 inch wide and on the inner edge not less than 2 inches wide. The pages shall be fastened at the side and numbered at the top.

(b) Typewritten papers and motions. Papers not required to be produced in a manner prescribed by subdivision (a) of this rule shall be plainly and legibly written by a typewriter with a new black ribbon and new black carbon paper of good grade, in double spacing, except that quotations may be single spaced, on one side only of white typewriter paper, 8 ½ inches wide and 13 inches long, numbered at the bottom, with a ruled margin of 1 ½ inches on the left-hand side of the page and 1 inch on the right-hand side, and numbered lines, not more than 32 lines to the page. The pages shall be bound at the left-hand side into volumes not containing more than 250 pages; provided, however, that if the pages number 50 or less they may be bound at the top.

In collating typewritten papers the copies shall not be mixed, but each copy shall consist throughout of uniform pages. Each page of every copy shall be opaque and each line of print thereon plainly legible. The difficulty of examining transparent, illegible and nonuniform typewritten copies has become so great that this rule will be strictly applied and papers not complying with it will not be received.

(c) First page and cover. All papers shall be bound in cardboard or pasteboard covers, unless bound at the top under subdivision (b) of this rule, in which case they may be bound in cover paper. On the first page and cover of all papers must be stated the title of this court, the title of the case as in the court below, adding to the words "Plaintiff" and "Defendant," the words "Appellant" and "Respondent" as the case may require, the names of counsel for appellant and respondent, the title of the papers, as "Appellant's Brief," "Appendix to Appellant's Brief," etc., and the venue from which the appeal is taken.

Rule 28. Prehearing conference.

The court may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before the court or a judge thereof for a prehearing conference to consider the simplification of the issues and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the proceedings by the court. The court or judge shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered and which limits the issue to those not disposed of by admission or agreements of counsel, and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the proceedings, unless modified to prevent manifest injustice.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 29. Oral argument.

(a) Notice of hearing — postponement. The clerk shall advise all parties of the time and place at which oral argument will be heard. A request for postponement of the hearing must be made by motion filed reasonably in advance of the date fixed for hearing.

(b) Time allowed for argument. Upon oral argument of an appeal or original proceeding, 40 minutes will be allowed appellant or applicant and 30 minutes to respondent. If counsel is of the opinion that additional time is necessary for the adequate presentation of his argument, he may request such additional time as he deems necessary by motion filed reasonably in advance of the date fixed for hearing. A party is not obliged to use all of the time allowed, and the court may terminate the argument whenever in its judgment further argument is unnecessary.

(c) Order and content of argument. The appellant or applicant is entitled to open and conclude the argument. The opening argument shall include a fair statement of the case, and the closing argument shall be limited to rebuttal of respondent's argument. Counsel will not be permitted to read at length from briefs, records or authorities.

(d) Cross and separate appeals. A cross or separate appeal shall be argued with the initial appeal at a single hearing, unless the court otherwise directs. If a case involves a cross appeal, the plaintiff in the action below shall be deemed the appellant for the purpose of this rule unless the parties otherwise agree or the court otherwise directs. If separate appellants support the same argument, care shall be taken to avoid duplication of argument at the hearing.

(e) Nonappearance of counsel — failure to file briefs. If counsel for a party fails to appear to present argument, the court may hear argument on behalf of a party whose counsel is present, and the case will be decided on the briefs and the argument heard. If no counsel appear for any party, the case will be decided on the briefs unless the court shall otherwise order.

(f) Submission on briefs. By agreement of the parties, a case may be submitted for decision on the briefs, but the court may direct that the case be argued.

(g) Use of physical exhibits at hearing — removal. If physical exhibits other than documents are to be used at the hearing, counsel shall arrange to have them placed in the courtroom before the court convenes on the date of the hearing. After the hearing counsel shall cause the exhibits to be removed from the courtroom unless the court otherwise directs. If exhibits are not reclaimed by counsel within a reasonable time after notice is given by the clerk, they shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the clerk shall think best.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 30. Entry and notice of orders and judgments.

(a) Entry and notice. The notation of a judgment or order in the docket constitutes entry thereof. Upon entry of a judgment or order, the clerk shall promptly mail to all parties a copy of the judgment or order, and notice of the date of entry thereof.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 31. Interest on judgments.

If a judgment for money in a civil case is affirmed, whatever interest is allowed by law shall be payable from the date the judgment was rendered or made in the district court. If a judgment is modified or reversed with a direction that a judgment for money be entered in the district court, the mandate shall contain instructions with respect to allowance of interest.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 32. Damages for appeal without merit.

If the supreme court is satisfied from the record and the presentation of the appeal, that the same was taken without substantial or reasonable grounds, but apparently for purposes of delay only, such damages may be assessed on determination thereof as under the circumstances are deemed proper.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 33. Costs.

(a) Costs on appeal. Costs on appeal will be taxed as provided by Montana Code Annotated, section 25-10-104, and if not otherwise provided by the court in its decision, will automatically be awarded to the successful party against the other party. All costs on appeal shall be claimed as provided by section 25-10-503, Montana Code Annotated.

(b) Costs of briefs and appendices. The cost of printing or otherwise producing briefs and appendices shall be taxable at rates not higher than specified in Rule 23(g).

(c) Other costs taxable. Costs incurred in the preparation and transmission of the record, the cost of the reporter's transcript, if necessary for the determination of the appeal, the premiums paid for cost of supersedeas bonds or other bonds to preserve rights pending appeal, and the fee for filing notice of appeal shall be taxed in the district court as costs of the appeal in favor of the party entitled to costs under this rule.

(d) Costs in original proceedings. Costs in original proceedings, including reviews other than by appeal, will be taxed as provided by Montana Code Annotated, sections 25-10-101, 25-10-102, 25-10-103, and 25-10-105, and if not otherwise provided by the court in its decision, will be awarded to the successful party against the other party; provided, however, that costs awarded to plaintiff or relator in special proceedings to review inferior court rulings, orders or judgments will ordinarily be assessed against the real party in interest, namely, the party interested in upholding the inferior court's action, rather than against the state, county, municipality, subdivision, judge or justice.

(e) Unnecessary costs. Whenever it appears that the successful party has caused any redundant, useless or unnecessary matter to be incorporated in the record, briefs, or appendices, whether on appeal or in a special proceeding, he shall not recover as part of his costs so much of the expense as is occasioned thereby.

(f) Notation by clerk. The clerk of the supreme court shall, in all cases, include in the order of judgment of affirmance, reversal or modification on appeal, or for the issuance of a peremptory writ in an original proceeding, and in the remittitur, peremptory writ or judgment, a clause awarding the costs in accordance with this rule or the special order of this court, to be recovered after claim and ascertainment or taxation thereof in the manner prescribed by law; and the clerk shall also furnish therewith an itemized statement of such costs as have been paid by him.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-8, Sept. 10, 1968, eff. Jan. 1, 1969.

Rule 34. Petitions for rehearing.

When, in appeals or special proceedings, it is ordered that remittitur, peremptory writ or judgment issue forthwith, no petition for rehearing will be entertained. In all other cases a petition for rehearing may be filed within 10 days after the decision of the supreme court has been rendered, unless the time is shortened or enlarged by order, and the adverse party shall have 7 days thereafter in which to serve and file his objections thereto. Extensions of time will be granted only upon showing of unusual merit, and in no event in excess of 10 days. A petition for rehearing may be presented upon the following grounds and none other: That some fact, material to the decision, or some question decisive of the case submitted by counsel, was overlooked by the court, or that the decision is in conflict with an express statute or controlling decision to which the attention of the court was not directed. Oral argument in support of the petition will not be permitted. Six copies of the petition and six copies of objections thereto, which may be in typewritten form, shall be filed with the clerk.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Rule 35. Notice and copy of decision — remittitur — mandate from United States supreme court.

(a) Notice and copy of decision to be furnished. Upon the decision of a cause, notice thereof, together with a copy of the court's written decision, will immediately be mailed to counsel for each party.

(b) Remittitur — when issued — when copy of opinion to accompany. Remittitur may, in cases where it is deemed proper, be ordered forthwith; otherwise the same shall be issued promptly upon expiration of time for filing petition for rehearing, or, if such petition is filed, then upon the denial thereof, unless a modification of the decision is made which permits a further petition for rehearing. A copy of the opinion must accompany the remittitur when the judgment or order of the trial court is reversed or modified and the case remanded for further proceedings other than the entry of a final judgment or order terminating the proceedings in the trial court.

(c) Mandate from United States supreme court — procedure thereon. Upon receipt by the clerk of the supreme court of Montana of a mandate from the supreme court of the United States in any case at law or in equity theretofore taken from the supreme court of Montana to the supreme court of the United States, it shall be the duty of said clerk forthwith to issue under his hand and the seal of the supreme court of Montana a remittitur to the district court by which the judgment was rendered, commanding such court to take such action in the premises as by the mandate shall be proper, and said remittitur shall also contain therein a recital in haec verba of the said mandate, and all the costs subsequent to the appeal from said district court shall be taxed in such remittitur.

Rule 36. Voluntary dismissal.

If the parties to an appeal or other proceeding shall sign and file with the clerk an agreement that the proceeding be dismissed, specifying the terms as to payment of costs, and shall pay whatever fees are due, the clerk shall enter the case dismissed, and shall give to each party a copy of the agreement filed; but no mandate or other process shall issue without an order of the court. An appeal may be dismissed on motion of the appellant upon such terms as to costs as may be agreed upon by the parties or fixed by the court. If an appeal has not been docketed the appeal may be dismissed by the court from which the appeal was taken upon the filing in that court of a stipulation for dismissal signed by all parties, or upon motion and notice by the appellant.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 37. Substitution of parties.

(a) Death of a party. If a party dies after a notice of appeal is filed or while a proceeding is otherwise pending in the supreme court, the personal representative of the deceased party may be substituted as a party on motion filed by the representative or by any party with the clerk of the supreme court. The motion of a party shall be served upon the representative in accordance with the provisions of Rule 20. If the deceased party has no representative, any party may suggest the death on the record and proceedings shall then be had as the supreme court may direct. If a party against whom an appeal may be taken dies after entry of a judgment or order in the district court but before a notice of appeal is filed, an appellant may proceed as if death had not occurred. After the notice of appeal is filed substitution shall be effected in the supreme court in accordance with this subdivision. If a party entitled to appeal shall die before filing a notice of appeal, the notice of appeal may be filed by his personal representative, or, if he has no personal representative, by his attorney of record within the time prescribed by these rules. After the notice of appeal is filed substitution shall be effected in the supreme court in accordance with this subdivision.

(b) Substitution for other causes. If substitution of a party in the supreme court is necessary for any reason other than death, substitution shall be effected in accordance with the procedure prescribed in subdivision (a).

(c) Public officers — death or separation from office.

(1) When a public officer is a party to an appeal or other proceeding in the supreme court in his official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and his successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.

(2) When a public officer is a party to an appeal or other proceeding he may be described as a party by his official title rather than by name; but the court may require his name to be added.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 38. Cases involving constitutional questions where the state is not a party.

It shall be the duty of counsel who challenges the constitutionality of any act of the Montana legislature in any suit or proceeding in the supreme court to which the state of Montana, or any agency thereof, or any officer or employee thereof, as such officer or employee, is not a party, upon the filing of the record to give immediate notice in writing to the court of the existence of said question, specifying the section of the code or the chapter of the session law to be construed. The clerk shall thereupon certify such fact to the attorney general of the state of Montana.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 39. Calendar — withdrawal of records.

(a) Placing causes upon calendar. Thirty days after the appellant's brief has been filed, the cause shall be placed on the calendar as ready for oral argument.

(b) Setting causes for argument. As often as found convenient, causes on the calendar will be set for argument by the court in the chronological order in which they have been placed on the calendar, except such causes as are determined entitled to precedence or as otherwise ordered by the court. Oral arguments will not be heard during the months of July and August.

(c) Advancement of causes. Appeals from orders dissolving, refusing to dissolve, granting or refusing to grant writs of injunction, appeals from orders dissolving or refusing to dissolve attachments, appeals from orders appointing or refusing to appoint receivers, appeals from orders or judgments holding appellant in custody, and workmen's compensation appeals, are entitled to precedence and will, upon motion of either party, be advanced on the calendar.

(d) Permission to take record from clerk's office. The records and other papers of the supreme court shall not be taken therefrom except by counsel pursuant to a written order of a justice of the court, which order shall specify the time the same may be retained out of the clerk's office; provided, that the court or a justice thereof may require the same to be returned within a shorter period upon notice. The clerk shall preserve each order and counsel's receipt until the papers therein mentioned shall be returned.

Rule 40. Appeals from injunction orders.

Upon appeal from an order dissolving or refusing an injunction, if the appellant desires to continue in force the injunction order dissolved by the district court, or to obtain such injunction order pending the appeal, he shall apply to the district court under Rule 62 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure. In the event the relief there requested be not granted he may file in the supreme court his sworn application, setting forth the proceedings appealed from and the relief desired, and present with it to the supreme court, a verified copy of the affidavits or evidence used on the hearing in the district court. Such application will be heard ex parte and without argument, and the court, upon such record will make such order in the premises as may be proper.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Rule 41. Statutes and rules amended.

[This rule amended Rule 72 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, and Montana Code Annotated, sections 25-9-301, 25-12-101, 25-12-102, 25-33-101, 25-33-205(2), 25-33-206, and 70-30-312. For text of amendments see the designated sections.]

Rule 42. Applicability in general.

(a) Special statutory proceedings. The statutory proceedings listed in Table A of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure and any other special statutory proceedings, whether or not listed in said Table A, are excepted from these rules insofar as they are inconsistent or in conflict with the procedure and practice provided by these rules.

(b) Appeals to district courts. These rules do not supersede the provisions of statutes relating to appeals to or review by the district courts, which shall govern procedure and practice relating thereto insofar as they are not inconsistent with these rules.

(c) Rules incorporated into statutes. Where any statute heretofore or hereafter enacted, whether or not applicable to a special statutory proceeding or listed in any table appended hereto, provides that any act in a civil proceeding in a district court or in the Montana supreme court shall be done in the manner provided by law or as in a civil action or as provided by any statute superseded by these rules, such act shall be done in accordance with these rules and the procedure thereon shall conform to these rules, insofar as practicable.

Compiler's Comments

Table A. The Code Commissioner has not reprinted Table A in the MCA because it was never intended to be a complete listing, has not been updated since 1963, contains a high percentage of repealed sections, and is generally obsolete and not very useful. Interested persons may find it in the 1964 main volume of R.C.M. 1947, Vol. 7.

Rule 43. Title — effective date — statutes superseded.

(a) Title. These rules shall be known as the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure and may be cited as M.R.App.Civ.P.

(b) Effective date and application to pending proceedings. These rules will take effect on January 1, 1966. Part 1

General Provisions

25-31-101. Issues which cannot be presented in justice's court. (1) The parties to an action in a justice's court cannot give evidence upon any question which involves the title or possession of real property or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, nor can any issue presenting such question be tried by such court; provided that, in cases of forcible entry and unlawful detainer of which justices' courts have jurisdiction, any evidence otherwise competent may be given, and any question properly involved therein may be determined.

(2) A justice's court may not hear evidence on or try any issue involving the state's liability to make a payment of money, regardless of the basis of the claim against the state.

History: En. Sec. 593, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Sec. 699, p. 176, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 759, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 779, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; en. Sec. 1486, C. Civ. 25-31-102. Transfer to district court — dismissal. (1) If it appears from the answer of the defendant, verified by his oath, that the determination of the action will necessarily involve the question of title or possession to real property or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, the justice must suspend all further proceedings in the action and certify the pleadings and, if any of the pleadings are oral, a transcript of the same from his docket to the clerk of the district court of the county. From the time of the certification of such pleadings or transcript to the clerk, the district court shall have over the action the same jurisdiction as if it had been commenced therein. When the action is certified to the district court, upon the answer of the defendant, he must file an undertaking, to be approved by the justice, to the effect that he will pay all costs that may be awarded against him on the trial in the district court.

(2) If it appears at any point in the proceedings in a justice's court that the determination of the action will involve the question of the state's liability to make a payment of money, the justice shall sever that issue and dismiss the action as to it. If the issue is not severable, the justice shall dismiss the entire action.

History: En. Sec. 593, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Sec. 699, p. 176, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 759, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 779, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; en. Sec. 1486, C. Civ. 25-31-505. Answer. The answer may contain a general denial of any or all the material facts stated in the complaint which the defendant believes to be untrue and also a statement, in a plain and direct manner, of any other facts containing a defense or counterclaim upon which an action might be brought by the defendant against the plaintiff in a justice's court. Senate Bill 468 (Chapter 348) was passed and approved; therefore sec. 119, Ch. 575, L. 1981, did not amend 25-31-506.

25-31-511. Pleading an account or instrument. When the cause of action or the defense or counterclaim arises upon an account or instrument for the payment of money only, it shall be sufficient for the party to deliver a copy of the account or instrument to the party demanding it and to state that there is due to him thereon from the adverse party a specified sum, but the court may, at any time, require the original account or instrument to be exhibited to the inspection of the adverse party and a copy to be furnished or, if it be not so exhibited and a copy furnished, may prohibit its being afterwards given in evidence unless it appear that such instrument is not in the possession of the party pleading it or under his control. The court may, at any time, require either party to furnish to the other the items of an account or a bill of particulars.

25-31-521. Amendment of pleadings. Either party may, at any time before the conclusion of the trial, amend any pleading; but if the amendment is made after the issue is raised at trial and it appears to the satisfaction of the court, upon hearing the argument of the adverse party under oath, that an adjournment is necessary to the adverse party in consequence of such amendment, an adjournment must be granted. When an adjournment will be rendered necessary by the amendment, the court may also, in its discretion, require as a condition to the allowance of such amendment, made after issue joined, the payment of costs to the adverse party, to be fixed by the court, not exceeding $20.

Time of Trial — Postponements

25-31-701. Fixing day of trial — notice. When all parties served with process shall have appeared or some of them have appeared and the remaining defendants have made default, the justice must fix a day for the trial of said cause and notify the plaintiffs and the defendants who have appeared thereof.

25-31-702. Trial to be timely. Unless postponed as provided in this part or transferred to another court, the trial of the action may commence at the time set by the court as specified in the notice mentioned in 25-31-701, and after the trial has commenced there must be no adjournment for more than 24 hours at any one time until all the issues therein are disposed of.

History: En. Sec. 1590, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7033, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9666, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 873; re-en. Sec. 9666, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-7101; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 125, L. 1979.

25-31-703. Postponement by motion of court. The court may, of its own motion, postpone the trial:

(1) for not exceeding 1 day if, at the time fixed by law or by an order of the court for the trial, the court is engaged in the trial of another action;

(2) for not exceeding 2 days if, by an amendment of the pleadings or the allowance of time to make such amendment or to plead, a postponement is rendered necessary;

(3) for not exceeding 3 days if the trial is upon issues of fact and a jury has been demanded.

25-31-705. Postponement upon application of a party — proof required. The trial may be postponed upon the application of either party for a period not exceeding 4 months. The party making the application must prove, by his own oath or otherwise, that he cannot, for want of material testimony which he expects to procure, safely proceed to trial and must show in what respect the testimony expected is material and that he has used due diligence to procure it and has been unable to do so.

History: En. Sec. 596, p. 161, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Sec. 702, p. 177, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 762, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 782, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; en. Sec. 1593, C. Civ. 25-31-706. No postponement when expected evidence admitted. The court may require the party making the application to state, upon affidavit, the evidence which he expects to obtain; and if the adverse party thereupon admit that such evidence would be given and that it be considered as actually given on the trial or offered and overruled as improper, the trial must not be postponed.

History: En. Sec. 596, p. 161, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Sec. 702, p. 177, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 762, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 782, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; en. Sec. 1593, C. Civ. 25-31-707. Procedure when defendant under arrest. (1) If the application is on the part of the plaintiff and the defendant is under arrest, a postponement for more than 3 hours discharges the defendant from custody; but the action may proceed, notwithstanding, and the defendant is subject to arrest on execution in the same manner as if he had not been discharged.

(2) If the application is on the part of a defendant under arrest, before it can be granted he must execute an undertaking, with two or more sufficient sureties to be approved by and in a sum to be fixed by the justice, to the effect that he will render himself amenable to the process of the court during the pendency of the action and to such as may be issued to enforce the judgment therein, or that the sureties will pay to the plaintiff the amount of any judgment which he may recover in the action, not exceeding the amount specified in the undertaking. On filing the undertaking specified in this subsection, the justice may order the defendant discharged from custody.

25-31-708. Deposition of witnesses upon postponement. The party making the application must, if required by the adverse party, consent that the testimony of any witness of such adverse party who is in attendance may be then taken by deposition before the justice and that the testimony so taken may be read on trial with the same effect and subject to the objections as if the witness were produced.

25-31-709. Time limit on adjournment — undertaking. No adjournment may be granted upon the application of either party for a period longer than 10 days unless the opposite party consents or the party applying files an undertaking, in an amount fixed by the justice, with two sureties to be approved by the justice, to the effect that they will pay to the opposite party the amount of any judgment which may be recovered against the party applying, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking.

Trial

25-31-801. Issue defined, types of issues. Issues arise upon the pleadings when a fact or conclusion of law is maintained by the one party and is controverted by the other. They are of two kinds:

(1) of law; and
(2) of fact.

25-31-802. When issues of fact arise. An issue of fact arises:

(1) whenever a material allegation in the complaint is controverted by the answer; and

When so filed and from the time of filing, the judgment becomes a lien upon all real property of the judgment debtor, not exempt from execution, in such county, owned by him at the time or which he may afterwards and before the lien expires acquire. The lien continues for 6 years unless the judgment be previously satisfied.

1981 Amendment: Substituted "clerk" for "justice"; and substituted "6 years" for "5 years".

25-31-1102. Form and content of execution. The execution must be directed to the sheriff or to a constable of the county and must be subscribed by the justice and bear the date of the day of its issuance. It must intelligibly refer to the judgment by stating the names of the parties; the name of the justice before whom, the county where, and the time when it was rendered; the amount of the judgment if it be for money; and if less than the whole is due, the true amount due thereon. It must contain, in like cases, similar directions to the sheriff or constable as are required by the provisions of chapter 13 in an execution to the sheriff, except that it shall not direct the officer to in any manner levy upon or satisfy the judgment or any interest thereon from any real property.

An execution may, at the request of the judgment creditor, be renewed before the expiration of the time fixed for its return, by the word "renewed" written thereon, with the date thereof, and subscribed by the justice. Such renewal has the effect of an original issue and may be repeated as often as necessary. If an execution is returned unsatisfied, another may be afterward issued.

Undertaking on Appeal — Stay of Execution

25-33-201. Undertaking on appeal. (1) An appeal from a justice's or city court is not effectual for any purpose unless an undertaking be filed, with two or more sureties, in a sum equal to twice the amount of the judgment, including costs, when the judgment is for the payment of money. The undertaking must be conditioned, when the action is for the recovery of money, that the appellant will pay the amount of the judgment appealed from and all costs if the appeal be withdrawn or dismissed or the amount of any judgment and all costs that may be recovered against him in the action in the district court.

(2) An appeal from a justice's or city court is not effectual for any purpose unless an undertaking be filed, with two or more sureties, in a sum equal to twice the value of the property, including costs, when the judgment is for the recovery of specific personal property. When the action is for the recovery of specific personal property, the undertaking must be conditioned that the appellant will pay the judgment and costs appealed from and obey the order of the court made therein if the appeal be withdrawn or dismissed or pay any judgment and costs that may be recovered against him in said action in the district court and obey any order made by the court therein.

(3) When the judgment appealed from directs the delivery of possession of real property, the execution of the same cannot be stayed unless a written undertaking be executed on the part of the appellant, with two or more sureties, to the effect that:

(a) during the possession of such property by the appellant, he will not commit or suffer to be committed any waste thereon; and

(b) if the appeal be dismissed or withdrawn or the judgment affirmed or judgment be recovered against him in the action in the district court, he will pay the value of the use and occupation of the property from the time of the appeal until the delivery of possession thereof or he will pay any judgment and costs that may be recovered against him in said action in the district court, not exceeding a sum to be fixed by the justice or judge of the court from which the appeal is to be taken, which sum must be specified in the undertaking.

Such officer must, upon the payment of his fees for services rendered on the execution, thereupon relinquish all property levied upon and deliver the same to the judgment debtor, together with all moneys collected from sales or otherwise. 25-33-304. Dismissal of appeal upon delay — costs and damages. For a failure to prosecute an appeal or unnecessary delay in bringing it to a hearing, the district court may order the appeal to be dismissed, with costs; and if it appear to such court that the appeal was made solely for delay, it may add to the costs such damages as may be just, not exceeding 25% of the judgment appealed from.

General Provisions — Jurisdiction

25-34-101. Purpose — liberal construction. It is the purpose of this chapter to provide a speedy remedy in claims falling hereunder and to promote a forum in which such claims may be heard and disposed of without the necessity of formal trial. For this reason, the provisions hereof should be liberally construed to provide an informal but equitable means of justice, and the small claims court judges are required to assist all parties before them to obtain substantial justice.

History: En. 93-328 by Sec. 7, Ch. 519, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 93-328.

25-34-102. Jurisdiction — joinder. (1) The small claims court has original jurisdiction in all actions for the recovery of money or specific personal property when such action arises out of a contract, express or implied, the amount of the claim, exclusive of costs, does not exceed $1,500, and the defendant can be served within the county or counties for which the small claims court has been created.

(2) More than one claim may be joined if all claims joined would separately meet the requirements for jurisdiction in the small claims court and the total value of money claimed or property sought does not exceed $1,500.

25-34-103. Removal from district court. A district court judge may require any action filed in district court to be removed to the small claims court if the amount in controversy does not exceed $1,500. The small claims court shall hear any action so removed from the district court.

25-34-104. Venue. Proper venue for actions commenced in small claims court is the same as that provided by law for civil actions commenced in district court.

25-34-105. Parties — representation. (1) Parties in the small claims court may be individuals, partnerships, corporations, unions, associations, or any other kind of organization or entity, except the state or any agency thereof.

(2) A party may not be represented by an attorney unless all parties are represented by an attorney in a small claims court, except as set forth in subsection (3) herein.

(3) An individual shall represent himself in the small claims court. A partnership shall be represented by a partner or one of its employees. A union shall be represented by a union member or union employee. A corporation shall be represented by one of its employees. An association shall be represented by one of its members or by an employee of the association. Any other kind of organization or entity shall be represented by one of its members or employees.

(4) Only a party, natural or otherwise, who has been a party to the transaction with the defendant for which the claim is brought may file and prosecute a claim in the small claims court.

(5) No party may file an assigned claim in the small claims court.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an executor or administrator of a decedent's estate, a guardian, or a conservator may be a party in the small claims court.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Substituted "plus" for "for" in (2)(b); made minor changes in grammar and punctuation.

25-34-204. Hearing date. The date for the appearance of the defendant to be set forth in the order shall be determined by the clerk of court in accordance with rules adopted by the small claims judge and shall not be more than 30 or less than 10 days from the date of the order. Service of the order and copy of the affidavit shall be made upon the defendant not less than 7 days prior to the date set for his appearance by the order. If the order is not timely served, plaintiff may have a new appearance date set by the clerk and a new order issued and delivered to the sheriff, and, if necessary, repeated orders may be issued at any time within 1 year after the commencement of the action.

25-34-205. Service on defendant. The original order shall be shown to the defendant and a copy of it along with a copy of the affidavit shall be served upon the defendant by the sheriff in the same manner provided by law for service of process in civil actions in district court. The provisions of law relating to sheriff's fees are applicable to this section.

History: En. 93-334 by Sec. 13, Ch. 519, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 93-334.

25-34-206. Return of service. The sheriff, after effecting service, shall make return upon the original order and file it with the clerk of court.

History: En. 93-336 by Sec. 15, Ch. 519, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 93-336.

25-34-207. Defendant's counterclaim. (1) If the defendant wishes to assert a counterclaim against the plaintiff, he shall file a written answer setting forth his counterclaim against the plaintiff and shall cause the answer to be served upon the plaintiff not less than 72 hours before the date set for the hearing. Service shall be made in the same manner in which service is made upon the defendant.

(2) A counterclaim or setoff may not exceed $1,500. If a counterclaim or setoff is asserted in excess of $1,500, the jurisdiction of the small claims court over the plaintiff's claim is not defeated, but the court shall limit its determination of the counterclaim or setoff to the question of whether plaintiff's claim is discharged thereby, leaving defendant to prosecute the balance of his claim in appropriate district court action.

25-34-208. Clerk's fees. (1) The clerk of court shall collect a fee of $5:

Part 3

The Trial

25-34-301. Jury — waiver — request. The plaintiff, by filing the affidavit for a proceeding in small claims court, waives the right to jury trial. Defendant may request a jury, provided such request is made not less than 48 hours prior to the date set for hearing. If defendant pleads a counterclaim or setoff, he too waives a jury trial. If a jury is requested, it shall be impaneled in the same fashion as provided for district court juries in civil cases involving less than $10,000.

25-34-302. Proceedings informal — court reporters. (1) If the action is tried to the court, the proceedings shall be informal to the extent possible in order to dispense speedy justice to the parties. A reporter is not necessary unless the judge finds the issues sufficiently complex that a record is desirable, in which case he shall make arrangements with a court reporter of the district court to take the testimony. The judge shall make findings of fact sufficient to establish in full the basis of his judgment and shall file them with his judgment.

(2) If a jury is impaneled, it shall try all issues of fact, and in such case there shall be a court reporter.

25-34-303. Evidence — subpoena power. Both parties have the right to offer evidence, written and oral, and the judge may direct the production of evidence as he deems appropriate. The small claims court has the subpoena power granted to district courts in civil cases.

History: En. 93-341 by Sec. 20, Ch. 519, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 93-341.

Part 4

History: En. 93-342 by Sec. 21, Ch. 519, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 93-342.

25-34-402. Costs. The prevailing party in an action before the small claims court is entitled to costs.

History: En. 93-344 by Sec. 23, Ch. 519, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 93-344(3).

25-34-403. Appeals. (1) If either party is dissatisfied with the judgment of the small claims court, he may appeal to the district court of the county in which the judgment was rendered, in accordance with the procedure prescribed in chapter 33. Any such appeal must be tried de novo.

(2) In the event that the parties are represented by counsel on appeal, the judge may grant the prevailing party, in addition to costs, reasonable attorney fees.

Compiler's Comments

History: En. 93-338 by Sec. 17, Ch. 519, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 93-338(part).

Chapter Compiler's Comments

Preamble: The preamble to SB 485 (Ch. 586, L. 1981) read:

"WHEREAS, in 1977 the Montana Legislature enacted the provisions of Chapter 572, Laws of 1977, creating a small claims court within justices' courts in Montana, which provisions are codified as Title 25, chapter 35, MCA; and

WHEREAS, the small claims procedure makes no provision for a jury trial, provides that one party may not be represented by an attorney if the other party is not so represented, and provides that an appeal from the small claims court is to be tried on the record of the case and is not to be tried as a trial de novo; and

WHEREAS, the Montana Supreme Court has held in the case of North Central Services, Inc. v. Hafdahl, ___Mont.___, 625 P2d 56 [38 St. Rep. 372], (Civil No. 80-228, decided March 11, 1981), that the cumulative effect of these provisions is to deny the right to a jury trial and the right to counsel at every stage of the factual determination of a case in small claims court; and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court therefore held section 25-35-403(2), MCA, to be unconstitutional and also held the remainder of Title 25, chapter 35, unconstitutional and void for the reason that it could not be severed from section 25-35-403(2), MCA.

THEREFORE, it is the intent of the Legislature to cure the unconstitutionality of Title 25, chapter 35, by repealing and reenacting those provisions with such changes as to cure the unconstitutionality of those provisions."

1981 Title: The title to SB 485 (Ch. 586, L. 1981) read: "An act to create a small claims court procedure within justices' courts; providing for jurisdiction of the small claims court, the method of commencing actions, hearings, counterclaims, subpoena powers, removal to justice's court, and appeals to district court; amending sections 3-10-1001, 3-10-1004, and 25-31-112, MCA; repealing Title 25, chapter 35, MCA; and providing an immediate effective date.

Effective Date: Section 30, Ch. 586, L. 1981, provided: "This act is effective on passage and approval." Approved May 1, 1981.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 586, L. 1981.

25-35-603. Hearing date. The date for the appearance of the defendant to be set forth in the order shall be determined by the justice of the peace or by his clerk and may not be more than 40 or less than 10 days from the date of the order. Service of the order and a copy of the sworn complaint shall be made upon the defendant not less than 5 days prior to the date set for his appearance by the order. If the order is not timely served, the plaintiff may have a new appearance date set by the justice of the peace or his clerk and a new order issued and delivered to the sheriff, constable, or other process server. If necessary, repeated orders may be issued at any time within 1 year after the commencement of the action.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 586, L. 1981.

25-35-604. Service on defendant — return. (1) The original of the order and notice shall be shown to the defendant, and a copy of it along with a copy of the sworn complaint shall be served upon the defendant by the sheriff, constable, or other process server in the same manner provided by law for service of process in civil actions in justice's court. The provisions of law relating to sheriff's fees are applicable to this section.

(2) The sheriff, constable, or other process server shall, after effecting service, return the original order to the justice of the peace or his clerk.

History: En. Secs. 9, 10, Ch. 586, L. 1981.

25-35-605. Removal to justice's court — effect of failure to remove. (1) Any action commenced in small claims court may be removed to justice's court by a defendant upon the filing of a notice of removal with the justice within 40 days of the service of the complaint and order. From the time of filing of the notice of removal, the court to which the action is removed has and exercises the same jurisdiction over it as though the action had been originally commenced in such court.

(2) Upon the filing of a notice of removal, the court shall give notice of that fact to all other parties to the action. All rules and statutes governing proceedings originally commenced in justice's court, including rules and statutes governing appeals from justice's court, are applicable to proceedings removed to justice's court, except that a plaintiff is not required to replead unless the court so orders, and no fee shall be required of a plaintiff for the filing of a complaint if a fee for filing was paid in small claims court.

(3) Failure to request removal within the time provided in subsection (1) constitutes a waiver by the defendant of his right to a trial by jury and representation by an attorney, and the justice shall inform the defendant of such fact prior to commencement of the hearing.

History: En. Secs. 17, 18, Ch. 586, L. 1981.

25-35-606. Defendant's counterclaim. (1) The defendant may assert a counterclaim against the plaintiff arising out of the same transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim by appearing before the justice of the peace and executing a sworn small claims counterclaim in substantially the same form as set forth in subsection (3). The defendant shall cause the counterclaim to be served on the plaintiff not less than 72 hours before the date set for the hearing. Service shall be made in the same manner in which service of the order of court/notice to defendant is made on the defendant. A defendant may not assert as a counterclaim any claim not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim.

(2) A counterclaim or setoff may not exceed $1,500. If a counterclaim or setoff is asserted in excess of $1,500, the jurisdiction of the small claims court over the plaintiff's claim is not defeated, but the court shall limit its determination of the counterclaim or setoff to the question of whether the plaintiff's claim is discharged thereby, leaving the defendant to prosecute the balance of his claim in an appropriate justice or district court action.

(3) The counterclaim shall be made on a blank substantially in the following form:

Definitions and Miscellaneous Provisions

26-1-101. General definitions. (1) The examination of a witness by the party producing him is denominated the "direct examination"; the examination of the same witness upon the same matter by the adverse party, the "cross-examination". The direct examination must be completed before the cross-examination begins unless the court otherwise directs.

(2) "Judicial evidence" is the means, sanctioned by law, of ascertaining in a judicial proceeding the truth respecting a question of fact.

(3) A question which suggests to the witness the answer which the examining party desires is denominated a "leading question" or "suggestive question". On a direct examination leading questions are not allowed, except in the sound discretion of the court under special circumstances making it appear that the interests of justice require it.

(4) "Proof" is the effect of evidence, the establishment of a fact by evidence.

(5) A "witness" is a person whose declaration under oath is received as evidence for any purpose, whether such declaration be made on oral examination or by deposition or affidavit.

26-1-102. Definitions — kinds of evidence. (1) (a) "Conclusive evidence" or "unanswerable evidence" is that which the law does not permit to be contradicted. For example, the record of a court of competent jurisdiction cannot be contradicted by the parties to it.

(b) No evidence is by law made conclusive or unanswerable unless so declared by this code.

(2) "Cumulative evidence" is additional evidence of the same character to the same point.

(3) "Direct evidence" is that which proves the fact in dispute directly, without an inference or presumption, and which in itself, if true, conclusively establishes that fact. For example, if the fact in dispute be an agreement, the evidence of a witness who was present and witnessed the making of it is direct.

(4) (a) "Indirect evidence" is that which tends to establish the fact in dispute by proving another and which, though true, does not of itself conclusively establish that fact but affords an inference or presumption of its existence. For example, a witness proves an admission of the party to the fact in dispute. This proves a fact from which the fact in dispute is inferred.

(b) Indirect evidence is of two kinds:

(i) inferences; and

(ii) presumptions.

(5) "Prima facie evidence" is that which suffices for the proof of a particular fact until contradicted and overcome by other evidence. For example, the certificate of a recording officer is prima facie evidence of a record, but it may afterward be rejected upon proof that there is no such record.

26-1-103. Declaration, act, or omission which is a part of the transaction. Where the declaration, act, or omission forms part of a transaction which is itself the fact in dispute or evidence of that fact, such declaration, act, or omission is evidence as part of the transaction.

26-1-104. Evidence of third person's obligation. Where the question in dispute between the parties is the obligation or duty of a third person, whatever would be the evidence for or against such person is prima facie evidence between the parties.

26-1-106. Explanation of alterations in a writing. The party producing a writing as genuine which has been altered or appears to have been altered after its execution in a part material to the question in dispute must account for the appearance or alteration. He may show that the alteration was made by another without his concurrence, was made with the consent of the parties affected by it, or was otherwise properly or innocently made or that the alteration did not change the meaning or language of the instrument. If he does that, he may give the writing in evidence, but not otherwise.

Province of Court and Jury

26-1-201. Questions of law. All questions of law, including the admissibility of testimony, the facts preliminary to such admission, the construction of statutes and other writings, and other rules of evidence, are to be decided by the court, and all discussions of law addressed to it. Whenever the knowledge of the court is, by this code, made evidence of a fact, the court is to declare such knowledge to the jury, which is bound to accept it.

26-1-202. Questions of fact. All questions of fact, where the trial is by jury, other than those mentioned in 26-1-201 are to be decided by the jury, and all evidence thereon is to be addressed to them, except when otherwise provided by this code.

26-1-203. Who to judge effect or value of evidence. The jury, subject to the control of the court, in the cases specified in this code, is the judge of the effect or value of evidence addressed to it, except when the evidence is declared to be conclusive.

History: En. Sec. 3390, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 8028, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10672, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 2061; re-en. Sec. 10672, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-2001-1(part).

Weight and Effect of Evidence

26-1-301. One witness sufficient to prove a fact. The direct evidence of one witness who is entitled to full credit is sufficient for proof of any fact, except perjury and treason.

History: En. Sec. 598, p. 195, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 598, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 616, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3120, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7861, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10505, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1844; re-en. Sec. 10505, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-1.

26-1-302. Witness presumed to speak the truth. A witness is presumed to speak the truth. This presumption, however, may be repelled by the manner in which he testifies, by the character of his testimony, by evidence affecting his motives or his character for truth, honesty, or integrity, or by contradictory evidence; and the jury is the exclusive judge of his credibility.

History: En. Sec. 601, p. 195, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 601, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 619, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3123, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7864, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10508, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1847; re-en. Sec. 10508, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-401-4.

26-1-303. Instructions to jury on how to evaluate evidence. The jury is to be instructed by the court on all proper occasions:

(1) that their power of judging of the effect of evidence is not arbitrary but to be exercised with legal discretion and in subordination to the rules of evidence;

(2) that they are not bound to decide in conformity with the declarations of any number of witnesses which do not produce conviction in their minds, against a less number or against a presumption or other evidence satisfying their minds;

(3) that a witness false in one part of his testimony is to be distrusted in others;

(4) that the testimony of an accomplice ought to be viewed with distrust, and the evidence of the oral admissions of a party with caution;

(5) that evidence is to be estimated not only by its own intrinsic weight but also according to the evidence which it is in the power of one side to produce and of the other to contradict; and therefore

(6) that if weaker and less satisfactory evidence is offered when it appears that stronger and more satisfactory was within the power of the party, the evidence offered should be viewed with distrust.

History: En. Sec. 3390, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 8028, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10672, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 2061; re-en. Sec. 10672, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-2001-1(part)(1) thru (4), (6), (7).

Part 4

Burdens of Proof

26-1-401. Who has the burden of producing evidence. The party holding the affirmative of the issue must produce the evidence to prove it; therefore, the burden of proof lies on the party who would be defeated if no evidence were given on either side.

History: En. Sec. 3290, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7972, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10616, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1981; re-en. Sec. 10616, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1501-1.

26-1-402. Who has the burden of persuasion. Each party must prove his own affirmative allegations. Evidence need not be given in support of a negative allegation, except when such negative allegation is an essential part of the statement of the right or title on which the cause of action is founded, nor even in such case when the allegation is a denial of the existence of a document, the custody of which belongs to the opposite party.

History: En. Sec. 623, p. 201, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 623, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 641, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3145, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7886, Rev. C. 1907; re-en.

26-1-403. Instructions to jury on standard of proof required to meet burden of persuasion. The jury is to be instructed by the court on all proper occasions:

(1) that in civil cases the affirmative of the issue must be proved, and when the evidence is contradictory, the decision must be made according to the preponderance of the evidence; and

(2) that in criminal cases guilt must be established beyond reasonable doubt.

History: En. Sec. 3390, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 8028, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10672, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 2061; re-en. Sec. 10672, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-2001-1(part).

Part 5

Inferences

26-1-501. Inference defined. An "inference" is a deduction which the reason of the jury makes from the facts proved, without an express direction of the law to that effect.

History: En. Sec. 3261, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7957, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10601, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1958; re-en. Sec. 10601, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1301-2.

26-1-502. When an inference arises. An inference must be founded:

(1) on a fact legally proved; and

(2) on such a deduction from that fact as is warranted by a consideration of the usual propensities or passions of men, the particular propensities or passions of the person whose act is in question, the course of business, or the course of nature.

History: En. Sec. 3263, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7959, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10603, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1960; re-en. Sec. 10603, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1301-4.

Presumptions

26-1-601. Complete list of conclusive presumptions. The following presumptions and no others are deemed conclusive:

(1) a malicious and guilty intent, from the deliberate commission of an unlawful act for the purpose of injuring another;

(2) the truth of the facts recited, from the recital in a written instrument between the parties thereto or their successors in interest by a subsequent title; but this rule does not apply to the recital of a consideration;

(7) any other presumption which, by statute, is expressly made conclusive.

The legislature hereby declares that the health, welfare, and safety of the people of the state of Montana would be enhanced by the expeditious handling of liability claims. The legislature further declares that the handling of such claims would be expedited if voluntary payment by or on behalf of one person to or on behalf of a person who has sustained injury to his person or damage to his property could not be construed as an admission of fault or liability as to any claim arising out of the occurrence which gave rise to such injury or damage.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 222, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 93-2201-7.

26-1-703. Voluntary partial payment of claim not an admission of fault or waiver. No voluntary partial payment of a claim against any person based on alleged liability of that person for injury to person, including death, or damage to property arising out of any occurrence shall be construed as an admission of fault or liability or as a waiver or release of claim by the person to whom or in whose behalf such payment was made. No voluntary partial payment shall be construed to reduce the amount of damages which may be pleaded or proved in any action arising out of such occurrence.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 222, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 93-2201-9(part).

26-1-706. Effect of payment on judgment. After entry of a judgment in an action for damages for personal injuries, including death, or for damage to property arising out of any occurrence, any voluntary partial payment theretofore made shall be treated as a credit against such judgment and shall be deductible from the amount of such judgment. If after partial voluntary payments are made as herein provided for, it shall be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the person who made such payments or on whose behalf such payments were made is liable for an amount which is less than the amount of the voluntary payments already made, such person shall have no right of action for the recovery of the amount by which the voluntary payments exceeded the amount of the judgment.

Subpoenas

26-2-101. Subpoena defined. The process by which the attendance of a witness is required is by a subpoena. It is a writ or order directed to a person and requiring his attendance at a particular time and place to testify as a witness. It may also require him to bring with him any books, documents, or other things under his control, which he is bound by law to produce in evidence.

History: En. Sec. 380, p. 212, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 454, p. 127, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 633, p. 204, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 633, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 654, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; en. Sec. 3300, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7974, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10618, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1985; re-en. Sec. 10618, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1501-3.

(1) To require attendance before a court or at the trial of an issue therein, it is issued under the seal of the court before which the attendance is required or in which the issue is pending.

(2) To require attendance out of the court before a judge, justice, or other officer authorized to administer oaths or take testimony in any matter under the laws of this state, it is issued by the judge, justice, or other officer before whom the attendance is required.

(3) To require attendance before a commissioner appointed to take testimony by a court of a foreign country, of the United States, of any other state in the United States, or of any other district or county within this state or before any officer or officers empowered by the laws of the United States to take testimony, it may be issued by any judge or justice of the peace in places within his respective jurisdiction, with like power to enforce attendance and, upon certificate of contumacy to said court, to punish contempt of his process as such judge or justice could exercise if the subpoena directed the attendance of the witness before his court in a matter pending therein.

History: En. Sec. 322, p. 111, Bannack Stat.; en. Sec. 381, p. 212, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 455, p. 127, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 634, p. 204, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 634, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 655, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3301, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7975, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10619, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1986; re-en. Sec. 10619, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1501-4.

26-2-103. Service of subpoena on concealed witness. If a witness is concealed in a building or vessel so as to prevent the service of a subpoena upon him, any court or judge or any officer issuing a subpoena may, upon proof by affidavit of the concealment and of the materiality of the witness, make an order that the sheriff of the county serve the subpoena and the sheriff must serve it accordingly and, for that purpose, may break into the building or vessel where the witness is concealed.

History: En. Sec. 383, p. 212, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 457, p. 127, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 636, p. 205, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 636, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 657, 1st Div. Comp. Sec. 10621, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1501-6.

26-2-104. Disobedience — how punished. Disobedience to a subpoena or a refusal to be sworn or to answer as a witness or to subscribe an affidavit or deposition, when required, may be punished as a contempt by the court or officer issuing the subpoena or requiring the witness to be sworn; and if the witness be a party, his complaint or answer may be stricken out.

History: En. Sec. 329, p. 112, Bannack Stat.; amd. Sec. 387, p. 213, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 461, p. 128, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 640, p. 206, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 640, 1st Div. Rev. 26-2-105. Disobedience — civil damages. A witness disobeying a subpoena also forfeits to the party aggrieved the sum of $100 and all damages which he may sustain by the failure of the witness to attend, which forfeiture and damages may be recovered in a civil action.

26-2-106. Warrant to arrest and bring in disobedient witness. In case of a failure of a witness to attend, the court or officer issuing the subpoena, upon proof of the service thereof and of the failure of the witness, may issue a warrant to the sheriff of the county to arrest the witness and bring him before the court or officer where his attendance was required.

History: En. Sec. 331, p. 112, Bannack Stat.; amd. Sec. 389, p. 213, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 463, p. 128, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 642, p. 207, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 642, 1st Div. Rev. 26-2-107. Contents of warrant — execution. Every warrant of commitment issued by a court or officer pursuant to this part must specify therein, particularly, the cause of the commitment; and if it be for refusing to answer a question, such question must be stated in the warrant. Every warrant to arrest or commit a witness pursuant to this part must be directed to the sheriff of the county where the witness may be and must be executed by him in the same manner as process by the district court.

26-2-201. Court order to obtain deposition or attendance of prisoner. If the witness be a prisoner confined in a jail or prison within this state, an order for his examination in the prison upon deposition or for his temporary removal and production before a court or officer for the purpose of being orally examined may be made as follows:

(1) by the court itself in which the action or special proceeding is pending unless it be a justice's court;

(2) by a justice of the supreme court or a judge of the district court of the county where the action or proceeding is pending if pending before a justice's court or before a judge or other person out of court.

Duties of Witnesses

26-2-301. Witness required to attend when subpoenaed. A witness served with a subpoena must attend at the time appointed, with any papers under his control required by the subpoena, and answer all pertinent and legal questions and, unless sooner discharged, must remain until the testimony is closed.

History: En. Sec. 327, p. 112, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Sec. 385, p. 213, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 459, p. 128, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 638, p. 206, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 638, 1st Div. Rev. 26-2-302. Witness required to answer questions. A witness must answer questions legal and pertinent to the matter in issue though his answer may establish a claim against himself, but he need not give an answer which will have a tendency to subject him to punishment for a felony, nor need he give an answer which will have a direct tendency to degrade his character unless it be to the very fact in issue or to a fact from which the fact in issue would be presumed. But a witness must answer as to the fact of his previous conviction for felony.

History: En. Sec. 328, p. 112, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Sec. 386, p. 213, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 460, p. 128, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 639, p. 206, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 639, 1st Div. Rev. 26-2-303. Person present required to testify. A person present in court or before a judicial officer may be required to testify in the same manner as if he were in attendance upon a subpoena issued by such court or officer.

Protection of Witnesses

26-2-401. Right of witness to protection from harassment. It is the right of a witness to be protected from irrelevant, improper, or insulting questions and from harsh or insulting demeanor; to be detained only so long as the interests of justice require it; to be examined only as to matters legal and pertinent to the issue.

26-2-402. Witness protected from arrest when attending, going, and returning. Every person who has been, in good faith, served with a subpoena to attend as a witness before a court, judge, commissioner, referee, or other person in a case where the disobedience of the witness may be punished as a contempt is exonerated from arrests in a civil action while going to the place of attendance, necessarily remaining there, and returning therefrom.

History: En. Sec. 335, p. 113, Bannack Stat.; amd. Sec. 393, p. 213, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 467, p. 129, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 674, p. 215, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 3403, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. 26-2-403. Arrest void — punishment and liability. The arrest of a witness contrary to 26-2-402 is void and, when willfully made, is a contempt of the court; and the person making it is responsible to the witness arrested for double the amount of the damages which may be assessed against him and is also liable to an action at the suit of the party serving the witness with a subpoena for the damages sustained by him in consequence of the arrest.

History: En. Sec. 3404, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 8033, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10677, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 2068; re-en. Sec. 10677, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-2101-5.

26-2-404. Affidavit of arrested witness — exoneration of arresting officer. (1) An officer is not liable to the party for making the arrest in ignorance of the facts creating the exoneration but is liable for any subsequent detention of the party if such party claim the exemption and make an affidavit stating that:

(a) he has been served with a subpoena to attend as a witness before a court, officer, or other person, specifying the same, the place of attendance, and the action or proceeding in which the subpoena was issued;

(b) he has not thus been served by his own procurement with the intention of avoiding arrest; and

(c) he is at the time going to the place of attendance, returning therefrom, or remaining there in obedience to the subpoena.

(2) The affidavit may be taken by the officer and exonerates him from liability for discharging the witness when arrested.

Part 1

General Provisions

26-3-101. Kinds of jurisdiction necessary to sustain a record. The jurisdiction sufficient to sustain a record is jurisdiction over the cause, over the parties, and over the thing, when a specific thing is the subject of the judgment.

26-3-102. What considered adjudged in a judgment. That only is deemed to have been adjudged in a former judgment which appears upon its face to have been so adjudged or which was actually and necessarily included therein or necessary thereto.

26-3-103. When parties are considered to be the same. The parties are deemed to be the same when those between whom the evidence is offered were on opposite sides in the former case and a judgment or other determination could in that case have been made between them alone, though other parties were joined with both or either.

26-3-104. Principal bound when surety bound. Whenever, pursuant to 26-3-102, 26-3-103, 26-3-201, and 26-3-202, a party is bound by a record and such party stands in the relation of a surety for another, the latter is also bound from the time that he has notice of the action or proceeding and an opportunity at the surety's request to join in the defense.

26-3-105. Impeachment of a judicial record. Any judicial record may be impeached by evidence of a want of jurisdiction in the court or judicial officer, of collusion between the parties, or of fraud in the party offering the record in respect to the proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 3204, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7922, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10566, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1916; re-en. Sec. 10566, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1001-28.

Effect of Specific Kinds of Judicial Records

26-3-201. Effect of judgment or final order — when conclusive. The effect of a judgment or final order in an action or special proceeding before a court or judge of this state or of the United States having jurisdiction to pronounce the judgment or order is as follows:

(1) In case of a judgment or order against a specific thing, or in respect to the probate of a will or the administration of the estate of a decedent, or in respect to the personal, political, or legal condition or relation of a particular person, the judgment or order is conclusive upon the title to the thing, the will or administration, or the condition or relation of the person.

(2) In other cases, the judgment or order is, in respect to the matter directly adjudged, conclusive between the parties and their successors in interest by title subsequent to the commencement of the action or special proceeding, litigating for the same thing under the same title and in the same capacity, provided they have notice, actual or constructive, of the pendency of the action or proceeding.

26-3-202. Effect of other judicial orders — when disputable presumption created. Other judicial orders of a court or judge of this state or of the United States create a disputable presumption, according to the matter directly determined, between the same parties and their representatives and successors in interest by title subsequent to the commencement of the action or special proceeding, litigating for the same thing under the same title and in the same capacity.

History: En. Sec. 3197, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7915, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10559, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1909; re-en. Sec. 10559, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1001-21.

26-3-203. Effect of judicial record of another state. The effect of a judicial record of a sister state is the same in this state as in the state where it was made, except that it can only be enforced here by an action or special proceeding and except that the authority of a guardian or committee or of an executor or administrator does not extend beyond the jurisdiction of the government under which he was invested with his authority.

History: En. Sec. 3201, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7919, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10563, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1913; re-en. Sec. 10563, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1001-25.

26-3-204. Effect of judicial record of foreign court of admiralty. The effect of the judicial record of a court of admiralty of a foreign country is the same as if it were the record of a court of admiralty of the United States.

History: En. Sec. 3202, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7920, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10564, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1914; re-en. Sec. 10564, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1001-26.

26-3-205. Effect of judgments of other foreign tribunals. The effect of the judgment of any other tribunal of a foreign country having jurisdiction to pronounce the judgment is as follows:

(1) In case of a judgment against a specific thing, the judgment is conclusive upon the title to the thing.

(2) In case of a judgment against a person, the judgment is presumptive evidence of a right as between the parties and their successors in interest by a subsequent title and can only be repelled by evidence of a want of jurisdiction, want of notice to the party, collusion, fraud, or clear mistake of law or fact.

History: En. Sec. 3203, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7921, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10565, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1915; re-en. Sec. 10565, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-1001-27.

General Provisions

Rule 100. Short title.

These rules may be known and cited as the Montana Rules of Evidence.

Rule 101. Scope.

(a) Proceedings generally. These rules govern all proceedings in all courts in the state of Montana with the exceptions stated in this rule.

(b) Rules of privilege. The rules with respect to privileges found in Article V apply at all stages of all actions, cases and proceedings.

(c) Rules inapplicable. The rules (other than those with respect to privileges) do not apply in the following situations:

(1) Preliminary questions of fact. The determination of questions of fact preliminary to admissibility of evidence when the issue is to be determined by the court under Rule 104(a).

(2) Grand jury. Proceedings before grand juries.

(3) Miscellaneous proceedings. Proceedings for extradition or rendition; preliminary examinations and proceedings on applications for leave to file informations in criminal cases; sentencing; dispositional hearings in youth court proceedings; granting or revoking probation or parole; issuance of warrants for arrest, criminal summonses and notices to appear, and search warrants; and proceedings with respect to release on bail or otherwise.

(4) Summary proceedings. Proceedings, other than motions for summary judgment, where the court is authorized by law to act summarily.

(5) Other miscellaneous proceedings. Ex parte matters; and proceedings, when authorized by law, which are uncontested or nonadversary.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 102. Purpose and construction.

These rules shall be construed to secure fairness in administration, elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay, and promotion of growth and development of the law of evidence to the end that the truth may be ascertained and proceedings justly determined.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 103. Rulings on evidence.

(a) Effect of erroneous ruling. Error may not be predicated upon a ruling which admits or excludes evidence unless a substantial right of the party is affected, and

(1) Objection. In case the ruling is one admitting evidence, a timely objection or motion to strike appears of record, stating the specific ground of objection, if the specific ground was not apparent from the context; or

(2) Offer of proof. In case the ruling is one excluding evidence, the substance of the evidence was made known to the court by offer or was apparent from the context within which questions were asked.

(b) Record of offer and ruling. The court may add any other or further statement which shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. It may direct the making of an offer in question and answer form.

(c) Hearing of the jury. In jury cases, proceedings shall be conducted, to the extent practicable, so as to prevent inadmissible evidence from being suggested to the jury by any means, such as making statements or offers of proof or asking questions in the hearing of the jury.

(d) Plain error. Nothing in this rule precludes taking notice of plain errors affecting substantial rights although they were not brought to the attention of the court.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 104. Preliminary questions of admissibility.

(a) Questions of admissibility generally. Preliminary questions concerning the qualification of a person to be a witness, the existence of a privilege, or the admissibility of evidence shall be determined by the court. In making its determination it is not bound by the rules of evidence except those with respect to privileges.

(b) Admissibility subject to a condition. Except as otherwise provided by law, when the admissibility of evidence depends upon proof of other connecting facts, the court may admit such evidence subject to the condition that further evidence be introduced sufficient to support a finding of those connecting facts. The order of proof may be regulated by the sound discretion of the court.

(c) Hearing of jury. Hearings on the admissibility of confessions shall in all cases be conducted out of the hearing of the jury. Hearings on other preliminary matters shall be so conducted when the interests of justice require or, when an accused is a witness, if he so requests.

(d) Testimony by accused. The accused does not, by testifying upon a preliminary matter, subject himself to cross-examination as to other issues in the case.

(e) Weight and credibility. This rule does not limit the right of a party to introduce before the jury evidence relevant to weight or credibility.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 105. Limited admissibility.

When evidence which is admissible as to one party or for one purpose but not admissible as to another party or for another purpose is admitted, the court, upon request, shall restrict the evidence to its proper scope and instruct the jury accordingly.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 106. Remainder of or related acts, writings, or statements.

(a) When part of an act, declaration, conversation, writing or recorded statement or series thereof is introduced by a party:

(1) an adverse party may require him at that time to introduce any other part of such item or series thereof which ought in fairness to be considered at that time; or

(2) an adverse party may inquire into or introduce any other part of such item of evidence or series thereof.

(b) This rule does not limit the right of any party to cross-examine or further develop as part of his case matters covered by this rule.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

(c) When discretionary. A court may take judicial notice, whether requested or not.

(d) When mandatory. A court shall take judicial notice if requested by a party and supplied with the necessary information.

Presumptions

Rule 301. Presumptions in general.

(a) Presumption defined. A presumption is an assumption of fact that the law requires to be made from another fact or group of facts found or otherwise established in the action or proceeding.

(b) Classification and effect of presumptions.

(1) Conclusive presumptions are presumptions that are specifically declared conclusive by statute. Conclusive presumptions may not be controverted.

(2) All presumptions, other than conclusive presumptions, are disputable presumptions and may be controverted. A disputable presumption may be overcome by a preponderance of evidence contrary to the presumption.

Unless the presumption is overcome, the trier of fact must find the assumed fact in accordance with the presumption.

(c) Inconsistent presumptions. If presumptions are inconsistent the court shall apply the presumption that is founded upon weightier considerations of public policy. If considerations of public policy are of equal weight the court shall disregard both presumptions.

Article IV

Relevancy and Its Limits

Rule 401. Definition of relevant evidence.

Relevant evidence means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence. Relevant evidence may include evidence bearing upon the credibility of a witness or hearsay declarant.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 402. Relevant evidence generally admissible; irrelevant evidence inadmissible.

All relevant evidence is admissible, except as otherwise provided by constitution, statute, these rules, or other rules applicable in the courts of this state. Evidence which is not relevant is not admissible.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 403. Exclusion of relevant evidence on grounds of prejudice, confusion, or waste of time.

Although relevant, evidence may be excluded if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or misleading the jury, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 404. Character evidence not admissible to prove conduct, exceptions; other crimes; character in issue.

(a) Character evidence generally. Evidence of a person's character or a trait of his character is not admissible for the purpose of proving that he acted in conformity therewith on a particular occasion, except:

(1) Character of accused. Evidence of a pertinent trait of his character offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same.

(2) Character of victim. Evidence of a pertinent trait of character of the victim of the crime offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same, or evidence of a character trait of peacefulness of the victim offered by the prosecution in a homicide case or in an assault case where the victim is incapable of testifying to rebut evidence that the victim was the first aggressor.

(3) Character of witness. Evidence of the character of a witness, as provided in Article VI.

(b) Other crimes, wrongs, acts. Evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts is not admissible to prove the character of a person in order to show that he acted in conformity therewith. It may, however, be admissible for other purposes, such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident.

(c) Character in issue. Evidence of a person's character or a trait of his character is admissible in cases in which character or a trait of character of a person is an essential element of a charge, claim, or defense.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 405. Methods of proving character.

(a) Reputation or opinion. In all cases in which evidence of character or a trait of character of a person is admissible, proof may be made by testimony as to reputation or by testimony in the form of an opinion. On cross-examination, inquiry is allowable into relevant specific instances of conduct.

(b) Specific instances of conduct. In cases in which character or a trait of character of a person is an essential element of a charge, claim, or defense, or where the character of the victim relates to the reasonableness of force used by the accused in self defense, proof may also be made of specific instances of his conduct.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 406. Habit; routine practice.

(a) Habit and routine practice defined. A habit is a person's regular response to a repeated specific situation. A routine practice is a regular course of conduct of a group of persons or an organization.

(b) Admissibility. Evidence of habit or of routine practice, whether corroborated or not, and regardless of the presence of eyewitnesses, is relevant to prove that conduct on a particular occasion was in conformity with the habit or routine practice.

(c) Method of proof. Habit or routine practice may be proved by testimony in the form of an opinion or by specific instances of conduct sufficient in number to warrant a finding that the habit existed or that the practice was routine.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 407. Subsequent remedial measures.

When, after an event, measures are taken which, if taken previously, would have made the event less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to prove negligence or culpable conduct in connection with the event. This rule does not require the exclusion of evidence of subsequent measures when offered for another purpose, such as proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures, if controverted, or impeachment.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 408. Compromise and offers to compromise.

Evidence of (1) furnishing or offering or promising to furnish, or (2) accepting or offering or promising to accept, a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise a claim which was disputed as to either validity or amount is not admissible to prove liability for or invalidity of the claim or its amount. Evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise negotiations is likewise not admissible. This rule does not require exclusion of any evidence otherwise discoverable merely because it is presented in the course of compromise negotiations. This rule also does not require exclusion when the evidence is offered for another purpose, such as proving bias or prejudice of a witness, negativing a contention of undue delay, or proving an effort to obstruct a criminal investigation or prosecution.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 409. Payment of expenses.

Evidence of payment of expenses occasioned by an injury or occurrence is not admissible to prove liability.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 410. Offer to plead guilty; nolo contendere; withdrawn plea of guilty.

Evidence of a plea of guilty, later withdrawn, or a plea of nolo contendere, or of an offer to plead guilty or nolo contendere to the crime charged or any other crime, or of statements made in connection with any of the foregoing pleas or offers, is not admissible in any civil or criminal action, case, or proceeding against the person who made the plea or offer. This rule shall not apply to the introduction of voluntary and reliable statements made in court on the record in connection with any of the foregoing pleas or offers where offered for impeachment purposes or in a subsequent prosecution of the declarant for perjury or false statement.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 411. Liability insurance.

Evidence that a person was or was not insured against liability is not admissible upon the issue whether he acted negligently or otherwise wrongfully. This rule does not require the exclusion of evidence of insurance against liability when offered for another purpose, such as proof of agency, ownership, or control, or bias or prejudice of a witness.

Article V

Privileges

Rule 501. Privileges recognized only as provided.

Except as otherwise provided by constitution, statute, these rules, or other rules applicable in the courts of this state, no person has a privilege to:

(1) refuse to be a witness;
(2) refuse to disclose any matter;
(3) refuse to produce any object or writing; or

(4) prevent another from being a witness or disclosing any matter or producing any object or writing.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 502. Identity of informer.

(a) Rule of privilege. The United States or a state or subdivision thereof has a privilege to refuse to disclose the identity of a person who has furnished information relating to or assisting in an investigation of a possible violation of a law.

(b) Who may claim the privilege. The privilege may be claimed by an appropriate representative of the public entity to which the information was furnished.

(c) Exceptions and limitations.

(1) Voluntary disclosure; informer a witness. No privilege exists under this rule if the identity of the informer or his interest in the subject matter of his communication has been disclosed to those who would have cause to resent the communication by a holder of the privilege or by the informer's own action, or if the informer appears as a witness for the public entity.

(2) Testimony on relevant issue. If it appears in the case that an informer may be able to give testimony relevant to any issue in a criminal case or to a fair determination of a material issue on the merits in a civil case to which a public entity is a party, and the public entity invokes the privilege, the court shall give the public entity an opportunity to show facts relevant to determining whether the informer can, in fact, supply that testimony.

If the Court finds that the informer should be required to give the testimony, and the public entity elects not to disclose his identity, the court on motion of the defendant in a criminal case shall dismiss the charges to which the testimony would relate, and the court may do so on its own motion. In civil cases, the court may make any order that justice requires.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 503. Waiver of privilege by voluntary disclosure.

(a) General rule. A person upon whom these rules confer a privilege against disclosure waives the privilege if he or his predecessor while the holder of the privilege voluntarily discloses or consents to disclosure of any significant part of the privileged matter. This rule does not apply if the disclosure itself is privileged.

(b) Joint holders. Where two or more persons are joint holders of a privilege, a waiver of the right of a particular joint holder to claim the privilege does not affect the right of another joint holder to claim the privilege.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 504. Privileged matter disclosed under compulsion or without opportunity to claim the privilege.

A claim of privilege is not defeated by a disclosure which was (a) compelled erroneously or (b) made without opportunity to claim the privilege.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 505. Comment upon or inference from claim of privilege.

The claim of a privilege, whether in the present proceeding or upon a prior occasion, is not a proper subject of comment by the court or counsel. No inference may be drawn therefrom.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Article VI

Witnesses

Rule 601. Competency in general; disqualification.

(a) General rule competency. Every person is competent to be a witness except as otherwise provided in these rules.

(b) Disqualification of witnesses. A person is disqualified to be a witness if the court finds that (1) the witness is incapable of expressing himself concerning the matter so as to be understood by the judge and jury either directly or through interpretation by one who can understand him or (2) the witness is incapable of understanding the duty of a witness to tell the truth.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 602. Lack of personal knowledge.

A witness may not testify as to a matter unless evidence is introduced sufficient to support a finding that he has personal knowledge of the matter. Evidence to prove personal knowledge may, but need not, consist of the testimony of the witness himself. This rule is subject to the provisions of Rule 703, relating to opinion testimony by expert witnesses.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 603. Oath or affirmation.

Before testifying, every witness shall be required to declare that he will testify truthfully, by oath or affirmation administered in a form calculated to awaken his conscience and impress his mind with his duty to do so.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 604. Interpreters.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 606. Competency of juror as witness.

(a) At the trial. A member of the jury may not be called or testify as a witness before that jury in the trial of the case in which he is sitting as a juror. If he is called to testify, the opposing party shall be afforded an opportunity to object out of the presence of the jury.

(b) Inquiry into validity of verdict or indictment. Upon an inquiry into the validity of a verdict or indictment, a juror may not testify as to any matter or statement occurring during the course of the jury's deliberations or to the effect of anything upon his or any other juror's mind or emotions as influencing him to assent or dissent from the verdict or indictment or concerning his mental processes in connection therewith. Nor may his affidavit or evidence of any statement by him concerning a matter about which he would be precluded from testifying be received for these purposes.

However, as an exception to this subdivision, a juror may testify and an affidavit or evidence of any kind be received as to any matter or statement concerning only the following questions, whether occurring during the course of the jury's deliberations or not: (1) whether extraneous prejudicial information was improperly brought to the jury's attention; or (2) whether any outside influence was brought to bear upon any juror; or (3) whether any juror has been induced to assent to any general or special verdict, or finding on any question submitted to them by the court, by a resort to the determination of chance.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

(b) No party is bound by the testimony of any witness.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 608. Evidence of character and conduct of witness.

(a) Opinion and reputation evidence of character. The credibility of a witness may be attacked or supported by evidence in the form of opinion or reputation, but subject to these limitations: (1) the evidence may refer only to character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, and (2) evidence of truthful character is admissible only after the character of the witness for truthfulness has been attacked by opinion or reputation evidence or otherwise.

(b) Specific instances of conduct. Specific instances of the conduct of a witness, for the purpose of attacking or supporting his credibility, may not be proved by extrinsic evidence. They may, however, in the discretion of the court, if probative of truthfulness or untruthfulness, be inquired into on cross-examination of the witness (1) concerning his character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, or (2) concerning the character for truthfulness or untruthfulness of another witness as to which character the witness being cross-examined has testified.

The giving of testimony, whether by an accused or by any other witness, does not operate as a waiver of his privilege against self-incrimination when examined with respect to matters which relate only to credibility.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 609. Impeachment by evidence of conviction of crime.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 611. Mode and order of interrogation and presentation; re-examination and recall; confrontation.

(a) Control by court. The court shall exercise reasonable control over the mode and order of interrogating witnesses and presenting evidence so as to (1) make the interrogation and presentation effective for the ascertainment of the truth, (2) avoid needless consumption of time, and (3) protect witnesses from harassment or undue embarrassment.

(b) Scope of cross-examination.

(1) Cross-examination should be limited to the subject matter of the direct examination and matters affecting the credibility of the witness. The court may, in the exercise of discretion, permit inquiry into additional matters as if on direct examination.

(2) Evidence developed on cross-examination may be considered by the trier of fact as proof of any fact in issue in the case.

(c) Leading questions. Leading questions should not be used on the direct examination of a witness except as may be necessary to develop his testimony. Ordinarily leading questions should be permitted on cross-examination. When a party calls a hostile witness, an adverse party, or a witness identified with an adverse party, interrogation may be by leading questions.

(d) Re-examination and recall. A witness may be re-examined as to the same matters to which he testified only in the discretion of the court, but without exception he may be re-examined as to any new matter brought out during cross-examination. After the examination of the witness has been concluded by all the parties to the action, that witness may be recalled only in the discretion of the court. This rule shall not limit the right of any party to recall a witness in rebuttal.

(e) Confrontation. Except as otherwise provided by constitution, statute, these rules, or other rules applicable to the courts of this state, at the trial of an action, a witness can be heard only in the presence and subject to the examination of all the parties to the action, if they choose to attend and examine.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 612. Writings used to refresh memory.

If a witness uses a writing to refresh his memory for the purpose of testifying, either

(1) while testifying, or

(2) before testifying, if the court in its discretion determines it is necessary in the interests of justice, an adverse party is entitled to have the writing produced at the hearing, to inspect it, to cross-examine the witness thereon, and to introduce into evidence those portions which relate to the testimony of the witness. If it is claimed that the writing contains matters not related to the subject matter of the testimony the court shall examine the writing in camera, excise any portions not so related, and order delivery of the remainder to the party entitled thereto. Any portion withheld over objection shall be preserved and made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal. If a writing is not produced or delivered pursuant to order under this rule, the court shall make any order justice requires, except that in criminal cases when the prosecution elects not to comply, the order shall be one striking the testimony or, if the court in its discretion determines that the interests of justice so require, declaring a mistrial.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 613. Prior statements of witnesses.

(a) Examining witness concerning prior statement. In examining a witness concerning a prior statement made by him, whether written or not, the statement need not be shown nor its contents disclosed to him at that time, but on request the same shall be shown or disclosed to opposing counsel.

(b) Extrinsic evidence of prior inconsistent statement of witness. Extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement by a witness is not admissible unless the witness is afforded an opportunity to explain or deny the same and the opposite party is afforded an opportunity to interrogate him thereon, or the interests of justice otherwise require. This provision does not apply to admissions of a party-opponent as defined in Rule 801(d)(2).

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 614. Calling and interrogation of witnesses by court.

(a) Calling by court. The court may, on its own motion or at the suggestion of a party, call witnesses and all parties are entitled to cross-examine witnesses thus called.

(b) Interrogation by court. The court may interrogate witnesses, whether called by itself or a party; provided, however, that in trials before a jury, the court's questioning must be cautiously guarded so as not to constitute express or implied comment.

(c) Objections. Objections to the calling of a witness by the court or to the interrogation by it may be made at the time or at the next available opportunity when the jury is not present.

Rule 615. Exclusion of witnesses.

At the request of a party, the court shall order witnesses excluded so that they cannot hear the testimony of other witnesses, and it may make the order of its own motion. This rule does not authorize exclusion of (1) a party who is a natural person, or (2) an officer or employee of a party which is not a natural person designated as its representative by its attorney, or (3) a person whose presence is shown by a party to be essential to the presentation of his cause.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 702. Testimony by experts.

If scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education may testify thereto in the form of an opinion or otherwise.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 703. Basis of opinion testimony by experts.

The facts or data in a particular case upon which an expert bases an opinion or inference may be those perceived by or made known to him at or before the hearing. If of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in a particular field in forming opinions or inferences upon the subject, the facts or data need not be admissible in evidence.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 704. Opinions on ultimate issue.

Testimony in the form of an opinion or inference otherwise admissible is not objectionable because it embraces an ultimate issue to be decided by the trier of fact.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 705. Disclosure of facts or data underlying expert opinion.

The expert may testify in terms of opinion or inference and give his reasons therefor without prior disclosure of the underlying facts or data, unless the court requires otherwise. The expert may in any event be required to disclose the underlying facts or data on cross-examination.

History: Ad. Sup. Ct. Ord. 12729, Dec. 29, 1976, eff. July 1, 1977.

Rule 804. Hearsay exceptions: declarant unavailable.

(a) Definition of unavailability. Unavailability as a witness includes situations in which the declarant:

(1) is exempted by ruling of the court on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the subject matter of his statement; or

(2) persists in refusing to testify concerning the subject matter of his statement despite an order of the court to do so; or

(3) testifies to a lack of memory of the subject matter of his statement; or

(4) is unable to be present or to testify at the hearing because of death or then existing physical or mental illness or infirmity; or

(5) is absent from the hearing and the proponent of his statement has been unable to procure his attendance by process or other reasonable means.

A declarant is not unavailable as a witness if his exemption, refusal, claim of lack of memory, inability, or absence is due to the procurement or wrongdoing of the proponent of his statement for the purpose of preventing the witness from attending or testifying.

(b) Hearsay exceptions. The following are not excluded by the hearsay rule if the declarant is unavailable as a witness:

(1) Former testimony. Testimony given as a witness at another hearing of the same or a different proceeding, or in a deposition taken in compliance with law in the course of the same or another proceeding, (A) in civil actions and proceedings, at the instance of or against a party with an opportunity to develop the testimony by direct, cross, or redirect examination, with motive and interest similar to those of the party against whom now offered; and (B) in criminal actions and proceedings, if the party against whom the testimony is now offered had an opportunity and similar motive to develop the testimony by direct, cross, and redirect examination.

(2) Statement under belief of impending death. A statement made by a declarant while believing that his death was imminent, concerning the cause or circumstance of what he believed to be his impending death.

(3) Statement against interest. A statement which was at the time of its making so far contrary to the declarant's pecuniary or proprietary interest, or so far tended to subject him to civil or criminal liability, or to render invalid a claim by him against another or to make him an object of hatred, ridicule, or disgrace, that a reasonable man in his position would not have made the statement unless he believed it to be true. A statement tending to expose the declarant to criminal liability and offered to exculpate the accused is not admissible unless corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the statement.

(4) Statement of personal or family history. (A) A statement concerning the declarant's own birth, adoption, marriage, divorce or dissolution of marriage, legitimacy, relationship by blood, or family history, even though the declarant had no means of acquiring the personal knowledge of the matter stated; or

(B) a statement concerning the foregoing matters, and death also, of another person, if the declarant was related to the other by blood, adoption or marriage or was so intimately associated with the other's family as to be likely to have accurate information concerning the matter declared.

(5) Other exceptions. A statement not specifically covered by any of the foregoing exceptions but having comparable circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness.

When a hearsay statement, or a statement defined in Rule 801(d)(2), (C), (D), or (E), has been admitted in evidence, the credibility of the declarant may be attacked and, if attacked, may be supported by any evidence which would be admissible for those purposes if the declarant had testified as a witness. Evidence of a statement or conduct by the declarant at any time, inconsistent with his hearsay statement, is not subject to any requirement that he may have been afforded an opportunity to deny or explain. If the party against whom a hearsay statement has been admitted calls the declarant as a witness, the party is entitled to examine him on the statement as if under cross-examination.

(3) Foreign public documents. A document purporting to be executed or attested in his official capacity by a person authorized by the laws of a foreign country to make the execution or attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (A) of the executing or attesting person, or (B) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the execution of attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the execution or attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If a reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of official documents, the court may, for good cause shown, order that they be treated as presumptively authentic without final certification or permit them to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without final certification.

(4) Certified copies of public records. (b) a fair compensation for the time and money properly expended in pursuit of the property.

(2) The presumption declared by subsection (1) cannot be repelled in favor of one whose possession was wrongful from the beginning by his subsequent application of the property to the benefit of the owner without such owner's consent.

Specific and Preventive Relief

27-1-401. When specific or preventive relief permitted. Specific or preventive relief may be given in the cases specified in this part and Title

28, chapter 2, parts 16 and 17, and in no others. Neither specific nor preventive relief can be granted to enforce a penal law, except in a case of nuisance, or to enforce the penalty or forfeiture in any case.

History: Ap. p. Sec. 4380, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6089, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8707, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3366; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1880; re-en. 27-1-402. How specific relief given. Specific relief is given by:

(1) taking possession of a thing and delivering it to a claimant;

(2) compelling the party himself to do that which ought to be done; or

(3) declaring and determining the rights of parties otherwise than by an award of damages.

History: En. Sec. 4381, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6090, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8708, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3367; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1881; re-en. Sec. 8708, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 17-702.

27-1-403. How preventive relief given. Preventive relief is given by prohibiting a party from doing that which ought not to be done. Preventive relief is granted by injunction, provisional or final.

History: Ap. p. Sec. 4382, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6091, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8709, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3368; Field. Civ. C. Sec. 1882; re-en. 27-1-404 through 27-1-410 reserved.

27-1-411. When specific performance of an obligation may be compelled. Except as otherwise provided in this part and Title 28, chapter 2, parts 16 and 17, the specific performance of an obligation may be compelled when:

(1) the act to be done is in the performance, wholly or partly, of an express trust;

(2) the act to be done is such that pecuniary compensation for its nonperformance would not afford adequate relief;

(3) it would be extremely difficult to ascertain the actual damage caused by the nonperformance of the act to be done; or

(4) it has been expressly agreed in writing, between the parties to the contract, that specific performance thereof may be required by either party or that damages shall not be considered adequate relief.

History: En. Sec. 4410, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6096, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8714, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3384; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1887; re-en. Sec. 8714, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 17-801.

27-1-412. Obligations which cannot be specifically enforced. The following obligations cannot be specifically enforced:

(1) an obligation to render personal service or to employ another therein;

(2) an agreement to marry or live with another;

(3) an agreement to submit a controversy to arbitration;

(4) an agreement to perform an act which the party has not power to perform lawfully when required to do so;

(5) an agreement to procure the act or consent of the spouse of the contracting party or of any other third person; or

(6) an agreement the terms of which are not sufficiently certain to make the precise act which is to be done clearly ascertainable.

History: En. Sec. 4416, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6102, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8720, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3390; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1893; re-en. Sec. 8720, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 535, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 17-807.

27-1-413. Specific performance not to be oppressive. Specific performance cannot be compelled when it would operate more harshly upon the party required to perform than its refusal would operate upon the party seeking it.

History: En. Sec. 4419, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6105, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8723, R.C.M. 1921; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1896; re-en. Sec. 8723, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 17-810.

27-1-414. Right to specific performance to be mutual. (1) When either of the parties to an obligation is entitled to a specific performance thereof according to the provisions of 27-1-411, the other party is also entitled to it, though not within those provisions.

(2) Neither party to any obligation can be compelled specifically to perform it unless the other party thereto has performed or is compellable specifically to perform everything to which the former is entitled under the same obligation, either completely or nearly so, together with full compensation for any want of entire performance.

History: (1)En. Sec. 4411, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6097, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8715, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3385; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1888; re-en. 27-1-415. Parties who cannot be compelled to perform. Specific performance cannot be enforced against a party to a contract in any of the following cases:

(1) if he has not received an adequate consideration for the contract;

(2) if it is not, as to him, just and reasonable;

(3) if his assent was obtained by the misrepresentations, concealment, circumvention, or unfair practices of any party to whom performance would become due under the contract or by any promise of such party which has not been substantially fulfilled; or

(4) if his assent was given under the influence of mistake, misapprehension, or surprise, except that where the contract provides for compensation in case of mistake, a mistake within the scope of such provision may be compensated for and the contract specifically enforced in other respects if proper to be so enforced.

27-1-416. Parties who cannot obtain specific performance. Specific performance cannot be enforced in favor of a party who has not fully and fairly performed all the conditions precedent on his part to the obligation of the other party except where his failure to perform is only partial and either entirely immaterial or capable of being fully compensated, in which case specific performance may be compelled upon full compensation being made for the default.

27-1-417. Specific performance by party who signed when other party did not sign contract. A party who has signed a written contract may be compelled specifically to perform it, though the other party has not signed it, if the latter has performed or offers to perform it on his part and the case is otherwise proper for enforcing specific performance.

History: En. Sec. 4414, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6100, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8718, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3388; Field. Civ. C. Sec. 1891; re-en. Sec. 8718, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 17-805.

27-1-418. Liquidation of damages not a bar to specific performance. A contract otherwise proper to be specifically enforced may be thus enforced though a penalty is imposed or the damages are liquidated for its breach and the party in default is willing to pay the same.

27-1-419. Specific performance of agreement to transfer property — distinction between real and personal property. It is to be presumed that the breach of an agreement to transfer real property cannot be adequately relieved by pecuniary compensation and that the breach of an agreement to transfer personal property can be thus relieved.

History: En. Sec. 4413, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6099, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8717, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3387; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1890; re-en. Sec. 8717, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 17-804.

27-1-420. No specific performance of agreement to buy property when title not clear. An agreement for the sale of property cannot be specifically enforced in favor of a seller who cannot give to the buyer a title free from reasonable doubt.

History: En. Sec. 4420, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6106, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8724, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3394; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1897; re-en. Sec. 8724, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 17-811.

27-1-421. Compelling performance of successor in interest in title — obligations respecting real property. Whenever an obligation in respect to real property would be specifically enforced against a particular person, it may be in like manner enforced against any other person claiming under him by a title created subsequently to the obligation except a purchaser or encumbrancer in good faith and for value, and except that any such person may exonerate himself by conveying all his estate to the person entitled to enforce the obligation.

27-1-431. Judgment for possession of or title to real property. A person entitled to specific real property, by reason either of a perfected title or of a claim to title which ought to be perfected, may recover the same in the manner prescribed by this code, either by a judgment for its possession to be executed by the sheriff or by a judgment requiring the other party to perfect the title and to deliver possession of the property.

27-1-432. Judgment for delivery of personal property. A person entitled to the immediate possession of specific personal property may recover the same in the manner provided by this code. Any person having the possession or control of a particular article of personal property of which he is not the owner may be compelled specifically to deliver it to the person entitled to its immediate possession.

27-1-433. Cancellation of written instrument. (1) A written instrument in respect to which there is a reasonable apprehension that if left outstanding it may cause serious injury to a person against whom it is void or voidable may, upon his application, be so adjudged and ordered to be delivered up or canceled.

(2) An instrument the invalidity of which is apparent upon its face or upon the face of another instrument which is necessary to the use of the former in evidence is not to be deemed capable of causing injury within the provisions of subsection (1).

(3) Where an instrument is evidence of different rights or obligations, it may be canceled in part and allowed to stand for the residue.

Part 5

Right to Bring Action or Assert Defense

27-1-501. Survival of cause of action or defense — death or disability or transfer of interest. An action, cause of action, or defense does not abate because of the death or disability of a party or the transfer of any interest therein, but whenever the cause of action or defense arose in favor of such party prior to his death or disability or transfer of interest therein, it survives and may be maintained by his representatives or successors in interest. If the action has not been begun or defense interposed, the action may be begun or defense interposed in the name of his representatives or successors in interest. If the action has been begun or defense interposed, the action or proceeding may be continued as provided in Rule 25, M.R.Civ.P.

27-1-502. Survival of counterclaim — death or assignment. When cross-demands have existed between persons under such circumstances that if one had brought an action against the other a counterclaim could have been set up, the two demands shall be deemed compensated so far as they equal each other and neither can be deprived of the benefit thereof by the assignment or death of the other.

Liability

27-1-701. Liability for negligence as well as willful acts. Everyone is responsible not only for the results of his willful acts but also for an injury occasioned to another by his want of ordinary care or skill in the management of his property or person except so far as the latter has willfully or by want of ordinary care brought the injury upon himself.

History: En. Sec. 2296, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5077, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7579, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1714; Based on Field Civ. C. Sec. 853; re-en. Sec. 7579, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-607; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 12, L. 1979.

(1) Whenever the negligence of any party in any action is an issue, each party against whom recovery may be allowed is jointly and severally liable for the amount that may be awarded to the claimant but has the right of contribution from any other person whose negligence may have contributed as a proximate cause to the injury complained of.

(2) On motion of any party against whom a claim is asserted for negligence resulting in death or injury to person or property, any other person whose negligence may have contributed as a proximate cause to the injury complained of may be joined as an additional party to the action. Whenever more than one person is found to have contributed as a proximate cause to the injury complained of, the trier of fact shall apportion the degree of fault among such persons. Contribution shall be proportional to the negligence of the parties against whom recovery is allowed. Nothing contained in this section shall make any party indispensable pursuant to Rule 19, M.R.Civ.P.

(3) If for any reason all or part of the contribution from a party liable for contribution cannot be obtained, each of the other parties against whom recovery is allowed is liable to contribute a proportional part of the unpaid portion of the noncontributing party's share and may obtain judgment in a pending or subsequent action for contribution from the noncontributing party.

27-1-811. When owner of radio station not liable for material broadcast. No person, firm, or corporation owning or operating a radio broadcasting station is liable under the law of defamation on account of having made its broadcasting facilities available to any person, including but not limited to a candidate for public office, for discussion of controversial or other subjects in the absence of proof of actual malice on the part of such owner or operator.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 122, L. 1939; R.C.M. 1947, 64-205; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 12, L. 1979.

27-1-812. Right of owner to require prior submission of text to be broadcast. Any person, firm, or corporation owning or operating a radio broadcasting station shall have the right but shall not be compelled to require the submission and permanent filing in such station of a copy of the complete address or other form of expression, if in words, intended to be broadcast over such station, not more than 48 hours before the time of the intended broadcast thereof.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 122, L. 1939; R.C.M. 1947, 64-206.

27-1-813. Liability of person broadcasting — liability of owner for broadcast prepared by station. Nothing in 27-1-811 or 27-1-812 may be construed to relieve any person broadcasting over a radio station from liability under the law of defamation or to relieve any person, firm, or corporation owning or operating a radio broadcasting station from liability under the law of defamation on account of any broadcast prepared or made by such person, firm, or corporation or by any officer or employee thereof in the course of his employment. Whenever such an owner or operator is liable on account of a broadcast and two or more broadcasting stations were connected simultaneously or by transcription, film, metal tape, or other approved or adapted use for joint operation in the making of the broadcast, liability is limited solely to the person, firm, or corporation owning or operating the radio station which originated the broadcast.

27-1-814 through 27-1-817. Repealed. Sec. 62, Ch. 12, L. 1979.

Compiler's Comments
Histories of Repealed Sections: 27-1-814 through 27-1-817. En. Sec. 1, Ch. 159, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 58, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 64-207.1.

27-1-818. Media management to be given opportunity to publish correction prior to action for libel or slander. In order to claim punitive damages because of any defamatory publication in or broadcast on any newspaper, magazine, periodical, radio or television station, or cable television system, the defamed person shall first give those alleged to be responsible or liable for the publication or broadcast a reasonable opportunity to correct the defamatory matter. Such opportunity shall be given by notice in writing specifying the article or broadcast and the statements therein which are claimed to be false and defamatory and a statement of what are claimed to be the true facts. The notice may also state the sources, if any, from which the true facts may be ascertained with definiteness and certainty.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 569, L. 1979.

27-1-819. What constitutes a reasonable time for correction. The first issue of a newspaper, magazine, or periodical published after the expiration of 1 week from the receipt of the notice provided for in 27-1-818 is within a reasonable time for correction. In the case of radio and television stations and cable television systems, a broadcast made at the same time of day as the broadcast complained of and of at least equal duration which is made within 7 days following receipt of such notice is within a reasonable time for correction.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 569, L. 1979.

27-1-820. Content of correction. To the extent that the true facts are, with reasonable diligence, ascertainable with definiteness and certainty, only a retraction constitutes a correction; otherwise the publication or broadcast of the defamed person's statement of the true facts or so much thereof as is not defamatory of another, scurrilous, or otherwise improper for publication or broadcast, published or broadcast as his statement, constitutes a correction within the meaning of 27-1-818 through 27-1-821.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 569, L. 1979.

27-1-821. Extent to which a correction is a defense upon trial. If it appears upon trial that the publication or broadcast complained of was made under honest mistake, then a correction timely published or broadcast without comment in a position and type as prominent as the alleged libel or in a broadcast made at the same time of day as the broadcast complained of and of at least equal duration constitutes a defense against the recovery of punitive damages.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 569, L. 1979.

Accrual of Cause of Action

27-2-301. When demand necessary to perfect right to action. Where a right exists but a demand is necessary to entitle a person to maintain an action, the time within which the action must be commenced must be computed from the time when the right to make the demand is complete except in one of the following cases:

(1) Where the right grows out of the receipt or detention of money or property by an agent, trustee, attorney, or other person acting in a fiduciary capacity, the time must be computed from the time when the person having the right to make the demand has actual knowledge of the facts upon which that right depends.

(2) Where there was a deposit of money not to be paid at a fixed time but only upon a special demand or a delivery of personal property not to be returned, specifically or in kind, at a fixed time or upon a fixed contingency, the time must be computed from the demand.

When waste, trespass, or injury is committed by reason of underground work upon any mining claim or seismic exploration, location, spacing, drilling, equipping, producing, or other operation related to exploration or production of oil, gas, water, geothermal resources, or other minerals, the cause of action is not considered to have accrued until the discovery by the aggrieved party of the facts constituting such waste, trespass, or injury.

(2) If an action is barred by 27-2-304, any of the heirs, devisees, or creditors who at the time of the transaction upon which the action might have been founded was under one of the disabilities mentioned in subsection (1) may, within 5 years after the cessation of such disability, maintain an action to recover damages. In such action he may recover such sum or the value of such property as he would have received upon the final distribution of the estate if an action had been seasonably commenced by the executor or administrator.

(3) No person may avail himself of a disability unless it existed when his right of action or entry accrued.

(4) When two or more disabilities coexist at the time the right of action or entry accrues, the limitation does not attach until they are both removed.

27-2-407. When action terminated or judgment reversed. If an action is commenced within the time limited therefor and a judgment therein is reversed on appeal without awarding a new trial or the action is terminated in any other manner than by a voluntary discontinuance, a dismissal of the complaint for neglect to prosecute the action, or a final judgment upon the merits, the plaintiff or, if he dies and the cause of action survives, his representative may commence a new action for the same cause after the expiration of the time so limited and within 1 year after such a reversal or termination.

27-2-408. Effect on counterclaim of termination of action. Whenever a defendant in an action has interposed an answer in support of which he would be entitled to rely at the trial upon a defense or counterclaim then existing in his favor the remedy upon which, at the time of the commencement of the action, was not barred by any provision of this code and the complaint is dismissed or the action is discontinued or abates because of the plaintiff's death, the time between the commencement and the termination of the action is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of an action by the defendant to recover for the cause of action so interposed as a defense or to interpose the same defense in another action brought by the same plaintiff or a person deriving title from or under him.

27-2-409. Acknowledgment of debt or part payment. No acknowledgment or promise is evidence of a new or continuing contract sufficient to cause the relevant statute of limitations to begin running anew unless the same is contained in some writing signed by the party to be charged thereby. However, this section does not alter the effect of any payment of principal or interest, which payment is equivalent to a new promise in writing, duly signed, to pay the residue of the debt.

27-5-103. Entry of submission as court order. It may be stipulated in the submission that it be entered as an order of the district court, for which purpose it must be filed with the clerk of the district court of the county where the parties or one of them resides. The clerk must thereupon enter in his register of actions a note of the submission, with the names of the parties, the names of the arbitrators, the date of the submission, when filed, and the time limited by the submission, if any, within which the award must be made.

The arbitrators may be compelled by the court or judge to make an award, and the award may be enforced by the court or judge in the same manner as a judgment. If the submission be not made an order of the court, it may be revoked at any time before the award is made.

(1) It was procured by corruption or fraud.

(2) The arbitrators were guilty of misconduct or committed gross error in refusing, on cause shown, to postpone the hearing or in refusing to hear pertinent evidence or otherwise acted improperly in a manner by which the rights of the party were prejudiced.

(3) The arbitrators exceeded their powers in making the award, or they refused or improperly omitted to consider a part of the matters submitted to them.

27-6-102. Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to prevent where possible the filing in court of actions against health care providers and their employees for professional liability in situations where the facts do not permit at least a reasonable inference of malpractice and to make possible the fair and equitable disposition of such claims against health care providers as are or reasonably may be well founded.

History: En. 17-1302 by Sec. 2, Ch. 449, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 17-1302.

(3) "Panel" means the Montana medical malpractice panel provided for in 27-6-104.

History: En. 17-1303 by Sec. 3, Ch. 449, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 17-1303.

Part 1

General Provisions

27-15-101. When plaintiff may be required to elect among arrest, injunction, and attachment. Where an application for an order of arrest, injunction order, and writ of attachment or two of them is made in the same action against the same defendant and it satisfactorily appears that, under the particular circumstances of the case, two or all of them are not necessary for the plaintiff's security, the court or judge may, in its or his discretion, require the plaintiff to elect between them.

History: En. Sec. 980, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6708, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9311, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9311, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-4601(part).

27-15-102. Availability of provisional remedies to defendant interposing counterclaim. Whenever the defendant interposes a counterclaim and thereupon demands an affirmative judgment against the plaintiff, his right to a provisional remedy is the same as it would be in an action brought by him against the plaintiff for the cause of action stated in the counterclaim and demanding the same judgment. For the purpose of applying to such a case the provisions of chapters 15 through 20 of this title and chapter 8 of Title 25, the defendant is considered the plaintiff, the plaintiff is considered the defendant, and the counterclaim so set forth in the answer is considered the complaint.

Before an order of arrest can be made, the party applying must prove to the satisfaction of the justice, by the affidavit of himself or some other person, the facts upon which the application is founded. The plaintiff must also execute and deliver to the justice a written undertaking in the sum of $300, with sufficient sureties, to the effect that the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest, if the same be wrongful or without sufficient cause, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking.

27-16-1006. Defense against order of arrest. The defendant may file an answer, under oath, putting in issue the facts stated in the affidavit for the order of arrest, which may be tried by the court unless a jury is demanded; and the plaintiff shall be held to establish such facts, and if he fail to do so, the order of arrest shall be dismissed and the defendant may proceed upon the undertaking of the plaintiff for his damages occasioned by the arrest. Part 2

Procedure for Obtaining Seizure of Property

27-17-201. Plaintiff's affidavit. When a delivery is claimed, an affidavit must be made by the person claiming the property or someone in his behalf, stating:

(1) facts which establish reasonable belief that the person claiming the property is the owner or is lawfully entitled to possession and that the seizure is necessary to prevent the removal or destruction of the property;

(2) that the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant;

(3) that the same has not been taken for a tax, assessment, or fine, pursuant to statute, or seized under an execution or an attachment against the property of the person claiming the property or, if so seized, that it is by statute exempt from seizure; and

(4) a particular description of the property and the actual value of the property.

History: En. Sec. 72, p. 56, Bannack Stat.; amd. Sec. 100, p. 151, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 117, p. 49, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 155, p. 75, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 155, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; amd. 27-17-202. Description of property in affidavit. Where the affidavit describes two or more chattels of the same kind, it must state the number thereof, and where it describes a chattel in bulk, it must state the weight, measurement, or other quantity, as nearly as can be ascertained. Where it describes two or more chattels, it may, at the election of the plaintiff, state the aggregate value of all or, separately, the value of any chattel or of any class of chattels and the aggregate value of the remainder, if any.

History: En. Sec. 856, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6638, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9236, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9236, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-4117(part).

27-17-203. Order from judge. The sheriff shall make no seizure unless an order from a judge of the court having jurisdiction of the cause is attached to the affidavit. The judge may sign such an order if he is satisfied:

(1) that the party seeking possession of the property has made a prima facie showing of his right to possession and the necessity for seizure at a show cause hearing before him with at least 3 days' notice to the person in possession of the property; if such person cannot be found for personal service, notice posted on the property and in three public places in the county where the property is located is sufficient service for this purpose; or

(2) that the delay caused by notice and a hearing would seriously impair the remedy sought by the party seeking possession. Evidence of such impairment must be presented in open court, and the court must set forth with specificity the reasons why such delay would seriously impair the remedy sought by the person seeking possession.

27-17-204. Endorsement requiring sheriff to take property. The plaintiff or his attorney may thereupon, by an endorsement in writing upon the affidavit, require the sheriff of the county where the property claimed may be to take the same from the defendant.

History: En. Sec. 73, p. 56, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Sec. 101, p. 152, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 118, p. 49, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 156, p. 76, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 156, 1st Div. Rev. 27-17-205. Plaintiff's undertaking — service and execution by sheriff. Upon receipt of the affidavit and notice with a written undertaking, executed by two or more sufficient sureties approved by the sheriff, to the effect that they are bound to the defendant in double the value of the property, as stated in the affidavit for the prosecution of the action, and for the return of the property to the defendant, if return thereof be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may from any cause be recovered against the plaintiff, the sheriff must forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He must also, without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit, notice, and undertaking by delivering the same to him personally, if he can be found, or to his agent from whose possession the property is taken or, if neither can be found, by leaving them at the usual place of abode of either with some person of suitable age and discretion or, if neither have any known place of abode, by putting them in the nearest post office, directed to the defendant.

27-17-206. Manner of seizure of concealed property. If the property or any part thereof be concealed in a building or enclosure, the sheriff shall publicly demand its delivery; if it be not delivered, he shall cause the building or enclosure to be broken open and take the property into his possession and, if necessary, he may call to his aid the power of the county.

Part 3

Procedure Following Seizure by Sheriff

27-17-301. Duty of sheriff to keep and deliver property. When the sheriff shall have taken property, as in this chapter provided, he shall keep it in a secure place and deliver it to the party entitled thereto upon receiving his lawful fees for taking and his necessary expenses for keeping the same.

History: En. Sec. 108, p. 153, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 125, p. 51, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 167, p. 79, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 167, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 169, 1st Div. Comp. 27-17-302. Sheriff's return of execution. The sheriff shall file the notice, undertaking, and affidavit, with his proceedings thereon, with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending within 20 days after taking the property mentioned therein.

History: En. Sec. 110, p. 153, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 127, p. 51, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 169, p. 79, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 169, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 171, 1st Div. Comp. 27-17-303. Exception to plaintiff's sureties — justification — liability of sheriff. The defendant may, within 2 days after service of a copy of the affidavit and undertaking, give notice to the sheriff that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fails to do so, he shall be deemed to have waived all objections to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties must justify on notice in like manner as upon bail on arrest; and the sheriff is responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties until the objection to them is waived, as above provided, or until they justify. If the defendant except to the sureties, he cannot claim the property, as provided in 27-17-304.

History: En. Sec. 103, p. 152, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 120, p. 50, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 158, p. 76, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 158, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 160, 1st Div. Comp. 27-17-304. When defendant may require return of property — his undertaking. At any time before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may, if he does not except to the sureties of the plaintiff, require the return thereof upon giving to the sheriff a written undertaking, executed by two or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property, as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may, for any cause, be recovered against the defendant.

History: En. Sec. 104, p. 152, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 121, p. 50, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 163, p. 78, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 163, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 165, 1st Div. Comp. Sec. 9229, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-4110(part).

27-17-305. Return of part of the property. Where the plaintiff's affidavit states separately the value of one or more chattels or classes of chattels, the defendant may require, as prescribed in this chapter, the return of any or all of the chattels or classes of chattels the value of which is thus stated or of the portion thereof which has been taken.

History: En. Sec. 856, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6638, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9236, R.C.M. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9236, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-4117(part).

27-17-306. Justification of defendant's sureties — liability of sheriff. The defendant's sureties, upon notice to the plaintiff of not less than 2 or more than 5 days, shall justify before the judge or clerk in the same manner as upon bail on arrest, and upon such justification the sheriff must deliver the property to the defendant. The sheriff shall be responsible for the defendant's sureties until they justify or until the justification is completed or expressly waived and may retain the property until that time; but if they or others in their place fail to justify at the time or place appointed, he shall deliver the property to the plaintiff.

If, within 15 days from the service of any such demand in writing on the secured party by any creditor of the debtor, the secured party shall fail, refuse, or neglect to file the affidavit herein required, the security agreement shall be of no force or effect as against such creditor upon the seizure of any such personal property on attachment.

(2) In the event the amount shown to be due is paid to the county treasurer or to a filing officer, as aforesaid, or to the secured party in satisfaction of the security agreement by any attaching creditor against the debtor, the secured party shall be required to surrender to the county treasurer or such filing officer the security agreement and any note or other evidence of indebtedness secured thereby, which security agreement or other evidence of indebtedness shall be delivered by the secured party, county treasurer, or filing officer to the attaching creditor.

The defendant may also be required to attend for the purpose of giving information respecting his property and may be examined on oath. The court or judge may, after such examination, order personal property capable of manual delivery in the hands or under the control of such person or of the defendant to be delivered to the sheriff on such terms as may be just, having reference to any liens thereon or claims against the same, and a memorandum to be given of all other personal property, containing the amount and description thereof.

(1) The sheriff must make a full inventory of the property attached and return the same with the writ. When the sheriff has levied several writs of attachment on the same property, only one inventory must be made.

(2) To enable him to make such return as to debts and credits attached, he must request, at the time of service, the person owing the debt or having the credit to give him the memorandum, stating the amount and description of each; and if such memorandum be refused, the sheriff may apply upon 1 day's notice to the court or judge for an order to compel such memorandum to be given. 27-18-701. Right to hearing following seizure without notice — notice of right. When a writ has been issued upon real property or upon the showing specified in 27-18-205(3)(b)(ii), the defendant may challenge the seizure of the property at a hearing before the court to be held within 3 days after the seizure. Notice of the right to a postseizure hearing shall be served personally on the defendant, or if the defendant cannot be found for personal service, notice shall be posted on the property and in three public places in the county where the property is located.

27-18-702. When writ quashed. At such hearing the defendant may challenge the merit of the underlying action, the need for the prejudgment seizure of property, or both. The writ shall be quashed if the court makes a preliminary finding that:

(1) the plaintiff cannot establish the prima facie validity of his claim; or

(2) the plaintiff cannot establish by a preponderance of the evidence the need for the continued attachment of the defendant's property.

27-18-711. Motion to discharge writ improperly issued. The defendant may also, at any time either before or after the release of the attached property or before any attachment shall have been actually levied, apply on motion, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, to the court in which the action is brought or to a judge thereof that the writ of attachment be discharged on the ground that the same was improperly or irregularly issued.

The court or judge making the order may fix the sum for which the undertaking shall be executed, and if necessary in fixing such sum to know the value of the property released, the same may be appraised by one or more disinterested persons to be appointed for that purpose. The sureties may be required to justify before the court or judge, and the property attached cannot be released without their justification, if the same be required.

General Provisions

27-19-101. Definition of injunction — by whom granted. An injunction is an order requiring a person to refrain from a particular act. The order may be granted by the court in which the action is brought or by a judge thereof and, when made by a judge, be enforced as the order of the court.

History: En. Sec. 82, p. 58, Bannack Stat.; amd. Sec. 111, p. 154, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 128, p. 52, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 170, p. 79, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 170, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. 27-19-102. When final injunction may be granted to prevent breach of obligation. Except where otherwise provided by the provisions of the code governing specific and preventive relief (chapter 1, part 4, of this title and Title 28, chapter 2, parts 16 and 17), a final injunction may be granted to prevent the breach of an obligation existing in favor of the applicant where:

(1) pecuniary compensation would not afford adequate relief;

(2) it would be extremely difficult to ascertain the amount of compensation which would afford adequate relief;

(3) the restraint is necessary to prevent a multiplicity of judicial proceedings; or

(4) the obligation arises from a trust.

History: En. Sec. 4462, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6120, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9241, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3422; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1911; re-en. Sec. 9241, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-4202.

27-19-103. When injunction may not be granted. An injunction cannot be granted:

(1) to stay a judicial proceeding pending at the commencement of an action in which the injunction is demanded, unless such restraint is necessary to prevent a multiplicity of such proceedings;

(2) to stay proceedings in a court of the United States;

(3) to stay proceedings in another state upon a judgment of a court of that state;

(4) to prevent the execution of a public statute by officers of the law for the public benefit;

(5) to prevent the breach of a contract the performance of which would not be specifically enforced;

(6) to prevent the exercise of a public or private office, in a lawful manner, by the person in possession;

(7) to prevent a legislative act by a municipal corporation;

(8) in labor disputes under any other or different circumstances or conditions than if the controversy were of another or different character or between parties neither or none of whom were laborers or interested in labor questions.

27-19-104. Contents of complaint — action for injunction by an association. Whenever an action for injunctive relief is initiated by a citizens' group or other public interest association and it appears by the complaint that there is an injury to a property or civil right of individual members of the association, which injury is distinguishable from an injury to the public generally, the names and addresses of injured members and a statement of the injury shall be provided in the complaint. An injunction may not be granted unless such information is provided in the complaint.

27-19-105. Form and scope of injunction or restraining order. An order granting an injunction or a restraining order shall:

(1) set forth the reasons for its issuance;

(2) be specific in its terms;

(3) describe in reasonable detail, and not by reference to the complaint or any other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained; and

(4) be binding only upon the parties to the action; their officers, agents, employees, and attorneys; and those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 399, L. 1979.

Part 2

Availability of Preliminary Injunction

27-19-201. When preliminary injunction may be granted. An injunction order may be granted in the following cases:

(1) when it shall appear that the applicant is entitled to the relief demanded and such relief or any part thereof consists in restraining the commission or continuance of the act complained of, either for a limited period or perpetually;

(2) when it shall appear that the commission or continuance of some act during the litigation would produce a great or irreparable injury to the applicant;

(3) when it shall appear during the litigation that the adverse party is doing or threatens or is about to do or is procuring or suffering to be done some act in violation of the applicant's rights, respecting the subject of the action, and tending to render the judgment ineffectual;

(4) when it appears that the adverse party, during the pendency of the action, threatens or is about to remove or to dispose of his property with intent to defraud the applicant, an injunction order may be granted to restrain the removal or disposition;

(5) when it appears the applicant has suffered or may suffer physical abuse by a spouse under the provisions of 40-4-106.

Compiler's Comments

1981 Amendment: Inserted subsection (5) relating to physical abuse by a spouse.

Preamble: The preamble to HB 405 (Ch. 180, L. 1981) provided:

"WHEREAS, former Governor Judge appointed a task force to recommend ways in which spouse abuse could be stopped; and

WHEREAS, spouse abuse weakens the dignity and integrity of the family unit, and the state therefore has a substantial interest in aiding spouse abuse victims through the enforcement of state laws; and

WHEREAS, the task force recognized that the state's current laws on obtaining injunctions and restraining orders are not providing adequate protection to some spouse abuse victims and their families.

THEREFORE, it is the intent of this act to grant spouse abuse victims extraordinary relief in the form of preliminary injunctions and temporary restraining orders."

27-19-202. Preliminary injunction pending action for restraint of trade. Whenever any action, either civil or criminal, shall have been instituted in court in this state against any person for price fixing or regulating the production of any article of commerce or of the product of the soil, for consumption by the people, the court in which such action is pending is authorized to issue an injunction to restrain any such person from doing business in this state pending the final determination of said action so instituted.

27-19-203. Preliminary injunction pending action by public service commission. Such a restraining order may prohibit the respondent and his agents, employees, licensees, and assignees from acting in the manner complained of in the proceeding before the commission until the commission has rendered its decision in the matter. The restraining order may include an order to show cause why the order should not become an injunction for the duration of the proceeding before the commission.

27-19-306. Security for damages. (1) On granting an injunction or restraining order, the court or judge shall require a written undertaking to be given by the applicant, in such sum as the court considers proper, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. The undertaking may not be required in domestic disputes or when the state or a state agency, a county or subdivision thereof, or a municipal corporation is the party seeking the injunction or restraining order. In any case, the court in its discretion may waive the undertaking in the interest of justice.

(2) Within 5 days after the service of the injunction, the party enjoined may except to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fails to do so, he waives all objections to them. When excepted to, the applicant's sureties, upon notice to the party enjoined of not less than 2 or more than 5 days, must justify before a judge or clerk in the same manner as upon bail on arrest. If they fail to justify or if others in their place fail to justify at the time and place appointed, the order granting the injunction must be dissolved.

27-19-318. Application for injunction to be heard without delay. The persons executing the new undertaking become liable thereon as if they had executed it upon the granting of the original order. The persons who executed the original undertaking remain liable thereon until the new undertaking is given and approved, and no longer.

27-19-404. When injunction dissolved or modified. 27-19-405. Enjoined party's undertaking for security upon dissolution. Part 2

Appointment Procedure

27-20-201. Notice of application for appointment before judgment. Notice of an application for the appointment of a receiver in an action before judgment therein must be given to the adverse party unless he has failed to appear in the action and the time limited for his appearance has expired or unless it shall appear to the court that there is immediate danger that the property or fund will be removed beyond the jurisdiction of the court or lost, materially injured, destroyed, or unlawfully disposed of.

If a receiver be appointed upon an ex parte application, the court, before making the order, may require from the applicant an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, in an amount to be fixed by the court, to the effect that the applicant will pay to the defendant all damages he may sustain by reason of the appointment of such receiver and the entry by him upon his duties, in case the applicant shall have procured such appointment wrongfully, maliciously, or without sufficient cause; and the court may, in its discretion, at any time after said appointment, require an additional undertaking.

In case of persistence in a refusal of obedience, the court may order the party to be imprisoned until the writ is obeyed and may make any orders necessary and proper for the complete enforcement of the writ.

(1) If an answer is made which raises a question as to a matter of fact essential to the determination of the motion and affecting the substantial rights of the parties, and upon the supposed truth of the allegation of which the application for the writ is based, the court or judge may, in its or his discretion, order the question to be tried before a jury and postpone the argument until the trial can be had. The question to be tried must be distinctly stated in the order for trial. The order may also direct the jury to assess any damages which the applicant may have sustained if it finds for him.

(2) If the proceeding is in the district court or before a district judge, the trial must take place as in other cases. If a jury is required in the supreme court, a jury must be drawn and selected from the jury box of Lewis and Clark County and the clerk of the district court of that county shall place the box in the custody of the clerk of the supreme court for that purpose. The conduct of the trial must be the same as in the district court, and the clerk of the supreme court has the same authority to issue process and enter orders and judgments as the district court clerk has in like cases.

27-27-104. Application of procedure governing mandamus.

General Provisions

27-27-101. Definition and function of writ of prohibition. The writ of prohibition is the counterpart of the writ of mandate. It arrests the proceedings of any tribunal, corporation, board, or person, whether exercising functions judicial or ministerial, when such proceedings are without or in excess of the jurisdiction of such tribunal, corporation, board, or person.

History: En. Sec. 561, p. 184, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 561, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 579, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; amd. Sec. 1980, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7227, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9861, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1102; re-en. Sec. 9861, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 93-9201.

27-27-102. Issuance of writ. The same may be issued by the supreme court or the district court or any district judge to any inferior tribunal or to a corporation, board, or person in all cases where there is not a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. It is issued upon affidavit on the application of the person beneficially interested.

History: En. Sec. 562, p. 184, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 562, 1st Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 580, 1st Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; amd. Sec. 1981, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7228, Rev. 27-27-103. Form and content of writ. The writ must be either alternative or peremptory. The alternative writ must state generally the allegation against the party to whom it is directed and command such party to desist or refrain from further proceedings in the action or matter specified therein until the further order of the court or judge from which it is issued and to show cause before such court or judge, at a specified time and place, why such party should not be absolutely restrained from any further proceedings in such action or matter. The peremptory writ must be in a similar form, except that the words requiring the party to show cause why he should not be absolutely restrained, etc., must be omitted and a return day inserted.

28-1-1224. Custody of thing other than money. The person offering a thing other than money by way of performance must, if he means to treat it as belonging to the creditor, retain it as a depositary for hire until the creditor accepts it or until he has given reasonable notice to the creditor that he will retain it no longer and, if with reasonable diligence he can find a suitable depositary therefor, until he has deposited it with such person.

Part 13

Prevention of Performance

28-1-1301. When delay or failure to perform or offer to perform excused. The want of performance of an obligation or of an offer of performance, in whole or in part, or any delay therein is excused by the following causes, to the extent to which they operate:

(1) when such performance or offer is prevented or delayed by the act of the creditor or by the operation of law, even though there may have been a stipulation that this shall not be an excuse;

(2) when it is prevented or delayed by an irresistible, superhuman cause or by the act of public enemies of this state or of the United States, unless the parties have expressly agreed to the contrary; or

(3) when the debtor is induced not to make it by any act of the creditor intended or naturally tending to have that effect, done at or before the time at which such performance or offer may be made, and not rescinded before that time.

28-1-1302. Effect when performance prevented by creditor. If the performance of an obligation be prevented by the creditor, the debtor is entitled to all the benefits which he would have obtained if it had been performed by both parties.

History: En. Sec. 2051, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4951, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7453, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1512; Field Civ. C. Sec. 728; re-en. Sec. 7453, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-430.

28-1-1303. Effect when performance prevented by other causes. If full performance of an obligation is prevented by any cause excusing performance other than the act of the creditor, the debtor is entitled to a ratable proportion of the consideration to which he would have been entitled upon full performance, according to the benefit which the creditor receives from the actual performance.

History: En. Sec. 2052, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4952, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7454, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1514; re-en. Sec. 7454, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-431; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 117, L. 1979.

28-1-1304. Effect of refusal to accept performance before offer. A refusal by a creditor to accept performance, made before an offer thereof, is equivalent to an offer and refusal unless, before performance is actually due, he gives notice to the debtor of his willingness to accept it.

History: En. Sec. 2053, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4953, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7455, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1515; Field Civ. C. Sec. 731; re-en. Sec. 7455, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-432.

Accord and Satisfaction

28-1-1401. Accord — definition and effect. An accord is an agreement to accept in extinction of an obligation something different from or less than that to which the person agreeing to accept is entitled. Though the parties to an accord are bound to execute it, yet it does not extinguish the obligation until it is fully executed.

History: Ap. p. Sec. 2060, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4954, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7456, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1521; Based on Field Civ. C. Sec. 732; re-en. 28-1-1402. Satisfaction — definition and effect. Acceptance by the creditor of the consideration of an accord extinguishes the obligation and is called satisfaction.

History: En. Sec. 2062, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4956, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7458, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1523; Field Civ. C. Sec. 734; re-en. Sec. 7458, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-503.

28-1-1403. When part performance extinguishes obligation. Part performance of an obligation, either before or after a breach thereof, when expressly accepted by the creditor in writing in satisfaction or rendered in pursuance of an agreement in writing for that purpose, though without any new consideration, extinguishes the obligation.

History: En. Sec. 2063, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4957, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7459, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1524; re-en. Sec. 7459, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-504.

History: En. Sec. 2070, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4958, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7460, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1530; Field Civ. C. Sec. 736; re-en. Sec. 7460, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-505.

28-1-1502. Kinds of novation. Novation is made by the substitution of:

(1) a new obligation between the same parties with intent to extinguish the old obligation;

(2) a new debtor in place of the old one with intent to release the latter; or

(3) a new creditor in place of the old one with intent to transfer the rights of the latter to the former.

History: En. Sec. 2071, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4959, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7461, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1531; Field Civ. C. Sec. 737; re-en. Sec. 7461, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-506.

28-1-1503. How novation accomplished. Novation is made by contract and is subject to all the rules concerning contracts in general.

History: En. Sec. 2072, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4960, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7462, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1532; Field Civ. C. Sec. 738; re-en. Sec. 7462, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-507.

28-1-1504. When acceptance of novation may be rescinded. When the obligation of a third person or an order upon such person is accepted in satisfaction, the creditor may rescind such acceptance if:

(1) the debtor prevents such person from complying with the order or from fulfilling the obligation;

(2) at the time the obligation or order is received, such person is insolvent and the fact is unknown to the creditor; or

(3) before the creditor can, with reasonable diligence, present the order to the person upon whom it is given, he becomes insolvent.

History: En. Sec. 2073, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4961, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7463, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1533; Based on Field Civ. C. Sec. 740; re-en. Sec. 7463, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-508.

Part 16

Release of Debtor by Creditor

28-1-1601. Extinction of obligation by a release. An obligation is extinguished by a release therefrom given to the debtor by the creditor upon a new consideration or in writing, with or without new consideration.

History: En. Sec. 2080, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4962, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7464, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1541; Based on Field Civ. C. Sec. 741; re-en. Sec. 7464, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-509.

28-1-1602. What claims survive general release. A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which, if known by him, must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor.

History: En. Sec. 2081, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4963, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7465, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1542; Based on Field Civ. C. Sec. 742; re-en. Sec. 7465, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-510.

28-1-1603. Effect of release of some but not all joint debtors. A release of one of two or more joint debtors does not extinguish the obligation of any of the others unless they are mere guarantors, nor does it affect their rights to contribution from him.

History: En. Sec. 2082, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 4964, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7466, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1543; Field Civ. C. Sec. 743; re-en. Sec. 7466, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 58-511.

Consideration

28-2-801. What constitutes good consideration. Any benefit conferred or agreed to be conferred upon the promisor by any other person, to which the promisor is not lawfully entitled, or any prejudice suffered or agreed to be suffered by such person, other than such as he is at the time of consent lawfully bound to suffer, as an inducement to the promisor is a good consideration for a promise.

28-2-802. Extent to which existing legal or moral obligation is good consideration. An existing legal obligation resting upon the promisor, a moral obligation originating in some benefit conferred upon the promisor, or prejudice suffered by the promisee is also a good consideration for a promise to an extent corresponding with the extent of the obligation, but no further or otherwise.

History: En. Sec. 2161, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5002, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7504, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1606; Field Civ. C. Sec. 781; re-en. Sec. 7504, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-502.

28-2-803. Consideration to be lawful — effect of illegality. The consideration of a contract must be lawful within the meaning of 28-2-701. If any part of a single consideration for one or more objects or of several considerations for a single object is unlawful, the entire contract is void.

History: En. Secs. 2162, 2163, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Secs. 5003, 5004, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Secs. 7505, 7506, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Secs. 1607, 1608; Field Civ. C. Secs. 782, 783; re-en. Sec. 7505, 7506, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-503, 13-504.

28-2-805. Burden of proof of want of consideration. The burden of showing a want of consideration sufficient to support an instrument lies with the party seeking to invalidate or avoid it.

History: En. Sec. 2170, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5011, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7513, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1615; re-en. Sec. 7513, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-511.

28-2-806 through 28-2-810 reserved.

28-2-811. Applicability of rules concerning object to executory consideration. A consideration may be executed or executory, in whole or in part. Insofar as it is executory, it is subject to the provisions of part 6 of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 2164, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5005, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7507, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1609; Field Civ. C. Sec. 784; re-en. Sec. 7507, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-505.

28-2-812. How amount of executory consideration may be determined. When a consideration is executory, it is not indispensable that the contract should specify its amount or the means of ascertaining it. It may be left to the decision of a third person or regulated by any specified standard.

28-2-813. Determination by interested party. When a contract does not determine the amount of the consideration or the method by which it is to be ascertained or when it leaves the amount thereof to the discretion of an interested party, the consideration must be so much money as the object of the contract is reasonably worth.

History: En. Sec. 2166, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5007, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7509, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1611; Field Civ. C. Sec. 786; re-en. Sec. 7509, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-507.

28-2-814. Effect of impossibility of designated exclusive method of determination. (1) Where a contract provides an exclusive method by which its consideration is to be ascertained, which method is on its face impossible of execution, the entire contract is void.

(2) Where a contract provides an exclusive method by which its consideration is to be ascertained, which method appears possible on its face but in fact is or becomes impossible of execution, such provision only is void.

28-2-902. Enforcement of contract not in writing through fraud. (2) Evidence of an agreement described in (a) through (d) of subsection (1) is not admissible without the writing or secondary evidence of its contents.

28-2-1712. When stipulation against rescission ineffective. A stipulation that errors of description shall not avoid a contract or shall be the subject of compensation, or both, does not take away the right of rescission for fraud or for mistake where such mistake is in a matter essential to the inducement of the contract and is not capable of exact and entire compensation.

History: En. Sec. 2272, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5064, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7566, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1690; Field Civ. C. Sec. 840; re-en. Sec. 7566, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-904.

28-2-1713. How rescission accomplished. Rescission, when not effected by consent, can be accomplished only by the use on the part of the party rescinding of reasonable diligence to comply with the following rules:

(1) He must rescind promptly upon discovering the facts which entitle him to rescind if he is free from duress, menace, undue influence, or disability and is aware of his right to rescind.

(2) He must restore to the other party everything of value which he has received from him under the contract or must offer to restore the same, upon condition that such party shall do likewise, unless the latter is unable or positively refuses to do so.

History: En. Sec. 2273, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5065, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7567, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1691; Field Civ. C. Sec. 841; re-en. Sec. 7567, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-905.

28-2-1714. When rescission may be adjudged. The rescission of a written contract may be adjudged on the application of a party aggrieved:

(1) in any of the cases mentioned in 28-2-1711;

(2) where the contract is unlawful for causes not apparent upon its face and the parties were not equally in fault; or

(3) when the public interest will be prejudiced by permitting it to stand.

History: En. Sec. 4440, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6112, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8730, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3406; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1903; re-en. Sec. 8730, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 17-905.

28-2-1715. When rescission may be adjudged for mistake. Rescission cannot be adjudged for mere mistake unless the party against whom it is adjudged can be restored to substantially the same position as if the contract had not been made.

History: En. Sec. 4441, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6113, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8731, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3407; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1904; re-en. Sec. 8731, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 17-906.

28-2-1716. Power of court to require party rescinding to do equity. On adjudging the rescission of a contract, the court may require the party to whom such relief is granted to make any compensation or restoration to the other which justice may require.

History: En. Sec. 4442, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6114, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8732, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 3408; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1905; re-en. Sec. 8732, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 17-907.

General Provisions

28-3-101. Rules of interpretation to be uniform. All contracts, whether public or private, are to be interpreted by the same rules, except as otherwise provided by this code.

History: En. Sec. 2200, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5024, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7526, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1635; Field Civ. C. Sec. 800; re-en. Sec. 7526, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-701.

28-3-102. What law and usage to govern interpretation. A contract is to be interpreted according to the law and usage of the place where it is to be performed or, if it does not indicate a place of performance, according to the law and usage of the place where it is made.

History: En. Sec. 2211, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5035, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7537, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1646; Field Civ. C. Sec. 811; re-en. Sec. 7537, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-712.

Part 2

General Rules of Interpretation

28-3-201. Interpretation giving effect to contract favored. A contract must receive such an interpretation as will make it lawful, operative, definite, reasonable, and capable of being carried into effect if it can be done without violating the intention of the parties.

History: En. Sec. 2208, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5032, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7534, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1643; Field Civ. C. Sec. 808; re-en. Sec. 7534, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-709.

28-3-202. Effect to be given to every part of contract. The whole of a contract is to be taken together so as to give effect to every part if reasonably practicable, each clause helping to interpret the other.

History: En. Sec. 2206, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5030, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7532, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1641; Field Civ. C. Sec. 806; re-en. Sec. 7532, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-707.

28-3-203. When several contracts taken together. Several contracts relating to the same matters, between the same parties, and made as parts of substantially one transaction are to be taken together.

History: En. Sec. 2207, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5031, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7533, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1642; Field Civ. C. Sec. 807; re-en. Sec. 7533, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-708.

28-3-204. How repugnancies reconciled. Repugnancies in a contract must be reconciled, if possible, by such an interpretation as will give some effect to the repugnant clauses, subordinate to the general intent and purpose of the whole contract.

History: En. Sec. 2217, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5041, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7543, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1652; Field Civ. C. Sec. 817; re-en. Sec. 7543, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-718.

28-3-205. Written or original terms to control printed terms. Where a contract is partly written and partly printed or where part of it is written or printed under the special directions of the parties and with a special view to their intention and the remainder is copied from a form originally prepared without special reference to the particular parties and the particular contract in question, the written parts control the printed parts and the parts which are purely original control those which are copied from a form and, if the two are absolutely repugnant, the latter must be so far disregarded.

28-3-206. Uncertainty to be resolved against party causing it. In cases of uncertainty not removed by parts 1 through 5 of this chapter, the language of a contract should be interpreted most strongly against the party who caused the uncertainty to exist. The promisor is presumed to be such party, except that in the case of a contract between a public officer or body, as such, and a private party, it is presumed that all uncertainty was caused by the private party.

Intention of the Parties

28-3-301. Interpretation to give effect to mutual intention. A contract must be so interpreted as to give effect to the mutual intention of the parties as it existed at the time of contracting, so far as the same is ascertainable and lawful.

History: En. Sec. 2201, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5025, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7527, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1636; Field Civ. C. Sec. 801; re-en. Sec. 7527, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-702.

28-3-302. How intention ascertained. For the purpose of ascertaining the intention of the parties to a contract, if otherwise doubtful, the rules given in this chapter are to be applied.

28-3-303. Writing generally to determine intention. When a contract is reduced to writing, the intention of the parties is to be ascertained from the writing alone if possible, subject, however, to the other provisions of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 2204, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5028, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7530, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1639; Field Civ. C. Sec. 804; re-en. Sec. 7530, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-705.

28-3-304. When writing disregarded. When through fraud, mistake, or accident a written contract fails to express the real intention of the parties, such intention is to be regarded and the erroneous parts of the writing disregarded.

History: En. Sec. 2205, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5029, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7531, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1640; Field Civ. C. Sec. 805; re-en. Sec. 7531, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-706.

28-3-305. Contract restricted to its apparent objects. However broad may be the terms of a contract, it extends only to those things concerning which it appears that the parties intended to contract.

28-3-306. Interpretation of terms that are ambiguous or were intended in a different sense by different parties. (1) If the terms of a promise are in any respect ambiguous or uncertain, it must be interpreted in the sense in which the promisor believed, at the time of making it, that the promisee understood it.

(2) When the terms of an agreement have been intended in a different sense by different parties to it, that sense is to prevail against either party in which he supposed the other understood it; and when different constructions of a provision are otherwise equally proper, that is to be taken which is most favorable to the party in whose favor the provision was made.

History: (1)En. Sec. 2214, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5038, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7540, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1649; Field Civ. C. Sec. 814; re-en. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7881, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10525, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1864; re-en. Sec. 10525, R.C.M. 1935; Sec. 93-401-21, R.C.M. 1947; R.C.M. 1947, 13-715, 93-401-21.

28-3-307. Particular clauses subordinate to general intent. Particular clauses of a contract are subordinate to its general intent.

Part 4

Factors Considered in Determining Intention

28-3-401. Extent to which language governs interpretation. The language of a contract is to govern its interpretation if the language is clear and explicit and does not involve an absurdity.

History: En. Sec. 2203, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5027, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7529, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1638; Field Civ. C. Sec. 803; re-en. Sec. 7529, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-704.

Part 5

Interpretation of Words

28-3-501. Words generally understood in their ordinary sense. The words of a contract are to be understood in their ordinary and popular sense rather than according to their strict legal meaning unless used by the parties in a technical sense or unless a special meaning is given to them by usage, in which case the latter must be followed.

History: En. Sec. 2209, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5033, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7535, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1644; Field Civ. C. Sec. 809; re-en. Sec. 7535, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-710.

Part 6

Time of Performance

28-3-601. Time of performance when not specified. If no time is specified for the performance of an act required to be performed, a reasonable time is allowed. If the act is in its nature capable of being done instantly (for example, if it consists in the payment of money only), it must be performed immediately upon the thing to be done being exactly ascertained.

History: En. Sec. 2222, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5046, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7548, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1657; Field Civ. C. Sec. 822; re-en. Sec. 7548, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-723.

28-3-603. Postponement of performance date which falls on holiday. Whenever any act of a secular nature other than a work of necessity or mercy is appointed by contract to be performed upon a particular day which day falls upon a holiday, such act may be performed upon the next business day with the same effect as if it had been performed upon the day appointed.

Part 7

Provisions Implied by Law

28-3-701. Stipulations necessary for reasonableness or conformity to usage. Stipulations which are necessary to make a contract reasonable or conformable to usage are implied in respect to matters concerning which the contract manifests no contrary intention.

History: En. Sec. 2220, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5044, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7546, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1655; Field Civ. C. Sec. 820; re-en. Sec. 7546, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-721.

28-3-702. Necessary and incidental terms. All things that in law or usage are considered as incidental to a contract or as necessary to carry it into effect are implied therefrom unless some of them are expressly mentioned therein, in which case all other things of the same class are considered to be excluded.

History: En. Sec. 2221, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5045, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 7547, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1656; Field Civ. C. Sec. 821; re-en. Sec. 7547, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 13-722; amd. Sec. 27, Ch. 117, L. 1979.

28-3-703. When promise presumed to be joint and several. (1) Where all the parties who unite in a promise receive some benefit from the consideration, whether past or present, their promise is presumed to be joint and several.

28-3-704. Contractual right to attorney fees treated as reciprocal. Whenever, by virtue of the provisions of any contract or obligation in the nature of a contract made and entered into at any time after July 1, 1971, one party to such contract or obligation has an express right to recover attorney fees from any other party to the contract or obligation in the event the party having that right shall bring an action upon the contract or obligation, then in any action on such contract or obligation all parties to the contract or obligation shall be deemed to have the same right to recover attorney fees and the prevailing party in any such action, whether by virtue of the express contractual right or by virtue of this section, shall be entitled to recover his reasonable attorney fees from the losing party or parties.

Where a guaranty is entered into at the same time with the original obligation or with the acceptance of the latter by the guarantee and forms with that obligation a part of the consideration to him, no other consideration need exist. In all other cases, there must be a consideration distinct from that of the original obligation.

History: En. Sec. 3610, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5658, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8173, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2792; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1536; re-en. Sec. 8173, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 30-103.

(3) where the promise, being for an antecedent obligation of another, is made upon a consideration:

(a) that the party receiving it cancels the antecedent obligation, accepting the new promise as a substitute therefor;

(b) that the party receiving it releases the property of another from a levy; or

(c) beneficial to the promisor, whether moving from either party to the antecedent obligation or from another person;

28-11-106. When notice of acceptance necessary to bind guarantor. A mere offer of guaranty is not binding until notice of its acceptance is communicated by the guarantee to the guarantor, but an absolute guaranty is binding upon the guarantor without notice of acceptance.

History: En. Sec. 3613, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5661, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8176, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2795; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1539; re-en. Sec. 8176, R.C.M. 1935; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 185, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 30-106.

Guaranty — Liability and Exoneration of Guarantor

28-11-201. Obligation of guarantor not to exceed that of principal. The obligation of a guarantor must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal, and if in its terms it exceeds it, it is reducible in proportion to the principal obligation.

History: En. Sec. 3633, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5669, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8184, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2809; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1547; re-en. Sec. 8184, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 30-204.

28-11-202. Liability under guaranty of incomplete contract. In a guaranty of a contract the terms of which are not then settled, it is implied that its terms shall be such as will not expose the guarantor to greater risks than he would incur under those terms which are most common in similar contracts at the place where the principal contract is to be performed.

History: En. Sec. 3620, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5662, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8177, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2799; Field. Civ. C. Sec. 1540; re-en. Sec. 8177, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 30-107.

28-11-203. Liability under guaranty of illegal contract or contract void against principal. A guarantor is not liable if the contract of the principal is unlawful, but he is liable notwithstanding any mere personal disability of the principal, though the disability be such as to make the contract void against the principal.

History: En. Sec. 3634, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5670, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8185, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2810; Field Civ. C. Sec. 1548; re-en. Sec. 8185, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 30-205.

28-11-204. Liability under guaranty that obligation is good or collectable. (1) A guaranty to the effect that an obligation is good or is collectable imports that the debtor is solvent and that the demand is collectable by the usual legal proceedings if taken with reasonable diligence.

(2) A guaranty such as is mentioned in subsection (1) is not discharged by an omission to take proceedings upon the principal debt or upon any collateral security for its payment if no part of the debt could have been collected thereby.

(3) In the case mentioned in subsection (1), the removal of the principal from the state, leaving no property therein from which the obligation might be satisfied, is equivalent to the insolvency of the principal in its effect upon the rights and obligations of the guarantor.

History: En. Secs. 3621, 3622, 3623, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Secs. 5663, 5664, 5665, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Secs. 8178, 8179, 8180, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Secs. 2800, 2801, 2802; Field Civ. C. Secs. 1541, 1542, 1543; re-en. Secs. 8178, 8179, 8180, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 30-108, 30-109, 30-110.

28-11-205. When guarantor of payment or performance becomes liable. A guarantor of payment or performance is liable to the guarantee immediately upon the default of the principal and without demand or notice.

28-11-206. Liability upon guaranty of conditional obligation — notice of default. Where one guarantees a conditional obligation, his liability is commensurate with that of the principal and he is not entitled to notice of the default of the principal unless he is unable, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, to acquire information of such default and the creditor has actual notice thereof.

History: En. Sec. 3632, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 5668, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8183, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 2808; Field Civ. C. Sec 1546; re-en. Sec. 8183, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 30-203.

28-11-211. When guarantor exonerated. (1) A guarantor is exonerated, except so far as he may be indemnified by the principal, if by any act of the creditor without the consent of the guarantor the original obligation of the principal is altered in any respect or the remedies or rights of the creditor against the principal in respect thereto are in any way impaired or suspended.

(2) A promise by a creditor which for any cause is void or voidable by him at his option does not alter the obligation or suspend or impair the remedy within the meaning of subsection (1).

History: En. Secs. 3650, 3651, Civ. C. 1895; re-en. Secs. 5673, 5674, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Secs. 8188, 8189, R.C.M. 1921; Cal. Civ. C. Secs. 2819, 2820; Field Civ. C. Secs. 1551, 1552; re-en. Secs. 8188, 8189, R.C.M. 1935; R.C.M. 1947, 30-208, 30-209.

28-11-212. Rescission of alteration — liability not restored. The rescission of an agreement altering the original obligation of a debtor or impairing the remedy of a creditor does not restore the liability of a guarantor who has been exonerated by such agreement.
